Canada's Liberal Offer of Wheat Land to Settlers

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

is open to you—to every farmer or farmer's son who is anxious to establish for himself a happy home and prosperity. Canada's hearty invitation this year is more attractive than ever. Wheat is much higher but her fertile farm land just as cheap, and in the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta

160 Acre Homesteads Are Actually Free to Settlers and Other Land Sold at from $15 to $20 per Acre

The great demand for Canadian Wheat will keep up the price. Where a farmer can get near $2 for wheat and raise 20 to 45 bushels to the acre he is bound to make money—that's what you can expect in Western Canada. Wonderful yields also of Oats, Barley and Flax. Mixed Farming in Western Canada is fully as profitable an industry as grain raising.

The excellent grasses, full of nutrition, are the only food required either for beef or dairy purposes. Good schools, churches, markets convenient, climate excellent. Military service is not compulsory in Canada but there is an unusual demand for farm labor to replace the many young men who have volunteered for the war. Can't Loose Hair

Twenty Years from Today a Baldheaded Man will be an Unusual Sight

One of the most prominent druggists of America made a statement a few weeks ago which has caused a great deal of discussion among scientists in the medical press. He said: If the new hair grower, Mildredina Hair Remedy, increases its sales as it has during the past year, it will be used by nearly every man, woman and child in America within 8 years.

When Mildredina Hair Remedy is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years from now a bald will be a rarity.

There is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the germs. There is only one hair preparation that will kill the germs and that is Mildredina Hair Remedy. This unusual hair restorer with its record of thousands of cures will grow hair on any head where there is any life left; it will cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp in three weeks or money back. It is the most pleasant and invigorating tonic, is not not sticky nor greasy and is used extensively by ladies of refinement who desire to have and to keep their hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant. Fifty cents for a large bottle of druggists everywhere. Mail orders filled by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass.

CUT THIS OUT

FREE to show how quickly Mildredina Hair Remedy acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this Coupon to American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass., with their name and address and ten cents in silver to pay postage.

CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE BEGINS RAILWAY INQUIRY

Proposed by President to Better Condition of Carriers.

MAY CHANGE PRESENT SYSTEM

Officials of Roads Prepared to Advocate Federal Incorporation, Supervision of Securities and Extension of Authority of Interstate Commerce Commission.

Washington, Nov. 20.—Ten members of Congress, five Senators and five members of the House of Representatives, began here today an inquiry into the subject of public control and supervision of railroads that may lead to the revolutionizing of the whole scheme of governmental regulation of the country's transportation lines. Incidentally the committee is to look into the question of government ownership of railways, telephone and telegraph lines and express companies.

The members of the committee which will conduct this important investigation are Senator Newlands of Nevada, chairman; Senators Robinson of Arkansas, Underwood of Alabama, Cummins of Iowa and Brandegee of Connecticut, and Representatives Adamson of Georgia, Sims of Tennessee, Cullop of Indiana, Esch of Wisconsin and Hamilton of Michigan. The inquiry was recommended by President Wilson in his message to Congress in December of last year. He described as its purpose to determine what could be done "for bettering the conditions under which the railroads are operated and for making them more useful servants of the country as a whole."

Prominent Men as Witnesses.

In order to obtain the views of all interests affected by the operations of the transportation lines the committee has invited prominent shippers, bankers, representatives of commercial organizations, railway executives, economists and others to appear before them.

The first to be heard are railroad commissioners of various states who began their evidence today. Their testimony is directed chiefly to opposing any enlargement of the federal authority over commerce that would detract from the powers now exercised by state bodies. They will be followed shortly by officials of railway labor organizations who are expected to register their opposition to the increase of governmental authority over wages and conditions of labor.

Chief interest in the hearings centers in the proposals that will be put forward by representatives of the railroads, for it is reported that they will advocate an extension of federal authority over rates and securities to the practical exclusion of state control of these matters. It is understood also that they will go on record in favor of federal incorporation of all railroad lines.

Legislative Program of Railroads.

From an authoritative source is obtained the following outline of the legislative program which the railroads will ask the committee to consider in its investigation. They will endeavor to demonstrate to the commission that one of the principal defects in the present system of railroad regulation is the lack of coordination resulting from the simultaneous and conflicting regulation by the federal government and by the 48 states. They will, therefore, ask that entire governmental control of the rates and practices of interstate carriers, except purely local matters, be placed in the hands of a federal body so that interstate traffic may be regulated without reference to state lines, leaving to the state commissions jurisdiction only over local matters and local public utilities. As a part of this plan, a compulsory system of federal incorporation is to be recommended, accompanied by federal supervision of railroad stock and bond issues.

A reorganization of the Interstate Commerce Commission will be asked in order to enable the commission properly to exercise its increased powers. It is also proposed that the preparation and prosecution of cases against the railroads shall be delegated to some other agency of the government, possibly the Department of Justice, so that the commission may devote its energies to its administrative functions.

With the commission thus relieved of some of its present duties and equipped to handle its business more promptly, the railroads will urge that the period during which the commission may now suspend proposed increases in rates be reduced from ten months to 60 days, with provision for reparation to be paid to the shippers if the advance shall be declared unreasonable.

They will also ask that the commission be given the power to prescribe minimum as well as maximum rates so that in meeting complaints of discrimination the commission may order the advance of a rate which it considers too low.

One of the most important recommendations for which the railroads will ask favorable consideration is that the commission be specifically authorized to take into account in rate regulation the effect of rates upon total earnings in the light of expenses.

While the Newlands Committee is required, under the resolution creating it, to submit a report by January 2 next, it is not anticipated that the Committee will have come anywhere near completing its labors then.

How a Wise Farmer Saves His Machinery

Here it is—a good, up-to-date machine shed on an Iowa farm. It's evident this farmer realizes that rust destroys machinery exposed to the weather. Machines well cared for and kept in a shed when not in use, will last much longer than when left in the open.

We have sold a great deal of material for building machine sheds and other farm buildings. Naturally, we have learned some things that may be profitable for you to know. You are very welcome to this information. This is just a part of our helpful, free service to customers. Come in and let us help you save your machinery from rust.

A Birthday Surprise

Despite the inclemency of the weather, eight ladies responded to an invitation to be present at Mrs. A. L. Carlson's home Wednesday afternoon for a birthday surprise on Mrs. Carlson's mother Mrs. T. Sollom. Mrs. A. L. was assisted by her sister Mrs. Arvid Carlson of Newfolden and by scheming, the daughters contrived and succeeded in getting their mother to come that afternoon. The surprise was complete and it took some time for the Lady of Honor to recover from it. The ladies were then invited to a fine spread, the chief feature being a large birthday cake adorned with 52 candles, the lighting of each was performed bp Mrs. Sollom. After the repast, each lady presented her with a gift which the recipient enjoyed and appreciated very much.

Ninth Meeting of Rosewood Farmers Club. More than eighty people attend

Lovely weather prevails

Debate a success

The ninth meeting of the Rosewood Farmers Club was held at the Rosebank schoolhouse last Friday evening with an attendance of over eighty. Taking advantage of the lovely weather several persons from both Holt and Steiner attended.

The meeting was called to order by vice-president Vorseth taking the presidents place who was absent at 8:45.

The roll was first called and the references read, after which member O. J. Dahl introduced the subject, "Which kind of stock is best suitable for this particulary community?, and the Short Horns and Holsteins received the most favorable comment. Next the question arose what kind will stand this cold climate best? And several members still favored the Short Horns while others seem to favor the Aberdeen Angus. Which is more profitable, diarying or beef raising? was discussed and different opinions was expressed. The meeting was now left to the program committee who rendered the following program:

Song- Flow gently sweet Afton.
Recitation- When Pa begins to shave by John Nakken.
Song- Twilight is falling.
Dialogue- In want of a servant.
Song- Jaunita.
Recitation- Mothers Almanac, By Simon Nakken.
Song- Be Kind.

The debate, "Resolved: That women suffrage is justifiable" was next called and continued for over half an hour. Matt Raftesetha was leader on the affirmative side and Renie Werner of Holt on the negative. The following persons served as judges: Hilda Opseth, Mabel Mellem, Emil Styrlund, J. Regers and William Sorenson. The negative side was victorious with a vote of 4 to 1. Both sides were well studied and many good points brought forth.

It was further decided that the next meeting shall be held at the same place three weeks from date, under the auspices of Harvey Copp, Jerry Rogers and Louis Meyer, as program committee, and Emil Blomberg, E. Schankey and Renie Werner are to take charge of the coffee serving. The question box was opened and questions read. Willie Rux and August Sjade were admitted as members. Meeting was moved to adjourn at 11:25 after which coffee and cake was served. Parlor games were played.

Religious meetings by Rev. O. M. Anderson were conducted at the Bredeson church on Saturday and Sunday and at the A. T. Thoreson home on Saturday evening. All the meetings were well attended.

Messrs John Schromer and Henry Sagmoen high school students of T. R. Falls came home on Thursday morning to spead a few days at their respective parental homes.

FINAL SESSION OF THE SIXTY-FOURTH CONGRESS BEGINS

EPOCH MAKING NATIONAL LEGISLATIVE BODY CONVENES WITH ONLY THREE MONTHS OF ITS LIFE REMAINING.

IMPORTANT PROBLEMS TO DEMAND RAPID WORK

Recurring Crisis in Railroad Situation Must be Met—Legislation Needed to Protect Foreign Trade—Routine Business Rather Than General Legislation Worries House.

Washington, Dec. 4.—Today marked the beginning of the end of the Sixty-fourth congress—an epoch-making national legislative body. With only three months of its life remaining, the congress at noon today opened its final session, confronted with domestic and foreign legislative problems of vast moment.

In the legislative program laid down by President Wilson for the "short session" which ends March 4, time will be the essence of the contract. From the first call of the gavels in the house and senate at noon today the national legislators began a fight against time and a drive for speed.

With Democratic control of the house in the Sixty-fifth congress a matter of grave doubt, the administration is prepared to make every effort to put through its important measures within the next three months and avoid an extra session next spring.

Must Meet Rail Crisis.

Despite the declaration of the house and senate leaders that the short session will barely have time to do the routine work of providing funds for the next fiscal year, the congress is confronted with demands for action along many general legislative lines.

Legislation must be passed, it is felt, to meet the recurring crisis in the railroad labor situation. It has become apparent that the eight-hour law passed in the closing hours of the last session merely postponed the struggle between the railroads and their operating employees.

Investigations by various commissions and committees are already under way seeking a solution of the railroad problem, but with the constitutionality of the eight-hour law under attack in the courts, and the brotherhoods threatening a general strike unless the eight-hour day becomes effective January 1, congress will be forced to act at once, without awaiting the results of the investigations.

Foreign Trade Legislation.

The administration plans for extending American foreign trade and equipping American export commerce for the world trade war that will follow settlement of the European conflict call for extensive legislation. The start on this program has already been made. The house at the last session passed the Webb bill exempting from the operations of the anti-trust laws combinations of American merchants and manufacturers formed for the sole purpose of engaging in the foreign trade. This measure failed to pass the senate, but will be taken up in the upper house at once. Despite strenuous opposition, the bill is expected to become a law.

The administration, through the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, and the federal trade commission, plans a general foreign trade legislative program supplemental to the Webb law, which will demand lengthy consideration.

A complete code of neutrality laws, worked out in detail for the administration by the department of justice is awaiting action in both houses and senate.

Other Matters Pending.

President Wilson's demand for conservation legislation, presented to the congress a year ago, has not yet been satisfied, and work on the conservation program must be continued. The elaborate revision of the general dam act; liberalizing conditions under which water power may be developed on navigable rivers and other waterways under federal jurisdiction, is in dispute between the two houses.

An elaborate bill, closely restricting the use of funds and providing complete publicity of contributions and expenditures by all committees and individuals connected with elections, for president, vice president, senators and representatives was passed by the house during the last session. The measure has the indorsement of the president, and an effort will be made to put it through the senate.

Lots of Work for the House.

Routine business, the big appropriation bills—which must be disposed of before March 4—rather than general legislation, worries the house leaders. Speaker Clark and Chairman Fitzgerald of the appropriations committee served notice on the house that long hours and no vacations were to be the program from the beginning. The appropriations committee, which had been at work for weeks, was ready to bring in the first of the big supply bills and get the house down to work at once.

What's Doing in Minnesota

Winona.—While a Thanksgiving dinner crowd was making merry in a restaurant here a lone bandit entered, held up the cashier and took between $30 and $40 from the cash register.

Bemidji.—Mistaking the deer he was carrying for a live buck, eight St. Paul hunters fired a volley at the carcass, seriously wounding Angus Chisholm, a homesteader, near his home, 16 miles northeast of Blackduck.

Moorhead.—Despite the fact more than thirty saloons were closed last year, bringing the declaration that business would fall off, the bank deposits total $1,446,288.46 as compared with $1,297,575.35 in 1915.

St. Paul.—A cash balance of $4,073,248.98 in its treasury is the largest November 30 balance in Minnesota's history. A year ago the state had borrowed $450,000 to tide its finances over a temporary stringency.

Monticello.—The faithful protection of a dog saved his youthful master from death when Allan Mieske, 16 years old, living on a farm near here, was attacked by an infuriated bull. The animal had knocked the boy to the ground unconscious.

Brainerd.—Speeches by A. D. Wilson, head of agricultural extension bureau service of the University of Minnesota, and Frank E. Palmer, state agricultural agent, closed a farmers' short course of four days in this city.

Minneapolis.—William Lowe Bryan, president of Indiana university, and Livingston Farrand, president of the University of Colorado, are among those to be considered for the presidency of the University of Minnesota to succeed Dr. George E. Vincent.

Duluth.—Although lake navigation is supposed to have closed officially on Nov. 20, with the expiration of insurance, it is predicted here boats will be in operation until stopped by ice. The demand for ore down lake is so great vessel men have been reluctant to close the season.

St. Paul. — What its makers say will be the best map ever published of Minnesota for the use of automobile tourists, road officials and others, is in course of preparation by engineers of the Minnesota Highway commission and will be ready for distribution about January 1.

St. Paul.—For the first time in many years the two men whom Minnesota voters have elected to the United States Senate dined together in St. Paul, Senator Knute Nelson was the guest of Senator-elect Frank B. Kellogg at the Minnesota club. Senators Nelson and Clapp have not agreed well enough to be on cordial visiting terms.

St. Paul—Overtime and extra pay for state officials and employes is the subject of an opinion given by Lyndon A. Smith, attorney general. The opinion probably will be the first of a series of legal rulings on such questions because of a dozen or more claims for pay for overtime and extra services now awaiting action by J. A. O. Preus, state auditor.

St. Paul.—Inheritance taxes totaling $672,841.37 were collected by the state during the past fiscal year, according to figures given out in the state treasury. The statement supplements that recently made public showing $47,322.75 distributed under the law effective April 20, 1911, providing that 10 per cent shall be refunded to the county remitting any tax.

Brownsville, Texas.—In target practice at Loma, Alta, near here, B battery, St. Paul's "silk-stocking battery," broke all records for effectiveness in firing. The three-inch pieces under direction of Captain Charles L. Ames scored one hit after another and demolished so many targets that regular army officers, who served as observers, broke into spirited applause.

St. Paul.—Governor J. A. A. Burnquist has issued his official proclamation, declaring the 12 Hughes presidential electors to have been chosen by the people of Minnesota. Governor Burnquist also proclaimed the election of Frank B. Kellogg as United States senator, of the 10 members of congress, and the ratification of Amendments No. 1 and 2 to the state constitution.

St. Paul. — Minnesota lands unsuitable for farming, but which are good pine lands, could be made worth $200,000,000 and furnish the state a net annual income of $6,000,000, according to C. C. Andrews, secretary of the state forestry board, in his annual report to the governor. The report covers the reforestation that has been done by the state, which work General Andrews declares should be greatly extended.

Winona.—The effectiveness of an embargo on soaring food products was demonstrated here when milk receded a cent because of marked curtailment in consumption. Winona dealers announced ten days ago the price of milk would be 8 cents a quart. The increase came in the face of the announcement of experts that there was a sufficient supply, and that there was a reasonable margin of profit at 7 cents.

Moorhead — To relieve congested schools the Moorhead board of education has constructed two portable buildings to be moved from one school ground to another as conditions may demand. The board contemplate construction of a portable gymnasium for use at the several schools.

St. Paul. — Thousands of farmers from Minnesota and the Dakotas gathered in St. Paul this week for the annual grain growers' convention and the dedication of the new terminal elevator built by the Equity Co-operative exchange. The convention began Tuesday, and was to last three days.

FOOD EMBARGOES TO CUT HIGH COST OF LIVING SOUGHT

REPRESENTATIVE FITZGERALD OFFERS FOUR MEASURES DEALING WITH SITUATION—MASS OF PETITIONS FILED.

CONGRESSMEN RESUME HARD GRIND AT CAPITOL

Senator to Introduce Bill to Empower Government to Seize Food on Which "Corner" Is Attempted—Both Houses Ready For Wilson's Message.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Legislative proposals intended to shatter the high cost of living marked the reopening of congress.

Representative John J. Fitzgerald, leader of the embargo forces, introduced four bills. His bills in brief are:

Provision for an out and out export embargo of farm products and of manufactured foodstuffs for one year.

Provision for the president to suspend exportation whenever prices become extortionate and the public interest requires such action.

To Regulate Cold Storage.

Regulation of cold storage by prohibiting interstate shipments of foods, other then butter, stored longer than 10 months; with distinct labeling of the date on which the goods were stored.

Abolition of postal zones insofar as farm products and manufactured foodstuffs are concerned; admission of such goods to parcel post in packages up to 150 pounds at 3 cents for the first pound and 1 cent for pounds thereafter, with slightly higher charges.

Food Embargo Proposed.

"The enactment of either of the bills" said Representative Fitzgerald, "will bring immediate relief to the country. The people want action; they are heartily tired of talk and investigation." A mass of petitions was filed in favor of the legislation.

Representative John R. Farr of Pennsylvania proposed an embargo on wheat and Representative Meyer London of New York, socialist, proposed a virtual food dictatorship, with an incidental food export ban.

Senator James E. Martine of New Jersey announced he will propose a food embargo on all staple articles later this week.

To Seize "Cornered" Foodstuffs.

Senator J. H. Lewis of Illinois said he would introduce a bill to empower the government to seize foodstuffs on which a corner is attempted, condemn them and resell to the public.

Reference of all bills relating to an embargo on food products to a joint committee of eight representatives and eight senators is a proposed resolution introduced by Representative Charles A. Lindbergh. The committee is to investigate the operations of "parasite speculations" and to report to congress not later than Feb. 20. In the preamble Mr. Lindbergh declares that the effect of an embargo upon food products would force the producers to abandon their farms because of inability to making a living.

Both houses passed resolutions notifying President Wilson that they were ready for his message.

TWO HUNDRED ARE SLAIN IN REVOLT IN ANTWERP

Inhabitants Rebel as Result of Call to Work in Germany—Many Teuton Soldiers Reported Slain.

London, Dec. 5.—Two Belgians who have arrived at Sluiskill, Holland, from Ghent report that there was a revolt in Antwerp November 30 in which between 200 and 300 inhabitants and many German soldiers are said to have been killed, according to a Reuter Amsterdam dispatch, quoting a Sluiskill correspondent. The reported revolt was due to a call on the inhabitants for work in Germany.

GREEKS DELIVER BATTERIES

Normal Relations Reported Reestablished With Allies.

Athens, Dec. 5.—Eight batteries of field artillery will be delivered to the Allies as soon as a protocol has been formally drafted between the government and Admiral Du Fournet. Those in touch with the palace said normal relations had been reestablished between the Allied commander, Vice Admiral du Fournet, and the Greek government.

Rae Tanzer Mystery Is Solved.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—The story of Charles H. Wax, under arrest here, clears the mystery of the $50,000 breach of promise suit by Miss Rae Tanzer, milliner, against James W. Osborne, former assistant district attorney of New York city and noted criminal lawyer. Wax, who was graduated from the Columbia university medical school in 1907, says he is the "Oliver Osborne" who taught Miss Tanzer to enjoy New York night life. Miss Tanzer brought suit in March, 1915, against James W. Osborne.

ADULT DEATH RATE TOO HIGH

Australian Commission, After Investigation, Points Out Causes of Mortality in Middle Age.

The statement made in a recent bulletin of the New York board of health by Dr. Charles F. Bolduan, that the expectation of life for a man of forty was actually at least a year shorter than it was ten years ago, receives confirmation from Australia in the report of a commission appointed to inquire into the causes of death and invalidity.

The Lancet (London) quotes this commission's report as saying that the principal risk of middle age is in high blood tension. The principal causes of this are found in overstrain and in chronic poisoning of the blood by foods and drinks, and from the bowels and the throat.

The Lancet says the recommendations of the New York and the Australian bodies are somewhat vague, but it welcomes a campaign against avoidable adult mortality which, it says, "need not become an opportunity for the exhibition of rampant faddiness, though risk lies in this direction."

MESSAGE OF WILSON

PRESIDENT DELIVERS A SHORT ADDRESS TO CONGRESS IN JOINT SESSION.

ASKS MORE RAILWAY LAWS

Calls for Early Action on Remaining Measures of His Program of Settlement and Regulation—Other Legislation That Is Advised.

Washington, Dec. 5.—President Wilson's message, delivered to congress in joint session today, was brief and to the point. The president said:

Gentlemen of the Congress:

In fulfilling at this time the duty laid upon me by the Constitution of communicating to you from time to time information of the state of the Union and recommending to your consideration such legislative measures as may be judged necessary and expedient I shall continue the practice, which I hope has been acceptable to you, of leaving to the reports of the several heads of the executive departments the elaboration of the detailed needs of the public service and confine myself to those matters of more general public policy with which it seems necessary and feasible to deal at the present session of the congress.

I realize the limitations of time under which you will necessarily act at this session and shall make my suggestions as few as possible; but there were some things left undone at the last session which there will now be time to complete and which it seems necessary in the interest of the public to do at once.

In the first place, it seems to me imperatively necessary that the earliest possible consideration and action should be accorded the remaining measures of the program of settlement and regulation which I had occasion to recommend to you at the close of your last session in view of the public dangers disclosed by the unaccommodated difficulties which then existed, and which still unhappily continue to exist, between the railroads of the country and their locomotive engineers, conductors, and trainmen.

Railway Troubles First.

I then recommended:

First, immediate provision for the enlargement and administrative reorganization of the interstate commerce commission along the lines embodied in the bill recently passed by the house of representatives and now awaiting action by the senate; in order that the commission may be enabled to deal with the many great and various duties now devolving upon it with a promptness and thoroughness which are, with its present constitution and means of action, practically impossible.

Second, the establishment of an eight-hour day as the legal basis alike of work and of wages in the employment of all railway employees who are actually engaged in the work of operating trains in interstate transportation.

Third, the authorization of the appointment by the president of a small body of men to observe the actual results in experience of the adoption of the eight-hour day in railway transportation alike for the men and for the railroads.

Fourth, explicit approval by the congress of the consideration by the interstate commerce commission of an increase of freight rates to meet such additional expenditures by the railroads as may have been rendered necessary by the adoption of the eight-hour day and which have not been offset by administrative readjustments and economies, should the facts disclosed justify the increase.

Fifth, an amendment of the existing federal statute which provides for the mediation, conciliation, and arbitration of such controversies as the present by adding to it a provision that, in case the methods of accommodation now provided for should fail, a full public investigation of the merits of every such dispute shall be instituted and completed before a strike or lockout may lawfully be attempted.

And, sixth, the lodgment in the hands of the executive of the power, in case of military necessity, to take control of such portions and such rolling stock of the railroads of the country as may be required for military use and to operate them for military purposes, with authority to draft into the military service of the United States such train crews and administrative officials as the circumstances require for their safe and efficient use.

Renews His Recommendations.

The second and third of these recommendations the congress immediately acted on: it established the eight-hour day as the legal basis of work and wages in train service and it authorized the appointment of a commission to observe and report upon the practical results, deeming these the measures most immediately needed; but it postponed action upon the other suggestions until an opportunity should be offered for a more deliberate consideration of them. The fourth recommendation I do not deem it necessary to renew. The power of the interstate commerce commission to grant an increase of rates on the ground referred to is indisputably clear and a recommendation by the congress with regard to such a matter might seem to draw in question the scope of the commission's authority or its inclination to do justice when there is no reason to doubt either.

The other suggestions—the increase in the interstate commerce commission's membership and in its facilities for performing its manifold duties, the provision for full public investigation and assessment of industrial disputes, and the grant to the executive of the power to control and operate the railways when necessary in time of war or other like public necessity—I now very earnestly renew.

The necessity for such legislation is manifest and pressing. Those who have intrusted us with the responsibility and duty of serving and safeguarding them in such matters would find it hard, I believe, to excuse a failure to act upon these grave matters or any unnecessary postponement of action upon them.

Not only does the interstate commerce commission now find it practically impossible, with its present membership and organization, to perform its great functions promptly and thoroughly, but it is not unlikely that it may presently be found advisable to add to its duties still others equally heavy and exacting. It must first be perfected as an administrative instrument.

The country cannot and should not consent to remain any longer exposed to profound industrial disturbances for lack of additional means of arbitration and conciliation which the congress can easily and promptly supply. And all will agree that there must be no doubt as to the power of the executive to make immediate and uninterrupted use of the railroads for the concentration of the military forces of the nation wherever they are needed and whenever they are needed.

This is a program of regulation, prevention and administrative efficiency which argues its own case in the mere statement of it. With regard to one of its items, the increase in the efficiency of the interstate commerce commission, the house of representatives has already acted; its action needs only the concurrence of the senate.

For Control and Operation.

I would hesitate to recommend, and I dare say the congress would hesitate to act upon the suggestion should I make it, that any man in any occupation should be obliged by law to continue in an employment which he desired to leave. To pass a law which forbade or prevented the individual workman to leave his work before receiving the approval of society in doing so would be to adopt a new principle into our jurisprudence which I take it for granted we are not prepared to introduce. But the proposal that the operation of the railways of the country shall not be stopped or interrupted by the concerted action of organized bodies of men until a public investigation shall have been instituted which shall make the whole question at issue plain for the judgment of the opinion of the nation is not to propose any such principle. It is based upon the very different principle that the concerted action of powerful bodies of men shall not be permitted to stop the industrial processes of the nation, at any rate before the nation shall have had an opportunity to acquaint itself with the merits of the case as between employee and employer, time to form its opinion upon an impartial statement of the merits, and opportunity to consider all practicable means of conciliation or arbitration.

I can see nothing in that proposition but the justifiable safeguarding by society of the necessary processes of its very life. There is nothing arbitrary or unjust in it unless it be arbitrarily and unjustly done. It can and should be done with a full and scrupulous regard for the interests and liberties of all concerned as well as for the permanent interests of society itself.

Other Legislation Urged.

Three matters of capital importance await the action of the senate which have already been acted upon by the house of representatives: the bill which seeks to extend greater freedom of combination to those engaged in promoting the foreign commerce of the country than is now thought by some to be legal under the terms of the laws against monopoly; the bill amending the present organic law of Porto Rico; and the bill proposing a more thorough and systematic regulation of the expenditure of money in elections, commonly called the Corrupt Practices Act. I need not labor my advice that these measures be enacted into law. Their urgency lies in the manifest circumstances which render their adoption at this time not only opportune but necessary. Even delay would seriously jeopard the interests of the country and of the government.

Immediate passage of the bill to regulate the expenditure of money in elections may seem to be less necessary than the immediate enactment of the other measures to which I refer; because at least two years will elapse before another election in which federal offices are to be filled; but it would greatly relieve the public mind if this important matter were dealt with while the circumstances and the dangers to the public morals of the present method of obtaining and spending campaign funds stand clear under recent observation and the methods of expenditure can be frankly studied in the light of present experience; and a delay would have the further very serious disadvantage of postponing action until another election was at hand and some special object connected with it might be thought to be in the mind of those who urged it. Action can be taken now with facts for guidance and without suspicion of partisan purpose.

I shall not argue at length the desirability of giving a freer hand in the matter of combined and concerted effort to those who shall undertake the essential enterprise of building up our export trade. That enterprise will presently, will immediately assume, has indeed already assumed, a magnitude unprecedented in our experience. We have not the necessary instrumentalities for its prosecution; it is deemed to be doubtful whether they could be created upon an adequate scale under our present laws. We should clear away all legal obstacles and create a basis of undoubted law for it which will give freedom without permitting unregulated license. The thing must be done now, because the opportunity is here and may escape us if we hesitate or delay.

Porto Rico's Needs.

The argument for the proposed amendments of the organic law of Porto Rico is brief and conclusive. The present laws governing the island and regulating the rights and privileges of its people are not just. We have created expectations of extended privilege which we have not satisfied. There is uneasiness among the people of the island and even a suspicious doubt with regard to our intentions concerning them which the adoption of the pending measure would happily remove. We do not doubt what we wish to do in any essential particular. We ought to do it at once.

There are other matters already advanced to the stage of conference between the two houses of which it is not necessary that I should speak. Some practicable basis of agreement concerning them will no doubt be found and action taken upon them.

Inasmuch as this is, gentlemen, probably the last occasion I shall have to address the Sixty-fourth congress, I hope that you will permit me to say with what genuine pleasure and satisfaction I have co-operated with you in the many measures of constructive policy with which you have enriched the legislative annals of the country. It has been a privilege to labor in such company. I take the liberty of congratulating you upon the completion of a record of rare serviceableness and distinction.

The Years After Fifty.

When men pass the half-century mark, they usually regard themselves as going down hill.

A discovery which I made by talking with those who were really living in the latter period was that many of them regarded their experience of life in the advancing years as the best part of the whole. It did not appear on the surface; it was not any marked success before the world, and it was not appeal, perhaps, to those in the earlier life; but many of those people told me they felt that they were living the happiest days of all. There seems to be a mysterious quality of life in these later years which is not found in the earlier part, something that is worth while in the living of it; and no one has had all of human life until he has been through these years and found it.

Then, and not before, I came back to the conviction that one who has attained a half-century of clean, honest living, is worthy of congratulation; that he ought to pass his fiftieth birthday without a particle of dread as to his future years, and understand that the greatest opportunity of his life is yet before him.—American Magazine.

That's Right.

Father was attempting to read the evening newspaper and Bobby seemed to be rather fuller of questions than usual, the flow being uninterrupted in spite of the elder man's persistent admonitions for the youngster to cease talking.

"Say, papa, just tell me something else and then I'll quit bothering you," promised Bobby. "I will, for sure, papa."

"Well, what is it?"

"I've got to write a composition in school tomorrow and don't know what to write about. What shall I write about?"

"I'm surprised at such a question," replied the fond and doting parent, "and I want you to remember for future reference that whenever you don't know what to write about, you can always right about face."

Eating Higher Up.

Bert Swor, famous delineator of darky types, hails from Fort Worth, Tex., where he had exceptional opportunities for studying the characters which he now impersonates in a professional way.

Swor loves to tell about a certain dusky swain who, when he found the door closed against him, tried to cozen his sweetheart with soft promises.

After long and unsuccessful coaxing Henry tried a masterstroke.

"Better let me in, honey," he said, "kase I's got sumfin' you all like."

"What is it?" inquired Clarissa, suspiciously.

"Pigs' feet."

With a sniff of contempt Clarissa retorted:

"Go on away wif youah pigs' feet; I done got me a new beau, n' now I am eatin' higher up on de hog."

Times Change.

"I see that Fifi Flubdub, the actress, is so temperamental that she swoons at the odor of tuberoses. So her management has to watch her constantly."

"Um. Time brings great changes. I knew her once. She was raised in a block next to a gas house."

Knew Scales Were All Right.

"I'm sure that grocer of ours gives us short weight," said he. "No, he doesn't," said ma. "His scales are correct. I weighed myself on them this morning and they showed that I am twenty pounds lighter than I thought I was."—Detroit Free Press

Uric Acid Poisoning?

The most eminent physicians recognize that uric acid stored up in the system is the cause of rheumatism, that this uric acid poison is present in the joints, muscles, or nerves. By experimenting and analysis at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce discovered a combination of native remedies that he called Anuric—which drives out the uric acid from the system, and in this way the pain, swelling and inflammation subside. If you are a sufferer from rheumatism, backache, pains here or there, you can obtain Anuric at any drug store and get relief from the pains and ills brought about by uric acid; or send Dr. Pierce 10c for trial pkg. Anuric which you will find many times more potent than lithia and eliminates uric acid as hot water melts sugar. A short trial will convince you.

"There are several events of an educational nature to be pulled off in our progressive little city today," the landlord of the Petunia tavern informed a guest who wished for some means by which to pass the time. "At two o'clock Burt Blurt will wheelbarrow old Riley Rezzidew, adorned with a new plug hat and freshly dyed whiskers, three times around the public square. Judge Puffer will eat his own hat without butter at 4:30. Meanwhile, Hyson Hush will chaperon the customary peanut with the usual toothpick round and round most all the afternoon, and Doc Snort and Homer Spraddle probably will be fighting off and on until a late hour. And some time during the evening Purley Purt and Miss Kissie McQuick will be made one—the bet was that if Wilson won Purley would marry Kissie and if Hughes was victorious Kissie would wed Purley. All of these episodes will be instructive, showing beyond a reasonable doubt that the fools are not all dead yet."—Kansas City Star.

Ginger, Pep, Punch and Kick.

A writer of rejected manuscripts tells in the Contributors' club of the Atlantic Monthly some of the reasons for his lack of success. Ten years ago his manuscripts were returned because they did not "quite compel acceptance;" a little later they "lack ginger;" then editors wanted "a little more pep, please;" then his contributions did not have the "punch;" and now the long-suffering writer gets his offerings back with the comment, "Excellent of their kind, but we prefer stories with more 'kick'!" His letter to the Contributors' club seems to have had all the desirable elements which his earlier efforts lacked, for it was published!—Outlook.

NEW POLICY NEEDED IN GOVERNMENT RAILWAY CONTROL

Helpfulness and Encouragement Urged by Alfred P. Thom.

CREDIT MUST BE IMPROVED

Increase of Transportation Facilities Necessary to Secure Relief From High Cost of Living May Thus Be Provided For by the Railroads.

Washington, Nov. 28.—A new policy of government railroad regulation, based on constructive principles of helpfulness and encouragement instead of upon principles of repression and punishment, was urged by Alfred P. Thom, counsel for the Railway Executives' Advisory Committee, the first witness on behalf of the railroads before the Newlands Joint Committee on Interstate Commerce, which has instituted a general inquiry into the problems of railroad regulation.

"It is proposed by the joint resolution of Congress," said Mr. Thom, "to go into a comprehensive study of the whole subject of transportation, to make a new assessment, after 29 years of experiment, of its history, its present conditions and its future needs. The railroads accept the view that regulation is a permanent and enduring part of government in America and that the first duty of the carriers is to the public. That duty is to afford reasonable facilities on reasonable terms and at reasonable rates, and this must be done before any private interests can be considered."

Certainty, Safety and Sufficiency.

Mr. Thom contended that the real interest of the public is in being assured of certainty, safety and sufficiency of transportation facilities, rather than in rates. "The first consideration of the public is to obtain transportation facilities. What the cost is, is in reality a second consideration, he said.

Mr. Thom proposed an increase of transportation facilities as a method of securing relief from the high cost of living. "There have been less than 1,000 miles of new railroad constructed in the United States during the past year," he said, "less than in any year since 1848, except the period of the Civil War, and yet the cost of living is daily advancing owing to a shortage of supplies which might be remedied by securing access to new areas of production.

Credit Must Be Improved.

"This leads to the consideration as to whether railroad credit is as good as the public interest requires. It is impossible for railroads to earn enough to supply the necessary new facilities from current revenue. They must be provided from credit. Investors cannot be coerced, but must be attracted."

Among the conditions affecting railroad credit which deter investors he mentioned the following:

"First, Railroad revenues are not controlled by investors, but are fixed and limited by governmental authority and not by one but by several governmental authorities, which do not recognize responsibility for assured results to investors and are uncoordinated.

"Second, Railroads cannot control and the government cannot and does not limit the expense account.

"Third, The present system of regulation is based on a policy of regulation and correction and not on a policy of helpfulness and encouragement.

"Fourth, The outstanding obligations of the railroads have already exceeded the financial rule of safety and involve a disproportionate amount of obligations bearing fixed charges.

"Fifth, The investor must accept a subordinate obligation or security with no assurance of a surplus of earnings to support it.

"Sixth, Other competing lines of investment present superior attractions.

"Seventh, The railroad business is largely controlled by political instead of business considerations.

Look Forward, Not Back.

"We may debate about what has caused the present conditions," said Mr. Thom, "but we cannot debate about what the people need. The President has taken the view that we must look forward in this matter and make a fresh assessment of circumstances in order to deal helpfully and intelligently with the problem. Abuses are no more prevalent in the railroad business today than in any other business humanely conducted. The great question now is whether the existing system of regulation gives the public reliable assurance of sufficient present and future railroad facilities.

"Those who oppose any change must make their appeal on the ground that the present systems assure the public of the continued adequacy of transportation facilities. If they do not, no argument based on the desirability of the present dual system of regulation will be accepted by public judgment. The question of states' rights is not involved. If the regulation of transportation facilities privately owned should fail government ownership must follow, and then all power of the states over the railroads would disappear.

"Let us debate this question, then, not upon any mere theory or jealousy as to the distribution of governmental power, but upon the large issue of what the public interest requires in respect of the assurance of adequate transportation service."

Easy Way to Reduce Flesh

Drink Hot Water and Take Tassco

Heve'nt you often wished for a medicine to reduce your flesh? Something that does not require dieting or calisthenics. Well right here you have it in 5-grain tassc tablets, that you may secure of any good druggist. They are pleasant to take, perfectly harmless and cause no restrictions of habit or eating and reduce the flesh little by little, until you are down to the number of pounds you wish to weigh. Too much flesh is undesirable, as most quite stout people will readily admit and it detracts from one's good appearance; makes one clumsy and short of breath.

There is'nt any reason why anyone should be too stout, when there's this much-tried, perfectly satisfactory remedy at any good druggists. Tassco tablets, (don't forget the name) are recommended by physicians and are guaranteed to be perfectly harmless. Refuse substitutes, if you can't come to our store, we will mail tassco to you.

The Submarine.

To get a submarine ready for diving water is admitted into the "ballast" tanks. To keep the vessel on an even keel water is taken into the "trimming tanks." By means of these tanks the vessel is made to sink or rise, and to preserve the right position.

Sunnyside School Notes

The basket social held in Sunnyside school Dist. No. 59 on Dec. 2nd. was well attended which was highly appreciated.

The fact that the seats are not movable is to be deplored. We would have felt better pleased if more room could have been obtained tor playing of games.

The proceeds from the sale of baskets and fishpound was $51.40. This money is to be used for buying playground apparatus and Xmas tree trimmings.

The coming of the snow made a change in the good attendance of the primary room. A good plan that we have adopted is exchanging Library and text books with other districts.

Do your Christmas shopping early.

Tonoline is Beauty Aid

Announces Specialist

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise. "I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said: 'Take tonoline.'

Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Notice:—As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. The KITCHEN CABINET

We eat to live, not live to eat. Any excess in eating or drinking, alike is a source of countless ills. In all living, health is of primary consideration.

SEASONABLE DISHES.

The following are a few choice dishes which may be served when entertaining friends:

Jugged Rabbit.—Cut the rabbits in serving-sized pieces, saute them in a hot frying pan in a little butter or bacon fat, cooking a few slices at the same time. Put the rabbit into a casserole with a small onion, and the juice of a lemon; add a cupful of stock, cover and set the dish in a pan of hot water in the oven and cook three hours and a half; serve with brown sauce, poured over all.

Somerset Salad. — Chill stewed prunes and remove the stones. Fill the cavities with peanuts. Arrange the prunes in groups of threes in nests of head lettuce, sprinkle with finely-chopped peanuts and pour over it a chilled, highly-seasoned, French dressing just as it goes to the table.

Sauted Lima Beans.—Soak dried lima beans in cold water to cover until soft, drain them and dry between soft cloth, after cooking in boiling water until tender. Then cook in a hot frying pan with a little butter until well browned; sprinkle with chopped parsley and serve piping hot.

West Chester Salad.—Use one-half a grapefruit, one orange, one cupful of pineapple, one apple, one cupful of white grapes and a half cupful of tender celery. Cut all in uniform pieces, the grapes in half and remove the seeds. Make a French dressing of a fourth of a cupful of oil, the juice of a lemon (not more than two tablespoonfuls); one teaspoonful each of sugar and salt and a half teaspoonful of paprika. Add this to the fruits and let stand an hour to marinate. Drain and arrange on lettuce leaves with a half cupful of boiled or steamed raisins and mayonnaise dressing.

Moravian Sugar Bread.—When making bread take out a piece, roll thin and lay in a pie tin. When risen make holes with the finger and fill with butter and brown sugar, then dust cinnamon over the loaf and bake. Coffee-cake dough may be treated in this manner.

Among all the basic principles of economic life, none is more vital than this that every able-bodied adult should have a job; that he should work at the thing for which he is best suited and best fitted, and that he should be paid the full value for what he produces.

GOOD DISHES FOR DINNER.

Beef Olives.—Cut thin slices of roast beef and put aside; chop the trimmings and bits too small to serve, season with poultry dressing and crumbs, allow one tablespoonful of the dressing for each slice of beef; spread the slices with the mixture, tie up and put into a saucepan with a little fat to brown; when well browned add a little hot water and simmer until they are thoroughly heated through. Season with salt and pepper, make a brown sauce and pour over the rolls when ready to serve.

Add very thinly sliced oranges to a clear tomato soup.

Roast Squabs.—Stuff the birds with the livers fried and chopped fine, to which has been added two tablespoonfuls of butter, one teaspoonful of chives, chopped fine; one-half a cupful of bread crumbs, one beaten egg, salt, pepper, cayenne and a little nutmeg. After stuffing tuck the necks of the birds under the wings, tie, rub with butter and bake twenty to thirty minutes. Serve on toast moistened with the gravy from the pan. Garnish with watercress.

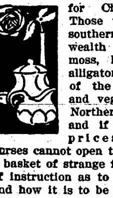
Try this stuffing for your Christmas goose: Two cupfuls of hot mashed potatoes, a half cupful of sliced walnut meats, one teaspoonful of grated onion, one teaspoonful of salt, a half teaspoonful of paprika, one tablespoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of powdered sage, the yolks of two eggs and four tablespoonfuls of cream; blend well and stuff the goose, not too full.

Chocolate Soup (From the German).—Heat gradually one quart of sweet milk; with a portion of it soften and stir smooth five tablespoonfuls of grated chocolate, let gradually come to a boil and simmer eight minutes, sweetening to taste. Beat four eggs, add a little of the milk before it is too hot, then add the eggs, beating well. Let stand where it will keep hot, add the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs, sweetened with two tablespoonfuls of sugar. Drop the egg white by teaspoonfuls and cover with a close lid to cook the whites. Serve cold.

Chicken Livers With Rice.—Cook a cupful of rice in a kettle of salted water until tender, then drain in a colander and set in the oven with the door open. Sprinkle four to six chicken livers with flour, salt and pepper and saute in a little butter. Make a tomato sauce, cooking 15 minutes, a pint or can of tomato, one sliced onion, one clove, two bay leaves, a sprig of parsley, two stalks of celery or a saltspoonful of celery seed, a blade of mace, two teaspoonfuls of sugar, and salt and pepper to taste. Put through a sieve and add a tablespoonful each of butter and flour rubbed together. Pour slowly into this the hot strained tomato. Arrange the hot livers in the center of a platter, with the rice as a border and the sauce poured over the livers.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS AT HAND.

Few young people realize what a wealth of resources the women who live in the country have for Christmas giving. Those who live in the southern states with the wealth of beautiful moss, kumquats, limes, alligator pears and many of the different fruits and vegetables that the Northerner seldom sees, and if seen cost such prices that ordinary purses cannot open to them. For such a basket of strange foods with a note of instruction as to what it contains and how it is to be prepared, the recipients would thank them most gratefully. How many people in the North ever saw a chayote or a dasheen, yet these are quite as common in the South as cauliflower in the North. Those who are sick of the sight of fish, might delight an inland cousin with a basket of the fish so highly prized because not near at hand. Where wild game abounds and the laws do not prohibit sending it, such a gift is a choice present. If you live near the woods where pine abounds with its beautiful cones, a gunny sack of them for your friend to use in his fireplace for Christmas eve would surely be appreciated. A bunch of herbs, or lavender for the linen closet, a pillow of hops for the wakeful friend, a basket of popcorn balls or a few vegetables, well washed and arranged in a basket, for the friend with a small family, this may be so filled that it will be as attractive as a basket of flowers.



If you ever tried to buy a spruce tree in the city you may appreciate what the gift of a small one for her dinner table would mean to your city cousin. Five-cent baskets filled with ferns, alder berries and other bits of nature which delight the eye may be given for a centerpiece for her living-room table for your city friend. Rose hips, partridge berries, wintergreen berries and others may be strung to decorate the Christmas tree. Do you have honey, or make maple sirup, canned fruit and jellies, make fruit cakes, cookies or country doughnuts, be sure any of these will be hailed with joy by the friends in town.

Jasamine is sweet and has many loves,
And the broom's betrothed to the bee;
But I will plight with the dainty rose,
For fairest of all is she.
—Hood.

DISHES NOT EXPENSIVE.

To the housewife who needs to use every care in her expenditure, rice is a food to which we should turn. It is still at a reasonable price and may be used two or three times a week on our tables in the form of a vegetable or dessert. Seasoned with butter, pepper and salt it makes a very good substitute for potato. Simply boiled and salted and served with cream and sugar it is a very dainty breakfast food and the numerous ways in which it may serve as a dessert are too many to name. If you have never tried a chocolate sauce with plain boiled rice, you have yet to enjoy a popular dish.

Baked Pears.—Wash and arrange the pears in a deep baking dish with water, sugar, lemon juice, and butter in the pan to use for basting. Baste them during the baking and cook long enough to give the sauce a rich brown color and the pears will be especially delicious. Serve as a dessert or they may be served with the roast if so desired.

Coffee Ice Cream.—Scald a pint of milk with a half cupful of dry coffee, until well steeped. Strain into three slightly beaten eggs, one cupful of sugar and a pinch of salt. Return to the fire and cook until the mixture coats the spoon. Add a quart of cream and freeze. Serve with marshmallow sauce.

Marshmallow Sauce.—In the upper part of a double boiler put a fourth of a pound of marshmallows. When melted, pour on a sirup made by boiling one cupful of sugar and a fourth of a cupful of water ten minutes. Add one-half a teaspoonful of vanilla and cool.

Roast Beef Salad.—Very rare roast beef is excellent for salad. Cut in very thin slices and marinate in a French dressing in which a finely chopped slice of onion has been added. Serve on a platter garnished with potato salad, pickled beets and lettuce.

BANKS' CONDITION NEVER WAS BETTER

STATEMENTS UNDER LATEST CALL SHOW HEALTHY GAINS IN ASSETS AND DEPOSITS.

MILLIONS NEEDED FOR "U"

Budget Tentatively Adopted by Regents for Presenation to Legislature by Governor—Provision Made for Consulting Engineer.

St. Paul.

On statements under the November 17 call showing gains of about 20 per cent in deposits and nearly 16 per cent in assets for the year, A. H. Turrittin, state superintendent of banks declared that Minnesota state banks collectively were never in more satisfactory condition.

Comparisons were made public of the statements on the recent call with those under date of November 10, 1915—almost exactly a year.

Deposits on the latest date were $210,841,522.80 or $34,152,194.60 greater than on November 10, 1916, according to the tabulation just finished. Assets totalled $243,978,727.71, showing a net increase of $36,508,757.45. The item of loans and discounts increased from $164,350,723.26 to $191,828,005.31, a gain of $27,477,282.05. Sixty-eight new state banks were chartered during the year.

Five Millions for "U."

A budget totaling $5,139,000 has been tentatively adopted by the board of regents of the University of Minnesota for the maintenance of the university for two years. This budget was to be submitted to Governor Burnquist for presentation to the Legislature with a probability that he would call another conference of regents for reduction.

Provision was made in the budget for the employment of a consulting engineer in the extension department. His services will be free to Minnesota cities and towns.

A ten-year contract was made for electric power, terminable at any time under a graduated penalty if the high dam proves available for the development of power for the university.

The establishment of a college of commerce was postponed indefinitely. Large cuts were made in the appropriations for practically all departments with the exception of the arts college, which President Vincent characterized as the weakest point.

Xmas Fire Warning Out.

With the approach of the holiday season as shown by the store window displays, Robert W. Hargadine, state fire marshal has issued warning against carelessness. "It is most urgent that everybody keep in mind the fire hazard," said Mr. Hargadine. "These displays were installed in anticipation of the Christmas business, and while many of the window dressers adopted noninflamable materials for decorative purposes, there still is room for improvement."

To Choose Vincent's Successor.

Pierce Butler of St. Paul, Fred B. Snyder of Minneapolis and C. W. Glotfelter of Waterville have been appointed at a meeting of the university regents as a committee to seek a successor to President Vincent. The committee received no instructions other than to use its own judgment as to method and to get the best man available. It is understood that the committee leaves soon on a tour that may take it to many of the universities of the East and Middle West.

State to Lend $1,500,000.

The state board of investment has voted to receive applications for loans up to a limit of $1,500,000, the amount estimated to become available before Aug. 1, 1917. It was decided also to receive applications for loans for the construction of county roads. Board rules were amended to provide for meetings on the first and third Mondays of each month, to expedite business. William E. Lee of Long Prairie presented the application of Reynolds, Todd county, for a loan of $17,000 with which to build two roads

A Mother's Burden

A mother who suffers kidney trouble, finds it hard to keep up her daily work. Lameness, backache, sharp pains when stooping and "blue", nervous or dizzy spells, make home life dreary. Active kidneys bring back vigor, health and a pleasure in family duties. If the kidneys are weak try a box of Doan's Kidney Pills.

A North Dakota Case

Mrs. I. Iverson, Hillsboro, N. D., says: "My back ached so severely at times that I had to walk all stooped over. I couldn't straighten without terrible pains through my kidneys. I also had chills and constant headaches. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved these troubles and made me feel better in every way. Whenever I have needed a kidney medicine since, Doan's Kidney Pills have quickly fixed me up all right."

KEEN MEMORY FOR FACES

Colonel Roosevelt Remembered, After Two Years, Man Whom He Had Only Met in a Crowd.

Colonel Roosevelt has one of the most wonderful memories I ever heard of, particularly for faces and names," said C. E. Embree of the Maine Farmers' Union. "I first met him somewhere about 1906 at Riverhead, Long Island, when perhaps 3,000 persons were introduced to him.

"About two years later I met him on the street at Oyster Bay. He was in his shirtsleeves, swinging along to the postoffice, and being hailed by every one who saw him, old and young, I said: 'Good morning, sir,' as we met.

"He paused, rather squinted at my face and slowly replied: 'Good morning. Your name is Embree, is it not?' I admitted it, in astonishment at his memory, and asked, 'But where did you meet me?' and as quickly as a flash came: 'Riverhead, wasn't it?' 'But you met 3,000 men that day.' 'O, that doesn't make any difference.'

"The next meeting with the colonel was in 1912 at Nashua, N. H. I was passing around one car to take another and stepped a little one side to allow a man to pass. He casually looked at me and sang out with a smile: 'Hello, Long Island!' and was gone. It is wonderful to me that man's memory of names and faces."—Kennebec Journal.

GREEK SITUATION IS CRITICAL; KING MOBILIZES ARMY

SUBJECTS OF ENTENTE LEAVING ATHENS—GERMAN EMPEROR URGES GREECE TO JOIN THE TEUTONS.

GERMAN WARSHIP STOPS BOAT IN ATLANTIC, CLAIM

Light Cruiser Succeeds in Running British Cordon in North Sea and Is Now Roving Ocean, According To Captain of Vessel Arriving At London.

London, Dec. 11.—A German war ship has succeeded in running the British cordon in the North sea, according to the report of a ship captain, who says his vessel was held up and examined in the Atlantic. The vessel, the captain said on his arrival here, is a regular light cruiser.

Greek Troops Mobilize.

London, Dec. 11.—The Greek situation has reached its most critical stage. Mobilization of King Constantine's royalists forces, reports of Teutonic negotiations with the monarch, departure of all allied subjects from the capital and of concentration of allied forces near Athens were among the elements which gave concern here. All dispatches from the capital are greatly delayed.

Atrocities Charged.

One dispatch dated early in the week declared that adherents of former Premier Venizelos, now head of the provisional government established at Saloniki, were suffering persecution from the royalist forces, and are fleeing in terror from Athens. Atrocities were charges against the Greek troops.

Within a week King Constantine of Greece will be an exile, deposed from his throne by the Allies, and M. Venizelos will be in charge of the Greek government. The Greek army also will be disarmed. This is the expectation here.

Kaiser Seeks New Ally.

The kaiser has urged King Constantine to declare war upon the Allies and join the Central Powers in a great campaign to sweep the Allies from the Balkans, according to a dispatch which says the Greeks were to attack General Sarrail's army in the rear, while the Teutons attacked in front. Mobilization of a Greek royalist army at Larissa for the assault on Sarrail is reported planned.

American Ambassador to England Seeks Rest.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Walter Hines Page has tendered his resignation as U. S. ambassador to England, it is reported on good authority. From the same source it is learned that the resignation of Ambassador Page has been in the hands of President Wilson for several days.

The informant let it be clearly understood that there is no political significance whatever in the resignation of the ambassador. His action, it is stated, is merely the result of a desire on the part of Mr. Page to be relieved of the extremely arduous duties and responsibilities of his official position.

Morgan Finds British Optimistic.

New York, Dec. 11.—J. P. Morgan, who has been in England for the last two months on a financial mission, has just returned on the steamship Finland from Liverpool. Mr. Morgan is understood to have conferred with fiscal representatives of the Allies on the subject of marketing additional loans in this country. He had an audience with King George. Mr. Morgan declined to discuss the results of his mission. "I will say, however, that people in England are very optimistic."

Bill To Smash Loan Sharks.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—Loan sharks here hold the poor who borrow from them in a steel trap by means of an organized clearing house and secret codes, signs and passwords, it has become known. The secret ring of 139 loan sharks is a marvel of co-operation, according to a report of the public welfare department and a bill to smash the ring will be introduced in the Illinois legislature this winter. Loan sharks get information about the past of every applicant for a loan from the clearing house.

What's Doing in Minnesota

Stillwater.—Forty men, employes of the Connolly Shoe factory, went on a strike here, following a disagreement with officials over a wage contract.

Albany.—Four men are in jail and the police are searching for two more as a result of an assault on John Brinkman, village marshal, when the officer attempted to arrest one of them.

Brainerd. — Pouring kerosene on a kitchen fire resulted in serious burns to Mrs. J. W. Sewell here. With the aid of her children, Mrs. Sewell wrapped rugs about herself, stifling the flames.

Mankota.—Topics of vital interest to the medical profession were discussed by prominent speakers at the annual meeting of the Southern Minnesota Medical association, which was held here last week.

Minneapolis. — Minnesota farmers were urged to grow more apples by C. S. Harrison of York, Neb., and E. G. Lee of St. Paul, speakers at the annual meeting of the Minnesota Horticultural society at the West hotel.

Washington, D. C.—Customs receipts in the district of Minnesota, including the ports of St. Paul and Minneapolis, in November, were $53,292.64. The receipts for the district in November, 1915, were $54,831.19, showing a decrease this year of $1,538.55.

Duluth.—After working all day a party of rescuers recovered the body of Rudolph Torgrin, aged 28, who, with Miss Margaret Swendby, aged 23, was drowned in Pike Lake. "Mr. Torgrin undoubtedly sacrificed his own life in an attempt to save Miss Swendby," said Gilbert Bates.

Duluth—"I am innocent of any crime in the strike of Mesabi range miners, and so are my fellow workers. Being as innocent as they, I feel my place is with them to share their lot. So I return to prison." Schmidt was released from jail November 25, on $2,000 bonds to go to his home at Scranton, Pa., where his wife lay dangerously ill.

Brainerd.—It has been announced that James M. Elder of this city, appointed by Governor Burnquist as a member of the National River and Harbor conference in Washington, has gone to the meeting with instructions from the local Chamber of Commerce to urge that the Mississippi river be opened for navigation as far north as Grand Forks.

Minneapolis.—Laura Hintze, 16 years old, of Spring Valley, and Carl Potthoff, 12 years old, of Jordan, have been presented at the annual meeting of the State Horticultural society in the West hotel with the gold medals which the government awards annually to the two members of the Boys' and Girls' Home Garden and Canning club who make the best showing for the year.

Virginia.—An ultimatum was announced at the Industrial Workers of the World mass meeting by Elizabeth Gurley Flynn that if any of the eight defendants charged with the murder of James Myron, Duluth deputy sheriff, were convicted on any charge in the face of any evidence or circumstances, the Mesaba iron range miners would lay down their tools for 24 hours.

Thief River Falls.—C. G. Selvig of Crookston was re-elected president of the Red River Valley Dairymen's association at the final session here of the thirteenth annual convention. All the other officers of the association also were re-elected, including first vice president, J. Jensen, of Clearbrook; second vice president, A. B. Stensgaard of McIntosh; secretary, L. J. Houske of Halstad; treasurer, C. M. Davidson of Climax.

Minneapolis. — Applauding tumultuously as each of the 10 speakers privileged to extoll Dr. Cyrus Northrop, president emeritus of the University of Minnesota, paid tribute to him as an educator, scholar, builder, moulder of character and friend, at a testimonial dinner given in his honor, nearly 500 representative Minnesota men registered the esteem and appreciation they were unable individually to voice.

Bemidji, Minn.—Rejoicing over their victory in the recent election, the "fathers of Amendment No. 1" assembled here as delegates to the seventh annual meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development association. Only one element of dissatisfaction was manifest in the celebration—that the promoters had not asked for more than the $250,000 fund with which to develop Minnesota lands. President C. R. Middleton of Baudette called the convention to order.

St. Paul. — Tentatively adopting drafts of seven separate bills for introduction in the next Legislature, the State Efficiency and Economy Commission named a committee of four to put unfinished bills in shape and submit a preliminary report to Governor Burnquist, and adjourned until December 20, when it plans to finally ratify its program and begin a campaign. Chairman A. J. Rockne, L. C. Spooner, Thomas H. Girling and T. J. McGrath, make up the committee named.

Georgetown.—Two persons were killed and five others injured in two auto accidents near here, when the two machines skidded, struck the railing of a bridge near here and plunged into the creek beneath. The first accident occurred about 9 o'clock and the second about an hour later.

St. Paul.—Preparations are being made by the State Pharmaceutical association to accommodate 750 delegates to the annual convention in St. Paul, February 13 to 15. The local arrangements committee, which met at the Ryan hotel, decided on The Saint Paul for convention headquarters.

BRITAIN ASKED FOR FACTS REGARDING STATUS OF ARABIC

PRESIDENT INSTRUCTS LANSING TO FORWARD OUTLINE OF GERMAN NOTE IN CASE TO ENGLISH GOVERNMENT.

U. S. POLICY UNCHANGED; TO PERMIT DISCUSSION

Belief Growing That Germany Has Transgressed Rules Laid Down by America—Berlin Admits U-Boat Sunk Ship on Presumption Arabia Was Transport.

Washington, Dec. 9.—After consideration of the German "explanations" in the Arabia case, President Wilson has instructed Secretary Lansing to forward an outline of the reply to England with the request that any facts the British government might have as to status of the ship when she was sunk would be welcome to this government.

Delays Decision.

On the result of inquiries by agents of this government and on what facts England may be able to show, therefore, will depend this government's formal opinion on the Arabia attack.

The action just taken, it was explained, will necessarily delay for several days at least any chance of final decision in the matter. The Arabia case was to be thoroughly discussed at the cabinet meeting.

U. S. Policy Unchanged.

America's policy toward the German submarine situation remains exactly what it was when this government told Germany she must stop her ruthless methods of torpedoing. This has just been stated officially, but there was reason to believe that the United States had not unalterably put up the gates at least to brief discussion of serious submarine problems now before the administration.

Taken at its face, the statement that the American government stands pat on her attitude expressed in the Sussex notes, means that she would break diplomatic relations if Germany transgressed.

America's Mandates Overstepped.

There is growing belief that in the Arabia case, at least, and perhaps in the Marina, she far overstepped America's mandates. But in line with a policy of averting anything that might ultimately lead to war, the administration is regarded as likely to steer clear of a break up to the last possible point.

Experts believe that the Arabia case presents a situation in which Germany openly flouts American interpretation of submarine rules and American rights.

CHICAGO EGG KING STUCK COMMISSION MEN THINK

Wetz, Who Boasts He Owns 72,000,000 Admits He Has "Got Enough"—Boycott Cuts Prices.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—The corner in eggs and other produce appeared to have been smashed late Friday when prices, already sharply lower, were expected to tumble still more. Widespread boycotts on butter, eggs and produce and the extension of grain and meat embargoes to include practically all foodstuffs were chiefly responsible.

Eggs were down 5 cents below the high point and butter had declined 8 cents a pound. Potatoes have dropped 10 to 15 cents a bushel. Commission men are beginning to give credence to the report that Wetz, the "egg king," is stuck with 72,000,000 eggs on his hands. Wetz himself admitted that he has "got enough of this."

Rouman Troops Cut Off.

Berlin, Dec. 9.—Roumanian troops retreating from the Predeal and Altschanz passes, were cut off by Teutonic forces and most of them have been captured. In Western Roumania the pursuit is being continued by the Austro-German troops which took more than 10,000 prisoners.

BIG FRENCH BATTLESHIP SUFFREN FEARED LOST

Paris, Dec. 9.—The French battleship Suffren is officially classified as lost in a statement issued by the minister of marine. Apparently all hands were lost. The vessel left Gibraltar for the orient on Nov. 24 and has not been heard of since.

Farmer Welcomes Runaway Wife.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—John Churilla, a kindly old farmer, near Ramey, Pa., learned by patient search that his wife, who ran away with John Zyoboros, a young farm hand, was living with him here. He went to the house with Policewoman Lulu Burt and Louise Hassard. He had been bitter toward the helpmeet who had left him, but when he again looked on her face—the face of the mother of his five children—his own grim look softened. He threw his arms about her neck and she returned the embrace.

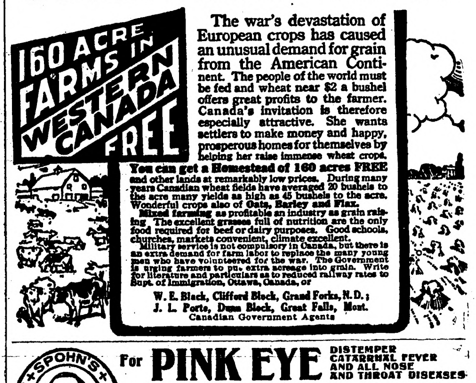
Canadian Farmers Profit From Wheat



160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

The war's devastation of European crops has caused an unusual demand for grain from the American Continent. The people of the world must be fed and wheat near $2 a bushel offers great profits to the farmer. Canada's invitation is therefore especially attractive. She wants settlers to make money and happy, prosperous homes for themselves by helping her raise immense wheat crops.

You can get a Homestead of 160 acres FREE and other lands at remarkably low prices. During many years Canadian wheat fields have averaged 20 bushels to the acre many yields as high as 45 bushels to the acre. Wonderful crops also of Oats, Barley and Flax. Mixed farming as profitable an industry as grain raising. The excellent grasses full of nutrition are the only food required for beef or dairy purposes. Good schools, churches, markets convenient, climate excellent.

Military service is not compulsory in Canada, but there is an extra demand for farm labor to replace the many young men who have volunteered for the war. The Government is urging farmers to put extra acreage into grain. Write for literature and particulars as to reduced railway rates to Supt. of Immigration, Ottawa, Canada, or

TO PREVENT OLD AGE COMING TOO SOON!

"Toxic poisons in the blood are thrown out by the kidneys. The kidneys act as filters for such poisons. If we wish to prevent old age coming too soon and increase our chances for a long life, we should drink plenty of pure water and take a little Anuric," says the famous Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y.

When suffering from backache, frequent or scanty urine, rheumatic pains here or there, or that constant tired, worn-out feeling, the simple way to overcome these disorders is merely to obtain a little Anuric from your nearest druggist and you will quickly notice the grand results. You will find it many times more potent than lithia, and that it dissolves uric acid as hot water does sugar.

Pipefish Has "Pocket."

The pipefish, as it is called, from the length of its jaws, has a pocket on the under side of its body nearly half its length. It is found in the male species only, and is the only part of its body which is unprotected by large flat plates, which take the place of scales in its protective armor. In this pocket the young fish are carried very similar to the way the kangaroo carries its young.

Can't Loose Hair

Twenty Years from Today a Baldheaded Man will be an Unusual Sight

One of the most prominent druggists of America made a statement a few weeks ago which has caused a great deal of discussion among scientists in the medical press. He said: 'If the new hair grower, Mildredina Hair Remedy, increases its sales as it has during the past year, it will be used by nearly every man, woman and child in America within 8 years.

When Mildredina Hair Remedy is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years frim now a bald will be a rarity

There is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the germs. There is only one hair preparation that will kill the germs and that is Mildredina Hair Remedy. This unusual hair restorer with its record of thousands of cures will grow hair on any head where there is any life left; it will cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp in three weeks or money back. It is the most pleasant and invigorating tonic, is not not sticky nor greasy and is used extensively by ladies of refinement who desire to have and to keep their hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant. Fifty cents for a large bottle of druggists everywhere. Mail orders filled by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass.

SAFETY DEMANDS FEDERAL CONTROL OF THE RAILROADS

Only Way to Meet Emergencies of Nation, Says A. P. Thom.

STATES' RIGHTS PRESERVED

Principles Which Railways Hold Should Govern Regulatory System in Interests of Public and the Roads—Compulsory System of Federal Incorporation Favored.

Washington, Dec. 4.—That the interests of national defense require that control of railway lines should rest with the federal government and not with the states was the claim advanced by Alfred P. Thom, counsel to the Railway Executives' Advisory Committee, in concluding his preliminary statement of the case for the railways before the Newlands Joint Committee on Interstate Commerce.

"We must be efficient as a nation if we are to deal successfully with our national emergencies," said Mr. Thom, "and we must appreciate that efficient transportation is an essential condition of national efficiency. If we are to halt and weaken our transportation systems by state lines, by the permanent imposition of burdens by unwise regulation, we will make national efficiency impossible."

States' Rights Would Not Suffer.

Mr. Thom cited many instances in which shippers in one state were injuriously affected by selfish regulations imposed on the railroads by neighboring states. He pointed out that federal regulation would be no invasion of the rights of the states but would be the means of preserving the rights which they acquired when they entered the Union, one of which was the right to the free movement of their products across state boundaries.

What the Railroads Advocate.

The principles which the railroads believe should be incorporated in any just system of regulation were summarized by Mr. Thom as follows:

1. The entire power and duty of regulation should be in the hands of the national government, except as to matters so essentially local and incidental that they cannot be used to interfere with the efficiency of the service or the just rights of the carriers.

2. As one of the means of accomplishing this, a system of compulsory federal incorporation should be adopted, into which should be brought all railroad corporations engaged in interstate or foreign commerce.

3. The Interstate Commerce Commission under existing laws has too much to do and is charged with conflicting functions, including the investigation, prosecution and decision of cases. The latter duties should be placed in the hands of a new body which might be called the Federal Railroad Commission. Regional Commissions should be established in different parts of the country to assist the Interstate Commerce Commission by handling local cases.

4. The power of the Commission should be extended to enable it to prescribe minimum rates and not merely maximum rates as at present. This would increase their power to prevent unjust discriminations.

Justice to Public and Roads.

5. It should be made the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission, in the exercise of its powers to fix reasonable rates, to so adjust these rates that they shall be just at once to the public and to the carriers. To this end the Commission, in determining rates, should consider the necessity of maintaining efficient transportation and extensions of facilities, the relation of expenses to rates and the rights of shippers, stockholders and creditors of the roads.

6. The Interstate Commerce Commission should be invested with the power to fix the rates for carrying mails.

7. The federal government should have exclusive power to supervise the issue of stocks and bonds by railroad carriers engaged in interstate and foreign commerce.

8. The law should recognize the essential difference between things which restrain trade in the case of ordinary mercantile concerns and those which restrain trade in the case of common carriers. The question of competition is not the only fair criterion.

9. The law should expressly provide for the meeting and agreement of traffic or other officers of railroads in respect of rates or practices. This should, however, be safeguarded by requiring the agreements to be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission and to be subject to be disapproved by it.

"My legal proposition," Mr. Thom said, "is that the Constitution as it now is gives full authority to Congress to regulate the instrumentalities of interstate commerce in all their parts. If the power of regulation is to reach the public requirements, it must be coextensive with the instrumentalities of commerce."

Mr. Thom explained that the roads are not asking either of the Committee or of Congress any increase in revenues, but that they are merely asking the perfection of a system which will be responsible to any need that may arise.

Easy Way to Reduce Flesh

Drink Hot Water and Take Tassco

Heve'nt you often wished for a medicine to reduce your flesh? Something that does not require dieting or calisthenics? Well right here you have it in 5-grain tassco tablets, that you may secure of any good druggist. They are pleasant to take, perfectly harmless and cause no restrictions of habit or eating and reduce the flesh, little by little, until you are down to the number of pounds you wish to weigh. Too much flesh is undesirable, as most quite stout people will readily admit and it detracts from one's good appearance; makes one clumsy and short of breath.

There is'nt any reason why anyone should be too stout, when there's this much-tried, perfectly satisfactory remedy at any good druggists. Tassco tablets, (don't forget the name) are recommended by physicians and are guaranteed to be perfectly harmless. Refuse substitutes, if you can't come to our store, we will mail tassco to you.

Tonoline is Beauty Aid

Announces Specialist

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said, 'Take tonoline.'

Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the of the blood—and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:—As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

FUND OFFERED FOR RELIEF WOULD AID IN BRINGING PEACE

ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION INVESTIGATOR URGES CONGRESSMEN TO RAISE $500,000,000 FOR WAR SUFFERERS.

SAYS ACT WOULD CREATE POPULAR DEMONSTRATIONS

Wilson Does Not Intend to Make Another Move Until He Is Fully Informed as to Reception Accorded the Teutonic Proposal in the Allied Capitals.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Frederick C. Walcott of New York, who recently investigated conditions in Poland and Belgium for the Rockefeller foundation, told a number of senators and representatives who met at the home of Miss Mabel T. Boardman, of the Red Cross, that a fund of $500,000,000 collected in this country and offered for relief of non-combatants in Europe would be a powerful peace influence at this time.

He said such an act would tend to create great popular demonstrations for peace among civilian populations of warring nations, because they would be anxious for the assistance in rehabilitating their homes and restoring normal living conditions.

Wants Popular Contributions.

Mr. Walcott suggested that a fund of that size should be raised by combined popular contributions and congressional appropriation. Considering the wealth of the United States, he declared it was not an exorbitant sum to give. Since 1914 the estimated aggregate income of the United States has been $80,000,000,000, he said, and the combined offerings for war sufferers has amounted to $40,000,000, or one-twentieth of 1 per cent of the income.

United States Takes First Step.

With the forwarding of the notes of the Central Powers proposing peace negotiations, the United States government performed its role of intermediary and took the only immediate step contemplated by President Wilson.

Now everyone in official and diplomatic quarters here is awaiting with profoundest interest some word indicating what nature of replies may be expected from the Allied powers. It it believed that the speech before the British parliament to be made tomorrow by Premier Lloyd-George will set forth England's attitude, and the hope is generally expressed here that the premier's illness will not prevent him from speaking.

No Move by Wilson Now.

No further light was shed on the purpose of the American government. There is every indication, however, that the President now does not intend to make another move, at least until he is fully informed as to the reception accorded the Teutonic proposal.

FLOUR TAKES LONG TUMBLE AFTER WHEAT PRICES FALL

Wholesale Quotations in Minneapolis Are $8.60 a Barrel—German Peace Move Responsible.

Minneapolis, Dec. 18.—Flour took a long tumble in the wake of the day's great break in the price of wheat.

The 14-cent decline in wheat had its reflection in a 40-cent decline in flour. Wholesale quotations at the close of the day were $8.60 a barrel. The drop in wholesale figures had its effect also on retail prices. Sacks of flour that sold for $2.50 a few weeks ago could be bought yesterday at $2.25.

Friday was the fourth day of a panicky condition in the wheat market in all the market centers of the country. Germany's peace move is held responsible.

ENGLAND TO CALL NEW ARMY OF MILLION MEN

Vote of Credit of $2,000,000,000 Bringing Total for War Up to $18,000,000,000 Moved in Commons.

London, Dec. 15.—A war office supplementary estimate provides for an additional million men of all ranks in the army for the year ending March 31, 1917—making a total of 5,000,000 for that 12-month period.

Great Britain is on the eve of taking further war measures. In the house of commons a vote of credit of £400,000,000 was moved, bringing the total for the war up to £3,532,000,000 nearly $18,000,000,000.

Crops Set Record for Value.

Washington, Dec. 18. — All records for value of the country's important farm crops were exceeded this year despite the smaller size of the crops. Their value was placed at $7,641,609,000 by the Department of Agriculture in its final estimates of the year that is $1,750,000,000 more than the same crops were worth last year. Higher prices, due partly to reduced production and partly to the demands for American food from the warring nations in Europe, were responsible for the vast increase in value.

VON BETHMANN-HOLLWEG

Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg made public Germany's peace proposals in a speech delivered in the reichstag.

PROSPECTS FOR PEACE

Germany has sent in effect an invitation to Entente Powers, neutral nations acting as messengers, to join in parley to discuss possible basis of peace.

Semiofficial announcement was made in the United States outlining terms that Allies may gain some idea of Germany's probable concessions.

Newspapers of Entente Powers hasten to deride or denounce suggestion of Central Powers, and question their motives.

Second thought reveals undercurrent of sentiment among allied officials and people to consider Teutonic proposal at full worth, and possibly reply by making known officially for the first time the objects of the Entente Powers.

If this is done, Germany will in reality have accomplished Bethmann-Hollweg's real object—the "smoking out" of the Allies' peace terms.

It would then be up to Germany and her Allies officially to make known their probable terms, thus reaching basis for intelligent comparison with the Entente's terms and discussion of prospects of ending the war.

If the Allies by even faintest hint indicate they may consider Teuton Powers' proffer, it is belief in Washington President Wilson immediately will propose an armistice that fighting may be halted while discussion is under way.

'NO REPEAL OF ADAMSON LAW'

SPANK BOTH SIDES IF NECESSARY, SAYS AUTHOR.

Representative Looks Optimistically Upon Efforts of Roads and Brotherhoods to Get Together.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Reports that railroad and brotherhood heads in peace conferences have planned to propose the repeal of the Adamson act and the substitution of a working agreement of their own making for it, aroused Representative Adamson, author of the law, to declare that Congress would "spank both sides to the controversy if necessary."

Mr. Adamson, who is the House representative of President Wilson in railway legislation matters, is willing to co-operate in any plan employes and employers may evolve for the interpretation of his law as applied to working conditions, but will vigorously oppose repeal of it as he thinks will the majorities of both houses.

"Congress will not agree to any repeal of the Adamson law," he said. The measure was passed in good faith and it is a constitutional enactment regulating hours of labor and not wages.

"I hope that the negotiations between the railroads and their employes will result in an agreement which will not make further legislation necessary, but Congress will see that the public gets a fair deal. If it becomes necessary to spank both sides, we'll spank them, though I hope that won't be necessary."

BRITISH DEFEAT TURKS IN REGION OF KUT-EL-AMARA

Take Offensive in Mesopotamia and Occupy Enemy Positions on Hal River.

London, Dec. 18. — British troops have taken the offensive in the region of Kut-el-Amara, in Mesopotamia, and have occupied Turkish positions on the Hai river, south of Kut-el-Amara, says an official statement. In the offensive movement the British crossed to the right bank of the Hai river and took Turkish trenches near Kala Haji Fahan, two and a half miles from Kut-el-Amara.

Progress in High Price Inquiry.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Progress in the government's inquiry into the high cost of living is confined largely to collection of information relating to the subject and to the study by the Department of Justice of existing laws to determine whether they are adequate to enable them to cope with the situation. Attorney General Gregory announced he would determine within a few days, after further study of data, whether he would recommend to the President that Congress be asked to pass additional legislation.

NO REPEAL OF THE EIGHT-HOUR LAW IS SEEN BY ADAMSON

CONGRESS WILL SPANK BOTH SIDES TO CONTROVERSY, IF NECESSARY, AUTHOR OF MEASURE SAYS.

ROADS AND BROTHERHOODS NOW IN CONCILIATORY MOOD

Representative Looks Upon Efforts of Managers and Employes to Get Together Optimistically—Aroused by Report of Working Agreement as Substitution.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Reports that railroad and brotherhood heads in peace conferences have planned to propose the repeal of the Adamson act and the substitution of a working agreement of their own making for it, aroused Representative Adamson, author of the law, to declare that Congress would "spank both sides to the controversy if necessary."

Mr. Adamson, who is the House representative of President Wilson in railway legislation matters, is willing to co-operate in any plan employes and employers may evolve for the interpretation of his law as applied to working conditions, but will vigorously oppose repeal of it as he thinks will the majorities of both houses.

"Congress will not agree to any repeal of the Adamson law," he said. The measure was passed in good faith and it is a constitutional enactment regulating hours of labor and not wages.

"I hope that the negotiations between the railroads and their employes will result in an agreement which will not make further legislation necessary, but Congress will see that the public gets a fair deal. If it becomes necessary to spank both sides, we'll spank them, though I hope that won't be necessary."

Both in Conciliatory Mood.

Representative Adamson looks upon the efforts of the railroads and brotherhood heads to get together optimistically, however. He says the result of the presidential election made the employers more eager for peace than they were last fall and that the growing belief that the President stands for a compulsory arbitration law has put the brotherhood leaders in a conciliatory frame of mind.

Labor is determined that no compulsory arbitration law shall go on the statute books, but realizing that the President evidently is very serious in his determination to prevent strike crises without investigation, they will exert every effort to draft a compromise plan that will have his endorsement.

THIRD REGIMENT READY TO QUIT FORT SNELLING

Every Company Is Expected to Be on Way to Home Town by Tuesday.

Minneapolis, Dec. 19.—Federal paymasters will start paying off the members of the Third Minnesota infantry at 8 a. m. Tuesday, and before the day is over every company in the regiment is expected to be on its way to its home city armory. Duluth, Eveleth and Hibbing companies will leave at 10:30 a. m. Red Wing, Rochester, Stillwater, Crookston and other units will leave later in the day.

WARNED OF GERMAN RAIDER

Allied Vessel Advised to Be on Guard Near U. S. Coast.

New York, Dec. 19.—Another warning to shipping of the Entente allies to be on guard against a German raider on this side of the Atlantic has been sent out by a British cruiser off Sandy Hook.

Motor Busses for Yellowstone.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Completion of long-talked of plans for substituting automobiles for the picturesque horse-drawn stages in Yellowstone National park has been announced by Secretary Lane. Next Summer there will be big ten-passenger motor cars to speed visitors through the long stretches of Lodge Pole forest, giving them time to linger at points of special interest. The passing of the horse is a feature of general reorganization of living and transportation facilities in the park.

Drug Watchmen; Get $1,000.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Five safe-blowers entered a State street store before daylight, chloroformed two watchmen, blew the safe and escaped with $1,000.

Germany Wants Conference.

London, Dec. 19. — Telegraphing from Copenhagen, the correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company quotes the Frankfurter Zeitung as saying: "Germany does not want a cessation of fighting but merely a conference at which all the belligerents shall openly state their peace proposals. A conference will be held at The Hague about January 15. While the conference is in session all the belligerents will be allowed to continue military operations."

What's Doing in Minnesota

Northfield. — Following the development of a case of scarlet fever, St. Olaf college has been closed. An employe at the men's dormitory has the disease.

Thief River Falls. — Only 60 arrests for drunkenness were made here from the first of the year until Dec. 6, as against 220 for the year 1915. Thief River Falls went dry the first of the year.

Lake City. — F. D. Currier, secretary of the Minnesota State Dairymen's association, has just announced the completion of the program for the annual convention, here January 16 to 19.

Lake City. — F. D. Currier, secretary of the Minnesota State Dairymen's association, has just announced the completion of the program for the annual convention, here January 16 to 19.

Duluth.—With 100 members already signed up, the Duluth Domestic Women's union is working along plans which the Industrial Workers of the World organizers hope will include all women in this city who make their living as servants.

Mankato. — Charles J. Macbeth, prominent in the business life of Mankato for years and father of Florence Macbeth, grand opera singer, died in Chicago. The funeral was held here. Mr. Macbeth had been a sufferer of diabetes for years.

St. Paul. — The least Minnesota can do for its troops on the Mexican border, in the opinion of Secretary of State Julius A. Schmahl, back from ten days' visit at Camp Llano Grande, is to provide tent stoves for the comfort of the men. Secretary Schmahl was the first state official from Minnesota to visit the camps.

Kimball. — The zeal of a hunting dog was responsible for the death of its master, John Macbeth of this city. Macereth and Stephen McLean had chased a mink into a hole and the dog jumped into the hole, but in leaping out struck the gun Macereth had stood against a tree. The gun was discharged and Macereth struck in the thigh with the full load.

Minneapolis. — The American Association of Fairs and Expositions, consisting of the 60 largest in the United States and Canada, is to establish a co-operative publicity bureau at the Minnesota state fair which will supervise the expenditure of approximately $500,000 annually. It is to be placed in charge of Ray P. Speer, publicity manager of the Minnesota state fair.

St. Paul. — Increase of $1,851,417 in the total of current money and credits assessments in the state and 1,987 in the number of persons so assessed, the state tax commission announces, have resulted from reassessments on that special classification in 122 scattered districts. The new figures show assessments against 3,281 persons totaling $3,045,966 in the districts covered.

St. Paul. — A public domain department of the state government, creation of which will be recommended along more or less similar lines by various organizations reporting to the next legislature, was the subject of a conference of advocates of the plan, especially the reclamation, soil survey, drainage and like features, in the office of the state immigration department at the new state capitol.

St. Paul. — Delegates to the annual meeting of the State Grange at University farm recalled the activity of the grange in the Eighties when that body was largely instrumental in promoting establishment of the school of agriculture under university auspices. Fewer than 100 delegates met, representing chapters in various rural communities. Dean Woods and Prof. C. P. Bull of the college of agriculture were speakers.

St. Paul. — Dates for coming state and county sales of approximately 50,000,000 feet of timber on state-owned lands in Northern Minnesota, have been fixed by J. A. O. Preus, state auditor, and Oscar Arneson, chief of the timber bureau in his department. About 28,000,000 feet of state timber will be offered at county sales scheduled as follows: January 15, 9 a. m., Two Harbors; 2 p. m., Duluth; January 16, Grand Rapids; January 17, Walker; January 18, International Falls.

Minneapolis. — The best of everything that grows in the Red river valley, farm crops, fruits, livestock and poultry, will be shown at the annual farm crop show of the Minnesota Red River Valley Development association Feb. 5 to 9 and in conjunction with the show will be a farmers' short course. Many parts of Minnesota are looking to these counties to furnish seed for the 1917 crop and the word has been sent out that the district has the seed. An especially good potato crop, a large part of which was held in warehouses, will furnish a supply for many other sections. The show will be the sixth that the association has given.

Minneapolis.—A professor of public health in the University of Minnesota is demanded by medical faculty members, backed up by President George E. Vincent and Dr. William J. Mayo and declared necessary to enable the institution to keep the pace with other states.

Minneapolis. — Hardware and machinery dealers who belong to the Minnesota Retail Hardware Dealers' association will be in Minneapolis Jan. 9, 10 and 11 for the annual convention. L. C. Pryor of Minneapolis, chairman of the arrangements committee, is planning for 1,000 delegates.

CANADA AGAIN A PRIZE WINNER

Highest Premiums Awarded at Many Exhibitions.

The Fall fair season is past and a retrospect of them shows that Western Canada is stronger than ever in the matter of exhibits, and has taken more than her usual share of the prize money. From Western Canada to Texas is a long look, from Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba to the southwestern corner of Texas is several days' journey, but the enterprising farmers from this new country to the northwest were wide awake to the possibilities that waited them at the International Dry Farming Congress held at El Paso, Texas, a few weeks ago, to bring to the attention of those in that far-off corner what the land of Western Canada could do in the production of grains and roots from its soil. And what did these farmers do? The first thing was to carry off the first prize and sweepstakes for wheat. That was a foregone conclusion, for it has now become an established fact that nowhere else in the world is there grown wheat of the high character and market value of Western Canadian wheat. The same may be said of oats, of barley and of rye. But when it came to notice that Western Canada took first prize for alfalfa, it was then that more special attention was given to the products from Western Canada. It showed that in that country there lies the opportunity for supplementing the wonderful native grasses, so full of nutrition that with the tamed varieties, among them being alfalfa, the cattle with no other food were fattened and fitted for the shambles. Western Canada's worth was proved as probably the greatest mixed farming portion of the continent. When the steers from the Western Canadian prairies reach the Chicago stockyards they bring the top price and outweigh those from other places where grass fattening is the process. But it was not only in grains that Western Canada carried off the highest honors at the El Paso exhibition. Potatoes, parsnips, beets, carrots and rutabagas also took the highest honors. In root production this country is becoming favorably known.

The question often arises as to markets. There is always the highest price awaiting the producer, and as soon as the Hudson Bay Railway, now about completed, reaches the Bay, there will be an additional outlet for the product of the farm. The Pacific coast route, via the Panama canal, will give another outlet of which full advantage may be taken. With virgin land selling at from $15 to $20 per acre, and improved farms at reasonable prices and on easy terms, there is no better opportunity for the man with limited means and a desire to secure a home at the least cost in a country where he can soon become wealthy, as thousands of others have done, than in Western Canada. To the man with less means and who is prepared to accept a farm of 160 acres free, the Dominion Government offers him his choice in districts that have land of the highest type, but at present being from ten to twenty miles from a railway.

The Peace River Country, now being opened for settlement and reached by railway affords excellent opportunity to the homesteader. To secure information as to Western Canadian lands write the Canadian Government agent, whose name appears elsewhere in this paper.—Advertisement.

Harvard Students Pay Bills.

Testimony to the truth of the statement that Harvard students are as a rule reliable in the matter of payment of bills, is given in the report of the Co-Operative society. "The society loses very little through uncollectable accounts," runs the report, "in spite of the fact that by far the larger part of its sales are on credit. During the past year, in a total business of $445,000, the entire amount written off the books as uncollectable was $212.23."

Under the Mistletoe

by De Lysle Ferree Cass

A COIFFURED mesh of copper-colored hair, half disarranged, yet as scientific as a spider's web—humid melting eyes, luminous with a light born only of itself—a dimpled pitfall on one cheek where art and nature blend indistinguishably—red, red moist lips beneath which the ardent blood of maidenhood throbs strongly like a runner's pulse—a seductive sweep of velvety throat, with the delicate tracery of veins showing faintly violet—a tempestuous bosom—

And around all this, Two Arms—a Man's.

GOOD WISHES

By FORTUNE FREE.

SOMEONE said that the richest person was the one who was fullest of good wishes for others and who received their good wishes in return. Wishing others well did him or her all the good in the world, and the good wishes in return were powerful for good. Don't we find it so ourselves? No one can do without them. They are our dearest possessions.

Montague Williams, the celebrated British barrister, once related the story of a rather unlovely old gentleman of miserly habits and rejoicing in the nickname amongst the urchins of the neighborhood of "Old Pickbones." Generosity was not one of his virtues, and if he wished any human creatures well he kept it a secret to himself. He was a man who seemed impervious to all good wishes—a solitary old grudger who cared nothing for the good or the bad wishes of any human creature. When he died, however, it turned out that he had been by no means as thick-skinned as he seemed. He left a will in which he bequeathed money to different persons, and ten thousand pounds to some unknown individual whom he directed his solicitor to discover if possible. That person had been accustomed to send him yearly an anonymous post card with just, "Best wishes at this time to you."

The writer gave no clue as to who he was. Did the old gentleman tear the cards up or throw them into the fire? Not a bit of it. He had carefully preserved them—tied them up in a nice packet. "If the writer can be discovered," he ordered in his will, "I bequeath him ten thousand pounds for his good will."

I would dearly have liked for the sender of those post cards to have got that money, but all efforts to find him proved unavailing.

One cannot help wishing well to the person who wishes others well. Good wishes are the biggest bond on earth. Isn't it a delightful thing to think that others are thinking of us?

The well-wisher is thinking of us. He also puts his good thought for us into words: "I wish you every good luck," or something of that kind. It is like a grasp of a hand pressing ours. It blesses both the giver and the receiver. I don't know which gets the most out of it.

There are times when the world breaks out into a mighty shout, as it were, of good wishes. Christmas time is the great season. Never had we more need of them than at this coming Christmas time. It is an enormous opportunity for the good wisher to make his power felt.

It is a curious and beautiful thing about this Christmas spirit that year after year it leads us to attempt the all but impossible, in order to give pleasure to others; while in the end everyone's joy is the result, not of what he has received from others, but of what he has done for them.

Taking Him at His Word.

Hem (opening a fancy box)—What do you think of the new necktie?

Shimmer—Gee, it's a marvel of beauty. Where'd you get it?

"I got it from one of my aunts for Christmas, but I have decided to give it to you. Put it right on and wear it."

"Aw, go on! Can't you take a joke?"—Youngstown Telegram.

The One-Idea Man.

It pays to stick to one thing. Only those persons in whose lives some one great purpose outweighs everything else rise above the shoulders of the crowd. Concentration does it. Stragglers in the commercial world are reminded that "the man who minds his own business will soon have a business of his own to mind." Paul had a passion for one thing, as he said, "Forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, I press on toward the goal unto the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." And Paul succeeded, by holding to that one thing, so that his life was glorified by the presence of Christ, and made fruitful to the rest of the world, as few if any other lives of the Christian era. Have you decided what your one goal is?—Sunday School Times.

Christ can give even a profane swearer a new heart—and also a new vocabulary. Cussing men are a menace.

STATE OFFERS BIG AREA TO SETTLERS

368,000 ACRES OPENED BY FILING OF SELECTIONS UNDER RAILROAD GRANTS.

FARMERS' WEEK AT STATE "U"

More Than Score of Associations to Hold Meetings for Discussion of Problems Related to Agriculture and Home Life.

St. Paul.

More than 368,000 acres of state-owned swamp land in St. Louis, Lake and Cook counties are opened for sale and settlement by the filing of final selections under railroad grants, according to State Auditor J. A. O. Preus. The announcement, he added, is of great importance to the counties affected.

Showing a total of 4,711,278.18 acres conveyed to the state under the swamp land act passed by Congress March 12, 1860, the auditor reports that 2,892,141.30 acres, or more than half, were given away to railroads to encourage building projects.

The figures relate only to swamp land grants, a recent report by D. F. Jurgensen, chief engineer of the state railroad and warehouse commission, having shown that the state in early days donated land actually worth about $65,000,000 to secure the construction of railroads that cost less than $40,000,000.

The total area now released includes 245,622.82 acres in St. Louis county, 76,623.85 in Lake and 46,426.75 acres in Cook county.

Farmers' Week at "U."

More than a score of state-wide associations or groups related to the agriculture or home life of Minnesota will hold individual or joint meetings at University Farm, during Farmers' and Home-Makers' Week, January 1-6, 1917.

These organizations and groups are as follows:

January 2—Minnesota State Federation of Farmers' Clubs; Minnesota Crop Improvement Association; Poultry Association and Clubs.

Jan. 3—Minnesota Sheep Breeders' Association; Minnesota Horse Breeders' Association; Minnesota Potato Growers' Association; Small Fruit Growers; Farm Crops, farm management, and seed grain conference; Housewives' League.

January 4—Minnesota Livestock Breeders' Association; Minnesota Vegetable Growers; Mothers' Club Council.

Jan. 5—All-Minnesota Development Association; Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' Association; Red-Polled Breeders' Association; Holstein Breeders, Association; Guernsey Breeders' Association; Jersey Breeders' Association; Ayrshire Breeders' Association; Garden Flower Society; Farm Bureau Conference—all farm bureau associations in state.

The gathering of these various groups, together with those who attend the regular lectures and demonstrations of the week will make Farmers' and Home-Makers' Week this year the largest gathering of the kind ever held in Minnesota.

For Women's Reformatory.

After nearly two years of deliberation and many inspection tours, members of the state board of control are preparing to select a site for the women's reformatory, a new state institution created by the last legislature.

Towns understood still to be in the running are Cambridge, Litchfield, Cokato, Shakopee, Watertown, Cleveland and Sandstone. The decision is to be reported to the incoming legislature, which then will have to make an appropriation for building. The site probably will be selected within 30 days.

Would Restrict Marriage.

Marriage in Minnesota of persons having communicable disease will be forbidden by law, if a recommendation of the voluntary commission on laws relating to children passes the legislature. The commission tentatively adopted the plan at a meeting in St. Paul. It probably will be presented to the legislature.

Fund to Revolve in 5 Years.

The proposed "revolving fund" authorized by a constitutional amendment passed Nov. 7 to finance the development of unsold state lands will revolve every five years, according to the plans being worked out in a bill by Senator P. H. McGarry of Walker, one of the fathers of the amendment. Senator McGarry said that the bill will provide for a superintendent to direct the development work, under an advisory board of seven members, of which the governor and state auditor will be ex-officio members.

THERE IS SOMEBODY ELSE

One Thing the Average Man and Woman Ought Always to Keep in Mind.

One thing that the average man, and woman, too, ought to remember is that there is somebody else. It is not actual and offensive conceit, it seems to be simply self-absorption, forgetting that there really is anybody else. We have nothing to say against the condemnation of careless and reckless drivers of automobiles. The offenders deserve it all. But nobody knows how many lives are spared every day by the careful drivers.

It is customary for foot passengers to step from the sidewalk to the highway without thinking to look up and down the street. Sometimes they do look one way and keep on walking into and across the street with eyes pointed steadily that way. An automobile coming from the other direction is of no more interest than a comet said also to be approaching. If it were not for the obnoxious horns, there would be many more killings than there are. Nobody gets any credit for this. Instead, the horrid horns are condemned as a nuisance. This habit of self-absorption is not limited to people who risk their lives in stepping into the crowded streets. On the regular sidewalk often people turn sharp around without looking to see what or who is coming and it is they who get mad at the collision they produce. When they do not turn they often stop short. Bump follows and it is the bumper who is to blame. Such is life.—Hartford Courier.

Higher Education.

Mrs. Brown called at the home of Mrs. Jones to talk over the fashions and things, and somewhere about the sixty-fifth lap of the conversation the caller referred to the young daughter of the host. "By the way, dear," remarked Mrs. Brown inquisitively, "where is Minnie? I haven't seen her for an age." "Minnie is at college," proudly responded the fond mother, and then added: "And I am so worried about her. I haven't had a letter for nearly two weeks." "There is where you make a mistake," was the prompt rejoinder of Mrs. Brown. "Instead of letting her go to college why don't you send her to one of those correspondence schools?"

Can't Loose Hair

Twenty Years from Today a Baldheaded Man will be an Unusual Sight

One of the most prominent druggists of America made a statement a few weeks ago which has caused a great deal of discussion among scientists in the medical press. He said: "If the new hair grower, Mildredina Hair Remedy, increases its sales as it has during the past year, it will be used by nearly every man, woman and child in America within 8 years

When Mildredina Hair Remedy is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years frim now a bald will be a rarity

There is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the germs. There is only one hair preparation that will kill the germs and that is Mildredina Hair Remedy. This unusual hair restorer with its record of thousands of cures will grow hair on any head where there is any life left; it will cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp in three weeks or money back. It is the most pleasant and invigorating tonic, is not not sticky nor greasy and is used extensively by ladies of refinement who desire to have and to keep their hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant. Fifty cents for a large bottle of druggists everywhere Mail orders filled by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass.

BRYAN AGAINST OWNERSHIP BY THE GOVERNMENT

Gives Newlands Committee His Views on Railroad Control.

COMPETITION PREFERABLE.

Federal Regulation Should Not Be Allowed to Exclude Exercise of State Authority, He Contends—Thinks Railroad Stocks Should Represent Actual Value and Be Stable as Government Bonds.

Washington, Dec. 11.—William J. Bryan, who startled the country ten years ago by advocating government ownership of railroads, appeared before the Newlands Joint Committee on Interstate Commerce last week in support of the claim that the states should be allowed to retain authority over the regulation of all transportation lines within their borders. Mr. Bryan explained that he had long regarded government ownership as inevitable, but only because of railroad opposition to effective regulation.

Against Government Ownership.

"Personally I cannot say that I desire government ownership," he explained, "because I lean to the individual idea rather than to the collective idea; that is, I believe that government ownership is desirable only where competition is impossible."

Alfred P. Thom, counsel to the Railway Executives' Advisory Committee, previously had presented before the members of the Newlands Committee as one of his reasons for urging a better balanced and more systematic regulation of railroads the argument that this is the only alternative to government ownership. Calling attention to the restrictions imposed upon the transportation lines by conflicting state laws and regulations, to the practical cessation of new construction and to the impossibility under existing conditions of securing the new capital needed for extensions and betterments of railway facilities, he warned the Congressmen that unless they provided a fair and reasonable system of regulation that would enable the railroads to meet the growing needs of the country's business the national government would be compelled to take over the ownership of the lines with all the evils attendant upon such a system.

Preservation of Competition.

Mr. Bryan, on the other hand, holds that the further extension of federal authority over the railroads would be a step in the direction of government ownership. He advanced the view that the centralization of control in the hands of the national government would impose too great a burden upon the regulating body, would offer strong temptation to railroads to interfere in politics and would encourage the general movement toward centralization of power in the federal government at the expense of the states. He said that he did not object to consolidations of railroad lines so long as they did not destroy competition, that he knew of no complaint against great railway systems because of their size and that he believed that the preservation of competition was the test to be applied to all consolidations.

Regulation of Securities.

Mr. Bryan declared himself in favor of national regulation of railway stock and bond issues, but added that he saw no reason why that should exclude the states from acting on the same subject as to state corporations. "I would like to see the stock of a railroad, as long as it is in private hands, made as substantial and as unvarying as the value of a government bond," he asserted.

He suggested that railroad capitalization be readjusted to equalize it with actual valuation of the property represented, making due allowance for equities, and that when this was done the roads should be allowed to earn sufficient income to keep their stock at par and to create a surplus. The latter, he tentatively proposed, might be allowed to amount to 25 per cent of the capital.

Railway Earnings Low.

This subject of railroad capitalization and the amount of railroad earnings received further attention from the committee during its recent sessions. In answer to questions by Senator Cummins, Mr. Thom submitted figures showing the net earnings of the roads in recent years. These figures show that during the five years from 1905 to 1910 the average net earnings were 5.25 per cent of the net capitalization, while for the five years from 1910 to 1915 the average was only 4.59 per cent. The total earnings on the stock, computed by adding to the net operating income the income from the securities owned and deducting bond interest, were for 1910, 7.09 per cent; for 1911, 6.17 per cent; for 1912, 4.9 per cent; for 1913, 5.94 per cent; for 1914, 4.06 per cent; for 1915, 3.44 per cent, thus showing an almost continuous decrease throughout this six year period. It was announced that Halford Erickson, formerly chairman of the Wisconsin Railroad Commission, would submit more complete information on this subject to the Committee at a later date.

Easy Way to Reduce Flesh

Drink Hot Water and Take Tassco

Have'nt you often wished for a medicine to reduce your flesh? Something that does not require dieting or calisthenics? Well right here you have it in 5-grain tassco tablets, that you may secure of any good druggist. They are pleasant to take, perfectly harmless and cause no restrictions of habit or eating and reduce the flesh, little by little, until you are down to the number of pounds you wish to weigh. Too much flesh is undesirable, as most quite stout people will readily admit and it detracts from one's good appearance; makes one clumsy and short of breath.

There is'nt any reason why anyone should be too stout, when there's this much-tried, perfectly satisfactory remedy at any good druggists. Tassco tablets, (don't forget the name) are recommended by physicians and are guaranteed to be perfectly harmless. Refuse substitutes, if you can't come to our store, we will mail tassco to you.

A Smooth Hairless Skin for Women.

From Beauty Secrets

With the aid of a plain mixol paste it is an easy matter to rid the skin of unsightly hairy growths. The paste is made by mixing some water with powdered mixol. This is applied to the hairs not wanted and after 2 or 3 minutes rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. When you go to your druggist for mixol be sure you get the genuine article, and if he will not supply you, the American Proprietary Co. of Boston will send you a 50c or $1.00 package by mail.

Dahl.

Ruth Olive Dahl, the second child of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Dahl, was born Jan. 24th 1910 and baptized Feb. 23rd by Rev. M. E. Waldeland, of St. Ansgar, Iowa. She died at the hospital at Thief River Falls, Minn., at the age of 6 years, 10 months and 26 days. Her death was caused by abcess of the stomach. She was attending school at the time she was taken sick and her parents decided to take her away where she could have special treatment. Ruth was operated on Monday Dec. 18th and died Wednesday the 20th at 6 o'clock A. M. She bore her terrible suffering patiently and while in the greatest of pain, when asked how she was, would answer in her sweet little cheerful way "I am better".

Her mother was constantly with her and Tuesday evening seeing the end of the short life was nearing, [illegible] her death bed 2 hours before she passed away.

Ruth leaves to mourn her death: her father and mother; two brothers, Harvey age 13 and Leslie age 8-1-2 years and one sister, little Gladys, age 1 1-2 years, also a host of relatives and friends, who mourn her early departure. Four little girls, Myrtle, Ruby and Anna Johnson and Ellie Norbeck carried the little white casket covered with beautiful flowers, to her last resting place. She was laid to rest in the Golden Valley cemetery December 22, 1916; Rev. M. B. Ordahl, of Holt, officiating at the funeral.—C.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

VILLISTA FORCES REACH VITAL RAIL CENTER IN MEXICO

MET FEEBLE RESISTANCE FROM CARRANZA GARRISON A TORREON—REPORTS TRANSMITTED TO WASHINGTON.

VILLISTA LEADER NOW AT NEW PINNACLE OF POWER

Villa Makes Bold Stroke to Crush Murguia—Fall of Pivotal Town Paralyzes Transportation Systems —New Attack On Chihuahua City Seen.

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 26.—It was reported that Joe Ynex Alazar is attacking Chihuahua City and that Villa is approaching Jimenez on his way north to Participate in this attack.

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 26.—Villa is now in possession of Torreon, the most important railway center in northern Mexico. The Villistas met with a brief resistance from the Carranzista garrison, which then abandoned the city.

At Height of Power.

Authentic reports of the fall of Torreon were obtained by United Sates department agents here during the night and transmitted to Washington. Despite the silence of the Mexican consulate United States authorities here appear sure of their ground.

This stroke places Villa at the height of his power since General Pershing's expedition chased his broken bands into Durango.

Attack at Daybreak.

Through "underground" sources mining men here learned additional details of the Carranzista disaster. With six troop trains the bandit chief passed through Bermejillo after the government forces had hastily withdrawn. Led by Colonel Ferandez, the Villistas started their attacks upon the Coahuila metropolis through Gomes Palacia and Lerdo before daybreak. They met with desultory resistance from the Carransa forces, meantime the government garrisons, estimated at from 1,000 to 3,000 men, evacuating the city.

To Again Attack Chihuahua.

Several Americans in charge of three foreign owned enterprises fled from Aguas Calientes before the attack began. Perceiving preparations for evacuations, the Villistas waited until the garrison of Torreon had made good their escape. All lines of communication at the north are now held by the bandit chief.

Advices place General Salazar, next in command to Villa, south of Chihuahua City, in a strategic position holding General Murguia in the northern capital and preventing movement of government troops toward Torreon. Salazar is reported to be making preparations for another attack upon Chihuahua City.

Battle Lasts Three Days.

Continuous fighting has been going on the last three days a short distance south of the city between a column sent out by Murguia to halt the approach of the Villistas.

In military circles here the latest movements of Villa are being watched with keenest interest. Officials discern in the reported capture of Torreon Villa's boldest stroke—a smashing blow at the army of General Murguia in northern Mexico.

SWITCHMEN GET EIGHT HOUR DAY AND OVERTIME

Part of Demands Granted by Federal Arbitration Board—Adamson Law Not Approved, Claim.

New York, Dec. 26.—The eight hour day with straight pro rata time for overtime is granted to the Switchmen's union by the Federal Arbitration board in a decision in the switchmen's controversy with the railroads. The award gives an increase of 5 cents per hour for both foremen and helpers.

It was said on behalf of the railroads that the award was interpreted by them as "not giving an O. K. to the Adamson law."

The switchmen had asked an advance of 10 to 12 cents. They had demanded also time and a half pay for overtime work instead of the pro rata basis fixed by the board.

Arabia No Transport, Britain Says.

Washington, Dec. 26.—Contradicting Germany's contention that the steamer Arabia was a British transport, the British government has informed the state department the Arabia was not in admiralty service when she was submarined, nor had she ever been in such service.

Rumored Lansing May Resign.

Washington, Dec. 26.—The resignation of Secretary of State Lansing would be no surprise to senators, especially those on the upper house's foreign affairs committee. Though none would permit himself to be quoted, criticism of the secretary by both administration and anti-administration factions was indulged in because he had "crudely complicated an already confused diplomatic situation" in his comments on the President's message to the warring nations suggesting a peace conference.

BRITISH REPLY TO WILSON TO AWAIT ALLIES' DECISIONS

BONAR LAW DECLARES IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO MAKE STATEMENT NOW—KING PROROGUES PARLIAMENT.

BERLIN TO MAKE KNOWN TERMS OF PEACE AT ONCE

Semi-Official "Feeler" Sent Out From The Hague—British Ruler Says Armies Will Fight Until Victory Is Won—Is Confident of Final Success.

London, Dec. 23.—Great Britain will formulate no reply to President Wilson's peace note until after consultation with all the Allies. This was the official announcement by A. Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, in the house of commons shortly before parliament was prorogued until Feb. 7 by the king.

Asked for Statement.

The chancellor was asked whether a statement could be made regarding the American note. He replied:

"It must be obvious to the house that this is a question that can only be dealt with in communication with our allies and that it is absolutely impossible to make a statement now."

The American communication has been delivered to Premier Briand of France, says a dispatch from Paris. It is also reported to have been received by the Berlin government.

To Make Known Chief Terms.

Regarding the recent proposals of the Teutonic Powers that peace negotiations be entered into forthwith, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from The Hague says it is announced semi-officially that should the Entente Allies in their reply to the peace proposals of the Central Powers leave the door open for negotiations, Germany will make known its chief peace terms immediately.

King George Talks.

King George, in proroguing parliament, made no mention of the Wilson peace note, but added the weight of his words to the sentiment expressed Tuesday by Premier David Lloyd George.

"The vigorous prosecution of the war must be our single endeavor," the king declared, "until we have vindicated the rights so ruthlessly violated by our enemies and established the security of Europe on a sure foundation."

King George thanked the house of commons for its "unstinted liberality" in providing for funds to carry on the burdens of the war.

Confident of Victory.

"In this sacred cause," the king declared, "I am assured of the united support of all my peoples. I pray God may give us His blessing."

"My government," he continued after summarizing the nation's aims in the war, "was reconstructed with the sole object of furthering those aims unaltered and unimpaired. I am confident that, however long the struggle may be, my army and my navy, with those of my faithful allies, aided by subjects throughout the empire, will achieve victorious consummation of the aims for which I entered the war."

GERMAN SUBMARINE IS SUNK

U-45 Victim of Destroyers—British Capture El Arish.

London, Dec. 23.—El Arish, 90 miles east of the Suez canal, has been captured by the British.

Paris, Dec. 23.—The German submarine U-45 has been sunk by destroyers, according to a Mantes dispatch. The U-45 recently sank steamers off Saint Nazaire.

An artillery duel of great intensity occurred north of Monastir Thursday on the Macedonia front. Along the easterly end of the line on the Struma front encounters between patrols occurred.

SLAYER DENIED NEW TRIAL

Fred T. Price Loses Fight in Supreme Court—Life Sentence Upheld.

Minneapolis, Dec. 23.—Fred T. Price, convicted of the murder of his wife, Mary Fridley Price, on East River drive, Minneapolis, November 28, 1914, has just been denied a new trial in his appeal to the state supreme court. The higher court affirms the Hennepin county district court order, holds the evidence sufficient to find Price guilty and overrules the assignments of errors in his trial. The case was argued nine weeks ago. The supreme court gave opinions in 20 appeals.

"No! No! No! British Paper's Reply.

London, Dec. 23.—The general public had their first news of President Wilson's note from the morning papers and the matter was the one topic of conversation on incoming trains and in the country. The evening papers, which do not print editorials, came out with big headlines which expressed their views. The Evening News, the afternoon edition of the Daily Mail, heads a reprint of the comment of the morning with the one word "No" and under it "Our answer to President Wilson."

What's Doing in Minnesota

Marine Mills. — A defective gasoline stove is believed to have caused the fire that destroyed the Marine Mills creamery, with a loss of more than $3,000.

Mankato.—Edward Dawson, a farmer living south of Good Thunder, was killed when his automobile turned over while he was returning home from Mankato. He was 38 years old.

Duluth. — After operating continuously in Duluth and on the Minnesota Iron Ranges for a year, the Industrial Workers of the World will fold their tents and leave this part of the country, it is said at I. W. W. headquarters.

St. Paul.—Re-appointments of Samuel Lord as state tax commissioner and of C. J. Swendson to the board of control, has just been announced by Governor Burnquist. Both men serve for terms of six years, with salaries of $4,500.

Detroit. — George Lamoreaux, 35 years old, a Sioux City Indian, shot and killed Mrs. Caroline Holstein, a Chippewa Indian, and then killed himself at White Earth, a little village on the Indian reservation of that name north of here.

Northfield. — A co-operative milk exchange will be established in the Twin Cities as the result of action taken by members of the Twin City Milk Producers' association and farmers from Northfield, Dennison, Stanton and Randolph here.

Faribault.—Faribault witnessed the dedication of the biggest co-operative enterprise in southern Minnesota, when approximately 1,000 stockholders, mostly farmers, formally viewed the recently organized Faribault Packing & Provision company's plant and were dined at noon in the cooler building.

Fort Snelling. — The Second Minnesota infantry regiment, ordered home by the War department, probably will not reach Fort Snelling until late in January. This was indicated in dispatches from Chicago, which said the troops will be among the last of the 16,000 ordered returned from the border.

Owatonna. — Ninety-three Christmas presents, one for each of I Company, Second Minnesota Infantry, and one for each local soldier at the Mexican border, were sent to Llano Grande, Texas, as Owatonna's offering. One hundred dollars of I Company Soldiers' Fund was used to buy the presents and a like amount has been set aside for the soldiers' Christmas dinner.

Thief River Falls. — Drainage of lands along the Red Lake river by officials of the Red Lake Indian reservation has been assured land owners, according to information received by Senator D. P. O'Neill. This drainage will be of inestimable value to many farmers in the far eastern part of Pennington county and those living on the western border of the reservation.

St. Paul. — At a meeting of the Minnesota Fish and Game Protective league in St. Paul, it was recommended that there be a closed season for three years on all species of grouse, including the prairie chicken, quail and other game birds. Steps to protect game birds from enemies such as the skunk, crow, weasel and other destroyers were embodied in a resolution adopted at the meeting.

Minneapolis. — Establishment of a bureau of child welfare in the State Board of Control and creation of boards of children's guardians in each county of the state are recommended in a preliminary report from the voluntary commission on revision of Minnesota laws relating to children, presented by Judge E. F. Waite, Minneapolis, as chairman, to Governor Burnquist.

St. Paul. — "A $2,154,000 fire" in the heating and lighting plant service in the state capitol made no perceptible difference in the heat emanating from the boilers or the smoke curling from the chimney. Governor Burnquist, Attorney General Smith and State Treasurer Gooding, making up the state board of audit, burned in the big fire boxes 1,308 state bonds that had been redeemed and cancelled.

Mankato. — The Blue Earth county group of bankers, at a meeting held in this city, took a strong stand against itinerant investment brokers and resolved to discourage in every way possible the making of investments by local residents in property far from home. They favored the passage of a "blue sky" law, and also a law requiring the licensing of traveling promoters and putting them under bonds.

St. Paul. — "There is practically no remedy for the present high prices," E. Dana Durand, professor of political economy at the University of Minnesota, said in addressing the Current Topics club at the Commercial club. "The present high prices are due primarily to the increased amount of gold. But we are not concerned with them so much as the lack of increases in salaries and wages. There is no harm in high prices if they are accompanied by higher wages."

St. Paul. — Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith has announced that he will ask the incoming legislature to give him an additional assistant. He said he expects to reappoint the five assistants now in his office, but that a new man is needed to attend to railroad matters.

St. Paul.—Denying the pardon petitions of one prisoner at Stillwater and four others in workhouses and county jails, and either continuing to the regular term, January 8, or taking under advisement the remaining applications, the state board of pardons finished its special pre-holiday meeting.

MORE WHEAT, MORE CATTLE, MORE HOGS

Land Values Sure to Advance Because of Increasing Demand for Farm Products.

The cry from countries abroad for more of the necessaries of life is acute today; tomorrow it will be still more insistent, and there will be no letup after the war. This is the day for the farmer, the day that he is coming into his own. He is gradually becoming the dictator as it becomes more apparent that upon his industry depends the great problem of feeding a great world. The farmer of Canada and the United States has it within himself to hold the position that stress of circumstances has lifted him into today. The conditions abroad are such that the utmost dependence will rest upon the farmers of this continent for some time after the war, and for this reason there is no hesitation in making the statement that war's demands are, and for a long time will be, inexhaustible, and the claims that will be made upon the soil will with difficulty be met. There are today 25,000,000 men in the fighting ranks in the old world. The best of authority gives 75 per cent and over as having been drawn from the farms. There is therefore nearly 75 per cent of the land formerly tilled now being unworked. Much of this land is today in a devastated condition and if the war should end tomorrow it will take years to bring it back to its former producing capacity.

Instead of the farmer-producer producing, he has become a consumer, making the strain upon those who have been left to do the farming a very difficult one. There may be agitation as to the high cost of living, and doubtless there is reason for it in many cases. The middleman may boost the prices, combines may organize to elevate the cost, but one cannot get away from the fact that the demand regulates the supply, and the supply regulates the price. The price of wheat—in fact, all grains—as well as cattle, will remain high for some time, and the low prices that have prevailed will not come again for some time.

After the war the demand for cattle, not alone for beef, but for stock purposes, to replenish the exhausted herds of Europe, will be keen. Farm educators and advisers are telling you to prepare for this emergency. How much better it can be done on the low-priced lands of today, on lands that cost from ten to twenty dollars per acre, than it can on two and three hundred-dollar-an-acre land. The lands of Western Canada meet all the requirements. They are productive in every sense of the word. The best of grasses can be grown with abundant yields and the grain can be produced from these soils that beats the world, and the same may be said of cattle and horses. The climate is all that is required.

Those who are competent to judge claim that land prices will rise in value from twenty to fifty per cent. This is looked for in Western Canada, where lands are decidedly cheap today, and those who are fortunate enough to secure now will realize wonderfully by means of such an investment. The land that the Dominion Government is giving away as free homesteads in the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta are of a high class; they are abundant in every constituent that goes to make the most productive soils. The yields of wheat, oats and barley that have been grown on these lands gives the best evidence of their productiveness, and when backed up by the experience of the thousands of settlers from the United States who have worked them and become wealthy upon them, little more should be required to convince those who are seeking a home, even with limited means, that nowhere can they secure anything that will better equip them to become one of the army of industry to assist in taking care of the problem of feeding the world. These lands are free; but to those who desire larger holdings than 160 acres, there are the railroad companies and land corporations from whom purchase can be made at reasonable prices, and information can be secured from the Canadian government agent, whose advertisement appears elsewhere in this paper.—Advertisement.

JAP TOYS REPLACE GERMAN

European War Has Changed the Nationality of Our Well-Known Santa Claus.

That the war has changed the nationality of Santa Claus from German to Japanese, is made evident by the predominance of Japanese toys in the shops.

"Made in Japan" has taken the place of "Made in Germany." The wonderful displays from the "Cherry Blossom Kingdom" delight the hearts of parents as well as the little folks, for the inventive genius of the Japanese has produced a line of Christmas playthings that is unique.

When the Japanese steamship Wakasa Maru nosed her way into New York harbor after a 16,000-mile journey around the Cape of Good Hope, in order to dodge the submarines of the Teutonic nations, it was loaded with toys. There were Geisha girls, marvelous-carved elephants, dolls, mechanical roosters which eat corn out of a bucket and no end of new and original playthings.

The Japanese have been studying the toy market and have taken advantage of the international combat to bring toymaking up to the usual Oriental perfection, and they will make a strong bid for the toy market even after the war.

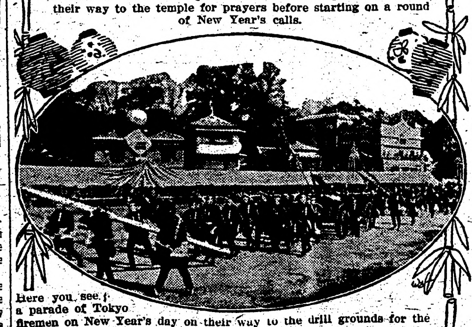
NEW YEAR'S DAY IN JAPAN

New Year's day has come to rank as one of the most popular of the Flowery Kingdom's holidays. As in America it is a day of feasting and good cheer, though oddly tempered by religious observances. The above picture shows three Japanese belles on their way to the temple for prayers before starting on a round of New Year's calls.



Here you see a parade of Tokyo firemen on New Year's day on their way to the drill grounds for the annual inspection, one of the big features in the way of celebrating the first day of the year in every Japanese city of any size. Fire engines and equipment pass in review before the city officials, after which fire drills are performed and the firemen take part in contests of various kinds. The fire engine has only recently been introduced into the Island Kingdom and the modern auto-truck is not yet known there. In the lower picture are shown the firemen with their bamboo scaling ladders which are used not only for life-saving and as an elevation from which to direct the water from the hose nozzle, but as a ram with which to knock down buildings too far gone to save and so prevent the spread of the conflagration. The Japanese firemen are wonderful acrobats and perform truly remarkable feats on the tall ladders, scaling them with the agility of monkeys. Men, women and children turn out to watch the exhibitions. Note the odd costumes of this brigade from Tokyo.

NEW YEAR SUPERSTITIONS

When the master enters the house for the first time in the new year he must take something in which he did not take out.

A piece of money placed on the doorstep on New Year's eve and brought in the moment the clock strikes will insure plenty throughout the year.

Never go out on New Year's day until someone has come in.

Throw out all peacock's feathers before New Year's day or you will have bad luck.

When the clock strikes 12 on New Year's eve open both the front and back door of the house, so that all evil spirits may pass out and the good ones pass in. But be sure to close the door as soon as the clock has finished striking, so that the good spirits may not escape.

On New Year's eve take a little money, bread, salt, wood and coal, tie them in a bundle and lay them on the doorstep. If the first person who comes to the door possesses a name whose initials are made up of straight lines, allow him to pick up the bundle and bring it in. Give him a gift, and let him pass out through the back door. Then you will have good luck for another year.

LAW BEING SOUGHT FOR PAPER MILLS

ATTORNEY GENERAL SMITH DRAFTS BILL AT REQUEST OF MINNESOTA EDITORS.

RECOMMENDS TEN CHANGES

State Efficiency Commission Urges Creation of Department of Public Domain Embracing Several Bureaus With Commissioners.

St. Paul.

Attorney General Smith is giving personal attention to drafting a bill for introduction in the next legislature for the establishment of state-owned paper mills on state timber lands, as proposed by the Minnesota Editorial association following the conclusion that the situation as to 1917 supply of print paper is so serious as to threaten discontinuance of many Minnesota newspapers.

A draft of such a bill was requested by Frank A. Day of the Fairmont Sentinel, and once secretary to the late Governor John A. Johnson, Chairman Herman Roe of the Northfield News; and other publishers on the legislation committee of the association, who consulted Attorney General Smith and other state officials on the subject.

Although the state supreme court more than 20 years ago ruled adversely on a proposal that the state engage in commercial business, the attorney general said, conditions have greatly changed in the interim and he hoped to draw a bill that would stand the constitutionality and all other tests, and afford the desired relief to the Minnesota newspaper publishers as well as returning the advantages promised to the state.

And in the paper mill project, it is explained, the state will be assured of a good market for pulpwood from state lands and grounds for a big reforestation undertaking.

Efficiency Board Reports.

The report of the state efficiency and economy commission summarizing its recommendations for 10 changes in Minnesota's system of government, has been presented to Governor J. A. A. Burnquist by A. J. Rockne, chairman of the commission. The commission will meet again Dec. 29 to make possible minor changes and plan a campaign for getting the program through the legislature. The recommendations will be incorporated into 10 separate bills and the argument and data compiled will be made public more fully.

Recommendations in the report include:

Creation of a state department of public domain, embracing bureaus of public lands, fish and game, forests, immigration, mines, highways and drainage and waters, each headed by a commissioner.

Elimination of unsalaried state boards and substitution of salaried commissions, the members to devote their entire time to the state's work.

A single state board of education to replace all existing boards with the exception of the university boards.

Designation of the state board of control to act as state purchasing agent, manage the capitol and handle other new duties.

A state bureau of investments.

Reorganization of the state health department.

Amendment of the state constitution to limit the house membership to 160 and the senate membership to 90.

A constitutional convention for the complete revision of the state constitution.

A law compelling all state departments to turn all miscellaneous receipts over to the state treasurer as soon as received.

Divorce of the state grain inspection system from the railroad and warehouse commission.

Abolition of present hotel and oil inspections system, and the transfer of these duties to the dairy and food commission.

The report represents the commission's work since Aug. 3, 1915, when it was organized.

Wealth Under Lakes.

State Auditor J. A. O. Preus states that fabulous mineral wealth underlying numerous lakes in Northern Minnesota may be mined and converted to useful ends. He plans to recommend new laws on the subject to the next Legislature, if only to get court rulings on various phases of the subject, and mainly that of ownership. "Numerous lakes in Northern Minnesota are underlaid with rich iron ore deposits worth probably many millions of dollars," Mr. Preus said.

To Ask More Teachers.

The need of betterment of the teaching facilities in the arts college is to be employed by the board of regents in its request for appropriations. Under direction of President Vincent facts are being marshaled to show how inadequately this college has been looked after in recent years. In the two college years ended July 31 last, a statement from the president discloses, student enrollment in the arts college increased 47.5 per cent, almost one-half, while faculty membership increased only 14 per cent.

Luck for Three Murphys.

Because they possess the name of Murphy, three students in search of an education are on their way to their ambition, through the terms of the will of the late William S. Murphy, a Harvard alumnus, who left $100,000 to the university, the income of which is to support scholarships for men of his name.

As there are no freshmen of that name entered this fall, three scholarships were given instead to students in the graduate schools, only one of whom holds a Harvard degree.

The holders are Clifton Murphy of Georgetown, S. C., first-year student in the law school; William A. Murphy of Boston in his first year in the medical school, and Gardner Murphy of Boston, a student in the graduate school.

The Young Idea Again.

The three-year-old son of Dr. B. S. Potter, superintendent of the county hospital for the incurable insane at Julietta, has been with his father often in his automobile when his father exclaimed: "Now, I've killed it!" as the engine stopped.

The boy was watching his mother use the sewing machine recently, when the needle broke and the machine stopped suddenly.

"Now you've killed it, mamma!" he exclaimed.

Poison Gas Found in Kelp.

In the "floaters" of kelp, or giant seaweed of the Pacific, Dr. Seth C. Langdon, instructor in chemistry at the University of Washington, has discovered the poisonous gas carbon monoxide. The total gas content of these cells has from 8 to 12 per cent of the carbon monoxide.

PRISONERS OF PARLIAMENT

Offenders May Be Shut Up in Clock Tower, but Buy Own Meals.

Few people are aware that the houses of parliament have their own prison. Yet situated high up in the clock tower is the M. P.'s prison, consisting of four bedrooms and two sitting rooms, London Tit-Bits says.

The honorable member who has been dishonored by imprisonment for a breach of parliamentary etiquette does not have a very hard life in St. Stephen's prison. The prisoner's meals are sent up to him from the house of commons' kitchens and he can choose whatever dishes he likes from the ordinary menu. Unlike an ordinary prisoner, he receives the bill for his meals from the catering authorities!

Perhaps the best remembered occupant of parliament's prison was Mr. Bradlaugh, who was sentenced by the speaker to imprisonment in the clock tower for refusing to withdraw when requested so to do.

Offenders against parliament other than members have before now been sentenced to imprisonment in the clock tower. These "outsiders" have included several public speakers and the editor of a prominent newspaper.

Raise High Priced Wheat on Fertile Canadian Soil

Canada extends to you a hearty invitation to settle on her FREE Homestead lands of 160 acres each or secure some of the low priced lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. This year wheat is higher but Canadian land just as cheap, so the opportunity is more attractive than ever. Canada wants you to help feed the world by tilling some of her fertile soil—land similar to that which during many years has averaged 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre. Think of the money you can make with wheat around $2 a bushel and land so easy to get. Wonderful yields also of Oats, Barley and Flax. Mixed farming in Western Canada is as profitable an industry as grain growing.

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

The Government this year is asking farmers to put increased acreage into grain. Military service is not compulsory in Canada but there is a great demand for farm labor to replace the many young men who have volunteered for service. OUR PUBLIC FORUM

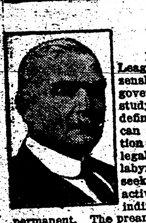
J. S. Cullinan
ON CITIZENSHIP.



Mr. J. S. Cullinan, President of the Texas Economic League, in inviting the people to study and discuss citizenship and to give special attention to the problems of government, said in part: "Before we can intelligently study so important a subject as citizenship we must first define it. What is citizenship? Who is the best American citizen? Search the statute books for a definition of citizenship and unless one is a member of the legal profession we immediately become entangled in a labyrinth of confusing and ofttimes contradictory laws, seeking to promote or restrain most every form of human activity, much of them good, some of them bad and others indifferent. But laws come and go; the Constitution is permanent. The preamble of our Federal Constitution states that our government is organized to give its citizens liberty and happiness. Read the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States and one cannot escape the conclusion that the best American citizen is he who is most free, patriotic, just, happy and active and who hands down to posterity a civilization more capable than he found it. The spirit of our country is freedom and no man can become a true American citizen unless he is free.

"Turning a moment from documents of State perhaps the best authority on citizenship, and one universally accepted by the public, is Webster's International Dictionary, which defines a citizen as 'A member of a State; a person, native or naturalized, of either sex, who owes allegiance to government and is entitled to reciprocal protection from it.' Further: 'A citizen as such is entitled to the protection of life, liberty and property at home and abroad.'

"We now have before us the authoritative definition of citizenship by both government and society and in order that the most humble citizen may feel perfectly free to enter into a study and discussion of this subject I will briefly outline my conception of what citizenship involves, for the work of the Texas Economic League will be in vain if the most lowly citizen does not feel free to give serious thought and expression to his obligation to government and his responsibility to his fellow man.

"Applied to able-bodied adult males, with whom, I take it we will have chiefly to do, a citizen's duty, in return for the rights, privileges and protection outlined above, would seem to be: First, to expend sufficient labor in production, or auxiliary occupations, viz., manufacture, transportation and distribution, to support himself and his family in comfort. Second, conform to all laws framed in the interest of society under the Constitution. Third, contribute his just proportion to the maintenance of government in personal time, payment of taxes or, if need be, bearing arms in the defense of the nation.

"In reaching the above conclusions I have assumed that under our system of government citizens are owners in common and are entitled to the rights and benefits of government during the term of their natural lives and for such period only."

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE.

Notice is hereby given that default has been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage executed and delivered by John F. Tapper, a single man, Mortgagor, to Holt State Bank, a corporation, Mortgagee, bearing date the 12th day of August, 1915, and with a power of attorney contained, duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Marshall and State of Minnesota, on the 27th day of August, 1915, at 10 o'clock A. M., in book 73 of mortgages on page 151. Such default consisting in the following, to-wit:

(1) Failure on the part of said mortgagor to pay the sum of six and 50-100 (6.50) dollars, due and payable under the terms of said mortgage on August 12, 1916.

(2) Failure on the part of said Mortgagor to pay the interest in the amount of seventy-eight ($78.00) dollars due August 12, 1916, on a prior mortgagor in the sum of thirteen hundred ($1300.00) dollars; by reason whereof the said undersigned was compelled to pay and did pay said interest so due.

(3) Failure on the part of said Mortgagor to pay the taxes and assessments against said land in the sum of nineteen and 42-100 ($19.42) dollars, which became delinquent on June 1, 1916, by reason whereof the undersigned was compelled to pay and did pay said taxes.

And whereas, the said Mortgagee has elected and does hereby elect to declare the whole principal sum of said mortgage due and payable at the date of this notice, and whereas there is actually due and claimed to be due and payable at the date of this notice the sum of one hundred fifty-two and 52-100 ($152.52) dollars, including such interest, so paid on said prior mortgage, and the taxes paid as aforesaid, and no action or proceeding having been instituted at law or otherwise, to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof,

NOW THEREFORE, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That by virtue of the power of sale contained in said morgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, viz; Lot one (1) of Section Nineteen (19) and Lots One (1) and Two (2) and the East half of the Northeast Quarter (E½ NE¼) of Section Thirty (30) in Township One Hundred Fifty-six (156) North of Range Forty-one (41) West of the fifth principal meridan, in the County of Marshall, and State of Minnesota, which sale will be made by the sheriff of said Marshall County, at the front door of the Court house in the City of Warren, in said County and State, on the 17th day of February, 1917, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash to pay and satisfy said debt of One Hundred Fifty-one and 52-100 ($151.52), and interest, and taxes, if any, on said premises, and Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars attorney's fees and the costs and disbursements allowed by law.

Can't Loose Hair

Twenty Years from Today a Baldheaded Man will be an Unusual Sight

One of the most prominent druggists of America made a statement a few weeks ago which has caused a great deal of discussion among scientists in the medical press. He said: If the new hair grower, Mildredina Hair Remedy, increases its sales as it has during the past year, it will be used by nearly every man, woman and child in America within 8 years

When Mildredina Hair Remedy is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years frim now a bald will be a rarity

There is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the germs. There is only one hair preparation that will kill the germs and that is Mildredina Hair Remedy. This unusual hair restorer with its record of thousands of cures will grow hair on any head where there is any life left; it will cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp in three weeks or money back. It is the most pleasant and invigorating tonic, is not not sticky nor greasy and is used extensively by ladies of refinement who desire to have and to keep their hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant Fifty cents for a large bottle of druggists everywhere. PLAN TO RESUME RAILWAY INQUIRY AFTER MARCH 4TH

Postponement Forced by Press of Congressional Business

COUNTRY DEMANDS ACTION

Shippers, Investors and Representatives of All Branches of Business Demand Unification of System of Railway Regulation—Roads Ask Fewer Masters.

Washington, Dec. 18.—The Congressional Joint Committee on Interstate Commerce, which has been conducting the inquiry into government regulation and control of transportation, last week decided to suspend its hearings on the subject and adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman, because of the pressure of other work before Congress. According to the resolution creating the committee, it is required to submit a report by January 8th next. It is understood that before that time the committee will ask for an extension of time and that the hearings will be resumed at a later date, when some of those who already have appeared before the committee will be questioned further and a great many others will be heard. It is probable, however, that the hearings will not be resumed until after adjournment of Congress on March 4th. In addition to regular routine business the commerce committees of the two houses are charged with the important duty of preparing and presenting the legislation asked for by President Wilson to make impossible a railroad strike without previous investigation. This will leave little or no time for the consideration of the general questions of railway regulation.

Country Wants Something Done.

Members of Congress and others who are interested in the inquiry undertaken by the Newlands Committee insist that there is no intention of abandoning it.

It seems doubtful, indeed, if the country would permit the matter to be dropped if there were evidence of a desire on the part of Congress to do so. The nation-wide evidences of interest evoked by the initiation of the Newlands inquiry show that the people of the country—shippers, consumers and investors, as well as railway men themselves—are alive to the fact that the railway situation is highly unsatisfactory and that steps must be taken without unnecessary delay to make it possible for the railroads to meet the growing needs of the nation.

From reports received here it seems as though almost every commercial organization and business interest in the country were engaged in studying the railroad question. The Chamber of Commerce of the United States has been conducting an elaborate inquiry into various phases of the subject for many months past. Many local and state commercial bodies in every part of the country have committees engaged in study of the problem and have indicated a desire to come here and present their views. National organizations of manufacturers, lumbermen, coal operators, wholesale and retail dealers, have expressed through resolutions their desire for the unification of the system of railway regulation. The National Industrial Traffic League, speaking from the viewpoint of shippers using the railways, has indorsed exclusive federal regulation providing it is accomplished in such a way as to give full protection and prompt adjustment in matters relating to transportation within the states.

Many Interests Studying Problem.

All these organizations represent primarily the shippers of the country, but they are not the only ones who are taking a hand in the discussion. The investors of the nation, through their own associations and through committees representing the savings banks and other financial organizations, are preparing to show the necessity of improving railroad credit and protecting the rights of those whose money is invested in railway securities. Finally the railroads themselves, being vitally concerned in the improvement of existing conditions, are planning to submit their views through their executives, operating officials and traffic experts and to assert their willingness to accept far reaching federal regulation along lines that will enable them to attract capital and to provide the facilities needed for the prompt and efficient handling of the country's transportation business.

Main Trouble Is Too Many Masters.

Not all of these interests are in accord as to the remedies that should be adopted. There seems to be a general agreement, however, that many of the difficulties which confront the railroads and which make it impossible for them to meet the requirements of the nation's commerce promptly and satisfactorily arise from the haphazard and often conflicting measures of regulation that have been adopted from time to time by the federal government and the forty-eight states and that what is needed is a well ordered, systematic scheme of federal regulation that shall cover the whole country and make it possible for the railroads to provide the extensions and improved facilities so badly needed, while at the same time protecting fully the public interests.

Yo-Ho Freckle-Face

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots

Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots so that no one will call you freckle-face?

Simply get an ounce of carpol, extra strong, from your druggist, and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion. The sun and winds this month have a strong tendency to bring out freckles, and as a result more carpol is sold in these months. Be sure to ask for the extra strong, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.—Carpol Laboratories, Boston, Mass. Star M[illegible] Mail orders filled.

Obituary.

Martin Danilson was born in Molskaga, Sweden Dec., 1st. 1868 and died Dec. 25th 1917 at the home of his sister Mrs. Ole Kjelgren near Holt, Minn.

His father came to this country in 1880 and homesteaded a little farm near Cokato, Minn. Three years later the family joined him there, where the deceased lived for several years when he went to Butte, Montana where he worked in the coal and copper mines for 3 or 4 years. While working in the mines the seed of consumption were sown in his system but did not develop until about 3 years ago, since which time he has been under the doctors care. After quitting the mines Mr. Danilson went to Canada and entered a homestead which he still owned at the time of his death.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon in the Holt Free Mission church by Rev. Kilen assisted by Rev. Tunheim and interment was made in the Holt cemetery.

Tonoline is Beauty Aid

Announces Specialist

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

"I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of [illegible] woman who said, 'Take tonoline.'

"Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the blood—and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:—As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

FORTY-SIX WOMEN DIE AS CANADIAN ASYLUM IS BURNED

INMATES LOSE LIVES WHEN TRAPPED IN BLAZE WHICH DESTROYS INSTITUTION NEAR MONTREAL.

SCENES ATTENDING FIRE ARE DESCRIBED AS HORRIFYING

Victims Crouch in Terror Until Flames Reach Them and Leap From High Windows—Attendant Meets Death in Effort to Rescue Unfortunates.

Montreal, Jan. 2.—Forty-six women were burned to death in a fire that destroyed St. Ferdinand de Halifax asylum at St. Ferdinand de Halifax, Megantic county, Quebec, according to a report received here. Patients of the asylum, of whom there were 180, were all women.

St. Ferdinand de Halifax is in an almost inaccessible section of the province and communications are poor.

Inmates Leap from Windows.

Meager reports obtained from available sources give no intimation of the cause of the fire which started while the inmates were asleep and apparently spread rapidly.

Reports described the scenes attending the fire as horrifying. The inmates of the asylum were uncontrollable and many of them were said to have leaped from high windows. Others in bewilderment crouched in terror near the windows until the flames caught them.

One of the sisters met death in an effort to rescue several of the unfortunate girls who were trapped by the flames.

Mercury 20 Below Zero.

Owing to the intensely cold weather, the mercury registering 20 below zero, the water in the hydrants about the building was frozen and little could be done to stay the progress of the flames.

According to advices received here many of the girls who fled from the scene were located by villagers who took them to their homes.

Thirty girls who were students at a convent adjoining the asylum, which also was burned, are said to have had narrow escapes.

The property damage is estimated at $200,000.

DO NOT DENY STRIKE IS NEAR

BROTHERHOOD CHIEFS PUT NEXT STEP UP TO MEMBERS.

Send Telegrams to 400,000 Employes—Displeased With Threatening Attitude of Railroads.

New York, Dec. 31.—Special circulars putting up to the 400,000 members responsibility for the next step to be taken by the railroad brotherhoods in their controversy with the railroads over the application and interpretation of the Adamson act, were sent broadcast by telegraph after a conference of the four brotherhood chiefs here.

Announcement of the action taken was made by William G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, prior to his departure for the West.

Four Chiefs Issue Statement.

He was accompanied by the other brotherhood leaders whose conference with the railway managers Thursday resulted in a disagreement. Earlier in the day the four chiefs issued a statement over their signatures declaring the attitude of the railroads threatened to wipe out the benefits that should accrue to the men from the passage of the Adamson act and asserting that for that reason "the entire situation is to be placed before the membership."

The chiefs refused to say whether the action was a veiled threat of another strike vote such as brought about the eight-hour day legislation.

No Charge Against Bomb Maker.

Los Angeles, Dec. 30.—No charge can be made against the person who manufactured the 25 cigar "bombs" recently sent through the mails, Post-office Inspector Ranger says. A. C. Garner, a conductor, placed the loaded cigars in the mail, having found the package of containers on a vacant seat in the train. "The fact that the maker did not place the 'bombs' in the mail," Ranger said, "and that Garner was entirely innocent leaves us without a culprit."

Railroad Committees Confer.

New York, Dec. 29.—The national conference committee of railroad managers and representatives of the four brotherhoods of railroad employees late Thursday resumed their conference relative to the application of the Adamson law in the event that it is held constitutional by the United States supreme court. Through an agreement between Attorney General T. W. Gregory and the railroad attorneys, the effectiveness of the Adamson law has been suspended pending the outcome of the test suit.

PEACE PARLEY IS PUT UP TO ALLIES BY GERMAN MOVE

TEUTONS INDICATE WILLINGNESS TO CONSIDER ALTERNATIVE PROPOSAL IF GERMAN PLANS ARE OPPOSED.

WILSON'S DECISION TO AWAIT ENTENTE REPLY

President Not to Communicate German Answer to Peace Note, Pending Receipt of Message from Allies—Negotiations Take on Broader Scope.

Washington, Dec. 30.—Turkey's reply to President Wilson's peace note has been received at the state department. It is substantially the same as the replies of Germany and Austria.

Washington, Dec. 30.—The peace negotiations of which President Wilson is the medium have taken on a much broader scope.

Germany, it transpires, has advised Mr. Wilson that its proposal of a conference of the belligerents is not to be regarded as a condition precedent upon which it consents to discuss peace with its enemies.

Would Not Shun Allies' Plan.

The German government proposed a conference in the belief that such would be the most effective means of ascertaining whether there exists any basis for an agreement to end the war at this time.

If the Entente Allies are opposed to meeting the Teutonic powers in a conference, and have any alternative proposal to make for achieving an exchange of views of peace conditions by the belligerents, Germany stands ready to give the suggestion serious consideration.

The view of the German government, as communicated to the administration, is that if the Allies sincerely desire peace at this time but merely object to the German suggestion of a conference, they will make an alternative proposal.

In this way Germany has informed the president that it does not intend to be blamed for "closing the door in the face of peace." It is willing to negotiate for a peace discussion so long as President Wilson believes there is any possibility of establishing a basis therefor.

Squarely Up to Allies.

The next move, therefore, is put squarely up to the Allies. Not until their reply to his peace note is received will the president be able to determine whether there is a possibility of bringing about a peace discussion, either by a conference or other means.

The White House stated late Friday that the president has not communicated the German reply to his appeal to the Allies and does not intend to, pending the receipt of the Entente answer.

When he has before him the formal replies from each side, and such confidential information of the attitude of the belligerents as has been vouchsafed him, Wilson will decide whether a further effort to achieve a working basis for peace is warranted.

ENGLAND MAY PURCHASE DRINK TRADE, IS BELIEF

Action Believed Imminent, Says Daily Express—Estimated Cost Is More Than Billion Dollars.

London, Dec. 30.—The purchase of the drink trade in Great Britain by the state is believed to be imminent, says the Daily Express.

"The matter has been closely considered by the liquor control board during the last fortnight," continues the newspaper. "Several members of the board long have advocated the purchase, and the change in the government has brought a renewal of their argument."

MAY REPLACE BRITISH ENVOY

Foreign Office Announcement Causes Little Surprise.

Washington, Dec. 30.—London reports that the British foreign office is considering replacing Ambassador Sir Cecil Spring-Rice here caused little surprise here.

The British ambassador has not been in good health and it is an open secret that he has been outplayed in the matter of publicity by German Ambassador Count Johann von Bernstorff.

It also is well known here that Lord Northcliffe, who opposes Spring-Rice, has suggested an ambassadorial change here.

Austria-Hungary Celebrates Coronation

Budapest, (via Berlin), Dec. 30.—Hungary is in gala array for the coronation of Kaiser Karl as emperor of Hungary. An enthusiastic reception has been accorded the young ruler and his wife. Crowds massed in the streets from the railroad station to the palace, gave the couple a continuous ovation. The city is gaily decorated with flags. The ceremony of the coronation is to take place today. Cardinal Ezernoch, presented the new emperor with a coronation diploma, which both the king and queen signed.

What's Doing in Minnesota

Peterson, Minn.—Result of a village referendum conducted here was that Peterson is too common a name in Minnesota. The people voted for a change. "Amidon" was the most favored substitute.

St. Paul. — Governor J. A. A. Burnquist at a recent interview indicated no additional appointments to state offices in Minnesota will be announced before the close of the legislature, but did not commit himself irrevocably.

St. Paul.—State inheritance tax revenue of $730,744.03, collected during the last five months, exceeded by approximately $70,000 that of the entire fiscal year preceding, according to figures given out by State Treasurer Gooding.

Winona.—Theodore Tsatsos, a Winona confectioner, returned to Greece to wed. After the marriage plans had been frustrated twice by death, the ceremony was performed. Friends here have received a cablegram, dated Christmas day, telling of the death of the bride Christmas day.

Minneapolis.—A mining experiment station, to be built at a cost of $175,000, practically is assured for the University of Minnesota this year, it was made known after a conference between Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane and Representatives Thomas D. Schall and Halvor Steenerson at Washington.

Nicollet. — Men prominent in the dairying industry in this state will address the thirty-ninth annual convention of the Minnesota State Dairymen's association at Lake City, January 16 to 19, according to the completed program of the meeting made public here by F. D. Currier, secretary of the organization.

St. Paul. — Approximately 700,000 acres of northern Minnesota land will be subjected to a soil survey if the Legislature passes a bill that Northwest development committee of the Association of Commerce and the Minneapolis Civic and Commerce association will recommend. It will be introduced by Asher Howard of Minneapolis.

Washington, D. C.—Attention is called sharply to the fact that the white pine blister disease has been found in western Wisconsin and along the border of Minnesota by Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Forestry association. "The disease has a strong foothold in New England and other northeastern states," said Mr. Pack.

Llano Grande. — John Matchetts of Virginia, Minn., private in Battery D, First Minnesota field artillery, died here of bullet wounds received after a dispute with James Macenespie, private in the same battery, over the possession of one dollar. Macenespie made his escape after the shooting but was captured later and charged with the killing.

Duluth.—High prices of coal in Duluth have drawn the attention of the federal government, and the department of justice has sent special investigators here to investigate conditions and to learn if there has been collusion of dealers to hold up prices in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. Duluth is the distributing point for the entire northwest.

St. Paul.—The 1917 Minnesota legislature, the 40th lawmaking body since statehood was attained in 1858, convened at the state capitol Tuesday, Jan. 2, at noon. On the opening day the members took the oath of office and the two houses organized. The house was to elect one of its members speaker, and both houses will elect their principal clerks, sergeants at arms and chaplains.

New Ulm. — Representatives from nearly every city in the Red River and Mississippi valleys in the Dakotas and Minnesota are expected to attend the meeting of the Tri-State Flood Control association here January 10. It is expected the delegates will decide upon some plan of flood control to be presented to the legislatures of the three states.

Hibbing. — The so-called Hibbing graft cases were to come up Dec. 30 in district court before Judge Hughes and it was expected arguments attacking the indictments would be heard there. H. B. Fryberger of Duluth was to be the chief counsel for the defense, assisted by Mayor Victor Power of Hibbing, one of the indicted persons, and Joseph Austin of Chisholm.

Minneapolis.—Farmer members of the Legislature are out to obtain a change in the financial policy of the Minnesota State Fair, and in the make-up of the board of directors. To this end they are urging the various county agricultural societies to send their delegates unpledged to the state meeting in Minneapolis, January 9. At that meeting there will be at least three vacancies to be filled. If F. W. Murphy of Wheaton is elected president, as now seems likely, there will be four, for Mr. Murphy's term as director does not expire for two years.

Virginia. — An exciting trip with alleged bootleggers in which weapons were used in making arrests was related by Indian Agent Victor Ellis in Federal court before Commissioner O. A. Poirier at the arraignment of Joseph Voich on a charge of introducing liquor into Indian territory.

Virginia. — Agitation fostered by the Industrial Workers of the World among men employed in the sawmills here of the Virginia and Rainy Lake Lumber company, said to be one of the largest of its kind in the world, employing 1,100 men, may cause the suspension of the plant for the winter.

10 CENT "CASCARETS" IF BILIOUS OR COSTIVE

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret to-night will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.—Adv.

WENT TO MANY MADISONS

Missive Traveled Far Over United States Before It Finally Reached Proper Destination.

A certain publishing house in London, England, has discovered that there is more than one Madison in the United States of America. The discovery cost a University of Wisconsin professor a large amount of anxiety, for it involved a valuable manuscript on which he had spent months of labor.

The manuscript is a translation of Lucretius' works prepared by Prof. William Ellery Leonard of the English department and visiting professor this year of New York university, sent to London for publication in the Everyman Library. When the manuscript was sent back to him with the first proof sheets, it was addressed "Madison, U. S. A." How many of the other Madisons it visited is not recorded, but after weeks of search the postal authorities found it and returned it to the anxious author.

GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little Stomach, liver and bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.—Adv.

MINNESOTA MINES SHATTER RECORDS

STATE DEPOSITS YIELD $3,500,000 IN ROYALTIES, TAXES AND OTHER REVENUES.

FAIR PROPERTIES BIG ASSET

Represent Double Original Investment According to Report of Retiring Secretary—Net Cash Gain of $91,779 Made in Four Years.

St. Paul.

In a record breaking year in the iron mining industry in Minnesota that is now ending, the state was directly enriched more than $3,500,000 by royalties, taxes and other revenue derived through the deposits of iron within its borders, State Auditor J. A. O. Preus announces. Approximately 45,000,000 tons of iron ore have been shipped in the last 12 months from state and privately owned mines in Minnesota, according to reports to the auditor.

This great total is far in excess of the 1915 output and eclipses the previous high record of 1913. Shipments from state owned mines reached the 4,000,000 ton record mark, showing that those properties were the scenes of as great activity as the privately owned properties.

"Minnesota owns about one-tenth of the known, developed, marketable ore within its confines," said Mr. Preus, "the total of the last official estimates being 1,481,919,783 tons, of which 143,891,603 tons is in school, university and other state lands. The state receives 25 cents a ton royalty. Out of 30 opened mines, 21 were on the shipping list this year."

Fair Is Big State Asset.

Featuring a statement disclosing "some startling facts regarding the 'terrible burden' the Minnesota State Fair has been to the taxpayers of the state," and showing a net cash gain of $91,779 from the last four fairs, the report of J. C. Simpson, retiring secretary of the Minnesota State Agricultural society has been presented to Governor J. A. A. Burnquist. The secretary asserts that the fair properties are worth $1,728,565, and represent $2.65 for every $1 of original investment.

The comparisons include direct state appropriations of $15,000 a year in 1913 and 1914 and $10,000 a year for the two succeeding years, also net cash gains from fairs of $34,945 in 1913, $19,273 in 1914, $27,183 in 1915 and $16,828 in 1916. Earnings for the four year period total $45,348 in addition, making a total gain of $187,127 as reported.

"It must be gratifying to the people of Minnesota to know that they have such a magnificent institution as the Minnesota State Fair which, in addition to all the benefits they have gained from it, has a property worth $2.60 for every dollar put into it," continues Secretary Simpson. "While it is contrary to the laws of nature to commercialize any educational institution, and make it return money dividends upon capital invested, this has been the case with the Minnesota State Fair."

For Taxation Conference.

A movement has been started by Senator George H. Gardner of Brainerd for the organization of a state conference on taxation among representative men from all parts of the state during the session of the Legislature, probably late in February.

The proposal is for a series of conferences to aid the Legislature in bringing about important and necessary changes in Minnesota laws relating to taxation, as explained by Senator Gardner.

Solves School Problems.

Minnesota gradually is solving her own problem as affecting the encouragement of individual talent among grade school pupils, a modern idea of educational system. The twenty-first annual report of the inspectors of State graded schools, filed with the Governor, shows that whereas one teacher was responsible for forty-four pupils sixteen years ago, the present average enrollment per teacher is twenty-eight.

Blame Demurrage Rates.

Minnesota railroads given an inning in the hearing before the state railroad and warehouse commission on their application for permission to increase demurrage charges on intrastate traffic, introduced testimony by traffic experts that car shortage relief has resulted from higher demurrage rates in other states. The experts denied that the advances of demurrage charges increased railroad revenue.

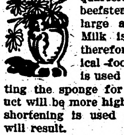
Solem Gets New Trial.

Ole O. Solem, convicted in Jackson county of the murder of his mother-in-law, Sigri Halderson, it being charged that he gave her poison November 28, 1914, causing her death eight days later, is awarded a new trial on his appeal to the state supreme court. The court reverses the lower court after finding that, while the evidence sustains the conclusion that the death was caused by poison, it is insufficient to sustain a finding that Solem administered it. Several other decisions were made.

The KITCHEN CABINET

There is no true work ever done without enthusiasm. The artist whose heart is cold is a mere artisan. With no wide reaching affection and no uplifting ideal we make life a treadmill and of our duty an unwelcome drudgery.—Philip Moxom.

MORE MILK DISHES.



For economy let us use more milk, it is a valuable food and one quart even at 15 cents has as much nutrition as three-quarters of a pound of beefsteak which has a large amount of waste. Milk is without waste, therefore a most economical food. If skim milk is used largely, when setting the sponge for bread, the product will be more highly nutritious, less shortening is used and a tasty loaf will result.

Potato Soup.—Cook and mash three medium-sized potatoes. In a quart of milk, skim milk may be used, add a slice of onion and a stalk of celery; scald and remove the vegetables, pour over the mashed potato. In a saucepan put two tablespoonfuls of butter, if the milk is skimmed, one if whole milk is used; add two tablespoonfuls of flour, a teaspoonful of salt, and when well blended add a little cold milk and pour it into the soup. Boil up and serve piping hot with toasted crackers.

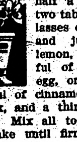
Cream of Tomato Soup.—In a saucepan melt three tablespoonfuls of butter, add three and a half tablespoonfuls of flour and stir until smooth, add a teaspoonful of salt, a teaspoonful of chopped onion, then add a pint of canned tomatoes, mixing well. Add soda and onion, return to the fire after straining and pour this mixture, slightly cooled into a cupful and a half of milk. Reheat and serve hot. Do not boil or the soup will curdle.

Cheese Soup.—Scald a quart of milk, add a slice of onion, a blade of mace, and a pepper pod. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter in a saucepan, add the same amount of flour, when well blended add the milk, removing the seasonings, and cook until creamy. Just before serving add a half cupful of grated cheese, two egg yolks, well beaten, salt and pepper to taste, stir until the cheese is melted. Serve at once.

The cream soups which are so nourishing and which are made of various vegetables may all be made with skim milk, adding a little more butter to the flour for the binding, thus giving the food its right balance of fat.

The home-maker must fill many niches in her home and at the same time have the ability to direct with force and initiative all the business of the household.

GOOD EATING.



Bananas are like the poor, always with us, and the many ways that this wholesome fruit may be served is legion.

Banana Pie. — Rice enough peeled bananas to fill a cup. To this add half a cupful of sugar, two tablespoonfuls of molasses or the grated rind and juice of half a lemon, half a teaspoonful of salt, one beaten egg, one-third of a teaspoonful of cinnamon, half a cupful of milk, and a third of a cupful of cream. Mix all together thoroughly and bake until firm in a pie plate lined with pastry.

Nougatine Cake.—Make a fine, light butter cake and bake in a shallow pan about three-quarters of an inch thick when done. Cut this into squares and cover both top and sides with a creamy thick chocolate frosting, filled with minced and browned almonds. The nuts are ground fine and then browned and sprinkled thick into the frosting.

Mexican Rabbit.—Melt a tablespoonful of butter in a saucepan, add half a pound of American cheese, cut up in fine bits; stir until the cheese melts, add three-fourths of a cupful of cornmeal and a large red pepper, cut in squares or shreds; then add the yolks or two eggs, beaten, and mixed with half a cupful of thick tomato puree, half a teaspoonful of salt, and half a teaspoonful of paprika; stir constantly until the mixture is thick and smooth. Have ready four slices of toasted bread, toasted on one side only. Cut a clove of garlic in halves and touch the untoasted side of the hot bread here and there with the garlic; pour over the rabbit and serve at once. A carefully poached egg may be set above each slice, which will furnish a hearty meal.

Graham Bread.—Make a soft sponge of one cupful of warm milk, one teaspoonful of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt, a tablespoonful of butter, one-third of a yeast cake, dissolved in a fourth of a cupful of warm water, and white flour to make a thick batter. Cut the dough with a knife after beating it well and letting it stand overnight, then add three-fourths of a cupful of milk, three tablespoonfuls of molasses, a half teaspoonful of soda and graham flour to make a thick batter. Knead with white flour; let rise, and when double its bulk, bake 45 minutes.

Peas in Potato Cups.—Make small cups of mashed potato, brush with egg and brown, fill with creamed peas and serve at once.

It is a good and safe rule to sojourn in every place as if you meant to spend your life there, never omitting an opportunity of doing a kindness, or speaking a true word, or making a friend.—John Ruskin.

GOOD SANDWICH FILLINGS.

Peanut butter mixed with whipped cream is a filling well liked by those who enjoy peanut butter.

Ripe Olive Sandwiches.—Chop a half-cupful of ripe olives with one sweet, green pepper, combine with cream cheese which has been moistened with French dressing.

Sweet Sandwiches.—Chop a half-cupful of raisins, one cupful of walnuts, a fourth of a cupful of grated coconut and a tablespoonful of grated chocolate; mix with thick, sweet cream.

Green olives chopped fine and mixed with mayonnaise. Figs and nuts or nuts and dates, finely chopped and mixed. Nuts and raisins, chopped fine.

Orange marmalade, jelly, grated maple sugar with browned almonds, finely chopped. Equal parts of grated Swiss cheese and nuts, chopped. Dutch cheese mixed with chopped olives.

Finely-chopped celery with mayonnaise.

Ham mixed with chopped pickle and celery. Equal parts of ham; celery and mayonnaise. Cold roast chicken, roast beef, or cooked oysters, chopped fine.

Lettuce leaves and mayonnaise. Cream cheese, French dressing, and lettuce.

One cupful of cold roast chicken, three olives, one pickle, a tablespoonful of capers, all minced fine and mixed with mayonnaise.

Hard-cooked eggs and watercress, finely chopped, mixed with softened butter.

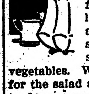
Maraschino cherries and nut meats, chopped fine. Cottage cheese and cherries.

Cream cheese and bar-le-duc mixed to a cream. Quince jelly and walnut meats, chopped. Cream cheese, chives and chopped green peppers.

Grated cheese, seasoned with salt, pepper, mustard and anchovy paste. Cheese with chopped olives and pickles added.

A home based on right principles will be simple. No ostentation or living beyond one's means; simplicity in entertainment, in offering freely of what one has to friends, without apology or explanation.

SOUR CREAM DISHES.



A few tablespoonfuls or half a cupful of sour cream is valuable these days, and should be used with economy.

Sour Cream Salad Dressing.—Whip a cupful of sour cream with a little lemon juice or pineapple juice for flavoring, season with salt, a little sugar and use on fruit or vegetables. When vegetables are used for the salad a bit of red pepper, mustard or worcestershire sauce may be added. Sour cream may be substituted for sweet cream in any salad dressing.

Cottage Cheese.—Pour boiling water over a dish of thick sour milk, which will cook the milk enough so that it may be drained in a sieve. Season with plenty of cream, salt, a dash of red pepper and some melted butter, if there's not enough cream to give it richness. If plenty of boiling water is used, this method makes a tender curd and is quickly made.

Sour Cream Cookies.—Cream a half cupful of butter, add one and a half cupfuls of sugar, a half cupful of sour cream, two eggs, a teaspoonful of soda dissolved in the cream; mix well, add flour to roll, sprinkle the top with sugar.

Sour Cream Pie.—This pie is baked with two crusts and is delicious. Take cupful each of sour cream, sugar, raisins and one egg, a tablespoonful of vinegar, a half teaspoonful each of salt, cinnamon and nutmeg, a fourth of a teaspoonful of cloves.

Codfish With Sour-Cream White Sauce.—A white sauce, using sour cream; a cupful and a half for a sauce to serve three or four people is sufficient. Melt a tablespoonful of butter and when bubbling hot stir in two tablespoonfuls of flour and a cupful and a half of sour cream; cook until heated through; add shredded codfish and serve. Delicious with baked potatoes.

An escalloped dish, using codfish, white sauce, made with sour cream, and sliced potatoes, is very appetizing. Butter the dish, put in a layer of the potatoes, then one of white sauce, then a layer of fish, finish with the potatoes and white sauce, with buttered crumbs on top. The potatoes are previously cooked.

But She'd Heard of Them.

Humor of a piano studio is related to us by Clarice Balas, the Cleveland pianist, who writes: "One young girl who charged all she forgot to the neglect of her former teacher in the few words, 'he never told me anything about that,' was provoking me by her poor reading and bad time. 'What kind of notes have you in the right hand here?' I asked.

"She guessed wrong immediately. 'I suppose you never heard of such a thing as triplets?' I asked, in thorough disgust.

"'Why, yes, Miss Balas, I have heard of triplets,' said she with offended dignity, 'but not in music.'"

Sausage Skins of Silk.

The packing of sausage meat in the old way has long been an objectionable proceeding to fastidious persons. It also has been declared insanitary, so that many families have tabooed the link sausage. Now thin silk cases are being provided, which can be sterilized to the last degree of sanitation. Being of chiffonlike texture, they would hardly be noticed if taken into the mouth, although they can be easily removed at the table. These thin silk cases can be supplied at a cost little greater than the sausage skins now in use and are proof against the attack of vermin.

Caring for a Monkey Mascot.

The newest addition to the Berlin zoological garden is a monkey which was the mascot of the U-35 for a considerable time.

The monkey originally was the mascot of an English merchantman that was halted by the German submarine. He made trip after trip with the U-35 and was "in at the death" of several merchantmen. His transfer to the zoo was ordered only when it became so cold that he was likely to suffer if exposed.

He Never Knew Temptation.

Rev. Fred Winslow Adams, pastor of St. Andrew's Methodist Episcopal church in West Seventy-sixth street, who recently read from his pulpit answers to the question, "What are the greatest safeguards against temptation?" received a reply to his question from Thomas A. Edison. He said:

"I cannot answer the question as I have never had any experience in such matters. I have never had time, not even five minutes, to be tempted to do anything against the moral law, civil law or any law whatever. If I were to hazard a guess as to what young people should do to avoid temptation, it would be to get a job and work at it so hard that temptation would not exist for them."—New York Mail.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE.

Notice is hereby given that default has been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage executed and delivered by John F. Tapper, a single man, Mortgagor, to Holt State Bank, a corporation, Mortgagee, bearing date the 12th day of August, 1915, and with a power of attorney contained, duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Marshall and State of Minnesota, on the 27th day of August, 1915, at 10 o'clock A. M., in book 73 of mortgages on page 151. Such default consisting in the following, to-wit:

(1) Failure on the part of said mortgagor to pay the sum of six and 50-100 (6.50) dollars, due and payable under the terms of said mortgage on August 12, 1916.

(2) Failure on the part of said Mortgagor to pay the interest in the amount of seventy-eight ($78.00) dollars due August 12, 1916, on a prior mortgagor in the sum of thirteen hundred ($1300.00) dollars; by reason whereof the said undersigned was compelled to pay and did pay said interest so due.

(3) Failure on the part of said Mortgagor to pay the taxes and assessments against said land in the sum of nineteen and 42-100 ($19.42) dollars, which became delinquent on June 1, 1916, by reason whereof the undersigned was compelled to pay and did pay said taxes.

And whereas, the said Mortgagee has elected and does hereby elect to declare the whole principal sum of said mortgage due and payable at the date of this notice, and whereas there is actually due and claimed to be due and payable at the date of this notice the sum of one hundred fifty-two and 52-100 ($152.52) dollars, including such interest, so paid on said prior mortgage, and the taxes paid as aforesaid, and no action or proceeding having been instituted at law or otherwise, to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof,

NOW THEREFORE, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That by virtue of the power of sale contained in said morgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, viz: Lot one (1) of Section Nineteen (19) and Lots One (1) and Two (2) and the East half of the Northeast Quarter (E½ NE¼) of Section Thirty (30) in Township One Hundred Fifty-six (156) North of Range Forty-one (41) West of the fifth principal meridan, in the County of Marshall, and State of Minnesota, which sale will be made by the sheriff of said Marshall County, at the front door of the Court house in the City of Warren, in said County and State, on the 17th day of February, 1917, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash to pay and satisfy said debt of One Hundred Fifty-one and 52-100 ($151.52), and interest, and taxes, if any, on said premises, and Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars attorney's fees and the costs and disbursements allowed by law.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1916.

A Smooth Hairless Skin for Women.

From Beauty Secrets

With the aid of a plain medol paste it is an easy matter to rid the skin of unsightly hairy growths. The paste is made by mixing some water with powdered medol. This is applied to the hairs not wanted and after 2 or 3 minutes rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. When you go to your druggist for medol be sure you get the genuine article and if he will not supply you, the American Proprietary Co. of Boston, will send you a 50c or $1.00 package by mail.

Easy Way to Reduce Flesh

Drink Hot Water and Take Tassco

Have'nt you often wished for a medicine to reduce your flesh? Something that does not require dieting or calisthenics. Well right here you have it in 5-grain tassco tablets, which you may secure of any good druggist. They are pleasant to take, perfectly harmless and cause no restriction of habit or eating and reduce the flesh little by little, until you are down to the number of pounds you wish to weigh. Too much flesh is undesirable, as most quite stout people will readily admit and it detracts from one's good appearance, makes one clumsy and short of breath.

There is'nt any reason why anyone should be too stout, when this much-tried, perfectly satisfactory remedy at any good druggist. Tassco tablets, (don't forget the name) are recommended by physicians and guaranteed to be perfectly harmless. Refuse substitutes. If you can't get to our store, we will mail tassco to you.

A Serious Accident

While George and Frank Anderson were hauling wood Tuesday and when about four miles east of home, a very painful accident occurred to George. The rifle which was lying on the load, seemed to be too far back and Geo. reached for it to bring it towards him. As he did so, the trigger caught discharging its load into his hand. The bullet was a 30—30 which went through his right hand passing up his coat sleeve making a flesh wound in his arm. He was taken to T. R. Falls as soon as possible and the doctors found the bones of the first two fingers to be so badly shattered, it was necessary to amputate them.

It is uncertain at this writing whether the thumb can be saved or not. This is hard luck for Geo. but it is a miracle he ever escaped being killed.

The News joins his many friends in sympathy for his unfortunate accident.

Yo-Ho Freckle-Face

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots

Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots so that no one will call you freckle-face?

Simply get an ounce of carpol, extra strong, from your druggist, and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion. The sun and winds this month have a strong tendency to bring out freckles, and as a result more carpol is sold in these months. Be sure to ask for the extra strong, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.—Carpol Laboratories, Boston, Mass., Sta. M. Mail orders filled.

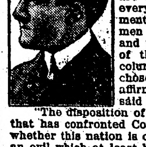
OUR PUBLIC FORUM

Senator Morris Sheppard

ON PROHIBITION.



It is the mission of a newspaper to give the news. The reader is entitled to information on both sides of all economic issues and especially on those questions which are before the public for solution, for it is the duty of every citizen to carefully study the problems of government. We shall present from time to time the views of men who are recognized authority on important questions and who are responsible for their utterances. The views of this paper will be expressed through the editorial column. United States Senator Morris Sheppard, the chosen leader of the prohibition forces in presenting the affirmative side of National prohibition to the Senate, said in part:

"The disposition of this prohibition amendment is the most solemn duty that has confronted Congress since the death of slavery. It will determine whether this nation is capable of invoking its constituent powers to consider an evil which at least half the population believes to mean the nation's ruin and to make what Constitutional changes they may deem proper for its extermination. It will determine whether the moral forces of the nation are the dominant ones. It will determine whether this is a Christian nation. We need not deceive ourselves. The issue is plain. A Christian nation cannot tolerate the liquor traffic.

"Not only will he who votes against the submission of this amendment keep the people of the states, acting through legislatures, or conventions, from exercising their fundamental prerogative of deciding what is national and what local, but he will also deny the right of petition to millions of his fellow citizens. Seventy per cent of the territory of this country is already under prohibitory law and over 50 per cent of the American people live in this prohibition territory. A committee of more than two thousand men and women from every section of the Republic, representing through their various organizations probably twenty million people, marched to the steps of the Capitol on a freezing day last December and presented to Representative Hobson for the House and myself for the Senate their request that Congress give the American people a chance to expel the liquor traffic from the country. In the face of a biting December gale, despite sunless skies and the penetrating cold, they came, the joy of a righteous movement in their souls, the cry for a clean United States upon their lips. It was the most radiant and inspiring sight my eyes have ever seen. Theirs was no selfish purpose; hundreds and thousands of miles they had traveled at their own expense and at great personal sacrifice to demonstrate the power of a moral impulse. And I tell you that I would rather have been chosen by that band of consecrated men and women to present this prohibition amendment than to hold any office in this Republic. It is safe to say that the twenty million people represented by that wonderful committee are joined by thirty million or forty million more in the determination that the liquor traffic shall not be tolerated on a single inch of American soil. It is not an exaggeration to say that a majority of the American people would vote today for a saloonless land and a stainless flag."

A Smooth Hairless Skin for Women.

From Beauty Secrets

With the aid of a plain medol paste it is an easy matter to rid the skin of unsightly hairy growths. The paste is made by mixing some water with powdered medol. This is applied to the hairs not wanted and after 2 or 3 minutes rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. When you go to your druggist for medol be sure you get the genuine article and if he will not supply you, the American Proprietary Co. of Boston, will send you a 50c or $1.00 package by mail.

Horse Chestnut Tree in Bottle.

Horse chestnuts can be grown in a bottle of water. Use a bottle with a neck wide enough to hold the chestnut, adding water to just touch the nut and stand it in a window. Roots will form, followed by a stem and leaves. If the water is constantly supplied the tree can grow for years in the bottle.

Pipefish Has "Pocket."

The pipefish, as it is called, from the length of its jaws, has a pocket on the under side of its body nearly half its length. It is found in the male species only, and is the only part of its body which is unprotected by large flat plates, which take the place of scales in its protective armor. In this pocket the young fish are carried very similar to the way the kangaroo carries its young.

Tonoline is Beauty Aid

Announces Specialist

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said, "Take tonoline."

Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me, I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the of the blood—and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:—As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

* * *

The entente governments, in replying to Germany's peace proposal, refuse to consider the proffer and declared it is insincere and ineffective. The suggested conference without conditions is not a peace offer, the note says, but is rather a war maneuver.

* * *

Comments of the German papers on the entente reply to the German peace proposals indicate the universal conviction that peace now is impossible and that the central powers must continue to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor.

* * *

The increase in the national debt of Great Britain, France, Russia, Germany and Austria-Hungary is estimated at $49,455,000,000 from the beginning of the war to the latter part of 1916, except in the case of Austria-Hungary, in which the estimate extends only to May, 1916.

* * *

In 1916 75,500 Germans were captured by the French and 40,000 by the British, while in Serbia and Macedonia the entente allied army took 11,173 Bulgarian and Turk prisoners. During the same period the Italians made prisoners of 52,250 Austrians, while the Russians captured more than 400,000 Germans and Austrians.

GENERAL.

The South Dakota supreme court decided the state tax laws under which express companies are taxed is unconstitutional.

* * *

Exports of American manufactures and commodities through the port of New York were $2,785,331,906 in 1916, or approximately $1,000,000,000 more than in 1915.

* * *

The first Domestic Servants' union reported organization east of the Missouri river has been formed at Duluth, Minn., with 100 charter members.

* * *

Eleven School children were killed, four probably fatally hurt and eight seriously injured when a tornado wrecked the Vreton rural school house near McAlester, Oklahoma.

* * *

The insurance which the Union Pacific railway system recently announced it had placed on the lives of its employes covers 40,000 persons and amounts to $30,000,000.

* * *

Nearly half a million dollars to guard against infantile paralysis in Chicago next summer is the request made of the city council finance committee by health authorities.

* * *

Two million oranges, much too ripe for consumption, were destroyed in New York by a squad under the supervision of Lucius P. Brown, head of the bureau of foods and drugs of the department of health.

* * *

Under giant Mount MacDonald, in the Selkirks of British Columbia, the Canadian Pacific railway has just completed the longest double track mountain tunnel in the western hemisphere. The tunnel is over five miles long and cost over $1,000,000.

* * *

The death rate for 1916 in New York was the lowest on record, according to a report issued by the department of health. With a population estimated at 5,624,841 there were 77,801 deaths in the year.

* * *

Industrial accidents in Pennsylvania during 1916 totaled 251,488, of which 2,587 resulted fatally, according to statistics just made public.

* * *

Ad Santel, Pacific coast champion heavyweight grappler, will go on the mat at San Francisco February 22 with Joe Stecher of Nebraska, it was announced.

* * *

Breaking all its coinage records, the Philadelphia mint during 1916 produced 238,469,769 domestic coins in denominations ranging from 1 cent to half dollars and valued at $9,344,266.

* * *

Eleven persons were killed and 40 injured when a train loaded with persons returning after the New Year holiday collided with a switch engine ten miles outside Edinburg, Scotland.

* * *

One hundred persons are believed to have been drowned in Clermont, Queensland, Australia, by a flood which washed away the main street and all the houses in low lying places.

* * *

The coronation of Emperor Charles and Empress Zita of Austria as king and queen of Hungary, took place December 30 in St. Mathay church at Budapest.

* * *

Fifty-four persons were lynched in the United States in 1916. Fifty of the victims were negroes and four white persons, and included in the record are three negro women.

* * *

More than one billion dollars net income from operations was made by the railroads of the country during the year now closing. Statistics gathered by the interstate commerce commission complete for nine months indicate that the total net income from operations will be approximately $1,[illegible]8,000,000 for the entire year.

MEXICAN TROUBLE.

Villa followers have captured and looted the town of Sabinas, Hidalgo, between Laredo and Monterey, according to advices reaching the border.

* * *

After levying a "war loan" of 100,000 pesos on the city, Villa has evacuated Torreon, according to reports at Juarez. Villa harmed no foreigners or their property in Torreon.

* * *

Continuation of the conference of the Mexican-American joint commission without regard to the question of withdrawing American troops from Mexico is proposed by General Carranza in his message refusing to ratify the Atlantic City protocol.

* * *

One hundred and forty prisoners were taken, twenty-five were killed and a large quantity of loot taken from Chihuahua City by Francisco Villa, was recovered by a Carranza force, near Guerrero when the 600 Villa followers were defeated by the de facto forces.

* * *

Adherents of Francisco Villa are already arranging details of a Mexican provisional government, to be set up by the bandit chief, and a tentative seat of government has been chosen, according to information in the hands of United States authorities on the border.

* * *

Increasing evidence that General Carranza's government is being menaced by bands of insurgents, coupled with the prospect that the first chief will not accept the Atlantic City protocol has brought the Mexican situation to a stage that is causing growing concern in Washington. Officials admit that the conditions are embarrassing.

WASHINGTON.

Senator Hitchcock has introduced a bill appropriating $800,000 for the construction of a dam and reservoir in the North Platte river, near Guernsey, Wyo.

* * *

President Wilson has nominated Lieutenant Colonel Chester Harding, army engineer corps, to be governor of the Panama canal zone, to succeed Major General Gothels, who resigned.

* * *

A bill to patent to the regents of the University of Nebraska 800 acres of land adjoining the agricultural experiment station at Scottsbluff, Neb., was introduced in the house by Congressman Kinkaid. The land is to be used for dry farming experimentation.

* * *

Almost nine billion dollars was the aggregate value of all crops of the country last year. In an estimate announced by the department of agriculture, the exact value was set at $8,934,587,000. That was an increase of $2,165,989,000 over the value of 1915 crops.

* * *

The problem of raising additional revenue for the government to avoid the threatened deficit at the end of the next fiscal year has assumed such proportions that administration leaders are considering the advisability of placing tariff duties on commodities now on the free list.

* * *

Exports from the United States during the eleven months of 1916, ending November 30, jumped more than a billion and three-quarters in value for the same period of 1915, the department of commerce announced.

REGENTS HONOR 9 MINNESOTANS

COMMITTEE VOTES SPECIAL RECOGNITION FOR WORK IN AIDING FARMERS.

NEW "U" PRESIDENT SOUGHT

Successor to Vincent Informally Discussed—Outside Candidate May Get Place—Relatives of Hill and Owen Get Memorials.

St. Paul. — Nine Minnesotans have been named for special recognition of distinguished work in the advancement of agriculture in the state by the executive committee of the University of Minnesota board of regents Relatives of J. J. Hill and Sidney M. Owen, deceased, were sent memorial certificates of distinction at the close of the Farmers' and Home-Makers' week in progress at the University farm.

Others to be honored with certificates of distinction are Hans Peter Jensen of Freeborn county, Mathew Henry Hegerle of St. Bonifacius, Finley McMartin of Dodge county, Everett Ford Irwin and C. M. Loring of Hennepin county, Seth H. Kinney and Henry Schroeder of Clay county.

The committee voted to attempt to get action on the long-delayed Northern Pacific railroad campus track covering by inviting George T. Slade, vice president, to attend the next board meeting.

Committee members said selecting a successor to President Vincent was discussed informally at an executive session while they were at lunch, but no progress was made. They intimated that having looked over available alumni and faculty members they had begun considering outside candidates.

Timber Disturbance Ends.

Virginia. — Fifty-three woodsmen arraigned in municipal court here were discharged on motion of the county attorney. They were charged with coercion, it being alleged that they were members of the I. W. W. "rebel gang" that drove working lumberjacks from their camps. Unless fresh trouble breaks out in the north woods, the threatened suspension of timber activities because of I. W. W. disturbances appears to be over, was the opinion voiced by lumbermen here.

None of the witnesses could positively identify any one of the prisoners as a man who had made threats of violence or bodily injury to the workers.

E. W. Backus of the International Lumber company, one of the large interests concerned in the threatened trouble, said his information from the affected districts was that the sheriffs of Koochiching, Beltrami and St. Louis counties, and their deputies, are fully in control of the situation and are prepared to furnish complete protection for all men going into the woods to take the places of those lumberjacks who struck or were driven from the camps by the I. W. W. forces.

"With the protection of the men fully arranged," Mr. Backus said, "we have begun sending men to work again and already more than 100 have entered the camps as the first installment needed to fill the 1,000 places left vacant in our camps through I. W. W. activities. We now are able to assure all men who offer to work that they will be fully protected."

Second Infantry Leaves Border.

Llano Grande, Tex. — Minnesota has but one body of militia remaining on the Texas border. With the departure recently of the Second regiment of infantry, the First field artillery of the North Star state is the only organization now on border duty.

The First infantry, one of the finest bodies of troops in Texas, is in camp at San Antonio, and plans are on foot to give it a prominent place in a "crack" division of infantry to be organized by Gen. Frederick Funston.

With the Second infantry went Minnesota brigade headquarters and Brigadier-General F. E. Resche.

Farm Bank Subscriptions Open.

St. Paul. — Subscription lists are to be opened in St. Paul at once for the $750,000 bonds of the St. Paul Federal land bank, one of the twelve banks authorized by the act of Congress creating the Federal farm loan board. The lists will be kept open for thirty days.

Farmers Plan 71 Meetings.

Moorhead. — Among the speakers for 71 meetings of 13 Clay county farmers' clubs arranged for the half year are N. E. Chapman, Charles Wolf and C. R. Knutson, all of St. Paul, according to schedule announced here by P. E. Clement, retiring county agricultural agent.

Washington County Board Elects.

Stillwater. — W. R. Sawyer has been re-elected president of the Washington county board of commissioners. Other selections made were: Charles Cappellan, county physician and poor commissioner; N. A. Nelson, custodian of the courthouse, and John Martinson, janitor. County Auditor Nelson reported he had conferred with the Ramsey county commissioners relative to expending $3,000 on the Forest Lake road and that they had promised him early investigation of the subject.

Ask Places on Boards.

St. Paul. — Farmer representation on the new board or commission to be established to handle the farm loan business of the state as provided for in Amendment No. 2, recently adopted by popular vote, and on the University Board of Regents, Board of Control, Highway commission, Drainage commission and other bodies dealing directly with the farmers, is urged of the Legislature and the Governor by the Minnesota Federation of Farmers' clubs in resolutions passed at University farm.

Federation Board Named.

A suitable system for handling the loans to state farmers from the school funds under Amendment No. 2 is desired as "quickly as convenient" by the farmers. The motion for the adoption of these resolutions was made by John W. Holiday of Pine City, member of the legislative committee, which also includes A. L. Sayers of Lakeville and Ben Franklin of Roseau.

The federation committee to study the rural credit situation in the state and make suggestions to the Legislature is composed of these three men and President L. H. Bugbee of Carlton and Frank Mueller of Hayfield.

Re-elect Mrs. Gilfillan.

St. Paul. — Mrs. J. R. Gilfillan of Minneapolis was re-elected president of the Minnesota Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, at the annual meeting in St. Paul. Apart from elections, the address by Charles McLean, Dubuque, Iowa, featured the meeting. Mr. McLean was active in the campaign to prevent the enactment of suffrage bills in South Dakota and Iowa last fall.

"The proposal of the suffragists of Minnesota to secure from your state legislature statutory suffrage is open to all the objections which can be made to constitutional suffrage," said Mr. McLean.

Demurrage Rate Stands.

St. Paul. — The Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse commission has denied the application of Minnesota railroads for permission to increase demurrage charges on all intra-state traffic. The petition was opposed by numerous organizations of shippers. The recent hearing continued a full week.

Judge Ira B. Mills, chairman of the commission, said the railroads failed to show by evidence that increases in demurrage rates would solve the car-shortage problem. He said further that the case was decided on the testimony and on its merits alone.

Pure-Bred Cattle Sold at Auction.

South St. Paul. — Sale of 62 head of pure-bred cattle at South St. Paul under the auspices of the Minnesota Shorthorn Breeders' association was said by members to register the highest recorded auction sale price for stock in the northwest. Marshal's Masterpiece, a bull owned by O. F. Henkel of Kenyon, was sold to R. C. Oliver, McCluskey, N. D., for $1,035, the top figure. A yearling heifer, Banner Blossom IX, selling for $1,010, was second highest. Bids on bulls averaged $250 and those on the cows and heifers $278.50.

Head of Faribault School Dies.

Faribault. — Dr. A. C. Rogers, for 31 years superintendent of the Minnesota School for Feeble Minded and Colony for Epileptics, Faribault, died in University hospital. He had been a patient in the hospital since September. Pernicious anemia, with complications toward the end, caused his death, despite four transfusion operations in as many months. He was 60 years old.

His death removes from the state one of its foremost figures in welfare and medical work and a national authority on mental diseases.

Short Course at Farm School.

Minneapolis.—Men and women from the farms of Minnesota, young and old, attending sometimes by scores, frequently by hundreds, the many meetings at the university farm, represent the interest the tiller of 1917 has in his land and his stock, and the concern the housewife has for her children and for her home.

In every building, almost in every room, there is a class session or club meeting of some sort—pipe fitting attracting the men, waist fitting the women and the farmers' club federation both.

Welsh Endeavorers to Gather.

Lake Crystal.—Lake Crystal, Minn., is to be the meeting place in August for the twenty-seventh annual convention of Welsh Christian Endeavor societies of the synod of Minnesota, Iowa and South Dakota. At a convention held at Lime Springs, Iowa, resolutions were passed favoring state-wide prohibition.

Walks in Sleep, Frozen.

Winona. — Clad only in his undergarments, in bare feet and bare-headed, G. J. Beach, 78 years old, during a spell of somnambulism brought on by a siege of illness, was so badly frozen at St. Charles that physicians did not believe he would recover.

Sportsmen Organize Gun Club.

Red Lake Falls. — A large number of local sportsmen have organized a gun club known as the Red Lake Falls Gun Club and Protective association. The local club decided not to join the Minnesota Game Refuge association. Resolutions were adopted urging the legislature to restrict the season on chickens to two weeks, from Sept. 15 to Oct. 1, and on quail, pheasants and partridges, from Oct. 15 to Nov. 1, and to close the season on turtle doves woodcock, wood ducks and plovers until Sept. 15, 1918.

LAWSON TESTIFIES IN "LEAK" INQUIRY; TUMULTY CLEARED

BOSTON FINANCIER WRANGLES WITH CONGRESSMEN—MUCH OF STATEMENT EXPUNGED FROM RECORD.

KNOWLEDGE OF EXPOSURE IS DENIED BY OFFICIALS

Lansing and Tumulty Give Testimony—Statement Clears Secretary—Session Enlivened by Mention of Gerard's Name—Lawson Says He "Can Tell But Won't."

Washington, Jan. 9.—Thomas W. Lawson, testifying before the house rules committee hearing on the alleged stock market "leak" on President Wilson's peace note, occupied much of Monday's session with a running row with the committee which ended in much of his statement being expunged from the record. The Boston financier concluded with the declaration that he could tell where the leak was, but would not.

Alleges Gigantic Robbery.

After indulging in an exchange of personalities with Representative B. M. Chiperfield, in which Chiperfield said he "could see a four flush and call it," and which threatened to turn into a personal encounter, Lawson declared that "in the last two years there has been a gigantic robbery of the American people—a deliberate robbery carefully worked out."

"There have been leaks and thousands and tens of thousands of persons have been ruthlessly robbed," Lawson said.

"Common Thing in Wall Street."

"One of the commonest things in Wall street, where all these things center, is a Washington leak on things of such importance that they affect the prices of stocks. I mean by that, leaks from the supreme court of the United States, from the senate, advance information from the White House."

Lawson added that he personally had profited by the peace note leak.

These statements were included in the testimony later expunged from the record.

Envoy's Name Mentioned.

The session otherwise was enlivened by mention of Ambassador James W. Gerard desiring to buy bonds on his last visit here; by testimony from Secretary to the President J. P. Tumulty that he had introduced Gerard at Hibbs & Co., brokerage offices here; a statement from President Wilson upholding Tumulty in his denial of responsibility for the leak, and a sharp criticism of the committee by Tumulty for permitting the possible besmirching of reputations upon hearsay evidence.

President Defends Tumulty.

Secretary of State Robert Lansing gave testimony about the handling of the document after it got to the state department. Both Lansing and Tumulty denied they had been able to find any "leak."

Secretary Tumulty was the first witness before the rules committee.

Tumulty in a formal statement to the committee, closed with the following "permitted" quotation from President Wilson:

"I wish, in justice to Mr. Tumulty, to say that he has stated the exact fact. He had no knowledge of the note whatever, until it was given out for publication."

ARGUMENTS BEGUN IN U. S. COURT ON RAIL LAW CASE

Test Involves Constitutionality of Adamson Act—Decision Is Expected in Few Weeks.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Argument was begun Monday in the United States supreme court on the test case involving the question of constitutionality of the Adamson law. It is in the form of an appeal by the department of justice from a decision of Circuit Justice W. C. Hook at Kansas City, upholding the claim of the Missouri, Oklahoma & Gulf railroad that the law is unconstitutional and void.

It was expected that the argument would be continued all day today. Monday's hearing was the first on the merits of the Adamson law in any court, Judge Hook having decided the case without formal hearings in order to expediate the appeal for the supreme court's final determination. A decision is expected within a few weeks at most.

Time Not Ripe for Peace, Pope Thinks.

Rome, Jan. 9.—Pope Benedict will declare the present moment inopportune for a peace movement in notes to Germany and America, the newspaper Messagero asserts. According to this source the notes will be practically identical in terms and will be dispatched by the Vatican on Wednesday. In them, the Messagero declares, the Pope will narrate his own personal efforts toward peace and his desire for stopping of the great war, but sums up his conclusions that the time is not yet ripe.

Statistics on Electricity.

The electricity output of the various power plants of the United States reclamation service operated in 1914 was over 66,000,000 kw.-hr. The total capacity of the 12 plants in operation was 27,134 kw., and the first cost of the plants $2,542,000. Of the total output, 39 per cent was sold to customers, 32 per cent was used for irrigation pumping, 17 per cent for construction purposes, 4 per cent for drainage, the remaining 8 per cent representing losses. It was estimated that the power remaining undeveloped on all the different projects amounted to a total of 489,000 horsepower. Of this 360,000 horsepower consisted of the estimated capacity on the Flathead river, in Montana, the remainder being distributed through 21 other power sites.

Thousands Tell It

Why dally along with backache and kidney or bladder troubles? Thousands tell you how to find relief. Here's a case to guide you. And it's only one of thousands. Forty thousand American people are publicly praising Doan's Kidney Pills. Surely it is worth the while of anyone who has a bad back, who feels tired, nervous and run-down, who endures distressing urinary disorders, to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial.

A North Dakota Case

Mrs. C. J. Tyler, Cando, N. D., says: "One failure followed another in my attempts to get relief from kidney complaint. My feet and limbs were swollen and I didn't sleep more than two or three hours at night. Mornings, I was tired and weak and my back was extremely lame. If I stooped or moved quickly, sharp twinges darted through me. Doan's Kidney Pills corrected all these ailments and made my health fine. When I have taken them since, they have always benefited me."

END STOMACH TROUBLE, GASES OR DYSPEPSIA

"Pape's Diapepsin" makes Sick, Sour, Gassy Stomachs surely feel fine in five minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach-headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes. Put an end to stomach trouble forever by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder. It's the quickest, surest stomach doctor in the world. It's wonderful.—Adv.

A Great Discovery

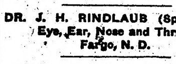
(BY J. H. WATSON, M. D.)

Swollen hands, ankles, feet are due to a dropsical condition, often caused by disordered kidneys. Naturally when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists; or under the eyes in bag-like formations.

As a remedy for those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation caused by uric acid—as scalding urine, backache and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, gout, it is simply wonderful how quickly Anuric acts; the pains and stiffness rapidly disappear.

Take a glass of hot water before meals and Anuric to flush the kidneys.

Step into any drug store and ask for Anuric, many times more potent than lithia and eliminates uric acid as hot water melts sugar.



A WOMAN'S BURDENS are lightened when she turns to the right medicine. If her existence is made gloomy by the chronic weaknesses, delicate derangements, and painful disorders that afflict her sex, she will find relief and emancipation from her troubles in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If she's overworked, nervous, or "run-down," she finds new life and strength. It's a powerful, invigorating tonic and nervine which was discovered and used by an eminent physician for many years, in all cases of "female complaints" and weaknesses. For young girls just entering womanhood; for women at the critical "change of life;" in bearing-down sensations, periodical pains, ulceration, inflammation, and every kindred ailment, the "Favorite Prescription" is guaranteed to benefit or cure. SWIFT ADVANCE OF TEUTONIC ARMIES MENACE TO ALLIES

FOLLOWING CAPTURE OF BRAILA GERMAN FORCES TAKE FIVE MORE TOWNS AND REACH RIVER SERETH AT TWO POINTS.

ROUMANIA'S CHIEF CITY UNDER ARTILLERY FIRE

Russians Bring Reinforcements and Fight Desperately On North End of Russo-Galician Front—Germans Take 900 Prisoners and Several Machine Guns.

Berlin (By Wireless to Sayville), Jan. 8.—The whole Russo-Rumanian line along the Sereth is menaced by the swift advance of the Teutonic armies in Rumania.

Sweeping on after their capture of Braila, Field Marshal von Mackensen's armies have taken five more towns, reached the Sereth river at at least two points and laid Galatz, most important Rumanian city still in the hands of the Allies, under artillery fire.

Many Towns Taken.

Capture of Rimnicenci, Tartaru, Olancasca, Guilianca and Maxineni, in Rumania, and penetration of German vanguards to the Sereth river line is announced by the war office.

With their southern flank in peril, the Russians have brought up reinforcements and renewed their attacks on the northern end of the Russo-Galician front, near the gulf of Riga, it is announced officially here.

The Russians entered German positions east of the river Aa, but elsewhere were repulsed. In a counterattack the Germans took 900 prisoners and several machine guns.

Greek Towns Shelled.

Bavarian and Austro-Hungarian troops have stormed Russian defenses on an extended front south of the Trotus valley, near the Moldavian frontier, the war office announces.

The following official report from the Macedonian front was given out here:

"Artillery fighting occurred in the Cerna bend and skirmishing of patrols on the Struma front. Greek coast towns between the mouth of the Struman and Mesta rivers are shelled every day from the sea by Entente warships."

CANADIAN WAR LEADER DIES

Sir F. W. Borden Was Minister of Militia Until 1911.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 8.—Sir Frederick William Borden, who was minister of militia and defense in the Laurier administration from its formation in 1898 until its defeat at the general election in 1911, is dead, according to a dispatch received here from Canning, Nova Scotia. Sir Frederick served as an army surgeon and was credited with efficient organization of the Canadian troops which fought in South Africa, where his son, Lieutenant Harold L. Borden, was killed in action. Sir Frederick was born in Cornwallis, N. S., in 1847.

Kaiser Issues Order to Army—Urges Firm Stand.

London, Jan. 8.—Kaiser William regards the Allies' rejection of Germany's peace terms as "an arrogant crime" and responsibility is on them for further bloodshed, according to an order issued to the German army and navy, reported in Amsterdam dispatches.

The kaiser is quoted as saying that the Allies' "hunger for power" makes them desire destruction of Germany and as urging that the army and navy stand firm as steel to force the peace offered by Germany, but refused.

APPAM OWNERS FILE BRIEF

Claim Prize Crew Lost Title on Entering U. S. Waters.

Washington, Jan. 8.—British claimants of the prize ship Appam, brought to Newport News last February by a German prize crew, have filed their brief with the supreme court in the libel proceedings brought to regain possession of the vessel and her cargo. The case will be argued this week. The brief contends that under German-American treaties and Hague conventions the Appam's captors lost title to their prize when they brought her into American waters.

Greek Soldiers Rob Americans.

London, Jan. 8.—News dispatches from Athens quote passages from a note presented to the Greek government Dec. 24 by the American minister detailing the case of an American citizen, Basil Saffis, who was arrested Dec. 2 as a revolutionary by soldiers. The soldiers are said to have ignored Saffis' passports, to have taken 3,535 francs from his pocket, and to have marched him outside the city, where he was to be executed. An orderly overtook the soldiers and Saffis was ordered released.

MAN WINS BACK BRIDE HE LOST

Secret Vow Made in Divorce Court Led Husband to Make Good.

HAD LIVED TOO HIGH

L. F. Reynolds of Los Angeles Weathers Business and Family Crash and Returns After Three Years to Wife and Son.

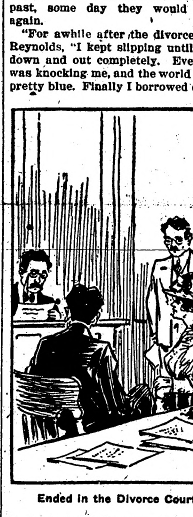
Los Angeles.—Renewing a romance which hinged on a secret agreement made at the time of their divorce in Denver, Colo., three years ago, Linn F. Reynolds of this city and his former wife have just been married the second time.

"She told me that if I would go away and make good we would be married again," said Reynolds. "Now we have carried out our promises to each other—promises known to none but God and ourselves. Three months before the decree was granted, our little son, John David, was born, and it was that little mite of humanity, more than anything else, that determined us to live down the past and make a new home."

Lived Beyond Their Means.

When Louise Lawlor married Linn Reynolds, she was a popular society girl, just twenty years old, the daughter of a wealthy manufacturer of Denver. Reynolds, twenty-two years old, was in business and was making $4,000 a year. But he and his bride had not learned to value money, and lived far beyond their means. Soon the crash came. Reynolds was left without a dollar and heavily in debt. This, with other complications, made trouble for them which ended in the divorce court. But before they parted they agreed that, if the husband lived down the past, some day they would marry again.

"For awhile after the divorce," said Reynolds, "I kept slipping until I was down and out completely. Everybody was knocking me, and the world looked pretty blue. Finally I borrowed enough money to leave Denver and go to San Francisco. But I failed in every effort I made to get along. Discouraged and almost penniless, I went to Los Angeles, and there for six months I all but starved, working as an extra at six dollars a week in motion picture studios. It seemed as if fate had decreed that I must never again see my wife and baby."



Ended in the Divorce Court.

Husband "Came Back."

But one day Reynolds saw his chance, took advantage of it, and won out. Stories of his success reached his former wife. Yet not one word did they write each other until a short time ago, when Reynolds sent her a letter reminding her of their secret promise, declaring that he still loved her, and that he wanted to hear his little boy call him "daddy."

The very next mail brought the girl's answer, and a few days later she was in Los Angeles with curly-headed John David.

WANTED SON IN CHAIN GANG

Georgia Mother Preferred That to Having Him Sent to the Reformatory.

Atlanta, Ga.—"Try my boy for bootlegging and send him to the chain gang, judge, but don't send him back to that reform school," was the plea made before Judge Johnson by the mother of D. A. Dougherty, an eighteen-year-old boy, who was brought before the recorder on a charge of having failed to return to the reformatory after having been given a leave of absence to have his teeth fixed at Atlanta.

His mother charged that he had been given 30 lashes and put on bread and water and that he had been forced to work "like a dog" at the reformatory.

Suffered Several Years. PERUNA MADE ME WELL

Its My Standby for a Cold.

Mrs. Elizabeth Reuther, 1002 11th St., N. W., Washington, D. C., writes: "I am pleased to endorse Peruna as a splendid medicine for catarrh and stomach trouble, from which I suffered for several years. I took it for several months, and at the end of that time found my health was restored and have felt splendidly ever since. I now take it when I contract a cold, and it soon rids the system of any catarrhal tendencies."

Those who object to liquid medicines can now procure Peruna Tablets.

What About the Eggs?

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET.

A well known actress gives the following recipe for gray hair: To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off. Adv.

A MINISTER'S CONFESSION

Rev. W. H. Warner, Myersville, Md., writes: "My trouble was sciatica. My back was affected and took the form of lumbago. I also had neuralgia, cramps in my muscles, pressure or sharp pain on the top of my head, and nervous dizzy spells. I had other symptoms showing my kidneys were at fault, so I took Dodd's Kidney Pills. They were the means of saving my life. I write to say that your medicine restored me to perfect health." TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!—Adv.

IF YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, CONSTIPATED

Look Mother! If tongue is coated, cleanse little bowels with "California Syrup of Figs."

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.—Adv.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE.

Notice is hereby given that default has been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage executed and delivered by John F. Tapper, a single man, Mortgagor, to Holt State Bank, a corporation, Mortgagee, bearing date the 12th day of August, 1915, and with a power of attorney contained, duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Marshall and State of Minnesota, on the 27th day of August, 1915, at 10 o'clock A. M., in book 73 of mortgages on page 151. Such default consisting in the following, to-wit:

(1) Failure on the part of said mortgagor to pay the sum of six and 50-100 (6.50) dollars, due and payable under the terms of said mortgage on August 12, 1916.

(2) Failure on the part of said Mortgagor to pay the interest in the amount of seventy-eight ($78.00) dollars due August 12, 1916, on a prior mortgagor in the sum of thirteen hundred ($1300.00) dollars; by reason whereof the said undersigned was compelled to pay and did pay said interest so due.

(3) Failure on the part of said Mortgagor to pay the taxes and assessments against said land in the sum of nineteen and 42-100 ($19.42) dollars, which became delinquent on June 1, 1916, by reason whereof the undersigned was compelled to pay and did pay said taxes.

And whereas, the said Mortgagee has elected and does hereby elect to declare the whole principal sum of said mortgage due and payable at the date of this notice, and whereas there is actually due and claimed to be due and payable at the date of this notice the sum of one hundred fifty-two and 52-100 ($152.52) dollars, including such interest, so paid on said prior mortgage, and the taxes paid as aforesaid, and no action or proceeding having been instituted at law or otherwise, to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof,

NOW THEREFORE, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That by virtue of the power of sale contained in said morgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, viz: Lot one (1) of Section Nineteen (19) and Lots One (1) and Two (2) and the East half of the Northeast Quarter (E½ NE¼) of Section Thirty (30) in Township One Hundred Fifty-six (156) North of Range Forty-one (41) West of the fifth principal meridan, in the County of Marshall, and State of Minnesota, which sale will be made by the sheriff of said Marshall County, at the front door of the Court house in the City of Warren, in said County and State, on the 17th day of February, 1917, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash to pay and satisfy said debt of One Hundred Fifty-one and 52-100 ($151.52), and interest, and taxes, if any, on said premises, and Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars attorney's fees and the costs and disbursements allowed by law.

Easy Way to Reduce Flesh

Drink Hot Water and Take Tassco

Haven't you often wished for a medicine to reduce your flesh? Something that does not require dieting or calisthenics. Well right here you have it in 5-grain tassco tablets, which you may secure of any good druggist. They are pleasant to take, perfectly harmless and cause no restrictions of habit or eating and reduce the flesh little by little, until you are down to the number of pounds you wish to weigh. Too much flesh is undesirable, as most quite stout people will readily admit and it detracts from one's good appearance, makes one clumsy and short of breath.

There is'nt any reason why anyone should be too stout, when there is this much tried, perfectly satisfactory remedy at any good druggists. Tassco tablets, (don't forget the name) are recommended by physicians and are guaranteed to be perfectly harmless. Refuse substitutes, if you can't come to our store, we will mail tassco to you.

Duty Ever Present.

A sense of duty pursues us ever. It is omnipresent, like the Deity. If we take to ourselves the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, duty performed or duty violated is still with us, for our happiness or our misery.—Daniel Webster.

Undergoes Eighth Operation

Dr. R. L. Olson underwent an operation for gall stones last Saturday at the hospital in Grand Forks, Dr. Bratrud successfully performing the work. There were so many stones found in the gall bladder, it was deemed necessary to remove the bladder entirely. Mr. Olson suffered intensely from the effects of the ether and operation, but on Tuesday when Mrs. Olson returned home, he was resting very comfortably and the doctors were much pleased at the outcome of the operation. This is the eighth operation the doctor has had for different ailments and his friends sincerely hope this will be the last one he will be oblige to have, and that he will indeed enjoy good health after this.

While all live stock is apt to remain high priced, regardless of when the war ends, the best bet is sheep. The big range in Montana and other parts of the west are gone. There are but few large flocks left. Those who have land that is dry, can gain profits by raising sheep. It takes some capital for a start, as woven wire fencing is almost essential to success, but the start can be made in a small way. On brush and timber farms the help they render in clearing land is worth the cost of their keep.

OUR PUBLIC FORUM

Peter Radford

ON THE BUSINESS PREACHER.

The recent confession of Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis from the pulpit of the Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, that he erred in becoming secular is in many respects the most important statement made from the American pulpit in this generation and if it marks the high tide of ministerial lust for worldly power that has been flooding this country for the past quarter of a century then Dr. Hillis has not erred in vain.

It must be said to the credit of this noted divine that his purpose in stepping out of the pulpit was to acquire the means of rendering a more capable service to those who need and deserve assistance, but the pathway from the pulpit to the world is always strewn with good intentions. Satan knows as well how to tempt a saint as he does a sinner and he has lured many a minister down the primrose pathway of worldly power to ruin, for no one knows better than his satanic majesty how easy it is to get a preacher to enter business or politics "in the name of the Lord."

The laymen of this nation have viewed with alarm and the world with derision, the growing tendency of ministers of the gospel to abandon the pulpit as a power against evil and seek the influence of worldly agencies to put into effect their Christian ideals. The man who has not sufficient faith in the power of religion to grapple with the sins of this world ought not to be in the pulpit and if he wants to accumulate wealth in order to relieve poverty or wield a scepter in order to enforce morality, then he ought to be a banker or a mayor, instead of a preacher.

The two great temptations that confront the Christian ministry today are business and politics and between the two evils, Dr. Hillis chose the least and by his able conduct has turned error to his credit and transgression to the advantage of the pulpit. It is no compliment to say a preacher is a sharp trader or a smooth politician and certainly no applicant for the ministry would offer such qualifications as evidence of equipment for Christian work, and ministers engaged in undue activities in either field become a menace to the church and a peril to the state.

It is true the ministers, as a class, are underpaid, but their average income will exceed that of the average farmer. Stocks and bonds, land and securities, politics and the lecture platform have tempted many a preacher but the plow handles are without sin so far as luring the minister from the pulpit is concerned. Any preacher who feels the inclination to abandon the pulpit should plow a few rounds and I venture the suggestion that he will hurry back to the pulpit.

Now that Dr. Hillis has led the business preacher back to the pulpit will some one of our leading political preachers confess their sins and lead their wayward brethren back to the fold?

Tonoline is Beauty Aid

Announces Special[illegible]

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest

To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise. "I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Indigestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said, 'Take tonoline.'

Not long after I started the tonoline treatment my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies, stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the of the blood—and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:—As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

TEUTON LINES ARE BROKEN SOUTH OF RIGA BY RUSSIANS

TREMENDOUS PRESSURE EXERTED BY SLAVS MAY HAVE EFFECT ON GERMAN PROGRESS AGAINST ROUMANIA.

LAST CITY HELD BY SLAVS SOUTH OF SERETH FALLS

Vadeni Captured by Storm in Hand to Hand Encounter Despite Unfavorable Weather Conditions—Lively Artillery Fire Continues North of Somme.

London, Jan. 16.—Russia is exerting tremendous pressure on the German line south of Riga and it may conceivably have its effect on the German progress in Roumania.

At several places the Russians have broken through the German lines and the positions they took were those constructed in the Teuton's 12 months of occupancy. The Russian advances were made also despite heavy snowstorms, freezingly cold weather and great stretches of marsh land.

Take Guns and Brandy.

A message from General Dimitrieff, published here, pays a tribute to his men's heroism and cites their capture of 50 machine guns, 30 cannon and a vast amount of material—including 100,000 bottles of brandy—as evidence of the irresistible force of the advance.

Germans May Withdraw.

Already weakened at several places by the battering of the Russian assaults, it is believed here the Germans must make early reinforcement of their lines in this theater or undertake a general withdrawal. If reinforcements are given it is believed they will be taken from the Roumanian front.

Dispatches from Roumania indicate that the Teutons are again making desperate efforts to approach Galatz. For 10 days the Teutonic forces have been unable to make much progress out of Bralia toward Galatz.

Teutons Take Vadeni.

Berlin, Jan. 16.—Capture by storm in hand to hand encounter of the village of Vadeni, the last city held by Russian forces south of the river Sereth, is announced in the latest official statement. The capture was effected despite unfavorable weather conditions.

North of the Susita valley, the statement said, recently captured German positions were attacked by Russian and Rumanian forces, but the enemy was everywhere repulsed.

"North of the Somme lively artillery fire continues," says the report on the western front operations. "While at several places advances by hostile patrols were repulsed, our reconnoitering detachments in successful enterprises brought in prisoners and machine guns."

WIFE, SUED FOR DIVORCE, GETS BUSY WITH PISTOL

"Cleans Up" Store Where Husband Is Employed—Spouse Shot Through Hips—Porter Hit.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—Angered because of her husband's pending suit for divorce and declaring that he had failed to support her and two chidren, Mrs. Dora Selcer entered the Gage Hat company's store where her husband, William Selcer, is employed, with the avowed intention of cleaning up the establishment.

When she ceased hostilities Selcer lay on the floor with a bullet through his hips; William P. Allison, porter, had one arm shattered and a half dozen customers and clerks were peering cautiusly around corners of adjoining buildings.

The belligerent wife is under arrest and the divorce hearing postponed.

NAVAL FIGHTER NEAR DEATH

Admiral Dewey, Hero of Manilla Bay Reported Sinking.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Admiral Dewey's death is expected momentarily, according to a bulletin issued Monday afternoon by his attending physician, Dr. A. M. Fauntleroy.

After an irrational night, the hero of Manilla bay began to decline.

Admiral Dewey was at his office daily until he was taken sick last week. The day after Christmas he celebrated his seventy-ninth birthday with a reception in his office at which Secretary of the Navy Daniels and all the ranking officers in Washington were present.

U-Boat Sighted May Be Deutschland.

New York, Jan. 16.—News that an unidentified submarine was moving westward in the Atlantic as late as last Thursday morning has just been brought to port here by the British freight steamship Clematis in from Bordeaux, France. Persons on the freighter thought the undersea boat might be the German submarine merchantman Deutschland on a third voyage to America. The stranger made no move to attack the Clematis, which was at the time approximately 800 miles east of Newport, R. I.

RECALL OF TROOPS NOW IN MEXICO IN WEEK IS FORECAST

WITHDRAWAL OF PERSHING'S EXPEDITIONARY FORCES BY WAR DEPARTMENT IS RUMORED—NEW PROGRAM EFFECTIVE.

MILITIA GUARD TO QUIT BORDER BEFORE MARCH 1

Administration Plans to Strip Territory According to Announcement in Washington — Policies Include Sending Ambassador Fletcher to Mexico City at Once.

Washington, Jan. 15.—The administration plans to strip the border of its militia guard before March 1, it has been announced authoritatively. General Pershing's withdrawal from Mexico is slated for an early date.

Early Recall Seen.

Washington, Jan. 14.—General John J. Pershing's expeditionary forces may be recalled from Mexico by the war department within a week.

Reports were current in official circles here that a military movement looking to the immediate withdrawal of the Pershing army from Mexico and the withdrawal of the national guard forces remaining on the border would be ordered soon.

War Office Besieged.

Many inquiries were made at the war department by members of congress who refused to discuss the information, if any, which they received.

It is stated that following the final American-Mexican peace commission session in New York, the administration will put into effect as soon as possible its new policies toward Mexico.

To Send Ambassador.

These policies, in addition to providing for the withdrawal of General Pershing's column and the relieving of probably all the border militia, include sending Ambassador H. P. Fletcher to Mexico City.

Fletcher, appointed months since to that position, has been drawing his salary, but never has been sent to his post.

TO TRANSMIT TO BERLIN ENTENTE ALLIES' REPLY

President Laying Plans for New Move—Undecided As to Inquiry Regarding Teuton Attitude.

Washington, Jan. 15.—President Wilson has decided to transmit to Germany the reply of the Entente Allies to his peace appeal. He has not decided, so far as can be learned, whether to send with the Allies' note an inquiry concerning Germany's attitude toward further peace negotiations in view of the Entente answer.

The president denied a few days ago that he contemplated sending another note to the belligerents. He allowed only cursory consideration of the reply at the cabinet meeting, but thereafter discussed the situation with Secretary of State Robert Lansing for two hours.

KAISER IN PROCLAMATION SAYS "IT'S FIGHT TO END"

Declares Allies Have Dropped Mask and Revealed Plan to Crush Germany and Enslave Europe.

Amsterdam, Jan. 15. — The Allies' purpose to crush Germany and enslave Europe is now made clear, but as they have failed in 30 months of bloody war and "unscrupulous economic" fighting to subjugate the Teutonic powers, so will their future efforts fail.

Kaiser Wilhelm thus summed up his belief of the Allies' position in a "proclamation to the German people." In it he declares his people were "ready for all sacrifices" and asserted his confidence in "full victory over all the enemy's lust for power and rage for destruction."

BERLIN TALK RIGHTLY QUOTED GERARD SAYS

Washington, Jan. 15.—The wireless report that Ambassador Gerard had said at a recent Berlin banquet that relations between Germany and America were never better since the war started than at present is substantially correct, according to word from Gerard to the State department.

Deputies Battle Blackmailers.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Jan. 15.—Deputy Sheriff George Gillapey lies in a precarious condition and Roland Barbee is in jail as the result of a pitched battle in the dark at Oscar Lawson's farm, near Oakland, this cunty. Twenty-seven bullet holes were counted in doors of the driveway at the barn where the battle occurred. Lawson received blackmail letters instructing him to place $300 in currency in the feed grinder in the barn, under penalty of burned buildings, and three officers lay in wait for the blackmailers.

SHE TURNS HER BACK ON SOCIETY

Wealthy St. Louis Matron Is Touched by the Misery Around Her.

TO TRY CHARITY WORK

Young and Pretty Woman Decides That Her Life's Work Must Be That of Caring for Poor and Needy.

St. Louis.—Mrs. Lucile Bernheimer Lowenstein, a wealthy young widow of this city, who has been spending her time and money freely in helping to prepare a code of state laws that will govern with a kindly and sympathetic interest the lives and destinies of destitute children, the deaf, feeble-minded, the delinquent, insane and others of the less fortunate members of the human family, chose the work of charity above that of society, rounds of pleasure and a life of luxuriant ease, simply because she was touched by the misery that she saw about her and decided that her life would be devoted to the dispensing of aid and the administering of philanthropy.

Prepares for the Work.

In order to prepare herself for the work, Mrs. Lowenstein studied for two years in the New York School of Social Economy to perfect herself for work in her chosen field. Returning to her native city, she plunged into the study of conditions existing among the poor and friendless, forsaking all social functions, parties and entertainments in order that she might devote all her time to the work she had undertaken. Mrs. Lowenstein says:

"We are working toward an end that will mean salvation for the children of the poor and of the delinquents. They will have a chance to become useful citizens. Their education will be cared for and everything possible will be done to give them the right outlook and bring them to the realization that the world is not against them. The fact that Missouri is the first state to undertake the work makes it doubly important that there be no failure here.

Chose the Work of Charity.

Children's Court.

"Every county will have a children's court, to which all children who break the law will be brought. No child will be left in a common jail with adults, and no destitute child will be confined in state reformatories with delinquents. Boys under eighteen no longer will be committed to the penitentiary, and adults responsible for the delinquency of a child will be dealt with by the same tribunal that disposes of the child's case.

"The education of the blind, the deaf, the feeble-minded, and the epileptic will be placed under the state department of education. These institutions now are under the direct charge of the heads of the separate organizations with no means of inspection.

HUNG ON WITH CRUSHED LEG

Man Swing From Trestle With Bad Wound to Avoid Further Injury.

Cathlamet, Wash.—With one leg crushed, P. Gossard, a brakeman for the Portland Lumber company, held himself suspended from the ends of the ties of a 40-foot trestle to save himself from being crushed by plunging to the bottom of the canyon. The accident occurred late the other afternoon, when the two engines were making a transfer of loads. A truck loaded with logs jumped the track, throwing Gossard between the brakebeams, crushing the leg so badly that the attending physician amputated it at once.

To save himself from further injury, the plucky man lowered himself over the edge of the trestle and, despite his injury, remained in that position several minutes until help arrived. He was taken to a Portland hospital.

Five Boys Killed in Cave-In.

West Baltimore, Md.—Five boys were buried alive in the cave-in of a sandbank here. Four were taken out dead and the fifth, Frank Davis, aged fourteen years, was so badly crushed that his death occurred a few hours later.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR A CHILD'S BOWELS

It is cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.

ABOUT THE MAN WHO SMOKES

He Consumes Much Tobacco, But Not Nearly as Much as Man Who Chews.

We smoke more than three times as many cigarettes in this country as cigars, but we burn up twice as much tobacco in the cigars as in the cigarettes.

A pound of tobacco will make nearly six times as many cigarettes as cigars. So it seems that the man who smokes only three cigars a day is using the equivalent of 18 cigarettes.

Often we flatter ourselves that the habit of chewing tobacco is passing out, it isn't. More tobacco is "chewed" every day than is smoked in the shape of cigars, Girard asserts in the Philadelphia Record. Indeed, chewing tobacco weighs almost as much as the cigars and cigarettes together.

More cigars are made in Philadelphia than in any other city on earth, and our manufacturers are swamped with work. They are many millions of cigars behind in filling orders. Oh, yes, prices are going up in some directions so that it costs more than ever before to come within the class thus described by Bulwer-Lytton: "The man who smokes thinks like a sage and acts like a Samaritan."

Martial Loyalty.

"Here's a woman who has chased her recreant spouse across the Atlantic twice."

"She evidently believes it is a wife's duty to follow her husband."

Favored by Circumstances.

"Wonderful time that aviator made!"

"Yes," replied Mr. Chuggins. "But think of the advantage she had. Not a traffic policeman on the entire route."

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save Your Hair! Get a 25 Cent Bottle of Danderine Right Now—Also Stops Itching Scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, luster and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp. H. C. L. FILLS ORPHANAGES

Parents of Poorer Class Are Forced to Give Up Children in Oakland, Cal.

Not "war babies" perhaps, but "high-cost-of-living babies," are one of the more affecting manifestations of the inability of poorer folk to get along against the odds of rising prices; and as a result Oakland is facing the pathetic situation of an overproduction of abandoned children, the San Francisco Bulletin announces.

In several orphanages of the city the increase in children whose parents can no longer feed them has became so marked as to create a serious problem for the social workers.

At the Ladies' Relief Society orphanage there are 108 tots left in the care of the nurses, as against 54 two years ago. Of these parentless youngsters, 84 are more than four years old and 24 are under that age. Most of them have parents living who come to visit them just often enough to keep them from being adopted.

"The high cost of living is telling in a most touching manner," a director of the Ladies' Relief home said. "We would establish more beds if people weren't being pressed so hard for aid for the Belgians, Poles, Serbians and other more dire sufferers from the terrible war. Our babies might be called 'war babies,' too, for it is partly the condition brought on by the war that is making many of them institution children."

Contrary Methods.

"I am going to employ a coach."

When Work Is Hard

That kidney troubles are so common is due to the strain put upon the kidneys in so many occupations, such as: Jarring and jolting on railroads, etc. Cramp and strain as in barbering, moulding, heavy lifting, etc. Exposure to changes of temperature in iron furnaces, refrigerators, etc. Dampness as in tanneries, quarries, mines, etc. Inhaling poisonous fumes in painting, printing and chemical shops. Doan's Kidney Pills are fine for strengthening weak kidneys.

OPPORTUNITIES THAT ARE MISSED

Why Wait? Why Not Go to Western Canada Now?

The writer has frequently heard the remark that "after the war we will go to Western Canada." It does not occur to those making the remark that if they wish to secure lands in Western Canada, whether by homestead or purchase, the best time to go is now. After the war the welcome will be just as hearty as ever, but the chances are that land values will increase and today homesteads are plentiful and land is reasonable in price. There is no question about what the land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta will do, what it will give under proper cultivation.

Farmers in Western Canada are paying for their land holdings with the proceeds of last year's crop. That this is no idle statement may be gleaned from the three following items, which are picked out at random:

"In the spring of 1916 a half-section of land was offered for sale at $17.00 per acre. There were 105 acres of summer-fallow, which because the owner could not at the time find a buyer, were seeded to wheat. A yield of 40 bushels per acre, 4,200 bushels all told, grading No. 1, was obtained. The price the day the grain was sold (which was very early in the season, before grain prices advanced to round about $2.00) was $1.60, which brought the handsome total of $6,720.00. Three hundred and twenty acres at $17.00 equals $5,440.00, so that a buyer, by placing less than half of the whole under crop, would have made a profit of $1,280.00." — Robson Messenger, Robson, Sask.

"That the Indiana Boys' farm this year raised sufficient crop to pay for the land, all the machinery and all overhead expenses as well as make a handsome profit, is the information given by N. B. Davis, the manager. The wheat yield was over 22,000 bushels. Of twelve cars already sold, nine graded No. 1, and Mr. Davis has sold over 2,600 bushels locally for seed at $2.00. Naturally, when he gets to Indiana he will be a big booster for Alberta."—Bassano Mail, Bassano, Alta.

"Oscar Castalor, who bought land at Blusson after the crop had been put in last spring, for $3,800.00, has threshed 3,900 bushels of wheat, which is worth at present prices about $7,500.00. He refused an offer of $5,000.00 for the land after the crop had been taken off."—Lethbridge Herald, Lethbridge, Alta.

Reports from the wheat fields are highly encouraging and show that the wheat crop of many farmers in Western Canada was highly satisfactory.

Coblenz, Sask.—W. A. Rose has threshed an average of 33 bushels per acre and 83 bushels of oats.

Gleichen, Alberta.—Up to date 237,812 bushels of grain have been received by local elevators, of which nearly 180,000 bushels were wheat. Seventy-one cars of grain have already been shipped.

Stoop Creek, Sask.—James McRae has threshed 5,400 bushels of grain, 2,000 bushels of which were wheat, grading No. 1 Northern. One field averaged 44 bushels per acre, and a large field of oats averaged 88 bushels.

If information as to the best location is required, it will be gladly furnished by any Canadian Government Agent, whose advertisement appears elsewhere.—Advertisement.

BILIOUS, HEADACHY, SICK "CASCARETS"

Gently cleanse your liver and sluggish bowels while you sleep.

Get a 10-cent box.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Adv.

SPEARERS CATCH MILLIONS OF FISH

PROFESSIONALS AND AMATEURS PROSPER AS RESULT OF THE FLOOD LAST SPRING.

CROWD EAGERLY TO HOLES

Finny Tribes Which Remained in Shallow Sloughs When Waters Recede Become Easy Victims—Many Tons Shipped Daily.

Winona. — The flood which caused enormous damage in the Upper Mississippi river valley last spring is being reflected in the most palmy days professional and amateur fishermen in this section ever have known. Some are earning as high as $50 a day and tons and tons of fish are being brought here daily.

Water broke through the Burlington road's right-of-way which formed a dyke across the river from Winona. A thousand acres of land were inundated and fish by the millions were carried behind the dyke. Much of the water flowed back into the river as the Mississippi gradually lowered, but the fish remained in the newly created sloughs. They became very thickly populated with fish.

When the recent cold weather developed the shallow sloughs froze solidly and in many cases cut off the air for the fish. Suffocating, they crowded eagerly to the first holes in the ice. Here fishermen have been waiting with spears. Hundreds of the holes have been cut and spearers have taken millions of the fish.

Strike to Send Paper Price Up.

Grand Rapids, Minn. — Pulp wood, which has increased 100 per cent in price the past year, may set a new record soon. Paper men who paid $4 to $4.50 a cord for pulp wood two years ago are paying $8 and $9 at present and predict the price may go to $12 and even higher. The increasing cost of the wood will be reflected in the cost of paper. The great scarcity is due to lack of snow in December and the lumberjack strike agitated by the I. W. W.

Virtually no pulp wood was received until the last of December. This left the mills with a greatly depleted stock on hand. When the lumberjacks walked out recently they crippled two big companies that were devoting considerable energy to the cutting of pulp wood. The strike will bring the cutting of pulp wood this month to a minimum.

U. S. Rail Valuation Flayed.

Asserting that many millions of dollars have been extended, but no practical information gained in the Federal valuation of railroads in the United States, D. F. Jurgensen, chief engineer of the State Railroad and Warehouse Commission, has written Clyde B. Atchison, solicitor for the National Association of Railroad Commissioners, urging that vigorous protest be made at once.

Tentative valuations thus far, with possible minor exceptions, Mr. Jurgensen asserts, are based on a false assumption of the property's non-existence and the necessity of its reacquisition, reconstruction and other like items, a premise that he says was strongly condemned by the United States Supreme Court in the Minnesota rate cases.

Appeal for U. S. Canal Aid.

New Ulm, Minn. — One more appeal will be made to Congress for an appropriation to help finance the construction of the proposed canal to connect Big Stone lake and Lake Traverse, to control the flood waters of the Minnesota and Red rivers, before the plans of the Tri-State Flood Control congress, perfected at a meeting here, providing for relief measures by the three states, are put into practice, it was decided.

Should Congress refuse the request, it will be asked to grant the necessary legal power to Minnesota, North and South Dakota to handle the problem, enabling acts will be solicited of the three legislatures, funds will be subscribed from farmers and individuals, and the work on the canal started at once.

For Feeble-Minded.

Minneapolis. — That the women of Minnesota work for legislation that will provide for the compulsory commitment of feeble-minded to custodial care was the plea which Prof. Maria Sanford made in her talk on "Our Duty to the Feeble-Minded" at the regular monthly meeting of the Minneapolis League of Catholic Women.

"Beware of your duty in this matter," she urged. "There are now in Minnesota about 10,000 feeble-minded persons and more than 300 about the community at large unable to be cared for by the state institutions."

Electors Name Dalzell.

St. Paul. — Minnesota's presidential electors placed their party above their appetites. They elected John Dalzell of Morton to carry their vote to Washington over Walter N. Carroll of Minneapolis on the thirteenth ballot after being deadlocked several hours.

Mr. Carroll offered to use the $300 expense allowance to give a big Republican dinner to the electors, state officials and party chiefs. Mr. Dalzell countered with an offer to turn the money over to the Republican committee.

Heads Agricultural Board.

St. Paul.—George Atchison of Mankato was elected president of the Minnesota State Agricultural society at its closing meeting. With the office goes the presidency of the state fair board of managers. Mr. Atchison won against F. W. Murphy of Wheaton by a vote of 162 to 149½. The split vote is explained by the society's method of voting by counties and member associations.

Charles Patterson of St. Paul was re-elected vice president; Mike Holm, judge of probate in Roseau county, was elected member of the board of governors for a two-year term. This is the unexpired term of Thomas H. Canfield of Lake Park, who recently resigned from the board to become its secretary.

Mr. Atchison's victory was explained, according to delegates afterward, by the fact that he had served for nine years as a member of the board and deserved the promotion, whereas Mr. Murphy was a member of the board with two years of his term yet to serve.

Girl Is Potato Champion.

Duluth. — A girl student in the State Normal school at Duluth is the champion potato grower of Minnesota, as determined in the potato growing contest conducted by the University's agricultural extension division. She is Ruth Ehnstrom of Carlton, 18 years old. Prize winners have been announced by T. A. Erickson, state leader of boys' and girls' club work, promoted by the University and the United States Department of Agriculture.

Miss Ehnstrom is a farmer's daughter. She lives on the farm when not in Duluth, and she tills it, too. "When Adam delved and Eve spun" runs the old verse. Miss Ehnstrom doesn't indorse such a division of labor. She likes to delve and does delve—and it pays her. It is making it possible for her to take the normal course, for she is paying her own way. On one-eighth of an acre she grew 55.12 bushels of potatoes last summer.

To Supervise Private Schools.

Charging that the state, while assuming responsibility for the education of its young people, doesn't know to what extent they are being trained in good American citizenship, C. G. Schulz, state superintendent of education, advocates state supervision of all private schools in Minnesota. Recommendations concerning this subject have been filed with Secretary W. W. Hodson of the state voluntary commission on revision of laws pertaining to children, but the superintendent will not make public the text of his recommendation until it has reached the commission.

Reserve Bank Prospers.

Minneapolis. — During 1916 the Ninth Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis earned $238,000 as compared to gross earnings of $96,000 in 1915. The total resources of the bank now are $37,487,000. A year ago the resources totaled $16,466,000. These figures are contained in the second annual report of Chairman John H. Rich. The bank paid a dividend of $57,715.

The bank closed the year with about $12,000,000 of earning assets and with an excellent outlook for 1917 business.

Society of Risk Concerns Meets.

St. Paul. — The Minnesota Association of Mutual Insurance companies has concluded its annual convention here. A. E. Anderson, manager of the Cottonwood County Mutual association, gave the association the results of his company's experiences. The company has now outstanding $8,000,000 worth of risks and has a surplus on hand of $58,000. The premium is 15 cents and is based on two-thirds value of real estate or three-quarters' value on personal property.

Sisters Live Together, Die Together.

St. Cloud. — When in their 'teens, Bessie Hicks and her sister, Juliet, agreed to live together all their lives and never to marry. Since then, they had faithfully observed the pact. Three weeks ago both became ill with influenza, and finally both died within a few hours. They were buried together.

Merger Involves Million.

Eveleth. — The Minnesota Utilities company, a Minnesota corporation with an authorized capitalization of $1,000,000, has effected a merger of the Home Electric & Heating company of this city, the Chisholm Electric company of Chisholm, and the Western Electric company of Coleraine.

Fat Man Falls on Smaller Friend.

Albany, Minn. — Math Perne, weighing 250 pounds, and Herman Cooper, 145 pounds, stepped out of a business place here. They slipped on the sidewalk and both fell, the small man being beneath the heavy one. Cooper suffered three fractures to his left leg.

To Enlarge St. Cloud Shops.

St. Cloud. — The announcement that the Great Northern railroad will build additions to its shops here costing $100,000 means that its force of men will be increased from 800 to 1,500 or 1,600 in the near future, officials state.

$300,000 Blaze Hits Rochester.

Rochester. — One of Rochester's oldest and largest business building, the Horton block, has been destroyed by fire, entailing an estimated loss to the building and several store stocks of $300,000. A heavy wind fanned the flames.

Puts Head on Rail to Stop Train.

Fergus Falls. — An unidentified man stopped a Great Northern coast train near Rothsay by putting his head on the rail. The engineer saw him in time to prevent hitting him.

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET.

A well known actress gives the following recipe for gray hair: To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off. Adv.

The New Method

(BY L. W. BOWER, M. D.)

Backache of any kind is often caused by kidney disorder, which means that the kidneys are not working properly. Poisonous matter and uric acid accumulate within the body in great abundance over-working the sick kidneys, hence the congestion of blood causes backache in the same manner as a similar congestion in the head causes headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish, irritable, have spots appearing before the eyes, bags under the lids, and lack ambition to do things.

The latest and most effective means of overcoming this trouble, is to eat sparingly of meat, drink plenty water between meals and take a single Anuric tablet before each meal for a while.

Simply ask your favorite druggist for Anuric. If you have lumbago, rheumatism, gout, dropsy, begin immediately with this novel treatment.

LOSS OF POWER and vital force follow loss of flesh, or emaciation. These come from impoverished blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery enriches the blood, stops the waste of strength and tissue, and builds up healthy flesh.

Thin, pale, puny and scrofulous children are made plump, rosy and robust by the "Discovery." They like it too.

In recovering from "Grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

Keep Up the Fight.

This alone is thy concern, to fight manfully, and never, however manifold thy wounds, to lay down thine arms, or to take to flight.—Lorenzo Scupoli.

Fully Prepared.

"How is this, Herr Zwetscke! You have got your room full of oleanders and other tropical plants, and a telephone, I see." "You see I have been asked to compose a poem on spring, that is why I have had a telephone laid on the public park to enable me to listen to the singing of the birds."—Der Floh.

Fireproof Wood.

To make wood fireproof, slack a small quantity of fresh lime and add water until it has the consistency of cream; stir well and add one pound of alum, 12 ounces of commercial potash and about one pound of salt. Stir again and apply while hot. Two or three coats will keep wood fireproof for many months.

Lesson From the Lily.

How easily we lose poise, swept by the current of life! Our root is not deep enough. Consider the lily resting on the face of the waters, its roots far below. How serene it rides the ripples, and how confidently it has sought the light, that its life may expand therein above the turbulence of the waves!—Trinities and Sanctities.

Ludwig Gullickson went to Crookston Tuesday to take the examination required of section foremen, passing so successfully that he will not have to take the examination again for four years.

One death resulted from the severe snow storm that swept North Dakota Sunday. John Smythe, a farmer of near Alfred, was found frozen to death in a sleigh which his team apparently had brought unguided to his own door.—Duluth Herald.

Fred Ewald returned home Wednesday from visiting friends in St. Paul, Rochester and other points. He reports lots of snow down in that country. In some places it is almost impossible for the train to get thru. Mr. Ewald says that he was compelled to wait 38 hours in Dodge Center for the twin city trains.

At present we are up against the proposition, either comply with the state requirement or discontinue our High school. With a class of about twenty-five graduating each year from our eighth grade, and probably as many more from the nearby rural schools, can we afford to be without a High school? No! and the best is none too good. The cheapest eventually.—Warroad Pioneer.

Snow drifts have no terror for Iver Amundgaard. He has rebuilt a Ford into a snow motor car that travels along ordinary roads at a rapid rate and plows through drifts with little difficulty. The motor is mounted on a heavy set of front bobs, and a set of bind wheels cut down to sleigh gauge are used as propellers. Iver has made several demonstrations with the car and hasn't had to dig it out of a drift yet.—Argyle Banner.

Wrong Position for Sleep.

Sleep cannot knit up the raveled sleeve of care or do any other reparative knitting, if the head is bent sharply to an acute angle with the collar joints. Frequently men and women who have slept in this supposedly objectionable fashion for years and years suddenly lose the capacity for sleep with no new discoverable reason. It is difficult to convince them that the elasticity and resiliency of youth has heretofore made up for their lifelong awkward pose.

Can't Loose Hair

Twenty Years from Today a Baldheaded Man will be an Unusual Sight

One of the most prominent druggists of America made a statement a few weeks ago which has caused a great deal of discussion among scientists in the medical press. He said: "If the new hair grower, Mildredina Hair Remedy, increases its sales as it has during the past year, it will be used by nearly every man, woman and child in America within 8 years

When Mildredina Hair Remedy is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years frim now a bald will be a rarity

There is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the germs. There is only one hair preparation that will kill the germs and that is Mildredina Hair Remedy. This unusual hair restorer with its record of thousands of cures will grow hair on any head where there is any life left; it will cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp in three weeks or money back. It is the most pleasant and invigorating tonic, is not not sticky nor greasy and is used extensively by ladies of refinement who desire to have and to keep their hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant. Fifty cents for a large bottle of druggists everywhere. Mail orders filled by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass.

CLIMBED STAIRS ON HER HANDS

Too Ill to Walk Upright. Operation Advised. Saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This woman now raises chickens and does manual labor. Read her story:

Richmond, Ind.—"For two years I was so sick and weak with troubles from my age that when going up stairs I had to go very slowly with my hands on the steps, then sit down at the top to rest. The doctor said he thought I should have an operation, and my friends thought I would not live to move into our new house. My daughter asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she had taken it with good results. I did so, my weakness disappeared, I gained in strength, moved into our new home, did all kinds of garden work, shoveled dirt, did building and cement work, and raised hundreds of chickens and ducks. I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and if these facts are useful you may publish them for the benefit of other women."—Mrs. M. O. MONROVIA NOT UGLY CITY

Unprosperous and "Shiftless," But Still in Many Ways a Place of Attraction for the Tourist.

The one word that describes Monrovia is "shiftless." Here came the former negro slave in the early eighties, backed by philanthropists who wanted to see him given a chance in his own country. And here is the former negro slave today, idling away his life in the tropical luxuriance of the jungle, which feeds him without cultivation, and watching his one big chance fall to ruins.

After all, the negro can hardly be blamed if he fails in a task that has tried the nerves of white men. Colonizing Liberia has not been all a delightful experience. There are still many lions, leopards, and snakes in the jungle, which make road-building a dangerous occupation, and occasionally the interior tribes of negroes get obstreperous and eat a couple of their civilized brethren.

Monrovia is pitiful, but not ugly. Over all its shabbiness and decay grow the scarlet hibiscus, pink oleanders and other tropical flowers, decorating with their brilliant blossoms the corpse of a fine ideal.

GREAT GAIN SHOWN IN BANK DEPOSITS

COMBINED ASSETS OF STATE INSTITUTIONS $38,426,178 GREATER THAN A YEAR AGO.

GROWTH HELD REMARKABLE

Superintendent Says Figures Show Increases in Cash Reserves and Decrease in Bills Payable—Deposits Near $250,000,000.

St. Paul. — Combined assets of 1,046 state banks in Minnesota December 27, 1916, were $38,426,178.72 greater than those of 971 such banks on December 31, 1915, according to a comparative abstract from statements on those dates under state calls, as made public by F. E. Pearson, state superintendent of banks. The net increase in deposits during the comparative period was $35,889,227.64.

"The growth of deposits is remarkable," Superintendent Pearson said. "The total assets of Minnesota state banks aggregate nearly $250,000,000. Comparison with the tabulation under the last call on November 17, the figures show increases in the percentage of cash reserve and decrease in bills payable, which is very encouraging."

Dairymen Elect Ulrich.

Lake City. — Talks by Thomas P. Cooper of the North Dakota Agricultural Experiment station at Fargo; Forest Henry of Dover, Minn.; F. W. Merrill of Fargo, and Robert S. Seed of Birmingham, Pa., at the thirty-ninth annual convention of the Minnesota State Dairymen's association, drew the largest crowd of the week. Edward H. Ulrich of Biscay was re-elected president at a business session and George P. Grout of Duluth was chosen first vice president F. B. McLaren of Wrenshall, second vice president; Chris Heen of Osakis, secretary, and J. M. Jack of Northfield, treasurer

Interest centered on the last day of the meeting on the boys' dairy cattle judging contest. "Junior Dairy Man's Day" was an innovation in the program of the association and for that reason officials were anxious to learn the interest which would be displayed by the boys.

Two carloads of pure bred dairy cattle, of different breeds and ages, were shipped to Lake City for the contest and demonstration purposes.

Fair Board Re-elects.

Minneapolis. — Thomas H. Canfield of Lake Park was chosen secretary of the 1917 Minnesota State Fair to succeed himself, at the reorganization meeting of the state fair board. He is given the new title of secretary-general manager. Lester T. Banks of Minneapolis was re-elected treasurer of the board. Practically all the 1916 department heads of the state fair were re-elected.

Superintendents of the auto show, girls' camp, ice, poultry and public safety departments are the only 1917 officials to be chosen.

The dates of the 1917 state fair were fixed for September 3 to 8.

Two full memberships and two half memberships to the farm boys' camp were given to the Northwest Minnesota Farm Crops show, at Crookston, to be used as premiums in rewarding deserving boy exhibitors.

Editors at Brainerd.

Brainerd. — The print paper situation was one of the principal discussions at the annual business meeting of the Northern Minnesota Editorial association, held here. The discussion was led by Frank A. Day of the Fairmont Sentinel, who talked on "Prohibitive Paper Prices and the Real Remedy Required." Mr. Day has made an extensive study of the print paper situation and has proposed state-owned mills, as a relief for the present high price of paper. Charles S. Mitchell of Duluth, H. M. Wheelock, president of the association, and Herman Roe, secretary, also talked on the cost problem as related to print-paper.

Cokato Boy Corn Champion.

Cokato. — Verne Johnson of Cokato, 15 years old, is the 1916 champion corn grower of Minnesota. The university so acclaims him. Verne carries off the sweepstakes place, beating several thousand boys who entered the acre yield corn contest last spring. The agricultural extension division of the university supervises this contest. Verne's yield, in dry, shelled corn, was 123.96 bushels on that single acre.

Lawyers Fleece I. W. W. Clients?

Virginia.—City Attorney S. S. Dahl, in the trial of "Vic" Mattson, I. W. W. agitator, on a charge of "loitering with intent to do mischief," declared that "I. W. W. legal sharps are bleeding their clients."

Canadians Stop State Officials.

International Falls. — State Auditor J. A. O. Preus and State Treasurer Henry Rines, on their way from this city to Duluth, were quizzed and for a time threatened with detention by a Canadian immigration inspector here. The state officials had been here conducting a state timber sale. The official demanded Treasurer Rines, who claimed Sweden as his birthplace, show his second papers. At this point Auditor Preus interfered and explained their identity to the representative of the

To Observe 50th Anniversary.

St. Paul. — The University of Minnesota will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of its founding in 1918

The herald of this celebration will arrive on the university campus next April in the person of the Golden Jubilee Gopher, the college annual now being prepared by the class of 1918. The present Junior class plans to spread the gospel of the anniversary this spring and then lead in the celebration next winter.

Since Dr. William Watts Folwell became the first president a half century ago, the university has grown to eleven colleges, ranking with the great educational institutions of the nation, and has conferred 12,650 degrees upon graduates.

Selecting the greatest of these alumni will be a task of the Golden Jubilee Gopher, and one of the anniversary features. Through the Alumni Weekly, the Gopher is asking each of the living alumni to vote on who they think are the five greatest graduates of Minnesota. The greatest in public life, in science, in business, and the greatest woman in any field, will be given distinction in an Alumni Honor Roll in the big annual.

State Developers Meet.

St. Paul. — Drainage and flood control, junior courses in high schools, a state soil investigation and compulsory military training in public schools, four problems pertinently connected with the development of Minnesota, received the concentrated attention of the All-Minnesota Development association at the annual convention held in St. Paul. More than 100 delegates were in attendance.

President Vincent of the University of Minnesota, and Dr. William Watts Folwell, first president of that institution, advocated the beginning of junior courses in high schools, but cautioning against hasty action without proper survey.

The association appointed committees to go before the legislature to advocate remedial steps for flood conditions in the north and also the appointment of a committee to make an investigation of soil conditions.

Good Roads Sentiment Gains.

St. Paul. — That the sentiment for good roads is spreading rapidly in Minnesota is indicated, the State Highway commission says, by the fact that 51 of the state's 86 counties have drawn all the state aid to which they are entitled in 1916. This amounts to $1,370,000.

From 50 to 90 per cent of the cost of a road is paid by the state and from 10 to 50 per cent by the counties. The percentage of counties drawing all their state aid last year was the largest Minnesota has ever known.

Move to Clear River Channel.

Brainerd. — In an effort to prevent the continued overflow of the Mississippi on valuable lands in the upper river country, delegates from Aitkin, Crow Wing, Itasca and Cass counties met here and drew up resolution for presentation to Congress, recommending the clearance of all obstructions in the Mississippi from Pine Knoll, in Aitkin county, to where the Pine river enters. The delegates perfected an organization, with R. A. Stone of Grand Rapids, president.

Pine Scarcity Exaggerated.

Minneapolis. — That the scarcity of white pine is by no means as great as many call it, was the assertion made by J. J. Cummings of Brainerd at the annual meeting of the Northwestern Lumbermen's association. "Figures of the census bureau show that 17 states cut as recently as 1912 from 16,000,000 to 1,225,000,000 feet of white pine," Mr. Cummings said. "Minnesota cut the most, and Connecticut the least among these, but 14 other states cut some."

Reception for Mankato Guards.

Mankato, Minn. — Public organizations have united in preparing a reception for H company, Second regiment, when its members reach their homes after being mustered out at Fort Snelling. The companies from New Ulm, Redwood Falls, Worthington and Fairmont are expected to arrive here with H company and will be guests of the city.

Orders Hibbing Officials Tried.

Duluth. — Major Victor L. Power of Hibbing and Trustees D. D. Haley, B. J. Burrows, John Curran and Rupert Swinnerton of Hibbing, must stand trial on charges of irregularity preferred by the state, at the next session of district court at Virginia. District Judge Bert Fesler of Duluth has quashed a demurrer by the defendants and ordered the cases to trial.

For Beltrami County Division.

Spooner. — Two hundred people attended the Beltrami county division mass meeting at the auditorium here. Joseph Melloney of Spooner was appointed chairman, and V. E. Lindholm of Spooner, secretary. A resolution favoring an amendment to the law of 1913 regarding county division was unanimously adopted.

"Race Depends on Milk Producers."

Lake City. — Declaring that the very existence of the human race depends primarily on the milk producers, J. J. Farrell, state dairy and food commissioner, in an address here before the Minnesota State Dairymen's association, advocated the establishment of local co-operative creameries. The location of the creameries near the source of production would expedite shipment and insure in all probability, the delivery of fresh milk to the cities, the commissioner said.

"CASCARETS" ACT ON LIVER; BOWELS

No sick headache, biliousness, bad taste or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box.

Are you keeping your bowels, liver, and stomach clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with Salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters?

Stop having a bowel wash-day. Let Cascarets thoroughly cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken or cause any inconvenience, and cost only 10 cents a box from your store. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Biliousness, Coated Tongue, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipation. Adv.

WILSON OUTLINES PLANS FOR WORLD PEACE IN SPEECH BEFORE SENATE

RECOMMENDS THAT U. S. JOIN LEAGUE OF NATIONS—URGES MONROE DOCTRINE FOR ALL COUNTRIES.

PRECEDENT BROKEN BY EXECUTIVE'S TALK

President Addresses Branch of Congress Separately for First Time Since Jefferson—Declares Self in Favor of Peace Without Victory.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Until Monday no president had addressed either branch of Congress separately since Thomas Jefferson in 1801. In fact, no president addressed Congress in joint session since that time until President Wilson revived the custom in 1913.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Speaking, he said, "for liberals and friends of humanity in every nation and of every program of liberty," President Wilson has just outlined to the United States Senate a program of peace for the world, which he believed would keep all the world safe from future aggression.

He declared that the only peace which can last is a peace based upon "equality and a common participation in a common benefit."

The guarantees exchanged, he said, "must neither recognize nor imply a difference between big nations and small."

Lays Down Basis.

He then laid down the following basis for a lasting peace:

Add the authority and power of the United States to the authority and force of other nations to guarantee peace and justice throughout the world.

A peace founded on an equality of rights. A united, independent and autonomous plan.

So far as practicable freedom to all nations for full development of resources and direct outlet to the great highways of the seas.

Freedom of the seas and limitation of naval and military armament.

Explains Course.

The President explained his course by declaring that it was "inconceivable" that this government should play no part in the "great enterprise" of peace. Owing, he said, to the fact that this government did not wish to withhold its services, he felt the people of the United States were called upon "to state the conditions under which they will feel free to render it."

In closing his address, the President said:

"I am proposing, as it were, that the nations should with one accord adopt the doctrine of President Monroe as the doctrine of the world; that no nation should seek to extend its policy over any other nation or people, but that every people should be left free to determine its own policy; its own way of development, unhindered, unthreatened, unafraid, the little along with the great and powerful.

Avoid Alliances.

"I am proposing that all nations henceforth avoid entangling alliances which would drive them into competitions of power, catch them in a net of intrigue and selfish rivalry and disturb their own affairs with influences intruded from without."

Of some form of a league to enforce peace, the President said:

"There is no entangling alliance in a concert of powers. When all unite to act in the same sense and with the same purpose, all act in the common interest and are free to live their own lives under a common protection."

The President declared these to be the American principles and policy.

"We could stand for no others," he declared.

"Peace Without Victory."

The President declared that "the very explicit assurances" regarding peace, received from belligerents, imply that the peace that comes must be "a peace without victory." Victory, he declared, would be peace forced upon the loser, a victor's terms imposed upon the vanquished.

The President's speech to the Senate is already in the hands of foreign governments, it was officially announced. At the same time it was stated there was no need for press agencies here to cable it, leaving the impression that it was available for publication from the foreign governments.

Seeks Senate Approval.

The step is taken by the President, it is understood, following what was regarded as a suggestion in Sir Arthur J. Balfour's recent communication that the most important question facing the Allies is insurance against "future aggression."

Balfour contended that there must be some international sanction to back up treaties and international agreements in preventing or at least making less probable sudden war outbreaks such as that of 1914.

The President seeks the approval of the Senate in promulgating some international agreement by which peace in the future may be enforced. He regards this as the most important step now possible toward eventually ending the great war.

Prolonged Debate Expected.

With future assurances for safety accomplished, he considers a great step will have been made toward bringing about discussion of terms on which peace may be accomplished.

The President made no request for action by the Senate, but appeared before that body "for counsel" as to how he shall proceed.

Owing to a wide difference of opinion among Senate leaders as to the advisability of this country entering into a league to enforce peace, prolonged and acrimonious debate is expected to follow the President's appearance.

SNOWFALL RECORD SHATTERED

NORTHWEST VISITED BY HEAVIEST SNOWSTORM IN HISTORY.

Wind Reaching Proportions of Gale Is An Accompaniment—Railroad Traffic Paralized.

Minneapolis, Jan. 22. — Minneapolis has just passed through the worst snowstorm recorded since the establishment of a government weather observing station in the Twin Cities 40 years ago. Streets and sidewalks were blocked, street railway service demoralized, passenger train schedules were upset and freight traffic stopped by the violence of the storm.

The storm was general throughout the Northwest with central and southern Minnesota and central South Dakota apparently receiving the most serious portion of it, according to reports received.

Snowfall Record Broken.

The snowfall here was 17 inches. The deepest previous fall on record for the Twin Cities is 14 inches, recorded about 30 years ago in the old St. Paul observation station.

Accompanying the snow was a north wind that often reached the dimensions of a gale, the maximum speed of the wind having been 42 miles an hour. An average of 30 miles an hour was maintained for the time the snow fell. This caused heavy drifting and was in a large measure responsible for the paralysis of traffic conditions, in all directions.

The storm was central over Utah. It moved in a northeasterly direction, toward the Great Lakes region, and has passed over Lake Michigan and is headed toward the eastern provinces of Canada.

West Virginia Rivers Overflow.

Pittsburgh, Jan. 23.—Rivers continued to rise throughout the night in Northern West Virginia, following a heavy downpour of rain on top of a three-inch snow, and reports indicated a heavy property damage. Street car traffic between Fairmount and Mannington has been suspended, while parts of the latter place have been flooded. The lower section of Weston was also inundated. Reports from Elkins said that the Tygarts river was rising rapidly and a flood stage was expected.

National Civic Society Meets

New York, Jan. 23.—Discussion of industrial preparedness, universal military service, international peace, regulation of immigration, and compulsory insurance with executives, labor leaders and noted publicists among the speakers, is on the program of the National Civic Federation's 17th annual meeting here. Memorial services were held for Seth Low, late president, with addreses by Talcott Williams for the public, Frank Trumbull for employers and Gompers for labor.

IN THE MINNESOTA LEGISLATURE

BURNQUIST UNDER FIRE FOR FAILURE TO CHECK BUDGET

EXECUTIVE CRITICIZED FOR ALLEGED PLAN TO SEND IN BUDGET WITHOUT MAKING REVISIONS THERETO.

STATE FINANCE PROBE DECISION OF SOLONS

Resolution for Immediate Inquiry in Fnancial Affairs of All Departments Passes House Unanimously, Though Meeting Committee Opposition.

St. Paul, Jan. 20.—Storm clouds are gathering in the legislature following the announcement that Governor Burnquist planned to send in the state budget without having made revisions as required by law.

Legislators who helped pass the budget law in 1915, while withholding definite criticism until the governor's forthcoming message is read, are nevertheless planning to unburden themselves of some strong opinions on the matter.

Leaders said that the first important step in the reform of the state's fiscal system and the method of appropriating money would be nullified unless the revisions were made.

Governor Burnquist may make some eleventh-hour changes in his plans to turn the whole task over to the legislature, it is intimated now.

It is pointed out that the desire of the legislature was expressly stated in the budget law, which requires the governor to revise the estimates. It is known that the governor had his message on the subject prepared some time ago. That he may make some last-minute changes is now considered possible, however.

To Probe State Finances.

An immediate investigation of financial affairs of the various state departments was decided upon when the Minnesota House of Representatives, without a dissenting vote, adopted Representative Anton Peterson's resolution for an inquiry by the House committee on public accounts and expenditures.

The resolution provides for the appointment of two expert accountants and a stenographer to aid the committee in its work.

"Dry" Bill Redrafted.

St. Paul, Jan. 19.—Some of the more drastic features of the proposed prohibition constitutional amendment have just been redrafted at a secret conference of dry leaders of the Minnesota House and Senate.

The provisions in the original draft which would prohibit the transportation of liquor were stricken out. Under the amendment as now constructed, any person could have liquor sent to his own home for his own use from outside of the state.

The bill as first introduced in both House and Senate was patterned after the West Virginia law and was said to be "bone dry." It would not permit any one's even having liquor in his possession.

Decide On Concessions.

In order to satisfy the so-called "political drys," in the legislature, those who would not go the limit in preventing people from purchasing liquor for their own use, the legislators having the constitutional amendment in charge decided to make the concessions.

The conference was held at the Saint Paul hotel. Among the legislators present were Senator Gandrud, who introduced the bill in the Senate; W. I. Norton of Minneapolis, Senator Ole Sageng of Dalton, Theodore Christensen of Dawson, George B. Sutherland of Fairmont, chairman of the House temperance committee, and the Rev. George B. Safford, superintendent of the Minnesota Anti-Saloon league.

For State Insurance Board.

A bill creating a state industrial and insurance board of three members at annual salaries of $5,000 each has been introduced in the Minnesota House by Representatives Henry Holmes of Big Lake, Thomas J. McGrath, St. Paul, and John H. Gill of Virginia.

Under the provisions of the bill the governor is empowered to appoint a board of three members

Admits Farmers By "Proxy."

Farmers "by proxy" are made eligible to membership in the Farmers' Forum, an organization of the farmers of both houses, under rules just adopted at a meeting. The rules define the term, agriculturists.

Hearings on Economy Bills.

St. Paul, Jan. 18.—Public hearings on ten efficiency and economy commission bills for reorganization of the state government will be held daily, beginning Jan. 23. This was determined at a joint meeting.

LEGISLATURE MAY VOTE TO REPEAL PRIMARY ACT

First Step to Reform Election Laws Taken—Opinion Unanimous On Necessity for Change.

St. Paul, Jan. 19.—As the first step in reforming Minnesota's election laws legislators are determined either to repeal or amend the so-called presidential preference primary act.

Indications are that a majority of the lawmakers are willing to wipe the statute off the books.

The amendments of the primary election laws providing for a return to a modified convention system and placing the legislature and county offices back on a partisan basis, are the subjects of many informal conferences.

While there is a unanimity of opinion on the necessity for changing the presidential preference primary, there is an evident fear on the part of some senators and representatives to commit themselves on the changes in the regular primary.

Three Important Bills.

St. Paul, Jan. 18.—Three interesting measures have just been introduced in the Minnesota legislature. They are:

A bill providing that women may vote for president and vice president; introduced in the Senate.

A bill to repeal the boxing law; introduced in the Senate.

A resolution providing for legislative investigation of the affairs of the University of Minnesota; introduced in the House.

Backed by Women.

The bill which would permit women to vote for president and vice president was presented by Senators Frank E. Putnam of Blue Earth and Ole A. Sageng of Dalton.

The measure has the backing of the Minnesota State Woman Suffrage association and smaller organizations. Its introduction has marked the suspension, at least for a time, of the protracted fight to obtain passage of a constitutional amendment granting women full suffrage.

Law Subcommittees Named.

Subcommittees of the house judiciary committee have been named by Chairman Albert F. Pratt and all bills going to the committee will be considered first by the proper subcommittee. Daily sessions of the full committee are to take place an hour before the house meets. The subcommittees are as follows:

Substantive Law—Searls, chairman; Christianson, Davies, Konzen, Swanson.

Pleading, Practice and Evidence—A. M. Peterson, chairman; Levin, Gleason, Hammer, Pattison.

Criminal Law—Mueller, chairman; Howard, Reed, Pittenger, Nordlin.

Constitutional Law—Marwin, chairman; Hammer, Child, Levin, A. M. Peterson.

Probate Courts and Probate Law—Bjorge, chairman; Madigan, Moen, Sudheimer, Bjorklund.

Courts and Court Officers—Madigan, chairman; Ryberg, Bjorge, Frye, Stevens.

Real Property and Curative Acts—Reed, chairman; Stenvick, Ryberg, Norton, J. M. Harrison.

Commercial Law and Uniform State Laws—Child, chairman; Davis, Praxel, Searls, Erickson.

Municipal Corporations—Bjorklund, chairman; Mueller, McGrath, Southwick, Davis.

Corporations Other Than Municipal—Pittenger, chairman; Pattison, Siegel, Solem, Sudheimer.

To Bar So-called "Shysters."

So-called "shysters" and "ambulance chasers" will be removed from the bar under the provisions of a bill introduced in the Senate with two other measures recommended by the Minnesota Bar association.

The three bills will be sponsored by the judiciary committee of the Senate. Five other measures recommended by the bar association were considered, but it was found they already had been introduced.

The bill, aimed to check unethical practices by lawyers, provides for censure, suspension or removal from practice of attorneys who employ runners, solicit business persistently, either personally or by means of circulars, or obtain settlement of personal injury cases for inadequate amounts.

For Fund to Oust I. W. W.'s

As a sequel to Senator E. J. Westlake's resolution offered for a legislative investigation of the I. W. W. disturbances and the labor situation in northern Minnesota, the general legislation committee of the state has introduced a bill providing the governor with a fund of $50,000 to be used in emergencies for the suppression of disorders. The unused portion of the fund each year is to be returned to the general revenue fund of the state.

For State Board of Conciliation.

Representative Knutson of Benson has introduced a bill providing for a state board of conciliation and investigation. The members of the board would be appointed by the governor whenever a strike threatens.

Prohibits Sales On Margins.

Another of the bills advocated by farmer members of the legislature has been presented to the House by Representative A. F. Telgen, and would prohibit the sale of grain or stocks on margin or option.

The PERUNA Family

has three members you should know if you desire to enjoy life.

1. The popular liquid form of Peruna—the reliable tonic of the American household, with a long history of success in treating all catarrhal difficulties.

2. The tablet form, which is made after the same formulary and is more convenient for many.

3. Manalin, the ideal laxative, by the regular use of which constipation may be overcome and natural action restored. Manalin has no habit forming drug, but is an aid to nature.

Your druggist has all three. So many thousands have received benefit from the use of one or both these remedies that they are a recognized part of the equipment of every careful household.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT, BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Make It Thick, Glossy, Wavy, Luxuriant and Remove Dandruff—Real Surprise for You.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store and just try it. Adv.

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver and bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Adv.

Keeping Up to Date.

GAVE HIS CANE AWAY!

Mr. S. P. Benton, Kerrville, Texas, writes: "For several years prior to 1906 I suffered from kidney and rheumatic troubles. Was bent over and forced to use a cane. For these disorders I am glad to say I used Dodd's Kidney Pills, which proved to be the proper remedy. I am 64 years old, feel fine and once again stand as straight as an arrow. Dodd's Kidney Pills deserve great credit." Be sure and get "DODD'S," the name with the three D's for diseased, disordered, deranged kidneys; just as Mr. Benton did. TO LIVE LONG!

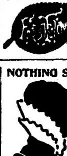
A recipe given by a famous physician for long life was: "Keep the kidneys in good order! Try to eliminate thru the skin and intestines the poisons that otherwise clog the kidneys. Avoid eating meat as much as possible; avoid too much salt, alcohol, tea. Try a milk and vegetable diet. Drink plenty of water, and exercise so you sweat—the skin helps to eliminate the toxic poisons and uric acid."

For those past middle life, for those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation, as backache, scalding "water," or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, "rusty" joints, stiffness, get Anuric at the drug store. This is a wonderful eliminator of uric acid and was discovered by Dr. Pierce of Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. If your druggist does not keep it send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce for trial package and you will find that it is many times more potent than lithia and that it dissolves uric acid as hot water does sugar.

NOTHING STANDS AS HIGH, as a remedy for every womanly ailment, as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It's the only medicine for women certain in its effects.



"Favorite Prescription" is an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengthening nervine, and a complete cure for all the functional derangements, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses peculiar to the sex.

For young girls just entering womanhood; for women at the critical time; nursing mothers; and every woman who is "run-down," tired or overworked—it is a special, safe, and certain help.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

How to preserve health and beauty is told in Doctor Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is free. Send Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., four dimes, or stamps, to cover wrapping and mailing.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE.

Notice is hereby given that default has been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage executed and delivered by John F. Tapper, a single man, Mortgagor, to Holt State Bank, a corporation, Mortgagee, bearing date the 12th day of August, 1915, and with a power of attorney contained, duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Marshall and State of Minnesota, on the 27th day of August, 1915, at 10 o'clock A. M., in book 73 of mortgages on page 151. Such default consisting in the following, to-wit:

(1) Failure on the part of said mortgagor to pay the sum of six and 50-100 (6.50) dollars, due and payable under the terms of said mortgage on August 12, 1916.

(2) Failure on the part of said Mortgagor to pay the interest in the amount of seventy-eight ($78.00) dollars due August 12, 1916, on a prior mortbgagor in the sum of thirteen hundred ($1300.00) dollars; by reason whereof the said undersigned was compelled to pay and did pay said interest so due.

(3) Failure on the part of said Mortgagor to pay the taxes and assessments against said land in the sum of nineteen and 42-100 ($19.42) dollars, which became delinquent on June 1, 1916, by reason whereof the undersigned was compelled to pay and did pay said taxes.

And whereas, the said Mortgagee has elected and does hereby elect to declare the whole principal sum of said mortgage due and payable at the date of this notice, and whereas there is actually due and claimed to be due and payable at the date of this notice the sum of one hundred fifty-two and 52-100 ($152.52) dollars, including such interest, so paid on said prior mortgage, and the taxes paid as aforesaid, and no action or proceeding having been instituted at law or otherwise, to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof,

NOW THEREFORE, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That by virtue of the power of sale contained in said morgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, viz; Lot one (1) of Section Nineteen (19) and Lots One (1) and Two (2) and the East half of the Northeast Quarter (E½ NE¼) of Section Thirty (30) in Township One Hundred Fifty-six (156) North of Range Forty-one (41) West of the fifth principal meridan, in the County of Marshall, and State of Minnesota, which sale will be made by the sheriff of said Marshall County, at the front door of the Court house in the City of Warren, in said County and State, on the 17th day of February, 1917, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash to pay and satisfy said debt of One Hundred Fifty-one and 52-100 ($151.52), and interest, and taxes, if any, on said premises, and Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars attorney's fees and the costs and disbursements allowed by law.

Tonoline is Beauty Aid

Announces Specialist

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said, "Take tonoline.

Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies--stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the of the blood--and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:--As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

Some of the markets taken from an old account book of 1824-26, are as follows:

Eggs 4 cents a dozen, butter 8 cts. a pound, pepper 50 cents a pound, sugar 10 cents a pound, whiskey 25 cents a gallon, wheat 40 cents a bushel, muslin 20 to 38 cents a yard, calico 36 to 50 cents a yard, salt 3 cents a pound.—Badger Herald-Rustler.

The Woodmad lodge met Saturday evening and initiated Clarence Larson, after which visiting Neighbor A. R. Jones installed the following officers:

A. L. Carlson, Consul; H. B. Young, Adviser; J. A. Sorum, Banker; P. A. Riesberg, Clerk and Engebreth Moe, Watchman.

After adjournment a feed was enjoyed by all present.

The annual creamery meeting Saturday was a quiet affair, the farmers seemingly not taking enough interest to attend in any great numbers. The old officers were all re-elected, which shows the people are satisfied with the management of the creamery. A good cooperative creamery is one of the very best assets of any community and the Holt creamery should get the cream of every farmer tributary to it. If Holt had no creamery shippers would not get the present prices for their cream and every one would feel the hard times worse than they now do.

The Karlstad Advocate winds up a long article favoring school consolidation, in the following fashion:

"There is only one objection you could have to a consolidated school and that is it might cost you a little more in taxes. How soon would a dollar a year more in taxes bring you to the poor house? Cut out smoking, liquors, candies or some other luxury for a week every year and you would save enough to educate your children in your home school. You live in the present, you can't take your money with you when you die and you should provide for your ultimate future with the Lord. For your children's future you can't give them anything better than an education."

Can't Loose Hair

Twenty Years from Today a Baldheaded Man will be an Unusual Sight

One of the most prominent druggists of America made a statement a few weeks ago which has caused a great deal of discussion among scientists in the medical press. He said: If the new hair grower, Mildredina Hair Remedy, increases its sales as it has during the past year, it will be used by nearly every man, woman and child in America within 8 years

When Mildredina Hair Remedy is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years from now a bald will be a rarity.

There is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the germs. There is only one hair preparation that will kill the germs and that is Mildredina Hair Remedy. This unusual hair restorer with its record of thousands of cures will grow hair on any head where there is any life left; it will cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp in three weeks or money back. It is the most pleasant and invigorating tonic, is not not sticky nor greasy and is used extensively by ladies of refinement who desire to have and to keep their hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant. Fifty cents for a large bottle of druggists everywhere. Mail orders filled by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass.

PREFER TALKING TO READING

Writer Asserts That Southerners Excel in One of the Most Charming of Accomplishments.

Fifteen years ago, or thereabouts, I heard a publisher describe the South as "the home of the paper-covered novel and the ten-cent magazine." Since the demise of Poe's Southern Literary Messenger, no magazine of any large significance of popularity has been edited in Dixie. Today, there is no great publishing house in the South.

But the aristocrats of Dixie, the fine, cultured, delightful Southerners one knows—how comes it that they confess to an utter and absolute indifference toward reading? Come here and live and you will soon see. It is because of talk. They are the most charming talkers on earth. Instead of burying their noses in books when the sun goes down, they sit about and chat. Match them at that if you can. A subject will last from dinner to bedtime. They turn it over and over and inside out and illumine it with the quaintest observations, the most comical stories. By comparison, reading becomes odious because at once toilsome and solitary.—Rollin Lynde Hartt in Boston Transcript.

More Understandable.

Some wise gent has arisen to inform the less erudite that scriptural references to bottles don't really mean bottles, whereby the implication of a "skin full" takes on a clearer significance.—Washington Post.

SOLDIERS CHARGE MEXICANS TRYING TO CROSS BRIDGE

AMERICANS CLUB GUNS AND DRIVE BACK MOB OF 500 AT JUAREZ—GREASERS YELL "DEATH TO GRINGOES."

QUARANTINE ORDER IS CAUSE OF DISTURBANCE

U. S. Precaution Against Typhus Menace Resented by Servant Women Who Refuse to Take Disinfectant Bath—Two American Soldiers Hurt.

El Paso, Jan. 20.—Juarez is virtually under the rule of the "great unwashed," although Mexican cavalrymen are patrolling the streets and endeavoring to maintain order.

Rioting which began as a result of an American quarantine order has been resumed.

American soldiers with clubbed rifles charged a mob of 500 Mexicans attempting to advance across the international bridge and drove them back.

Two Soldiers Hurt.

A semblance of order has been restored, but no Americans are permitted to cross into Juarez, street car traffic across the bridge has been abandoned and hoots of "death to the gringoes!" from the Juarez side reach American ears.

Rioters approaching the middle of an international bridge hurled missiles at United States soldiers on guard.

Two noncommissioned officers were injured. Sergeant Peck of Company A, Twenty-third United States infantry, was struck by the shower of stones and injured about the head. Roy Schuyler of the customs guard was struck by a bottle and slightly injured.

Carranza Hailed as Hero.

Company A charged the mob and pushed them back across the center of the bridge. Mexican cavalry with whips then charged the mob.

The Mexican papers printed here declared that the rioting was the outgrowth of a feeling of triumph over General Pershing's withdrawal from Mexico, which the newspapers declared was forced by the Carranza government. The Spanish Times, in commenting on action by the mob, said:

"The leaders were telling the crowd that the Americans can do nothing to us, as was demonstrated by First Chief Carranza in driving out the 'gringo' army."

Rebel at Benzine Bath.

The trouble began when, by order of the United States health service, because of the typhus menace, quarantine regulations against Juarez went into effect, although the fact was not generally known in Juarez. Accordingly, when the first street car load of Mexican servant women crossed to El Paso, the women were amazed when some of their number were ordered by American immigration inspectors to enter the disinfecting station and take a disinfectant bath of gasoline.

The women refused, remembering the gasoline bath in the El Paso city jail last year in which 25 men were burned to death.

PITTSBURGH BLAZE SWEEPS BUSINESS DISTRICT; 16 HURT

THIRTEEN BUILDINGS ARE DESTROYED WITH A LOSS ESTIMATED AT FROM $3,000,000 TO $4,000,000.

INTENSE COLD HINDERS WORK OF FIRE FIGHTERS

Firemen Seriously Handicapped by Intense Cold—Heavy Fire Walls Finally Stay Progress of the Flames—Oldest Skyscraper in City Is Threatened.

Pittsburgh, Jan. 29.—Fire, starting soon after midnight, swept through a section of the retail business district here, destroying the Frank & Seder department store, the Grand opera house, the Hilton Clothing company, and a dozen smaller buildings, with a loss estimated at from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000.

Four firemen were seriously hurt and a dozen or more so badly injured that they were removed to hospitals.

It appeared for a time as though the fire would sweep the entire square, but heavy fire walls finally stayed the progress of the flames which ate through the hundreds of tons of merchandise piled in the stricken buildings.

The fire is said to have started in the J. G. McCrory & Co., five and ten cent store, but gave the firemen no concern until after 4 a. m., when it had eaten its way into the Frank & Seder store. A general alarm was then turned in, but the flames, hidden from view by dense clouds of smoke, had made such progress into the adjacent buildings that they were seen to be doomed.

Firemen were seriously handicapped by the intense cold, it having been necessary to carry hot water from neighboring restaurants to thaw street hydrants before streams were available.

The fire ate its way down Fifth avenue from Smithfield street toward Wood street, and breaking windows in buildings across Fifth avenue, drove scores of guests from their rooms in the Newell hotel.

The flames were fanned by a high wind, which threatened to carry the fire farther west along Fifth avenue, while plate glass windows in business buildings a block away were being broken by the intense heat.

"MOIST" PROHIBITION BILL MAY MEET OPPOSITION

Speculation as Fate of Measure Indulged in at Capitol—Views of Committees Differ.

St. Paul, Jan. 29.—With the fight for state-wide prohibition in Minnesota well under way in the House, speculation as to the fate of the measure in the Senate is being indulged in at the capitol.

It is asserted the Senate committee on temperance does not agree with a "moist" measure has a greater chance of carrying the state than a "bonedry" measure and is prepared to amend the bill calling for the submission of a constitutional amendment to popular vote by reinstating the word "transportation," eliminated by the House committee.

SHOOT UP NEWSPAPER OFFICE

Three Highwaymen Demand Payroll of Western Newspaper Union.

Minneapolis, Jan. 29.—Two masked highwaymen, assisted by a "lookout," who entered the Western Newspaper Union's offices at noon, Saturday, and demanded the company's payroll, were frightened away without obtaining any loot. The holdups fired a dozen shots in an effort to intimidate the office employes but no one was injured. They effected their escape before the police arrived on the scene.

Jewel Robbery Cleared Up.

Chicago, Jan. 29.—After 13 months of patient detective work the $30,000 Art institute jewel robbery was partly cleared up with announcement of the arrest of Aage Larsen, son of a distinguished Copenhagen family, as a participant. Two other men, one of whom disappeared from public gaze when Larsen was taken, are still to be arrested.

Germans Successful Near Riga.

Berlin, Jan. 29.—The German operations southwest of Riga on the northern end of the Russian front are meeting with success, writes the military critic of the Overseas News agency in his review of military conditions in that region.

Snow Blocks Railroad Traffic.

Laramie, Wyo., Jan. 29.—Driven by a strong north wind, snow has filled the cuts between Rock river and Hanna, bringing traffic on the Union Pacific railroad to a standstill. The blockade was temporarily broken permitting passage of several east bond trains. Railroad officials now say additional equipment is necessary to buck the huge drifts. Twelve passenger trains are held here. Hundreds of passengers are being fed at hotels and restaurants, the supply on diners being exhausted.

MOTHERHOOD WOMAN'S JOY

Suggestions to Childless Women.

Among the virtues of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the ability to correct sterility in the cases of many women. This fact is well established as evidenced by the following letter and hundreds of others we have published in these colums.

Poplar Bluff, Mo.—"I want other women to know what a blessing Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been to me. We had always wanted a baby in our home but I was in poor health and not able to do my work. My mother and husband both urged me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, my health improved and I am now the mother of a fine baby girl and do all my own house work."—Mrs. ALLIA B. TIMMONS, 216 Almond St., Poplar Bluff, Mo.

In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

Boy for "Safety First."

The other morning a mother of seven was alarmed at hearing her youngest child screaming.

Rushing up to the bedroom to ascertain the cause, she observed her four-year-old boy prodding at his little sister's arm with an old pocketknife.

"Whatever are you doing, Willie?" shouted the frantic mother.

"I am waxinating Eva," replied the youngster proudly.

Don't Call on Pneumonia Patient.

"Kissing a pneumonia patient is almost as hazardous as to kiss a diphtheria or scarlet fever patient." Health Officer J. H. He declares that "numerous physicians have referred to the unusual prevalence of the disease and the severe type that prevails."

Is Work Too Hard?

Many kinds of work wear out the kidneys, and kidney trouble makes any kind of work hard. It brings morning lameness, backache, headache, nervousness, rheumatism and urinary troubles. If your work is confining, strains the back, or exposes you to extreme heat or cold or damp, it's well to keep the kidneys active. Doan's Kidney Pills are reliable and safe. Thousands recommend them.

A North Dakota Case

Sidney Goodnow, machinist, 208 W. Eleventh St., Devils Lake, N. D., says: "Three years ago I was suffering from my back. It was lame and weak and ached most all the time. My kidneys were weak and disordered, too. The first few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills gave me relief and as I continued using them, they removed the trouble. I have found this medicine to be just as represented."

WESTERN CANADA LEADS AS WHEAT PRODUCER

342,000,000 Bushels Wheat in 1915; In 1916 Many Farmers Paid for Their Land Out of Their Crop.

That Western Canada is indeed "Mistress of Wheat" to the extent that its 1915 crop exceeded, acre for acre, the production of any country on this continent is a striking fact proved by the following figures:

In 1915 the Dominion of Canada produced 376,000,000 bushels of wheat, which represented an average yield of 29 bushels to the acre. The United States produced 1,011,505,000 bushels, yield of 17 bushels per acre. The only serious competitors in wheat production in South America were Argentine, with 178,221,000 bushels, or less than 12 bushels per acre, and Chile, with 19,000,000 bushels or 13 bushels per acre.

The three Western Canadian prairie provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta produced between them 342,000,000 bushels out of the total Canadian 376,000,000 bushels. It will be seen, therefore, that, outside of the United States, Western Canada produced considerably more than the combined production of North and South America. Canada is of course a new-settled country, and the fact that the crop of the United States was practically three times as much is no discouragement. The United States has at present more than twelve times the population of Canada in approximately the same area.

To illustrate further the greater productiveness of Western Canadian land, we submit the following figures, showing the 1915 yields per acre in the three provinces of Western Canada and in the states which in that year produced the greatest quantity of wheat. The figures are taken from the U. S. department of agriculture's annual report and from the figures of the Dominion census bureau:

	Bushels per acre 1915
All Canada	29
Western Canada only	29 1-5
Province of Manitoba	28 4-5
Province of Saskatchewan	28 1-2
Province of Alberta	32 4-5
United States, all	17
Montana	26 1-2
Washington	25 1-5
Wisconsin	22 3-4
Ohio	20 2-5
Iowa	19 4-5
Illinois	19
Pennsylvania	18 1-2
Nebraska	18 2-5
North Dakota	18 1-5
Indiana	17 1-5
South Dakota	17 1-10
Minnesota	17
Texas	15 1-2
Virginia	13 4-5
Kansas	12 1-2
Missouri	12 3-10
Oklahoma	11 3-5

In 1916 the crop was not as heavy, but the yields in many districts were very large. So large, indeed, was the acreage under cultivation in 1915 that the resulting crop proved too large to be all threshed the same fall. It overloaded railroads, and made marketing slow. A less amount of fall plowing was done than would have been done in a less heavy year, because the average farmer was too busy with his threshing. All these conditions necessarily reacted upon the acreage seeded in the spring of 1916. Add to this that labor last year, owing to the great number of Canadians who have enlisted, was scarce and high-priced, and one factor in the decreased yield—smaller acreage under crop was evident.

Another factor is that this year Western Canada has experienced, in common with the entire North American continent, conditions that have been less favorable to the production of big crops. The conditions have resulted in smaller yield per acre and reduced grade of grain in certain localities.

The average yield of wheat in the three western provinces is estimated by the government at about 16 bushels per acre, oats 43 bushels, and barley 27 bushels.

The financial value of their crops to Western Canadian farmers has been greater this year than ever before. Owing to the high prices of grain that are prevailing, returns have been received that are extremely profitable. With wheat standing at the present time at over $1.90 per bushel at the Great Lakes, a wheat crop at present figures would pay the farmer, even supposing he had only the average of 16 bushels per acre, over $30.00 per acre. A large number are receiving $50.00 per acre—some have received $75.00, and a few even more than that.

This price, of course, is not all profit; it represents the gross return, and the cost of operation must be deducted. But it does not, even at the highest figures, cost more than 65 cents to raise a bushel of wheat in Western Canada, so that the profit can be figured accordingly. It must be emphasized that the acre which produces a $30.00 crop costs in the first case, probably less than that. In the United States the same class of land would cost in many districts from $100 to $200 per acre, and even then a return of $30.00 would be considered extremely satisfactory. In Western Canada the best class of agricultural land, capable of producing crops that in size compare with any country in the world except, perhaps, some European countries, can be obtained at, on the average, from $20 to $30 per acre, with irrigated lands somewhat higher. It is no exaggeration whatever to say that a number of Western Canadian farmers have paid for their land entirely from the proceeds of last year's crop, and this includes men who last year began for the first time.—Advertisement.

IS CHILD CROSS, FEVERISH, SICK

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

Estimating the Breakage.

"That's right. And I have no doubt it is rather more difficult to break a law than it is to break a pledge."

"What makes you think so?"

"Because not one woman in ten could cast a ballot straight."

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET.

A well known actress gives the following recipe for gray hair: To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off. Adv.

Millions Spent on Music.

If expenditure of money is any test, America can certainly claim the credit of being a musical country. According to an estimate compiled some time ago by an expert, the United States spends no less than £120,000,000 on music every year. This is three times as much as the same country spends on its army and navy; while "musical Germany," it is pointed out, spends ten times as much on its army and navy as on its music.

In the American total, church music accounts for £10,000,000 a year. The sale of pianos reaches £27,000,000, of organs £13,000,000, and of sheet music and music books, £2,100,000.

ANY CORN LIFTS OUT, DOESN'T HURT A BIT!

No foolishness! Lift your corns and calluses off with fingers—it's like magic!

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn, can harmlessly be lifted right out with the fingers if you apply upon the corn a few drops of freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

For little cost one can get a small bottle of freezone at any drug store, which will positively rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain.

This simple drug dries the moment it is applied and does not even irritate the surrounding skin while applying it or afterwards.

This announcement will interest many of our readers. If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to surely get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

'PHONE COMPANIES BLAMED FOR DELAY

MEMBER OF STATE RAILROAD COMMISSION DEFENDS BOARD IN SPEECH IN ST. PAUL.

INFORMATION IS WITHHELD

Large Per Cent of 1,800 Concerns Failed to Fill Out Blanks Properly, Elmquist Says in Reply to Complaint of Slow Action.

St. Paul. — Telephone companies that complain that the Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse commission has been slow in performing the function of telephone regulation delegated to it by the 1915 Legislature, have themselves largely to blame, Charles E. Elmquist, a member of the commission, told 100 members of the Minnesota Independent Telephone association, who held their eighth annual convention in St. Paul.

"A very large per cent of the 1,800 telephone companies in the state failed to fill out properly blanks the commission issued for filing information regarding their business affairs, and it was necessary in many cases to send back the blanks several times and write three or four letters to get the information that might have been given promptly," Mr. Elmquist said.

The commissioner's remarks were in reply to the address of President M. M. Woolley of Howard Lake, who said member companies complained of slow action of the commission.

Teachers See Art Exhibit.

Moorhead. — Featuring the annual convention here of the Northwest Central Minnesota Educational association, was an exhibit of Medici prints from the Beard galleries at Minneapolis. The art exhibition was held at the normal school, where most of the convention sessions took place.

Among the speakers scheduled to appear on the program were: J. Frank Hanley, prohibition candidate for president in the last election; Dr. Frank L. McVey, president of the University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, and Dr. L. C. Lord, head of the state normal school at Charleston, Ill.

A tour of the Moorhead and Fargo schools preceded the meeting proper. The annual "schoolmasters' banquet" was held at Comstock, near here, on the evening of the second day.

Fowls at Show Worth Fortune.

St. Paul. — Nearly 2,000 chickens from ten states, representing many small fortunes in fowls, are on exhibition at the Armory for the fifteenth annual poultry display by the Minnesota Fanciers' association.

Among the aristocracy of chickendom to be shown are the Barred Plymouth Rocks owned by George McPherson of Stillwater, who has refused as high as $1,000 for certain members of his flock.

Another interesting exhibit is a practically new breed, known as Rhode Island Whites, owned by J. H. Movius, Lidgerwood, N. D.

Power to Be Candidate.

Hibbing, Minn. — The annual village election is still some time off but interest is already shown. While no official announcement has been made by President Victor Power it is rumored he will again be a candidate although not all of the present administration will seek re-election. Last year three tickets were in the field and this year it is almost a certainty to expect at least two with a dark horse party making a last minute entrance.

Business Man Alleged Fugitive.

Austin. — Charged with escaping from the Wisconsin state penitentiary at Waupun in November, 1914, where he was serving a life sentence for conviction of murder, William Coles, who has run a tailor shop in this city for the last two years, has been arrested here by Sheriff Nicholson. Coles has confessed that he is the man wanted, according to the sheriff.

1,000 Scribes to Meet.

Mapleton. — H. C. Hotaling, Mapleton states that the National Editorial association, of which he is vice president and which is to have its annual convention in Minneapolis July 8, will bring more than 1,000 delegates and visitors. This would make a new attendance record for the association conventions.

Supervision of Teachers.

Moorhead. — More and better supervision of teachers is the great need of rural schools of Minnesota, in the opinion of C. C. Swain, state commissioner of rural schools, who presided here at a conference of ten county superintendents in the territory of the Northwest Minnesota Educational association.

Report on Water Levels.

Minneapolis. — The International Boundary Commission, comprising representatives of the United States and Canadian governments, has just met in executive session in Minneapolis to draft a report concerning the water level of the Lake of the Woods, on the boundary between the United States and Canada. The report was to be drafted after a four years' investigation by the commission, and will affect water powers, agricultural, fishing, lumber and shipping industries valued at more than $100,000,000.

State Gets Road Aid.

St. Paul. — The Minnesota State Highway Commission has been informed that $284,788 has been apportioned to Minnesota for this year under the Federal aid road law as the state's share in the second annual distribution of the $10,000,000 fund. Last year's apportionment for rural post roads was $142,394.

That amount will be increased by $142,394 during each of the three remaining years covered by the law until the total amount for Minnesota will have amounted to $2,135,910. The last apportionment in 1920 will be $711,970.

John H. Mullen, deputy state engineer in charge of roads, said that the commission has tentatively decided on applying the Federal aid on about 6,000 miles of road connecting all the main towns and county seats of the state and including all the main roads of travel.

"The commission," said Mr. Mullen, "has approved applications for Federal aid amounting to about $295,000 and has received other applications for Federal aid amounting to $300,000 which have not yet been acted upon. The commission is now ready to receive applications for Federal aid from the counties for future aid amounting to the full amount of the five-year apportionment. The condition under which the applications may be approved is that the county applying for the aid must spend an amount equal to the Federal aid asked."

Second Mustered Out.

Fort Snelling, Minn. — With six months in the service of their "Uncle Sam" to their credit, the soldiers of the Second Minnesota infantry have just been mustered out. The mustering out was in charge of Major George E. Huell. Each company appeared before its barracks, where the men answered roll call by stepping forward one pace. This took place between 7:30 and 8:30 a. m.

Company F of Worthington was the first off the reservation. As it marched by each barracks and the headquarters post the men were cheered by their comrades. The Company F soldiers took streetcars for St. Paul to make a 10:10 a. m. train home.

Captain L. F. D. Rucker, commandant at the post, paid out $45,000 of federal money to the Second regiment soldiers for their January service, and as refunds on clothing deposits. The federal clothing equipment will remain with each company, the United States transferring it to the state.

Discussion League Meets.

Akeley. — The first of the district contests of the Minnesota Discussion league, the only one of its kind in the United States, has just been held at Akeley. The contests are under the auspices of Macalester college.

Th league was organized last year by Dean Glenn Clark to stimulate interest of students in public questions and encourage discussions from their own viewpoint.

Each student contestant chooses his own side of the question, which this year is, "The Federal government should own and operate the railways in the United States."

State Probes "U" Gifts.

St. Paul. — Securities totaling nearly $120,000 belonging to the University of Minnesota, in the custody of the state treasurer, which include $9,300 worth of Northern Pacific Railroad company shares, the dividends being paid to Mrs. W. A. Smith, formerly Mrs. J. A. Johnson, wife of the late governor, and other stocks in private corporations, as listed by a recent investigation, are the subject of an inquiry begun by Secretary Schmahl, as a member of the state board of audits.

Lawyers Get I. W. W. Money.

Hibbing. — The auditing Industrial Workers of the World committee, James Gilday and Joseph Ettor, have made public the "defense fund." The total receipts were $33,500; expenditures, $32,000. The receipts included moneys received from various I. W. W. organizations, organized labor contributions, loans, and moneys collected by Elizabeth Flynn and others. Among expenditures were $8,000 for attorneys, paying fines, etc., outside of the Virginia murder trials.

Needs Soap, Water and Paint.

Minneapolis.—The Little Red School House is in need of soap, water and paint. This was made clear to more than a score of county superintendents gathered at a sectional meeting here to discuss the work of the county superintendents in the field, with special reference to a practical health program and the activities of the superintendent outside his office.

Virginia Affairs Probed.

Virginia. — The affairs of Virginia wealthy iron range town and neighbor of Hibbing, the world's richest village, are being investigated by Andrew Fritz, state public examiner, who recently conducted a similar inquiry at Hibbing. The Virginia investigation was begun, Mr. Fritz said, on a petition by more than 100 citizens.

All Is Quiet in Woods.

Virginia.—There appears to be nothing doing in local labor troubles, the I. W. W., due to the recent heavy sentencing of convicted ones, having apparently quit the game of harrassing industrial concerns in this section. There has been no picketing around the Rainy Lake mill. The No. 2 mill which ran a day shift last week, was expected to start a night force. No. [illegible] is running without incident. No trouble in the woods is reported, and the police and deputy sheriffs are taking it easy.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls! Try This! Makes Hair Thick, Glossy, Fluffy, Beautiful—No More Itching Scalp.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable luster, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Adv.

Why Rheumatism Comes With Cold Weather!

BY VALENTINE MOTT PIERCE, M. D.

A close connection exists between these two—cold weather and rheumatism. Prof. Alex. Haig, of London, has the most followers in the medical profession in the belief that the presence in the system of uric acid, or its salts in excess, is the real cause of rheumatism. Everyone has recognized the difference in the appearance of their water as soon as it gets cold; there is often a copious sediment of brickdust.

Several causes may lead up to an accumulation of uric acid in the system, which, in turn, causes rheumatism or gout, or creaky joints, or swollen fingers, or painful joints. For one reason the skin does not throw off the uric acid, by profuse sweating, as in the hot weather, and the kidneys are unable to take care of the double burden. Another reason is that people do not drink as much water in cold weather as in summer, which helps to flush the kidneys. Again, they eat more meat in cold weather, and some people are so susceptible that they soon develop rheumatism after eating meat.

At all such times persons should drink copiously of hot water, say, a pint morning and night, and take Anuric three or four times a day. This Anuric comes in tablet form and can be had at almost any drug store. It dissolves the uric acid in the system and carries it outward. I would advise everyone to take Anuric occasionally, and continue for three or four weeks, and in that way avoid rheumatism, gout and many of the painful disorders due to uric acid.—Adv.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE.

Notice is hereby given that default has been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage executed and delivered by John F. Tapper, a single man, Mortgagor, to Holt State Bank, a corporation, Mortgagee, bearing date the 12th day of August, 1915, and with a power of attorney contained, duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Marshall and State of Minnesota, on the 27th day of August, 1915, at 10 o'clock A. M., in book 73 of mortgages on page 151. Such default consisting in the following, to-wit:

(1) Failure on the part of said mortgagor to pay the sum of six and 50-100 (6.50) dollars, due and payable under the terms of said mortgage on August 12, 1916.

(2) Failure on the part of said Mortgagor to pay the interest in the amount of seventy-eight ($78.00) dollars due August 12, 1916, on a prior mortgagor in the sum of thirteen hundred ($1300.00) dollars; by reason whereof the said undersigned was compelled to pay and did pay said interest so due.

(3) Failure on the part of said Mortgagor to pay the taxes and assessments against said land in the sum of nineteen and 42-100 ($19.42) dollars, which became delinquent on June 1, 1916, by reason whereof the undersigned was compelled to pay and did pay said taxes.

And whereas, the said Mortgagee has elected and does hereby elect to declare the whole principal sum of said mortgage due and payable at the date of this notice, and whereas there is actually due and claimed to be due and payable at the date of this notice the sum of one hundred fifty-two and 52-100 ($152.52) dollars, including such interest, so paid on said prior mortgage, and the taxes paid as aforesaid, and no action or proceeding having been instituted at law or otherwise, to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof,

NOW THEREFORE, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That by virtue of the power of sale contained in said morgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, viz; Lot one (1) of Section Nineteen (19) and Lots One (1) and Two (2) and the East half of the Northeast Quarter (E½ NE¼) of Section Thirty (30) in Township One Hundred Fifty-six (156) North of Range Forty-one (41) West of the fifth principal meridan, in the County of Marshall, and State of Minnesota, which sale will be made by the sheriff of said Marshall County, at the front door of the Court house in the City of Warren; in said County and State, on the 17th day of February, 1917, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash to pay and satisfy said debt of One Hundred Fifty-one and 52-100 ($151.52), and interest, and taxes, if any, on said premises, and Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars attorney's fees and the costs and disbursements allowed by law.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1916.

Kilometer.

A kilometer is a length of 1,000 meters, equal to 3,280 feet, or 0.621 of a mile. The kilometer is the chief unit for long distances in the metric system of measurement.

If speakers are desired for farmers meetings of any kind, they can be had by making early requests to the Northwest School of Agriculture at Crookston. Can we not have some farmers meetings here?

Seventeen premiums amounting to $175.00 are being offered for the best displays of potatoes at the Farm Crops Show in Crookston, Feb. 5 to 9. Also 16 premiums for wheat, 12 for oats, 10 for barley, and 4 each for alfalfa, clover, rye and flax.

Yo-Ho Freckle-Face

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots

Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots so that no one will call you freckle-face?

Simply get an ounce of carpol, extra strong, from your druggist, and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion. The sun and winds this month have a strong tendency to bring out freckles, and as a result more carpol is sold in these months. Be sure to ask for the extra strong, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.—Carpol Laboratories, Boston, Mass., Sta. M. Mail orders filled.

Easy Way to Reduce Flesh

Drink Hot Water and Take Tassco

Heve'nt you often wished for a medicine to reduce your flesh? Something that does not require dieting or calisthenics? Well right here you have it in 5-grain tassc tablets, that you may secure of any good druggist. They are pleasant to take, perfectly harmless and cause no restrictions of habit or eating and reduce the flesh, little by little, until you are down to the number of pounds you wish to weigh. Too much flesh is undesirable, as most quite stout people will readily admit and it detracts from, one's good appearance; makes one clumsy and short of breath.

There is'nt any reason why anyone should be too stout, when there's this much-tried, perfectly satisfactory remedy at any good druggists. Tassco tablets, (don't forget the name) are recommended by physicians and are guaranteed to be perfectly harmless. Refuse substitutes, if you can't come to our store, we will mail tassco to you.

Old Settler Passed Away

Hans B. Engen, an old settler, died at the home of his son John Feb. 1st. at the ripe old age of nearly eighty years.

Mr. Engen emigrated from Norway and was one of the earliest settlers in Holt Township. He saw this country in its new and raw state, and endured many hardships and passed thru much suffering during those early days. He was postmaster at Ringbo for several years and made friends of all the early settlers.

The deceased leaves two sons and two daughters to mourn the loss of a beloved father: Christ of Ringbo, John and Mrs. Alfred Hammerstein of Highlanding and Mrs. Ranfness of Goodridge, besides a host of neighbors and friends.

The funeral was held in the Free Lutheran church at Ringo Feb. 5th.

Early Slave-Holding State.

Maryland was an early slaveholding colony, for in 1642 Governor Calvert bargained with a certain shipmaster for the delivery of 13 African "slaves."

Lesson From the Lily.

How easily we lose poise, swept by the current of life! Our root is not deep enough. Consider the lily resting on the face of the waters, its roots far below. How serene it rides the ripples, and how confidently it has sought the light, that its life may expand therein above the turbulence of the waves.—Trinities and Sanctities.

Can't Loose Hair

Twenty Years from Today a Baldheaded Man will be an Unusual Sight

One of the most prominent druggists of America made a statement a few weeks ago which has caused a great deal of discussion among scientists in the medical press. He said: "If the new hair grower, Mildredina Hair Remedy, increases its sales as it has during the past year, it will be used by nearly every man, woman and child in America within 8 years

When Mildredina Hair Remedy is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years frim now a bald will be a rarity

There is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the germs. There is only one hair preparation that will kill the germs and that is Mildredina Hair Remedy. This unusual hair restorer with its record of thousands of cures will grow hair on any head where there is any life left; it will cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp in three weeks or money back. It is the most pleasant and invigorating tonic, is not not sticky nor greasy and is used extensively by ladies of refinement who desire to have and to keep their hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant. Fifty cents for a large bottle of druggists everywhere Mail orders filled by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass.

CUT THIS OUT

FREE to show how quickly Mildredina Hair Remedy acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this Coupon to American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass., with their name and address and ten cents in silver to pay postage.

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET.

A well known actress gives the following recipe for gray hair: To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off. Adv.

MOTHER! LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is ofttimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

DIPLOMATIC BREAK WITH TEUTONS COMES

WILSON SEVERS RELATIONS WITH GERMAN NATION

HANDS VON BERNSTORFF PASSPORT AND ORDERS AMERICAN ENVOY IN BERLIN HOME—ADDRESSES CONGRESS.

ALL NEUTRALS CALLED ON TO TAKE SIMILAR STAND

President Confident That Sentiment of Country Is Behind Him and Is Assured of United Support of Congress—Breaking of Relations Brings U. S. to Verge of War.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The severance of diplomatic relations with Germany has been formally announced to the country and the world by President Wilson at a joint session of Congress.

This speech contained a plea that all neutral nations join with the United States in the course adopted.

The United States now stands on the verge of war, with all the historic precedent of centuries pressing it forward.

On Verge of War.

Fervently invoking thhe guidance of Almighty God in the step he had taken, President Wilson detailed to the Congress why the United States could not continue relations with a warring power which repeatedly invades its sacred rights and takes the lives of its citizens.

President Speaks Solemnly.

Calm with a sense of right in what may prove thhe most somber moment of American history, the President stood in thhe historic hall of the House of Representatives and spoke the words which may carry the country into the world conflict—not for aggression and not for power; only for law and humanity.

Silent and attentive the grim company of the nation's lawmakers listened with rapt attention while President Wilson told of America's course in the now unsuccessful diplomatic struggle to dissuade Germany from her campaign of ruthlessness.

"Refuses to Believe."

The President declared that "notwithstanding this unexpected action of the German government, this sudden and deeply deplorable renunciation of its assurances given this government," he refused to believe that "it is the intention of the German authorities to do in fact what they have warned us they feel at liberty to do."

In concluding his address, President Wilson declared that if overt acts are forthcoming he will again come before Congress to ask authority "to use any means that may be necessary for the protection of our seamen and our people." All neutral governments, he believes, will take the same course.

Stands by Principles.

"We wish to serve no selfish ends," the President stated. "We seek merely to stand true alike in thought and in action to the immemorial principles of our people . . . seek merely to vindicate our right to liberty and justice and an unmolested life. These are the bases of peace, not war. God grant that we may not be challenged to defend them by acts of willful injustice on the part of the government of Germany."

Bernstorff Bets Passport.

While the President was addressing Congress, Law Adviser Woolsey of the State department was at the German embassy delivering to Count von Bernstorff passports for the ambassador, his wife, the embassy staff and his suite, which comprised more than a hundred persons. A note believed to be substantially the same as the President's address to Congress was included.

HOLLAND GREATLY ALARMED

Germans Massing on Frontier Is the Cause.

Rotterdam, Feb. 5.—Massing of German troops on the Holland frontier continues, causing apprehension in Holland. It is reported here that large bodies of troops are being concentrated near Weilen and Venebrugge and this country is waiting with much anxiety the answer of the United States to Germany's blockade note with the fear that Holland will be involved if drastic steps are taken.

Gold From South American.

Baltimore, Feb. 4.—The Au Sable the first of the three steamships which left here during the last two months with consignments of gold for South America has arrived in Buenos Aires. It is learned on unimpeachable authority that the gold on the Au Sable as well as that on the other two ships, the Maumee and Winnebago, is intended to pay for a large part of the wool crop in Argentina bought by American and British interests. It was stated previously that the gold was for the German raiders off South America.

Wilson In Address to Congress Calls on All Neutrals to Aid U. S.

Washington, Feb. 5.—President Wilson in his address to congress on the crisis with Germany spoke as follows: "Gentlemen of the Congress:

"The imperial German government on the 31st day of January announced to this government and to the governments of the other neutral nations that on and after the 1st day of February, the present month, it would adopt a policy with regard to the use of submarines against all shipping seeking to pass through certain designated areas of the high seas, to which it is clearly my duty to call your attention.

"Let me remind the Congress that on the 8th day of April last, in view of the sinking on the 24th of March of the cross-channel passenger steamer Sussex by a German submarine, without summons or warning and the consequent loss of lives of several citizens of the United States who were passengers aboard her, this government addressed a note to the imperial German government in which it made the following declaration:

Reviews Sussex Case.

"'If it is still the purpose of the imperial government to prosecute relentless and indiscriminate warfare against vessels of commerce by the use of submarines without regard to what the government of the United States must consider the sacred and indisputable rules of international law and the universally recognized dictates of humanity, the government of the United States is at last forced to the conclusion that there is but one course it can pursue. Unless the imperial government should now immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of submarine warfare against passenger and freight-carrying vessels, the government of the United States can have no choice but to sever diplomatic relations with the German empire altogether.'

Gave Assurances to U. S.

"In reply to the declaration the imperial German government gave this government the following assurances: 'The German government is prepared to do its utmost to confine the operations of war for the rest of its duration to the fighting forces of belligerents, thereby also insuring the freedom of the seas, a principle upon which the German government believes now, as before, to be in agreement with the government of the United tSates.

"'The German government, guided by this idea, notifies the government of the United States that the German naval forces have received the following orders: In accordance with the general principles of visit and search and destruction of merchant vessels recognized by international law such vessels, both within and without the area declared a naval war zone, shall not be sunk without warning and without saving human lives, unless these ships attempt to escape or offer resistance.

Germany's Statement.

"'But,' it added, 'neutrals cannot expect that Germany, forced to fight for her existence, shall for the sake of neutral interests restrict the use of an effective weapon if her enemy is permitted to continue to apply at will methods of warfare violating the rules of international law. Such a demand would be incompatible with the character of neutrality and the German government is convinced that the government of the United States does not think of making such a demand, knowing that the government of the United States has repeatedly declared that it is determined to restore the principle of the freedom of the seas, from whatever quarter it has been violated.'

Accepts Assurances.

"To this the government of the United States replied on the 8th of May, accepting, of course, the assurances given, but adding:

"'The government of the United States feels it necessary to state that it takes its for granted that the imperial German government does not intend to imply that the maintenance of its newly announced policy is in any way contingent upon the course or result of diplomatic negotiations between the government of the United States and any other belligerent government, notwithstanding the fact that certain passages in the imperial government's note of the 4th instant might appear to be susceptible of that construction.

"'In order, however, to avoid any misunderstanding the government of the United States notifies the imperial government that it cannot for a moment entertain, much less discuss, a suggestion that respect by German naval authorities for the rights of citizens of the United States upon the high seas should in any way or in the slightest degree be made contingent upon the conduct of any other government affecting the rights of neutrals and non-combatants. Responsibility in such matters is single, not joint, absolute, no relative.'

Kaiser Fails to Reply.

"To this note of the eighth of May, thhe imperial German government made no reply.

"On the 31st of January, the Wednesday of the present week, the German ambassador handed to the secretary of state, along with a formal note, a memorium which contained the following statement:

"'The imperial government, therefore, does not doubt that the government of the United States will understand the situation thus forced upon Germany by the Allies' brutal methods of war, and by their determination to destroy the Central powers and that the government of the United States will further realize that the now openly disclosed intention of the Entente Allies gives back to Germany the freedom of action which she reserved in her note addressed to the government of the United States on May 4, 1916.

Announces Blockade.

"'Under these circumstances Germany wil. meet the illegal measures of her enemies by forcibly preventing after Feb. 1, 1917, in a zone around Great Britain, France, Italy and in the eastern Mediterranean, all navigation, that of neutrals included, from and to England and from and to France, etc. All ships met within thhe zone will be sunk.'

"I think that you will agree with me that, in view of this declaration, which suddenly and without prior intimation of any kind, deliberately withdraws the solemn assurance given in the imperial government's note of May 4, 1916, this government has no alternative consistent with the dignity and honor of the United States but to take the course which, in its note of April 18, 1916, it announced that it would take in the event that the German government did not declare and effect an abandonment of the methods of submarine warfare which it was then employing and to which it now purposes again to resort.

Severs Relations.

"I have, therefore, directed the Secretary of State to announce to his excellency the German ambassador, that all diplomatic relations between the United States and the German empire are severed, and the American ambassador at Berlin will immediately be withdrawn, and in accordance with this decision to hand to his excellency his passports.

"Notwithstanding this unexpected action of the German government this sudden and deeply deplorable renunciation of its assurances, given this government at one of the most critical moments of tension in the relations of the two governments, I refuse to believe that it is the intention of the German authorities to do in fact what they have warned us they will feel at liberty to do so. I cannot bring myself to believe that they will indeed pay no regard to the ancient friendship between their people and our own or to the solemn obligations which have been exchanged between them and destroy American ships and take the lives of American citizens in the willful prosecution of the ruthless naval program they have announced their intention to adopt. Only actual overt acts on their part can make me believe it even now.

"If this inveterate confidence on my part in the sobriety and prudent foresight of their purpose should unhappily prove unfounded; if American ships and American lives should in fact be sacrificed by their naval commanders in heedless contravention of the just and reasonable understandings of international law and the obvious dictates of humanity, shall take the liberty of coming again before the Congress to ask that authority be given to use any means that may be necessary for the protection of our seamen and our people in the prosecution of their peaceful and legitimate errands on the high seas. I can do nothing less. I take it for granted that all neutral governments will take the same course.

Desires No Conflict.

"We do not desire any hostile conflict with the imperial German government. We are the sincere friends of the German people and earnestly desire to remain at peace with the government which speaks for them. We shall not believe that they are hostile to us until we are obliged to believe it, and we purpose nothing more than the reasonable defense of the undoubted rights of our people. We wish to serve no selfish ends. We seek merely to stand true alike in thought and in action to the immemorial principles of our people which I have sought in my address only two weeks ago—seek merely to vindicate our right to liberty and justice and an unmolested life. These are the bases of peace, not war. God grant that we may not be challenged to defend them by acts of wilful injustice on the part of the government of Germany."

Pays Tribute to American Navy.

Paris, Feb. 5.—Rear Admiral Degouy, retired, of the French navy paid a tribute to the officers and men of the American navy in an interview on the submarine issue which he gave to a correspondent of the Associated Press. "Should Germany's new policy," said the admiral, "bring the United States into the European conflict. American sailors may be depended on to give a good account of themselves in fighting submarines which are now on the other side of the Atlantic."

Golden Gate Entrance Guarded.

San Francisco, Feb. 5.—On receipt of a message from Washington this afternoon, United States Collector of the Port J. O. Davis, ordered a torpedo boat to patrol the entrance to the Golden Gate. Davis admitted the action was taken to prevent any vessels leaving without clearance papers. Should interned German ships in San Francisco bay attempt to leave, he said, they will be held up. Special guards have been detailed to watch these ships along the waterfront.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED AFTER LENGTHY APPEAL IN HOUSE—EQUITY SOCIETY TO COME UNDER SEARCHLIGHT.

AMENDMENT BILL GETS GOOD MARGIN IN HOUSE

Proposed Constitutional Prohibition Measure Clears First Hurdle By Vote of 86-44—Prohibits Transportation, Manufacture, Gift, Sale or Barter—Now Up to Senate.

St. Paul, Feb. 2.—An investigation of the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce, the Duluth Board of Trade and the Equity Co-operative association will be conducted by a special house committee.

The resolution authorizing the investigation, introduced by Representative A. F. Teigen, of Montevideo, has been adopted by the House after a lengthy appeal for such action by the author of the resolution. On motion of Representative Magnus Johnson the portion of the preamble of Mr. Teigen's resolution which criticised the Equity association was stricken out.

An amendment offered by Representative Charles H. Warner referred to the committee on rules the section of the Teigen resolution empowering the committee to employ counsel, clerks and stenographers.

Tax on Futures to Come Up.

Representative Knute Knutson's bill proposing a tax on future trades in grain and stocks will come to the floor of the House, despite the action of the tax committee, which voted 13 to 2 to postpone indefinitely consideration of the measure.

Mr. Knutson forced the issue by asking that the bill be taken from the committee and placed on general orders.

This plan was opposed by Representatives A. F. Teigen, H. H. Harrison and Asher Howard. Their contention was that the tax burden would fall on the farmers.

Dry Amendment Bill Passes.

St. Paul, Feb. 2.—The proposed constitutional amendment for state-wide prohibition cleared the first hurdle when it was passed by the Minnesota House of Representatives by a vote of 86 to 44. Two more hurdles remain —the Senate and the voters of the state.

The measure passed is "bone dry," prohibiting the transportation of liquor as well as its manufacture, gift, sale or barter. The drys themselves took the moisture out of the bill reported by the temperance committee. All efforts to further amend the bill failed.

Prohibition Victory.

The action making the measure "bone dry" by re-inserting the transportation prohibitory clause, while ostensibly fostered by the dry leaders, was, in reality, a victory for the Prohibition party leaders and a defeat for certain leaders of the Minnesota Anti-Saloon league. The latter consented to the "just dry" measure going onto the floor of the House. When the Prohibitionists, headed by W. G. Calderwood, got into the game, enough drys were induced to desert the leadership of the men in charge of the bill so far as the "just dry" feature was concerned.

W. I. Norton of Minneapolis, floor leader of the drys, introduced the amendment re-inserting the word transportation.

Plan Statutory Prohibition Bill.

A statutory prohibition bill is to be introduced in the House, according to the plans of the "ultra-drys." The bill has been prepared and will provide for a "bone dry" law effective January 1, 1919.

Representative A. V. Anderson of Goodhue has been selected to introduce the bill. At least 10 other representatives will affix their names to the measure, according to statements made by prohibition leaders.

The result of the fight over the constitutional amendment proposal has convinced the uncompromising drys that they can pass a statutory bill in the House, Mr. Anderson said.

Pay Day for State Lawmakers.

Thursday was the first payday for members of the legislature and the third for legislative employees. Senators received checks totaling $17,250 and house members $32,500. Senate employees received $4,042 and those of the house $3,620. The total disbursement was $57,412. The next pay day for members will be March 15.

Selling Orders Swamp Market.

New York, Feb. 2.—The stock market broke sharply before an avalanche of selling orders at the opening Thursday, prices showing losses ranging from 1 to 17½ points. U. S. Steel broke 7 to 12 points, opening with 35,000 shares at 105 to 100. Mercantile Marine preferred broke 12½ to 17½. Among the heaviest breaks were Mexican Petroleum, off 11⅞ at 87; Central Leather, 8½ at 75; Republic Steel 12¼ at 64; Cuba Cane Sugar, off 7½ at 38, Atlantic Gulf, 13 at 100; General Motors, off 10¾ at 100.

Safety in the Home

Part of Woman's Daily Duty

Every woman in charge of a household realizes that it is a large part of her duty to keep that household well.

In this task she must know the simple home remedies to be applied at the first symptom of illness.

Coughs and colds are two of the foes she must constantly combat, and digestive disturbances need immediate attention. Thousands of American housekeepers have found the most help to come from ever-ready-to-take

PERUNA

Because Peruna has established itself as the reliable family medicine of America, in the 45 years it has been before the public, the forehanded housekeepers keep it ready for instant ministration in the period of depression that precedes a cold, or when stomach troubles manifest themselves.

Both of these disorders are caused by inflammation of the delicate membranes lining the breathing apparatus and the digestive tract. Peruna clears away the waste, aids the membranes in recovering from inflammatory conditions and tones up the system. Its effectiveness is the reason that so many depend upon it, and its long record of merit maintains it as the dependable home tonic.

RECOGNIZED WORK OF BIRDS

Occasion When Growers of Grain Responded to Appeal to Save Their Friends From Extermination.

Three hundred million dollars' worth of the cotton crop was damaged by the cotton boll weevil in the last year and birds, especially quail, consider such fare a treat and have a fondness for ridding the farmer of the enemies of his crops. What the good birds do in the destruction of insects injurious to man's interests is little short of marvelous.

One year at the headquarters of the National Audubon society a wire came stating: "Birds are dying in Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri in great numbers—result of sleet and snow." In response to the wire $600 worth of grain, seed and chaff was distributed, together with grit, to the birds and saved many of the insectivorous birds and game birds. The postmaster general ordered the rural mail carriers to distribute the feed free of charge.

New Industry for Detroit.

It is estimated that $10,000,000 worth of the 1916-17 fur exports will pass into the American channels before next June. The manufactured product, of course, will more than double these figures, for every one who touches a skin increases the profit which the ultimate purchaser must pay to the ancient industry. The cream of this new business will center in Detroit, one of the big fur manufacturing points of the country, New York, Chicago, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, St. Louis and other cities.

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You say to the drug store man, "Give me a small bottle of freezone." This will cost very little but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn relieves the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, dries up and can be lifted off with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that freezone dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn or callus without irritating the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to order a small bottle from his wholesale drug house for you.—adv.

EXCELLENT RETURNS FROM THE CANADIAN WHEAT CROP

United States Settlers Becoming Rich on Western Canada Lands.

The large number of United States settlers coming to the Western provinces of Canada are easily explained by the case of Mr. C. Lacy, late of Wisconsin and later of Alberta.

Mr. Lacy came to Canada from Wisconsin in the summer of 1914 with $1,500 available cash in his possession. He rented a half-section of partly improved land in Alberta and commenced summer fallowing. He broke 300 acres with oats, 20 with barley, and 260 with wheat. Also he had two cows and 20 head of young live stock. He was fortunate in buying feed at a bargain and managed to rent the adjoining quarter-section as pasture.

A few weeks ago he decided to realize his profits—and they amounted to $6,000 absolutely clear from the crop and the stock.

W. J. Winstead, of Brooks, Alberta, says:

"I landed in Brooks, March 18th, 1916, with one car of household effects, and nine head of good horses, and less than $500 in cash. I have put $1,500 worth of improvements on my farm. I have 31 head of cattle, 16 head of horses, debts all paid, a new automobile, and a good, stiff bank account. At present prices, I can cash in for $16,000. I am well satisfied, and expect to double this next year.

I have threshed altogether 7,000 bushels of No. 1 Northern wheat from two hundred acres, which went from 24 to 56 bushels per acre.

Seven thousand bushels of wheat, all No. 1 Northern, two thousand bushels of oats, 670 bushels of flax, 700 bushels of barley—all at market prices—well, figure this out for yourself at the market price. I sold 3,100 bushels of wheat at $1.74⅞, am holding the remainder for $2.00. Also all the oats, barley and flax for higher prices."

Intelligent farming pays always according to Alex. Wattie, a prosperous farmer. Some figures to prove his contention that he has "made good."

In 1914 Mr. Wattie threshed 40 bushels to the acre from a 30-acre crop. This sold for $1.60¾ per bushel, which, after deducting seed, labor, twine, threshing and freight, left a clear profit of $50 per acre, or a total of $1,500. From last year's crop of 34 acres, just sold, he received after freight had been deducted, $1,876.94.—Advertisement.

The machine run company at Rochester will be inspected February 20; Company D, Zumbrota, on February 21; the storehouse at Lake City February 22 and 23, and Companies L, Red Wing; K, Stillwater; G, Princeton; B, Anoka, and I, Crookston, on the respective dates between February 24 and March 2, inclusive, and Company H, Olivia, on March 5.

The state storehouse at St. Paul will be inspected March 6 and 7 and the state administration staff, also at St. Paul, on March 8.

Co-operation at "U" Urged.

St. Paul. — A plea for co-operation with the new president of the University, Dr. Marion L. Burton, has been made to more than 200 faculty members of the institution by Fred B. Snyder, president of the board of regents. The occasion was the second midwinter dinner given to the regents by the faculty in the Men's Union.

President Vincent joined Mr. Snyder in counseling loyalty to the new president and asking the faculty to withhold judgment of him until they have had an opportunity for better acquaintance. They cautioned faculty folk against taking too seriously the threatened budget "cuts" that have been taken to mean few if any salary increases at the University.

Dr. L. G. Rowntree, chief of the department of medicine, made the suggestion that friends of the University should interest themselves in the enterprise of seeking endowments for the institution to supplement its support from the state.

Interest in Sanitation.

St. Paul.—Minnesota Communities are fast becoming aware of the dangers associated with improper sanitation, according to H. A. Whittaker, director of the sanitation division of the state board of health, who points to the records of his office as indicative. They show the people are increasing their demands on his office to undertake work for the protection of public health.

The sanitation division is engaged in investigating water supplies, garbage disposal and the sanitary arrangements of certain public buildings.

Order Obliterates Village.

St. Cloud.—The village of El Rose has been obliterated by a stroke of the pen. Judge Roeser in district court signed an order dissolving the village recently incorporated, and declaring the village officers jobless The action was brought on behalf of the attorney general and residents opposed to the incorporation.

It was shown that the village in order to get the proper number of freeholders within its boundaries, was forced to spread out over five square miles, only about thirty acres of which was used for the actual village.

Range Power Company Expands.

Virginia.—Range Supt. H. J. Underhill of the Great Northern Power company, who has returned from a business trip to the East, states that the construction work of his company on the range this season will exceed any previous year. A considerable addition has been made to the range power station here. Much additional machinery has been ordered and will be placed before spring.

Rule Bars Handbills.

Duluth —Candidates for city offices and officials of the "wet" and "dry" forces will be barred from distributing literature, cards or handbills in the spring campaign. This is the interpretation made of the handbill ordinance passed as an emergency measure by the city commissioners during the I. W. W. movement.

Federal Agent Freed.

Duluth.—W. J. Johnson, special officer of the United States Indian service, has been ordered liberated from the Beltrami county jail by Judge Wilbur F. Booth at Duluth. Judge Booth granted the writ of habeas corpus taken out by U. S. District Attorney Alfred Jacques and the effect of the decision is that the state courts have no right to interfere with federal officers. Johnson forced an entrance into a hotel to look for liquor. An employe charged Johnson with pointing a revolver at him.

Heads Sheriffs' Society.

New Ulm.—Sheriff W. J. Julius of New Ulm was re-elected president of the Minnesota Sheriffs' association at the closing session of the annual convention at the courthouse in St. Paul. H. W. McKinnon, Carleton, elected treasurer, is the only new officer. He succeeds W. F. Geiger of Faribault. P. A. Peterson, Ada, is vice president and L. S. Kent, Alexandria, is secretary.

The sheriffs indorsed bills before the Legislature to increase sheriffs' salaries in the three smaller classes of counties and to increase the mileage fees.

Record for February Assets.

St. Paul. — Minnesota began February business in better financial condition than ever before at this time of the year, State Treasurer Rines states. His books at the close of January business showed a balance of $3,055,075.36 cash on hand in the state treasury.

"On February 1 on every other year of its history, the state has had temporary loans outstanding against it," Treasurer Rines said. "This year we have managed to avoid borrowing and thus far have not drawn on deposits in country banks."

Wood Formally Resigns.

St. Paul.—Albert F. Woods, dean of the College of Agriculture of the University of Minnesota, has just tendered his formal resignation at a meeting of the board of regents of the institution, to accept the presidency of the Maryland State College of Agriculture at a salary of $10,000 a year.

The St. Paul educator, who will receive the highest salary ever paid by Maryland to a public official, will leave for his new field of work on July 1.

Militiamen to Be Jobless.

Minneapolis.—The homecoming and mustering out of Minnesota troops now in Texas will leave nearly 1,000 men jobless, according to information made public by Adjt. Gen. Fred B. Wood.

"Lieut. Col. Hugh McGee wired that 569 out of 1,090 men in the First Minnesota infantry at San Antonio, Tex., will need new positions when they are discharged from active service and that the cases of 39 others are doubtful," said General Wood.

Famers Must Waive Claims.

Thief River Falls.—Specially prepared blanks have been furnished to County Commissioners Wold and Peterson to procure relinquishments for damages that might result from straightening, widening and deepening the Red Lake river east of Thief River Falls. The state will not undertake this work of improving the river to aid the drainage problem without these relinquishments.

Red Wing.—Driven by hunger from the woods, covered with heavy snow, wolves are prowling about barnyards and attacking sheep in rural districts about Red Wing In the vicinity of Nerstrand, F. J. Bosshart shot three wolves near the doorstep of his home. The animals appear to be more numerous in this region than ever before. The state pays a bounty of $7.50 for the scalp of each wolf.

Many Towns Ask Reformatory.

St. Paul.—Difficulty in selecting a site for the proposed state reformatory for women is being experienced by the State Board of Control. The board expects, however, to reach a decision soon. Cambridge is the latest town to urge its claims to the proposed new state institution. Watertown, on the Luce Electric line, west of Minneapolis, also is asking consideration.

Elks at Brainerd Carnival.

Brainerd.—The Cuyuna Range Elks will march in the Brainerd Outdoor carnival February 10. Clad in novel regalia, headed by the Ironton band and accompanied by a bevy of queens, the range Elks will invade Brainerd. All the marchers will be uniformed as miners They will wear the regulation miners' slicker coat and helmet with head light.

More Immigrants Come to Minnesota.

St. Paul.—Figures showing that Minnesota continues to lead other Northwest states in receipts of immigrant movables as furnished by the Minnesoto Transfer Railway company, have just been made public by Commissioner Fred D. Sherman of the state immigration department.

I. W. W. Log Rollers' Strike Fails.

Duluth.—The strike of forty-three log rollers and longshoremen here has been broken by the return to work of fifteen strikers, according to officials of the company. It had been stated that the strike was brought about by I. W. W. members. All of the men are unskilled laborers.

Avalanche Crushes Youth.

Bear River.—Charles M. Jacobs, age 24, was crushed to death by an avalanche of debris and stone in the quarry here as he was standing under a ledge watching his team. Other pit men seeing the ledge waver, shouted a warning but it came too late.

Auto Upset; Woman Burned.

International Falls, Minn. Mrs. George Stoffel of Ranier was burned to death, two persons were burned seriously and several others were injured when an automobile bus, which was filled with Ranier people, caught fire from an overturned heater after the car was hit by a Minnesota, Dakota & Western Switch engine at a grade crossing here. Mrs. Mouska, mother of Mrs. Stoffel, and George Anderson, a Ranier banker, are said to be the most seriously hurt.

100 Years Old

"The kidneys play a most important part in causing premature old age and death—the more injurious the poisons passing thru the kidneys the sooner comes decay"—so says a distinguished physician, who further advises all people who are past thirty to preserve the vitality of the kidneys and free the blood from poisonous elements, such as uric acid—drink plenty of water—sweat some daily and take Anuric before meals.

This Anuric is put up in tablet form, and can be obtained at almost any drug store. For that backache, lumbago, rheumatism, "rusty" joints, swollen feet or hands, due to uric acid in the blood, Anuric quickly dissolves the uric acid as hot water does sugar. Discovered by Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y.

Prevent premature old age by simply sipping a cup of hot water every morning before breakfast, taking a little Anuric before meals and live to be a hundred.

THE REFLECTIONS OF A MARRIED WOMAN—are not pleasant if she is delicate, run-down, or over worked. She feels "played out." Her smile and her good spirits have taken flight. It worries her husband as well as herself. This is the time to build up her strength and cure those weaknesses or ailments which are the seat of her trouble. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription regulates and promotes all the proper functions of womanhood, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, melancholy and nervousness, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and strength. It cures those disorders and derangements incident to womanhood.

A well-known agent which can be procured at all drug stores is "Pleasant Pellets," made up of the May-apple, the dried juice of the leaves of aloes and the root of jalap. First put out by Dr. Pierce nearly fifty years ago. —Adv.

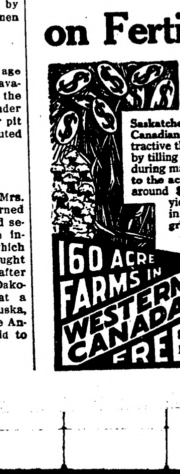
Raise High Priced Wheat on Fertile Canadian Soil



160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

Canada extends to you a hearty invitation to settle on her FREE Homestead lands of 160 acres each or secure some of the low priced lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. This year wheat is higher but Canadian land just as cheap, so the opportunity is more attractive than ever. Canada wants you to help feed the world by tilling some of her fertile soil—land similar to that which during many years has averaged 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre. Think of the money you can make with wheat around $2 a bushel and land so easy to get. Wonderful yields also of Oats, Barley and Flax. Mixed farming in Western Canada is as profitable an industry as grain growing.

The Government this year is asking farmers to put increased acreage into grain. Military service is not compulsory in Canada but there is a great demand for farm labor to replace the many young men who have volunteered for service. The climate is healthful and agreeable, railway facilities excellent, good schools and churches convenient. Write for literature as to reduced railway rates to Supt. of Immigration, Ottawa, Can., or to

Announces Specialist

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest

To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said, "Take tonoline.

Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies--, stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the of the blood--and quickly restores proper action, Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:--As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

A Smooth Hairless Skin for Women.

From Beauty Secrets

With the aid of a plain medol paste it is an easy matter to rid the skin of unsightly hairy growths. The paste is made by mixing some water with powdered medol. This is applied to the hairs not wanted and after 2 or 3 minutes rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. When you go to your druggist for medol be sure you get the genuine article, and if he will not supply you, the American Proprietary Co. of Boston, will send you a 50c or $1.00 package by mail.

Black Leg Epidemic

Several farmers in and around Mud Lake township have the black leg among their cattle. The cattle get weak and are unable to get up and eat. Mr. Riesberg telephoned the veterinary at the Crookston experiment station, giving the symptoms, and he said the cattle had the black leg and those that had it would die and the only way to save the others was to vaccinate them.

He recommended that a veterinary be gotten at once to do the work and stop the spread of the disease, which is very contagious. Farmers should do all that is possible to stop the spreading of this epidemic.

A total of $1733.12 which must be paid by the farmers, regardless of other burdens caused by poor crops and hard times.

Holt farmers first agreed to pay $500 and later another $100 with the understanding it should be paid back if the full amount of $2500.00 raised, was not needed. The Holt State Bank has received a refund of $378.40 which after deducting Holts $100 leaves $278.40 to be divided, in same ratio as signed for, between Holt, New Solum and Excel.

Is the Non-Partisan League a Fake?

The Grand Forks Herald claims to have received information that people who have furnished funds and endorsed notes for A. C. Townley, president of the Nonpartisan league are not finding themselves in an enviable position.

They say it is a matter of common knowledge that in addition to having received the dues of members of the league, Mr. Townley also borrowed heavily on the credit of both local business men and farmers, probably to the extent of about $140000.00 and they want the matter investigated. The league is not incorporated and has no assets and does not even own the two newspapers published in its interests.

But the bankers are not worrying, the farmers are good for all amounts borrowed.

The league wanted to put farmers on the judges bench over in Dakota even those farmers were not qualified for the places. Of course they propose many good things but are just as selfish as other people.

At any rate we would hate to pay the league $16.00 for having them tell us who to vote for. It don't pay to play the fellows game.

Can't Loose Hair

Twenty Years from Today a Baldheaded Man will be an Unusual Sight

One of the most prominent druggists of America made a statement a few weeks ago which has caused a great deal of discussion among scientists in the medical press. He said: If the new hair grower, Mildredina Hair Remedy, increases its sales as it has during the past year, it will be used by nearly every man, woman and child in America within 8 years.

When Mildredina Hair Remedy is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years frim now a bald will be a rarity

There is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the germs. There is only one hair preparation that will kill the germs and that is Mildredina Hair Remedy. This unusual hair restorer with its record of thousands of cures will grow hair on any head where there is any life left; it will cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp in three weeks or money back. It is the most pleasant and invigorating tonic, is not not sticky nor greasy and is used extensively by ladies of refinement who desire to have and to keep their hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant. Fifty cents for a large bottle of druggists everywhere Mail orders filled by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass.

WHAT A JEWELRY FIRM DID

They Invested Some of Their Spare Money in Canadian Lands.

S. Joseph & Sons, of Des Moines, Iowa, are looked upon as being shrewd careful business men. Having some spare money on hand, and looking for a suitable investment, they decided to purchase Canadian lands, and farm it.

With the assistance of the Canadian Government Agent, at Des Moines, Iowa, they made selection near Champion, Alberta. They put 240 acres of land in wheat, and in writing to Mr. Hewitt, the Canadian Government Agent at Des Moines, one of the members of the firm says:

"I have much pleasure in advising you that on our farm five miles east of Champion, in the Province of Alberta, Canada, this year (1916 we harvested and threshed 10,600 bushels of wheat from 240 acres, this being an average of 44 bushels and 10 pounds to the acre. A considerable portion of the wheat was No. 1 Northern, worth at Champion approximately $1.85 per bushel, making a total return of $19,610, or an average of $81.70 per acre gross yields. Needless to say, we are extremely well pleased with our lands."

It might not be uninteresting to read the report of C. A. Wright of Milo, Iowa, who bought 160 acres at Champion, Alberta, for $3,300 in December, 1915. He stubbled in the whole lot of it, and threshed 4,487 bushels Grade No. 2 Northern.

Mr. Wright, being a thorough business man, gives the cost of work, and the amount realized. These figures show that after paying for his land and cost of operation he had $2,472.67 left.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR A CHILD'S BOWELS

It is cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.

BOARD NEEDS CASH TO LOAN COUNTIES

TAKES STEPS TO DISPOSE OF $4,322,000 OF OTHER STATES' SECURITIES.

HAVE MANY APPLICATIONS

State Officials Believe Pressure for Funds Can Be Relieved If $2,000,000 of Securities Can Be Converted to Cash—Law Prevents Sacrifice.

St. Paul. — Swamped with applications for loans to Minnesota counties, towns and schools, the state board of investment has taken tentative steps toward disposing of $4,322,000 of securities of other states which it holds. State Treasurer Rines and State Auditor Preus were directed to ascertain whether the securities are salable under the requirements that the bonds shall be sold only for as much or more than the state paid for them. It is possible that the two officials will go to New York city to investigate market conditions and report back at the investment board meeting March 5.

The board agreed that the pressure for loans can be relieved greatly if $2,000,000 or more of the securities of other states can be converted into cash. There are on hand now approximately $2,000,000 of approved applications for loans waiting for state funds to be made available.

'Phone Connection Ordered.

St. Paul. — In a first formal order for physical telephone connections under the Minette law of 1915, the state railroad and warehouse commission has directed the Northwestern Telephone Exchange company to connect its local exchange at Owatonna with the toll lines of the Tri-State Telephone and Telegraph company, its strongest competitor, to furnish toll line service to the subscribers and patrons of both companies.

The order is the most important telephone regulation established by the commission since that function was delegated to it and fixes important precedents.

County Spellers at Bee.

Crookston. — Virtually every rural school in this community was represented at the spelling contest held in connection with the Red River Valley Farm Crops Show and Development association convention. The affair was conducted according to the rules of the old-fashioned spelling bee.

Professors H. H. Kildee, W. A. McKerrow and N. E. Chapman of the University of Minnesota farm school made addresses. "Dairying and Poultry Day" was observed.

Virginia Night School Popular.

Virginia. — Since the mass meeting held here to arouse interest in night school work, thirty-three new pupils have been added, and it is believed the attendance will show a substantial increase. A new class has been started at the primary school, with twenty-five in attendance. English is the chief subject taught. Miss Clara Voht of the North side faculty is in charge of the class. The night school classes are being held Monday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Benson Heads Lutherans.

Stillwater.—The Rev. C. E. Benson of Stillwater has been elected president of the Swedish Lutheran conference of the Chisago district at the closing session of a two-day meeting. The Rev. C. H. J. A. Elmquist, Scandia, field representative.

Drainage Benefits Seen.

Minneapolis.—An increase of 50 per cent in the population of the rural districts of Minnesota and a similar increase in the price of agricultural lands within a period of from 5 to 10 years would result if drainage of lands in Minnesota were conducted properly according to E. G. Minter of Slayton, Minn., drainage referee for the 13th judicial district who spoke at the convention of the Minnesota Surveyors and Engineers' society here.

Ore Income $970,000.

St. Paul. — Minnesota's 1916 income in royalties on iron ore from state-owned mines was within $30,000 of the $1,000,000 mark, and broke all previous records, according to final official figures made public by State Auditor J. A. O. Preus. The Leonidas topped the list of state mines, with 1,147,107 tons output for the year, and other important revenue producers were the Missabe mountain, with 539,913 tons and the Helmer with 395,821 tons.

Hibbing Water Supply Imperiled.

Hibbing. — Claiming that allowing water to run continuously during the cold spell is imperiling the water supply for fire and drinking purposes here, F. M. Smith, chairman of the water and light board, issued a warning to close all taps and other sources of water waste. "The supply from the Penobscot, Scranton, the old city well and new well south is overtaxed," stated Mr. Smith, "and all together they do not take care of the present needs. The new well system has not been completed.

Appointments to 10 Boards.

St. Paul. — Governor Burnquist has just announced appointments to ten state boards. New appointments are: John H. Beise, Fergus Falls, to succeed Robert T. Moreland, Worthington, on the State Board of Pharmacy, for five-year term; Clinton E. Conley, Le Sueur, to succeed F. W. Prail, Waseco, on the State Board of Dental Examiners, for three-year term; Dr. J. W. Hawkinson, Luverne, to succeed Dr. F. D. Parker, St. Paul, on the State Board of Osteopathy, for five-year term; Dr. W. L. Boyd, St. Paul, to succeed Dr. W. L. Beebe, St. Paul, on State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners, for five-year term.

Reappointments were made as follows:

Automobile examiners, two-year term, Walter S. Milnor, Minneapolis; W. H. Healy, Duluth, and W. O. Larson, St. Paul; dental examiners, three-year term, Glen F. Andrews, St. Paul, and Charles W. Benson, Duluth; nurses' examiners, five-year term, Dr. Jeanette McLaren, St. Paul; visitors' board, six-year term, J. R. Swann, Madison, and Swan J. Turnblad, Minneapolis; live stock sanitary board, five-year term, E. J. Pratt, St. Paul.

The appointments are made effective immediately.

Storm's Death Toll Six.

Minneapolis. — News of the death of Dr. J. L. Pollock of Hanley Falls, Minn., who was frozen to death in snowdrifts near that village, has brought the total of deaths in the storm to six. Dr. Pollock was a brother of Dr. D. K. Pollock of Minneapolis. Minnesota towns, many of them isolated since Feb. 3, have just gotten their heads above the drifts and rail traffic in many cases has been renewed just in time to save the village from fuel famines. With a record of caring for 600 storm refugees from three passenger trains tied up there, Glencoe took the honors for municipal heroism.

Storm Delays Crop Show.

Fairmont. — Because of the snow blockade and irregular train service, the annual Minnesota Crop Improvement convention and show, scheduled to be held at Fairmont February 13-14 and 15, has been postponed until March 6, 7 and 8. President Vincent of the university will speak March 6 and Governor Burnquist on March 7.

C. P. Bull, University farm, St. Paul, secretary of the association says that any exhibits sent for the show with the expectation that it would be held this month will be cared for and displayed in the later dates.

Policemen Quarrel; One Slain.

Aurora. — B. C Belcher shot and killed Julius Gullickson here at the village hall during a quarrel. Both men were employed on the night police force. Belcher gave himself up immediately, waived examination and asked to be taken before grand jury as soon as possible asserting that he acted in self defense and feeling confident that he would be given his liberty. There were no witnesses to the affair and the details were not given out.

Prize for Handless Girl.

St. Cloud. — Susie A. Klaphake, 12 years old, of New Munich, near St. Cloud, has overcome the disability of being handless and has obtained a Palmer button as a prize in penmanship.

A specimen of the girl's work was given to A. N. Palmer, founder of the institution for awarding penmanship prizes, and County Superintendent Boeger has been notified of the award to her.

138,000 Autos in Minnesota.

St. Paul. — There are more than 138,000 automobiles in Minnesota, according to an estimate made by Secretary of State Julius A. Schmahl and based on state licenses issued. Five years ago the number was 17,960. State revenue from sales of automobile licenses totaled $241,007 for the first two years of the current three-year period, against $144,531 for the entire three-year period preceding.

Coal Shortage Hits Mankato.

Mankato. — The city's schools and several public buildings were closed last week because of the coal shortage occasioned by the tie-up of railway traffic following the recent snowstorms. Mayor Lamm made a personal appeal to the railway companies to expedite the shipment of fuel into Mankato.

Tries to Skate 24 Hours.

Pipestone.—Because he failed to stay on the skating floor for twenty-four hours, Will Reimer of Luverne has been forced to pay the skating rink manager $22. Reimer agreed to skate for twenty-four hours without stopping and was to receive $26 if he accomplished the feat.

State Druggists Gather.

St. Paul—More than 1,000 pharmacist were expected to attend the thirty-third annual convention of the Minnesota Pharmaceutical association which opened here Tuesday.

The business sessions took place in the roof garden of The Saint Paul.

Cow Praised As Food Producer.

Crookston.—Feeding and breeding of dairy cattle for profit was discussed in its various phases by H. H. Kildee, department of dairy husbandry, University of Minnesota, college of agriculture, in an address before the Red River Valley Development association metting here. Mr. Kildee pointed out that "of all farm anivals, the dairy cow is the most economical and most efficient producer of human food." Several sectional meetings were held during the day.

BILIOUS, HEADACHY, SICK "CASCARETS"

Gently cleanse your liver and sluggish bowels while you sleep.

Get a 10-cent box.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Adv.

Indian Battleax Found.

A copper banner stone or ceremonial weapon of ancient Indian days, which was recently unearthed in Fond du Lac during the digging of a sewer, is described and pictured in the last issue of the Wisconsin Archaeologist.

The weapon is shaped like an ancient battleax and has two blades and a hole for a handle. It was found six feet in the earth and is believed to have been lost on the lake shore many ages ago, before the lake receded to its present level, or buried by a later generation of Indians. A cache of interesting Indian relics and weapons was dug up in the same city several years ago.

The Test.

What assurance have I that you do not wish to marry me merely for my money?" demanded the heiress.

The impecunious suitor drew himself up proudly.

"Money is nothing to me," he sneered. "I shall be happy in the prospect of never earning a cent in my life, so long as I have you."

And, having put him to the test, she was supremely content.

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save Your Hair! Get a 25 Cent Bottle of Danderine Right Now—Also Stops Itching Scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, luster and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp. Meat Eaters' Backache

Meat lovers are apt to have backaches and rheumatic attacks. Unless you do heavy work and get lots of fresh air, don't eat too much meat. It's rich in nitrogen and helps to form uric acid—a solid poison that irritates the nerves, damages the kidneys and often causes dropsy, gravel and urinary disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills help weak kidneys to throw off uric acid. Thousands recommend them.

YES! LIFT A CORN OFF WITHOUT PAIN!

Cincinnati man tells how to dry up a corn or callus so it lifts off with fingers.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted off, root and all, without pain.

A small bottle of freezone costs very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

Educator's Opinion.

I believe that organized emotion can never take the place of brains; that Yale's first duty in preparing American citizens, whether for peace or war, is to adhere to rigid standards of discipline and scholarship and well-developed sense of proportionate values.

IMPORTANT HAPPENINGS IN THE MINNESOTA LEGISLATURE

A Review of Events of the Past Few Days

DID NOT REQUEST ADDITIONAL POWER SO GOVERNOR SAYS

BURNQUIST DENIES THAT HE ASKED LEGISLATORS FOR RIGHT TO CURB DISORDERS CAUSED BY I. W. W.

SOLONS INSIST THAT HE IS "PASSING THE BUCK"

Senators and Representatives Aroused by Statement of Executive That He Does Not Approve Features of Proposed Bill—Does Not Want Responsibility.

St. Paul, Feb. 10.—Governor Burnquist insists emphatically that he did not ask legislators to grant him additional power to curb disorders beyond the control of local officials.

Legislators, who conferred with the executive several times, insist emphatically that Governor Burnquist did ask for additional power to curb disorders.

Statements by the governor that he did not approve certain features of the bill passed by the Senate appropriating $50,000 a year for the payment of deputy sheriffs, aroused senators and representatives. The bill, now being considered by House committees, was drawn only because the governor asked for such legislation, they say. They charge that the governor is simply "passing the buck again."

The governor has made plain his objections to the bill. He said that he didn't want the responsibility for appointing deputy sheriffs to be placed in the hands of the governor. He said that he was not averse to granting sheriffs more power and counties some aid. But, he doesn't want the responsibility or additional power.

"Didn't you suggest to certain senators that you did not have sufficient power to quell such disturbances as those caused by the I. W. W. in the north woods, short of calling out the militia?" the governor was asked.

"When the committee of senators came to me and suggested that the sheriffs be given additional power, I favored the proposal," replied the governor.

"What are your suggestions now as to this legislation?"

Dry Bill Delay Proposed.

St. Paul, Feb. 9.—The bill for the submission of a constitutional amendment for state-wide prohibition passed by the House has been amended by the Senate committee on temperance so that the time of operation of the proposed measure is extended 11 months. The change was asked by the wets. The time was changed from January 1, 1920 to December 1, 1920.

By a vote of five to four, the committee changed the House bill, contrary to requests made by George B. Safford, superintendent of the Minnesota Anti-Saloon league.

The I. W. W. believe in direct action, they believe that legislation is too slow a method to right wrongs, they will use any means necessary to gain their ends, they are making no excuse for things they have done.

Minnesota legislators, members of the House committee on labor, were given the above information. Lawmakers sat aghast while George Andreychine, I. W. W. agitator, expounded the doctrines of the organization. For the first time, some of them realized the seriousness of the situation. An official I. W. W. circular gave the legislators more food for thought.

To Reform Primary Election Law.

St. Paul, Feb. 10.—The first step in proposed reform of the Minnesota primary election system was taken when Representative John M. Harrison of Minneapolis introduced a bill designed to remedy the evil of minority nominations by a return to a modified convention.

The measure, patterned after the Iowa law, leaves the primary law intact, except as to minority nominations. It provides supplementary conventions to make nominations where candidates have not received a specified percentage of the vote cast in the primary. The conventions are also authorized to draft platforms.

To Regulate Tobacco Sales.

St. Paul, Feb. 10.—Regulation of the sale of all sorts of tobacco and prohibition of its use by or sale to minors are provided for in a bill introduced in the Minnesota senate by Senator E. E. Lobeck. The measure proposes licensing all dealers by the dairy and food commissioner, retailers to pay $50 and wholesalers $100 each two years. Selling to minors is punishable by revocation of license.

Authors Explain Bill.

St. Paul, Feb. 8.—Representatives of the Farmers' Non-Partisan league in Minnesota were seeing hobgoblins when they shied at the two "blue sky" bills introduced in the House of Representatives, it is charged.

A denial that the two bills, identical in text, destroying the negotiability of promissory notes given to agents, solicitors and peddlers, were aimed at the league, has been made by all of the authors.

Instead of being new bills, drawn at this session, Sherman W. Child, a coauthor of one of the bills, pointed out that the measure had been drawn by his father, S. R. Child, and himself. The bill was passed by the House in 1913 and was supported by the farmers at that time, he said.

Officials of the league have been told that they would be permitted to submit amendments correcting any of the provisions that they thought were directed at them. Such amendments are now being drafted.

Recommendation that the bill repealing the boxing law be passed has been made by the Senate committee on general legislation. After a public hearing in which the operation of the law was scathingly condemned by representatives of the Y. M. C. A. and churches of Minneapolis the committee voted to report favorably on the repeal measure, 9 to 2.

This brings the fight against the repeal to the floor of the Senate, and in the opinion of many to the House. The boxing law passed the Senate with but one vote to spare, 35 to 32, in 1915, and its opponents unhesitatingly claim enough switches to carry the repeal bill.

House Supports Wilson.

St. Paul, Feb. 7.—Ernest G. Strand, Socialist, from Two Harbors, went on record in the Minnesota House of Representatives as being opposed to any resolution supporting the President of the United States in the present crisis.

Representative Strand was the only member who raised his voice in protest against a resolution pledging support to the President. Every other member of the House voted for the resolution by a rising vote. Strand was hissed by his fellow members.

The farmers in the House of Representatives have had another inning. They passed, by a vote of 93 to 2, an anti-discrimination bill introduced by Magnus Johnson.

The bill would prohibit old line elevator companies from paying more for grain at any one point than at others "for the purpose of creating monopolies."

Representatives Gleason, Devold, Lang and Lennon introduced a bill repealing the present workmen's compensation law.

Leaders of the Farmers' Non-Partisan league charged that an attempt is being made in the legislature to cripple the mmebership campaign of the organization in Minnesota.

To Re-Enact Elwell Road Law.

St. Paul, Feb. 9.—A bill to re-enact the Elwell outside road law, repealed by the 1915 legislature, has been introduced in the state senate. Backers of the measure said it was designed to eliminate objectionable features that led to the repeal of the former law.

Drawn by former Senator J. T. Elwell, Minneapolis, the new bill was introduced by Senators J. W. Andrews, Mankato; C. E. Adams, Duluth; J. H. Baldwin, Frazee; L. H. Nord, International Falls, and O. H. Griggs.

One objection to the former law was that it adopted the drainage ditch law principles to the construction of roads, whereas the measure just offered is selfcontained. The new act provides that a petition for construction of an Elwell road, to be known as a "state rural highway," must be signed by a majority of the resident landowners benefitted. The old law required only three signatures. The new bill provides that such a petition must be approved by both the board of county commissioners and the state rural highway commission before the road is ordered.

Statutory "Dry" Bill Introduced.

St. Paul, Feb. 8.—Statutory prohibition that is intended to make Minnesota the dryest of all "bone dry" states, is provided in the bill backed by the St. Paul radical drys and introduced in the Minnesota House of Representatives by A. V. Anderson, W. L. Bernar, Theodore Christianson, James Cummings, P. J. Frye, H. A. Putnam, C. S. Ryberg, Oscar Stenvick, and W. I. Nolan.

The bill was referred to the committee on temperance.

Meanwhile the Senate temperance committee held a public hearing on the constitutional prohibition bill passed by the House. Dry workers attended this meeting in force, while a sprinkling of representatives of the liquor interests were prepared to make a fight to kill the bill in the Senate.

I. W. W. Probe Concluded.

St. Paul, Feb. 7.—The house labor committee's investigation into industrial conditions in northern Minnesota has come to an end so far as the taking of testimony is concerned, according to Chairman George L. Siegel.

AMERICANS TAKEN BY GERMAN RAIDER HELD AS HOSTAGES

SEVENTY-TWO U. S. CITIZENS DETAINED PENDING NEWS OF STATUS OF INTERNED TEUTON SHIPS IN AMERICAN PORTS.

AGREEMENT LIBERATING SEAMEN IS RESCINDED

Foreign Secretary Acts on Rumor—Requests Swiss Government to Make Inquiry—Teuton Vessels in Two Classes—Only Warships Are Interned by U. S.

Berlin, Feb. 13.—Foreign Secretary Zimmerman declares he has requested the Swiss government to make inquiry in Washington regarding the status of the crews of interned German ships in American ports.

Pending an answer, the 72 Americans taken by the German raider and brought in by the Yarrowdale, whose release had been agreed to, are being held in Germany, the foreign secretary stated.

Rumors Reach Berlin.

During the last week recurring rumors have reached Berlin by way of London in which it was announced that the United States government had sequestered the German ships and interned their crews. No definite official denial having been received the government was prompted to ask the Swiss government to obtain specific information.

"We could not consent to the release of the Yarrowdale prisoners which was taken to be agreed to a week ago," said the foreign secretary.

To Await News from U. S.

"These men had been taken off armed merchantmen and their status had been established. They will be liberated just as soon as we learn the fate of the German crews in American ports."

The release of the Yarrowdale prisoners was agreed to with Ambassador Gerard on the eve of the break in relations, but the possibility of the German crews being interned in the United States prompted the admiralty to rescind the orders liberating the Americans held with the rest of the Yarrowdale prisoners.

Divided in Two Classes.

Washington, Feb. 13.—There are two classes of German ships in American ports. Those interned are war vessels such as the commerce raiders Prinz Eitel Frierich, Kron Prinz Wilhelm and Geier at Honolulu. The crews of these vessels, as well as the ships being part of the German naval forces which have taken refuge in neutral harbors, are interned as prisoners for the duration of the war under provisions of international law and the Hague conventions. The status of warbound German merchantmen is different, and so is the status of their crews. The merchant ships are not interned in any sense of the word but are remaining in the harbor of refuge.

Greek Ship Torpedoed in Canary Islands, By Germans.

New York, Feb. 13.—A German submarine entered the neutral Spanish harbor of Las Palmas, Canary Islands, December 6 and sank the Greek steamship Spyros, according to two of the seamen who have arrived on the steamship Moro Castle.

The sailors arriving here said the Spyros put into Las Palmas on her voyage for Hull, England. The U-Boat entered the harbor, they asserted, and notified the captain to abandon his ship within 40 hours, at the end of which time it would be destroyed, and the threat was fulfilled.

Boston, Feb. 13.—The coldest weather of the winter is reported by a number of points in New England. Minimum temperatures during the night ranged from 24 degrees below zero to 6 above. In Boston the minium was zero. Northfield, Vt., showed a minimum of 24 below.

Oppose Arming Merchant Ships.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Senator La Follette, Wisconsin, Republican has offered a joint resolution to make unlawful the arming of American merchant ships while the United States is not at war. La Follette asked that the resolution lay on the table to be called up later for further consideration.

Probe Fails to Worry Packers.

Chicago, Feb. 13.—Chicago packers are not in the least worried over the prospect of a government investigation into the high price of foods, especially meats, and are waiting unconcerned for any action that Hinton G. Clabaugh, head of the local branch of the department of justice make take. "I see no reason to believe that the investigation asked by President Wilson will be directed especially against packing interests here," J. Ogden Armour said. "I don't think the packers have anything to fear."

It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off. Adv.

Intellectually Murdered.

Randolph Bourne, an editor of the New Republic, in an address recently said American colleges are institutions in which youths are "intellectually murdered," and the efficiency system upon which universities operated has resulted "in a card-index system of education impersonal and materialistic." This indictment is true as to the field, but there are many institutions that are not so—those that consult the spirit more than the intellect, and that construct purpose and aspiration rather than devote themselves to learning and knowledge. The fact is that the end of education will never be reached or mankind be substantially advanced until the spiritual dominates the intellectual in the training of the youth. It is hard for scholars to understand that the intellectual is materialistic, but it is.—Ohio State Journal.

Backache

In spite of the best care one takes of oneself, any part of the human machine is liable to become out of order. The most important organs are the stomach, heart and kidneys.

The kidneys are the scavengers and they work day and night in separating the poisons from the blood. Their signals of distress are easily recognized and include such symptoms as backache, depressions, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic twinges, dropsy, gout.

"The very best way to restore the kidneys to their normal state of health," says Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., "is to drink plenty of pure water and obtain from your favorite pharmacy a small amount of Anuric, which is dispensed by almost every druggist." Anuric is inexpensive and should be taken before meals. You will find Anuric more potent than lithia, dissolves uric acid as water does sugar.

Wonderful Cuban Caves.

The wonderful caves of Bellamar, Cuba, to the east of Havana, attract the attention of the ambitious tourist. They are on a plateau as level as a table top, which presents no signs of the existence of such caves. After descending into the earth, however, a picture unfolds itself. Then come many passages, and at last the great "Gothic temple," 250 feet long and 80 feet wide.

Tonoline is Beauty Aid

Announces Specialist

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest

To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said, "Take tonoline.

Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies--stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the of the blood--and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:--As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE.

Notice is hereby given that default has been made in the conditions of a mortgage executed and delivered by John F. Tapper, an unmarried man, mortgagor, to Julia Flakne, mortgagee, dated August 12th, 1915, and recorded in the office of the register of deeds in and for Marshall county, Minnesota, on October 26th, 1915, at nine o'clock a. m. in Book 79 of Mortgages at page 121; and which said mortgage was duly assigned by said Julia Flakne to M. P. Shuemaker, assignee, by written instrument of assignment, dated January 12th, 1916, and recorded in the office of the register of deeds in and for said Marshall county, Minnesota, on January 25th, 1916, at one o'clock p. m., in Book 75 of Mortgages at page 247; and was again duly assigned by the said M. P. Shuemaker to M. H. Evans, assignee, by written instrument of assignment, dated January 17th 1916, and recorded in the office of the register of deeds in and for said Marshall county, Minnesota, on January 13th, 1917, at one o'clock p. m., in Book 86 of Mortgages at page 27; that the amount due and claimed to be due on said mortgage at the date hereof is five hundred and fifty-nine dollars and thirty-three cents ($559.33); that the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage are Lot numbered One, of Section Nineteen, and Lots numbered One and Two, and the east half of the northeast quarter, of Section Thirty, in Township one hundred and fifty-six North, of Range forty-one West of the 5th Principal Meridian, in Marshall county, Minnesota, containing 162.55 acres, according to the United States Government survey thereof; that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statue in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of said premises, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, by the sheriff of said Marshall county, Minnesota, at the front door of the court house in the city of Warren, Marshall county, Minnesota, on the 26th day of March, 1917, at eleven o'clock a. m., to satisfy the amount then due on said mortgage, together with the costs of such sale, and fifty dollars attorney's fees stipulated in said mortgage, and the taxes, if any, on said premises.

Dated February 6th, 1917.

A Smooth Hairless Skin for Women.

From Beauty Secrets

With the aid of a plain medol paste it is an easy matter to rid the skin of unsightly hairy growths. The paste is made by mixing some water with powdered medol. This is applied to the hairs not wanted and after 2 or 3 minutes rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. When you go to your druggist for medol be sure you get the genuine article, and if he will not supply you, the American Proprietary Co. of Boston, will send you a 50c or $1.00 package by mail.

A Slight Differnce.

First Father—"What? Your son is an undertaker? Why, I thought you said he was a doctor." Second Paternal Relative—"No; I said that he followed the medical profession."—Harvard Lampoon.

Invented in 1589.

The knitting frame was invented in 1589 by William Lee, a graduate of Cambridge university and a native of Woodborough, near Nottingham, England. So perfect was the invention in every detail that to this day the essential feaures of the machine continue in use for the class of work to which Lee applied it.

Kilometer.

A kilometer is a length of 1,000 meters, equal to 3,280 feet, or 0.621 of a mile. The kilometer is the chief unit for long distances in the metric system of measurement.

Mines in Warfare.

A land mine in warfare consists of a charge of high explosive buried in the ground, and arranged so as to explode when the enemy's troops are over it. Mines are also used in siege warfare, tunnels being driven under the enemy's fortifications and enormous quantities of high explosive placed in them.

Some More Ditch Tax

Last week we copied from the official financial report of the county auditor, the expenses of ditch No. 26, beleiving it to be correct.

Monday of this week the Holt State Bank received a copy of "Warrents issued on county ditch No. 26."

There are thirteen more items given in this copy, as follows:

J. P. Mattson	pub notices		$69.50
W. O. Braggans,	reporting		10.00
H. C. Hanson	post notices		21.50
A. Lundquist	Viewer		21.75
Nels Malm			22.25
H. Gunderson			13.88

" Adolphson	"	"	3.00
" Rokke	"	"	3.00
" Lodoen	"	"	3.00
A. Lundgren	office service		114.60

Making an additional expense of $388.48 and a grand total of $2121.60

Altho no letter accompanied the above copy of warrants, it is easily figured out that the $378.40 which was sent the Holt State Bank, is the refund in full, or all the taxpayers will ever get back.

Therefore it follows that this last amount includes the first $100.00 that Holt was to have and leaves $278.40 to be divided between the five townships of Holt, Excel, New Solum, Newfolden, and Marsh Grove.

A Serious Accident

Henry, the 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Fosholm, was the victim of a very serious injury on Tuesday. During the noon hour the boys of his home school were playing in the basement with a cartridge that had some powder in it. One of the boys lit a match, the powder went off and struck Henry in the eye. His father imediately took him to the hospital in T. R. Falls, where it is reported they can save the sight of the eye.

Misses Sophie Johnson and Flora Culver spent Sunday afternoon at Gunder Sorter's.

Messrs Pete Sorter and Oliver Grondahl, called at Ole Davidson's Sunday.

Miss Jensine Udstrand called on Sophie Johnson Tuesday evening.

Messrs. Hilmer and Oliver Davidson, Pete Sorter and Willie Larson spent Sunday evening at G. Sorter's.

Elef Sorter, and son Selmer have been on the sick list but is now improving at this writing.

Another bad blizard swept over Ringbo last Friday evening.

A bunch from Sunnyside called at George Hanson's place Sunday.

Hilda Erickson, Mary Rude, Ed. Davidson and Olive. Grondahl called at the Carl Skoglund home Sunday afternoon.

The Messes Pete Sorter, Oliver Davidson, Hilmer Davidson, and Oliver Grondahl called at Rude's Sunday evening.

As Hilda Erickson and Mary Rude were walking home from Davidson's one evening last week, they saw something coming towards them from the field. Thinking it might be wild animals they ran nearly half a mile before discovering it was only two of Henry's pigs out for a stroll.

Ervine Rude and Eneas Erickson are out each day hunting wolves. [illegible] Eneas was fortunate enough to get one.

Hazel Davidson, Mary Rude, Hilda Erickson, Adolph Johnson, Ervine Rude, and Eneas Erickson went out for a sleigh ride to Holt Monday. The snow was so deep in some places they had a hard time getting through, but all had a jolly time just the same.

The Roseau creamery had 101 patrons last year and paid them over $25000.00.

We learn from the Duluth Herald that Editor Carter, of the T. R. Falls News-Press, died suddenly of heart trouble at a hotel in Chicago, Monday of this week.

Considerable interest is being taken in the Northwest School of Agriculture essay contest. The prizes of $10.00 each are to be awarded, one to boys and the other to girls. The boys will write on "The advantage of an agricultural education. The girls will write on "The advantage of securing school training in home making. The awards will be made during the latter part of March.

"CASCARETS" ACT ON LIVER; BOWELS

No sick headache, biliousness, bad taste or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box.

Are you keeping your bowels, liver, and stomach clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with Salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters?

Stop having a bowel wash-day. Let Cascarets thoroughly cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken or cause any inconvenience, and cost only 10 cents a box from your store. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Biliousness, Coated Tongue, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipation. Adv.

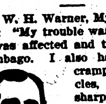
The Proof.

"Does love really blind a man?"

"It must, when you see the way girls put powder on their noses."

A MINISTER'S CONFESSION

Rev. W. H. Warner, Myersville, Md., writes: "My trouble was sciatica. My back was affected and took the form of lumbago. I also had neuralgia, cramps in my muscles, pressure or sharp pain on the top of my head, and nervous dizzy spells. I had other symptoms showing my kidneys were at fault, so I took Dodd's Kidney Pills. They were the means of saving my life. I write to say that your medicine restored me to perfect health." Be sure and get "DODD'S," the name with the three D's for diseased, disordered, deranged kidneys; just as Rev. Warner did, no similarly named article will do.—Adv.



Oil From Fruit Stone Kernels.

Germany is preparing to take steps toward relieving her shortage of oils and fats by extracting an oil from the kernels of fruit stones, such as the pits of the plum and the cherry, both of which grow freely there. The pits are boiled in a calcium chloride solution, which separates the kernel from its shell. The oil is expressed from the kernel. The chief difficulty lies in the fact that the kernels of such fruits, especially the peach, contain minute quantities of hydrocyanic acid, sometimes called oil of bitter almonds. This is extremely poisonous, but special methods have resulted in its presence being reduced to a mere negligible trace, according to the reports.

They're All Alike.

"To elevate the stage," said Augustus Thomas, at the Players' club in New York, "to elevate the stage would be an easy enough job if there weren't so many people like the new Shakespeare club.

"I said to the treasurer of this organization:

"'I understand your new Shakespeare club is a great success.'

"'Great success? You bet your sweet life it's a great success,' he answered warmly. 'Why, we accumulated enough in fines for nonattendance during the first month to take us all to a box party at the musical comedy of "Back Up Bettina."'"

DRUGGISTS URGED TO ASK NEW LAWS

MUST TAKE MORE ACTIVE PART IN POLITICS, STATE ASSOCIATION IS TOLD.

450 GUESTS ATTEND BANQUET

Members of Minnesota Legislature and State and City Officials Are Entertained—Many Prominent Speakers.

St. Paul. — "To get the necessary legislation to prohibit the use of trading stamps or coupons, retail druggists must take a more active part in politics," Eugene C. Brokmeyer of Washington, general attorney of the National Association of Retail Druggists, said to the members of the Minnesota State Pharmaceutical Ass'n. in session here. About 450 guests attended the annual banquet of the association, and at least fifty more could not be accommodated.

Members of the State Legislature and state and city officers were guests of the association. H. W. Reitzke of St. Paul served as toastmaster.

Among the prominent speakers were: Prof. Henry Kraemer, editor of the American Journal of Pharmacy and dean of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy; Mayor V. R. Irvin, Thos. W. Potts, Chicago, secretary of the National Association of Retail Druggists; F. J. Willing, dean of the college of pharmacy, University of Minnesota; C. D. Johnson, Brainerd; Charles H. Huhn, Minneapolis, and others.

Following the dinner the women adjourned to play cards, while the men enjoyed a smoker.

Would Supervise Schools.

St. Paul. — State supervision of private schools in Minnesota is recommended by the state child welfare commission in a final report adopted for presentation to Governor Burnquist. "Closer co-operation between public and private schools will be recommended," said W. W. Hodson, secretary of the commission.

Need for legislation on this subject was suggested to the commission by C. G. Schulz, state superintendent of education, in a recent communication.

While private schools are doing excellent work, the superintendent stated, there is no official knowledge that they fit modern American life and ideals.

Vincent Addresses Scribes.

St. Paul. — How the newspaper has at different periods in the history of the nation accurately reflected the prevailing social and political conditions, and, by reason of this, has become recognized as a leading element in all public affairs in the community it serves, was explained by President George E. Vincent of the University of Minnesota to fifty editors of the state who attended the opening session of the three-day short course at the college of agriculture.

State's Support Pledged.

Minneapolis. — Secretary of State Schmahl has pledged the loyal support of 2,250,00 citizens of Minnesota to President Wilson and the national government in facing the foreign crisis. Mr. Schmahl's pledge was made in seconding resolutions introduced by Eli Torrance at the twenty-eighth Lincoln banquet of the Minnesota Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion at the West hotel.

Minnesota Poles Loyal.

Virginia. — Announcing their allegiance to the American flag and loyalty to the President, Polish residents of northern Minnesota sent a telegram to President Wilson. Representatives of the following Polish societies were signed: Society of John Sobieski, Polish Falcons, Koscioski society, and the St. John Baptist society.

State Gets Small Land Fund.

St. Paul. — State Auditor Preus received $357.68 from the federal government, representing 5 per cent of the net proceeds of sales of United States public lands in Minnesota during the last fiscal year. The comparatively small remittance is regarded as an indication that demand for public lands is decreasing.

Road System Big Business Project.

St. Paul. — The state road system is a bigger business project, considering mileage and cost, than many railroads, according to George W. Cooley, secretary and engineer of the State Highway commission, who is working on his annual report, containing some impressive figures regarding the highways of the state.

River Torpedo Boat for St. Paul.

St. Paul, Minn. — St. Paul, according to Captain Guy Eaton and Executive Officer C. W. Kelly, naval officers of Duluth who were here recently to inspect the local division of the naval militia, stands an excellent chance of getting a torpedo boat for militiamen here. "If the local division can get the right kind of support and the branch here is recruited up to not fewer than ninety men, I will recommend that a torpedo boat be stationed here," Captain Eaton stated while here.

Farmers Grain Dealers Meet.

Minneapolis. — The proposal to put the financial management of farmer elevator companies under state supervision, preferably the banking department, was discussed at the convention of the Minnesota Farmers Grain Dealers association, at the West hotel. President H. R. Meisch presided. The directors of the elevator companies went on record as favoring the passage of such legislation as would make supervision possible, to eliminate unsafe financing and resultant loss to the farmers.

At a meeting of the managers, the association went on record as favoring the cleaning of grain before shipment. Such precaution would mean 14 cents more a bushel for the company, it was said.

Charles Kenning, chairman of the legislative committee, appeared before a committee hearing at the capitol to present the resolutions, opposing bills now pending, relating to taxation of grain and elevator properties. The act passed by congress providing for uniform grading of grain in all states was indorsed. Independent companies were declared a menace.

Gopher Scribes Convene.

St. Paul. — "If the European press had been free to print unclouded and uncolored news dealing with questions of an international character, instead of printing what the various governments wished its people and the peoples of other nations to believe, this world shadowing war never would have come." This declaration was made without equivocation and without reservation by Walter Williams, dean of the school of journalism, University of Missouri, in an address before editors of the state attending the short course at the university farm. His subject was "A New Weapon for Democracy."

The print paper shortage, that is threatening newspapers, large and small, was discussed from several angles.

Frank A. Day of the Fairmont Sentinel opened the discussion, advocating co-operative manufacture of print paper with state aid in furnishing a supply of raw material. The question of raising subscriptions to $2 annually on weekly newspapers also was considered.

Insane Recluses Arrested.

Preston. — Their 160-acre farm all but abandoned, part of their live stock and chickens dead from starvation, Nora and Mary Donahue, recluses, are in the custody of Sheriff E. K. Blexrud, following complaint of neighbors. It is alleged both are insane. The women have been taken from the farm and will be arraigned before Probate Judge D. K. Michener to determine their mental condition.

According to the authorities, the two women lived with their mother until about two years ago, when she died. Two days after the mother's death, they notified the authorities and it was with difficulty the coroner was admitted to the house.

Death was due to natural causes. Since then the women have lived apart from the outside world.

New Highway Planned.

Mankato. — Steps are being taken to establish a new automobile trail or highway through one of the most historical portions of the state, rich with memories of some of the most stirring scenes ever enacted in the northwest. It may be called the Sioux Indian historical highway, and it will lead through territory where the Sioux uprising of 1862 occurred.

The trail, as thus far planned, will start at Camp Release, near Montevideo, and end at Traverse des Sioux or at this city. Birch Coole, Fort Ridgely, New Ulm and other places of historical interest are included in the route.

Teachers' Home Dedicated.

St. Paul. — Hope of Minnesota educators for better living conditions for country school teachers was partially realized when the first home for teachers ever built in the West was dedicated at Alberta, Minn., a town nine miles from Morris. The building expense of the home was $7,500.

Teachers Meet in Winona.

Winona. — Teachers and superintendents of southeastern Minnesota took part in the first annual elementary school conference held at the state normal school in connection with the Southeastern Minnesota Educational association convention.

Smallpox at Normal.

St. Cloud. — Six hundred students of the state normal school here have been vaccinated following the outbreak of smallpox in the girls' dormitory. Six girls are suffering with the contagion and these have been isolated by the health authorities.

Railroads Earn More.

St. Paul.—Increases in gross earnings of railroads and express companies during 1916 are shown in additional reports filed with the state tax commission under the 5 per cent gross earnings tax law.

"Sons of Rest" Leave Work Camp.

Duluth.—Fourteen Industrial Workers of the World, the last of a group serving terms at the county work farm, have bade farewell to the prison camp after spending 20 days and 20 nights continuously in their beds, except for meals. On arrival at the work farm the I. W. W. formed "Work Farm Local No. 1, Industrial Workers of the World," and "Branch 711 of the Sons of Rest," and thereupon declared a strike against any form of manual labor. They were then put to bed.

'BONE DRY' BILL IS PASSED; NOW UP TO VOTERS OF STATE

VOTE IS 49 TO 16 IN SENATE—HOUSE REPASSES MEASURE AFTER AMENDMENT IS MADE BY 87 TO 24.

DATE OF ENFORCEMENT EXTENDED SIX MONTHS

Upper House Favors Additional Time—Fight Goes to People—Governor Lacks Power to Sign or Veto Measure—May be Amendment 1 On Ballot.

St. Paul, Feb. 17.—The question of making Minnesota "bone dry" by constitutional amendment is now up to the voters of the state.

The House of Representatives has accepted the change of time made in the original bill by the Senate. Without any debate, the lower branch voted unanimously to accept the Senate's change and then repassed the bill with a vote of 87 to 24.

Senate Extends Time.

The Senate had extended the time of operation of amendment from January 1, 1920, to July 1, 1920, giving the liquor interests an additional six months in which to go out of business if the voters approve the amendment.

Adolph S. Larson, author of the original bill introduced in the House, moved that the House accept the change made by the Senate. Thomas H. Girling of Robbinsdale, leader of the wet faction, seconded the motion.

Big Margin In Senate.

In the Senate there were 49 votes for and 16 against the bill. Those who looked for a real field day in the Senate were disappointed. There were no speeches. The differences between the radical drys, who wanted the date set by the House, the near drys and some of the wets who wanted the time extended 11 months had had the bill re-referred and had made the necessary change.

The fight for the constitutional amendment for state-wide prohibition so far as the legislature is concerned is now at an end. The governor does not have the power to sign or veto the measure. It goes directly to the people.

May Be Amendment No. 1.

It is understood that an effort will be made to have the amendment made No. 1 on the ballot at the general election. While those backing statutory prohibition are still continuing their efforts to pass the measure in the House, it has been conceded that there is only a still chance that it will be approved.

Both drys and wets are already laying their plans for the state wide campaign.

"I do not believe that the people of the state will approve the amendment which makes Minnesota 'bone dry,' said Thomas H. Girling. "This amendment would prevent even the personal possession of liquor."

Restores Assembly to Partisan Basis.

St. Paul, Feb. 17.—A bill restoring the legislature to its former partisan basis and restoring some form of county and state conventions, without doing away entirely with the primary system, will be recommended for passage by the senate and house committees on elections, according to a unanimous decision reached at a conference of members of both committees.

A joint subcommittee of five senators and five representatives was decided upon to draft a bill that will cover all the election law amendments now before the legislature.

AMERICANS IN RELIEF WORK

Germany Allows Continuation of Efforts in Belgium.

London, Feb. 17.—A Reuter dispatch from The Hague says the German legation there states that Germany is permitting Americans to continue relief work in Belgium and northern France. An official note to this effect, the legation states, was addressed on February 10 to the diplomatic controller of nutrition work. Furthermore, the American minister at Brussels is given the opportunity to participate in the central management of the nutrition work.

Debate on Army Bill Begun.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Debate on the annual army appropriation bill, carrying $247,000,000 has begun in the House. Chairman Dent of the military committee asserted that the bill was not a war measure and was designed solely to carry on the military establishment in time of peace.

Villa Has Disappeared.

El Paso, Feb. 17.—Francisco Villa has disappeared after promising his men he would return at the end of three months and give them "some startling news," according to reports brought to the border by passengers from Mexico.

Washington, Feb. 17.—An additional deficiency estimate of $988,913 to meet the needs of the national guard during the last part of the present fiscal year has been submitted to Congress by Secretary Baker.

The pretty girl of the party was bantering the genial bachelor on his reasons for remaining single.

"No-oo, I never was exactly disappointed in love," he meditated. "I was more what you might call discouraged. You see, when I was very young I became very much enamored of a young lady of my acquaintance; I was mortally afraid to tell her of my feeling, but at last I screwed up my courage to the proposing point. New Meter Successful.

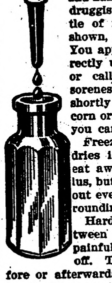
The latest development in metering appliances is a coal meter built on the principle of a water or gas meter. This instrument was devised primarily to measure the coal consumption of factory boiler rooms, but it may find a wider application on a smaller scale. It operates on the same principle as a water meter, the stream of broken coal pouring down a chute and turning an inclosed vane. The meter can also be used for grain, according to the inventor. Its use on coal was entirely successful.

WOMEN! IT IS MAGIC! LIFT OUT ANY CORN

Apply a few drops then lift corns or calluses off with fingers—no pain.



Just think! You can lift off any corn or callus without pain or soreness.

A Cincinnati man discovered this ether compound and named it freezone. Any druggist will sell a tiny bottle of freezone, like here shown, for very little cost. You apply a few drops directly upon a tender corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears, then shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can lift it right off.

Freezone is wonderful. It dries instantly. It doesn't eat away the corn or callus, but shrivels it up without even irritating the surrounding skin.

Hard, soft or corns between the toes, as well as painful calluses, lift right off. There is no pain before or afterwards. If your druggist hasn't freezone, tell him to order a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

Uric Acid!

Ever since the discovery of Scheele in 1775 that uric acid was found within the body—most eminent physicians agree that rheumatism is caused by it; also many distressing symptoms as headache, pain in back, stomach distress, swollen feet and ankles, gout, etc.

It was Dr. Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N.Y., who discovered a new agent—called Anuric, a harmless remedy that if taken before meals will carry off the uric acid from the system and in this way the pains and aches, the creaky joints and all the distressing symptoms of rheumatism and other maladies disappear. You can easily prove this yourself, by obtaining Anuric at almost any drug store, or send Dr. Pierce 10c. for trial package. Try it and be convinced that Anuric is many times more active than lithia and eliminates uric acid as hot water melts sugar.

Word to Girls.

The late Inez Milholland Boissevain, the beautiful suffragist, never wearied of impressing on young girls the duty of being as beautiful as possible, for she knew what an instrument for good beauty, rightly used, can be.

"A girl can't help her looks, but her looks can help her."

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver and bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Adv.

A FRIEND'S ADVICE

Woman Saved From a Serious Surgical Operation.

Louisville, Ky.—"For four years I suffered from female troubles, headaches, and nervousness. I could not sleep, had no appetite and it hurt me to walk. If I tried to do any work, I would have to lie down before it was finished. The doctors said I would have to be operated on and I simply broke down. A friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and the result is I feel like a new woman. I am well and strong, do all my own house work and have an eight pound baby girl. I know Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation which every woman dreads."—Mrs. NELLIE FISHBACK, 1521 Christy Ave., Louisville, Ky.

GREEK SITUATION IS ACUTE

FAMINE RESULTING FROM ALLIED BLOCKADE OF COAST.

Deaths From Starvation Have Occurred and Epidemics Spread—Blockade Continues Despite Compliance With Ultimatum.

Washington, Feb. 20.—The Greek legation, in a statement issued here, says famine is resulting from the Allied blockade of the coast of Greece and the poor classes are living on herbs and grass. It also is declared that despite compliance with the ultimatum of the Allies there has been no retaliation of blockading measures. The statement follows:

"The Greek legation has received information that the results of the blockade of the Greek coasts enforced by the Allies since December 8 are of most gruesome character.

"Ten deaths from starvation have been reported from the province of Jannina; one at Laurium, 10 in Ccarnania, two in the province of Preveze, one in Eubia and one in Messina. The poor classes have begun to live on herbs and grass. The epidemics of enteritis and dysentery are rapidly spreading in the country.

"Notwithstanding the complete execution of the Allies' ultimatum, no relaxation of the blockade has been brought about. Numbers of fishing boats constantly are sunk or sequestered by the ships enforcing the blockade. Coasting trade between ports of the kingdom is completely prohibited."

CRISIS OF WAR IS COMING WITHIN NEXT FEW MONTHS

English Official Announces That Britain's Greatest Need Is for More Men.

London, Feb. 20. — The Earl of Derby, secretary of state for war, speaking at Bolton, has expressed the opinion that the critical period of the war would come in the next few months.

"I would be a false friend," he said, "if I did not warn the country that the war is going to be long continued and the struggle even more bitter than in the past. It can only be won by everyone doing his utmost.

"The three things most vital are money, men and munitions. Money and munitions are being supplied in large quantities. Men we want and must have. The nation will have to make greater sacrifices in the way of giving its manhood to fight its battles. You will not win the war by saying you have won it."

THREE SINKINGS BY U-BOATS

Two of Crew of One Ship Killed and Nine Missing.

London, Feb. 20.—Lloyds Shipping agency announces that the British steamship Worcestershire of 7,175 tons gross, was reported sunk. Lloyds announced the British steamship Valdes of 2,285 tons gross had been torpedoed and sunk without warning. Two members of the vessel's crew were killed and nine are missing. The captain and others of the crew have been landed. The sinking of the British steamship Romsdalen, of 2,548 tons gross, also is announced.

Independents Fail to Agree.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Four of the five so-called independent representatives-elect who may have the balance of power in the organization of the next House have held a conference here to make plans for co-operation but have failed to agree to act as a unit on any proposal. They did agree to meet again shortly before the convening of the new Congress. The conferees pledged themselves not to caucus with any party before their next meeting.

SEVEN YEARS AGO AND TO-DAY

Then He Had 6 Mules, $660 Cash and Some Equity—Today He Has $20,000 and Owns 2 Sections of Land.

The story of the wealth of Western Canada cannot be told too often; the truth will bear repeatings. And in telling of it it is hoped that advantage will be taken of the great opportunities that Western Canada offers by those who are today struggling for a mere existence, by those who are occupying lands, high in price and high in rentals.

From grain, live stock and dairying in 1916, there was a return from the three Prairie Provinces of $258,000,000, or an increase of four million dollars over 1915, and 118 million dollars over 1914.

A prominent Trust Company says: Some of our contract holders have paid off their purchase money on lands bought a year ago out of this year's crop, and what one man can do another can do. Thousands of Southern Alberta farmers harvested an average of 40 to 50 bushels of No. 1 wheat to the acre. These farmers have more real money to spend than any other people on the American Continent. J. D. Johnston of Bladsworth, Sask., left Johnson County, Kansas, seven years ago. When he left he had $660 in cash, six mules, some settler's effects and an equity in some prairie land. Mr. Johnston tells his story:

"In my seven years' residence in Saskatchewan, I have raised seven good crops the value of this year's crop alone being Twenty thousand dollars. I now own Two Sections of improved land, 17 horses and mules, 40 cattle, a large steam thresher and a full line of farm machinery."

We have made five trips to Kansas, one trip to the Pacific Coast and return. We have enjoyed the society of a class of people than whom none better can be found. The climate is healthful and invigorating. The soil is fertile and productive, well adapted for the production of the best quality and large yields of all cereals and vegetables, wild and tame grasses. It is an excellent stock country."

The question of taxes is one that carries with it considerable weight. Coming from a man like Mr. Johnston the same weight should be given the answer. He says:

The tax system especially commends itself to me as being simple, reasonable and just. All direct taxes are levied on the land at its appraised market value, exclusive of improvements thereon. No tax on personal property. This tends to discourage the holding of lands by speculators who prevent its cultivation or improvement, hoping to realize profits from the enhanced value of their holdings due to the industrial activities of the bona fide settlers. It tends to encourage the settlers to rear substantial improvements upon their land without paying a penalty in the form of taxation therefor. It encourages the raising of live stock and the possession of other personal property necessary to the development of the country.

"The laws are well and economically administered. Citizens of the Dominion vote on election of members of parliament and members of the Provincial assembly, while on questions of local improvements and school matters the franchise is exercised by ratepayers, irrespective of citizenship.

The people are enterprising, school facilities are good Taxation, just and reasonable. Military service voluntary. Patriotic fervor unsurpassed, law and order the rule, and crime the rare exception. It is the land of banks, schools, telephones, grain elevators, broad, fertile acres, good climate, good citizenship and abounding in opportunities for the industrious man or woman of good morals, in short, the land of promise and fulfillment, I know of no better anywhere."—Advertisement.

CAPTAIN OF STEAMER KRON PRINZESSIN CECELIE TESTIFIES AT HEARING ON PETITION FOR SALE OF VESSEL.

FEARS TREASON CHARGE IF NAME IS DISCLOSED

Witness Says He Is Teuton Naval Officer—Objectionable Question Not Pressed—Engines Crippled to Prevent Use of Craft by United States in Case of Hostilities.

Boston, Feb. 19.—Capt. Charles A. Polack, of the North German Lloyd steamship Kron Prinzessin Cecilie, testified at a federal court hearing on a petition for the sale of the vessel, that he had been ordered by a man, connnected in an official capacity with the German embassy, to disable its machinery.

Refuses to Give Names.

This was done, he said, to prevent the ship's use by this government in the event of hostilities with Germany. He refused to divulge the name of the man giving the order.

Captain Polack said he was in Hoboken, N. J., when he received the order and that he telegraphed his chief engineer here to disable the engines. The work of destruction was done on January 31 and February 1, he said.

Order Given in Hoboken.

Captain Polack told of meeting the embassy official in January at the North German Lloyd offices in Hoboken. The orders to disable the ship were given at that time in the presence of Captain Moller, superintendent of the company's lines in this country, he testified. Captain Polack was preparing to visit Hot Springs, Va., at the time, but changed his plans and returned to this city.

Question Not Pressed.

When asked by counsel for the petitioners to give the name of the person from whom the order was received Captain Polack said:

"Your honor—I am an officer of the German navy and if I should have to disclose the name of this gentleman in this hearing I might be tried for treason when I went home to Germany I wish you would not oblige me to answer that question."

The question was not pressed and Judge Morton decided that it would not be necessary for the captain to answer it at this time.

Continues Testimony.

Continuing his testimony the captain declared that the embassy officials said to him:

"The relations between the two countries are being severed and the condition is very serious."

The witness testified that he inquired whether the machinery was to be disabled immediately and that he received an affirmative answer. Captain Moller, he said, did not participate in this conversation.

FIRE THREATENS MILL CITY RETAIL DISTRICT

Half-Million Dollar Blaze, Fanned by Gale, Wipes Out Old Narragansett Block in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Feb. 19.—Fire, driven by a gale, threatened for two hours to sweep through the retail district and destroyed the old Narragansett block, 722-728 Nicollet avenue, occupied by the shoe department of the Dayton company and stores of three other concerns.

The loss on the stock of the Dayton company, in the opinion of Chief C. W. Ringer, will be between $300,000 and $500,000. Members of the firm said they could not yet estimate the total damage, but that it is heavier than at first estimated.

VIRTUAL BLOCKADE MAY FORCE WILSON TO ACT

Submarine Activity Causing Congestion in American Ports—Hundreds of Messages Urge Relief Measures.

Washington, Feb. 19.—What has virtually become a blockade of American Atlantic ports by Germany's ruthless submarine campaign is regarded by officials as overshadowing the collateral issues of the situation.

That President Wilson soon will go before Congress to announce steps to relieve the situation was the generally accepted view, but no time has been set for his action. Hundreds of telegrams were received by govrnment officials urging that something be done to relieve the congestion.

Sentenced For Mail Frauds.

Spokane, Feb. 19.—Four former officers of the Northwestern General Trading company of Spokane, convicted of having used the mails to defraud, have just been sentenced in United district court here. Gale Smith was sentenced to serve a year in jail and pay a fine of $10,000; S. T. Knudson must serve a year and pay a fine of $7,500; C. L. Davis was sentenced to nine months and fined $5.00, and O. C. Fowler to three months and fined $750. Motion for a new trial was denied.

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET.

A well known actress gives the following recipe for gray hair: To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off. Adv.

Canada's Liberal Offer o Wheat Land to Settlers

is open to you—to every farmer or farmer's son who is anxious to establish for himself a happy home and prosperity. Canada's hearty invitation this year is more attractive than ever. Wheat is much higher but her fertile farm land just as cheap, and in the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta

160 Acre Homesteads Are Actually Free to Settlers and Other Land Sold at from $15 to $20 per Acre

The great demand for Canadian Wheat will keep up the price. Where a farmer can get near $2 for wheat and raise 20 to 45 bushels to the acre he is bound to make money — that's what you can expect in Western Canada. Wonderful yields also of Oats, Barley and Flax. Mixed Farming in Western Canada is fully as profitable an industry as grain raising.

The excellent grasses, full of nutrition, are the only food required either for beef or dairy purposes. Good schools, churches, markets convenient, climate excellent. Military service is not compulsory in Canada but there is an unusual demand for farm labor to replace the many young men who have volunteered for the war. Raises Lemons in Minnesota

Olaf Johnson showed us a large lemon Monday that they raised in their house. The lemon is 13 inches in circumference and weighs one and a half lbs. It grew on a very strong bush that is 5 or 6 years old and about 3 ft. high. This is called the Wonderful Lemon bush and the lemon is certainly a wonder. Mr. Johnson says they have raised several lemons on this bush before, but they were of ordinary size. This lemon is now on exhibition at the Holt State Bank.

Praises Hospital

Geo. Anderson went to T. R. Falls Monday to have his hand dressed by the doctor. He returned home Tuesday and is getting along fully as well as could be expected. The doctor saved his thumb and two fingers and did a good job as there was little left to work on. This will leave him a hand of which he can get considerable work. Mr. Anderson was well cared for while in the T. R. Falls hospital, and he gives splendid recommendations to both doctors and and nurses. This hospital is convenient for the people of this locality and the majority of them go there when obliged to have medical aid.

Yo-Ho Freckle-Face

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots

Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots so that no one will call you freckle-face?

Simply get an ounce of carpol, extra strong, from your druggist, and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion. The sun and winds this month have a strong tendency to bring out freckles, and as a result more carpol is sold in these months. Be sure to ask for the extra strong, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles. Carpol Laboratories, Boston, Mass. Sta. M. Mail orders filled.

A DIFFERENCE IN THE INVESTMENT

The Western Canada Farm Profits Are Away in Excess.

Mr. George H. Barr, of Iowa, holds seven sections of land in Saskatchewan. These he has fenced and rented, either for pasture or cultivation, all paying good interest on the investment.

Mr. Barr says that farm land at home in Iowa is held at $150 per acre. These lands are in a high state of cultivation, with splendid improvements in houses, barns, stables and silos, and yet, the revenue returns from them are only from two to three per cent per annum on investment.

Last year, 1915, his half share of crop on a quarter section in Saskatchewan, wheat on new breaking, gave him 35 per cent on the capital invested—$25.00 an acre. The crop yield was 35 bushels per acre. This year the same quarter-section, sown to Red Fife on stubble gave 3,286 bushels. His share, 1,643 bushels of 1 Northern at $1.56 per bushel, gave him $2,563.08. Seed, half the twine and half the threshing bill cost him $453.00. Allowing a share of the expense of his annual inspection trip, charged to this quarter-section even to $110.00, and he has left $2,000.00, that is 50 per cent of the original cost of the land. Anyone can figure up that another average crop will pay, not 2 or 3 per cent on investment, as in Iowa, but the total price of the land. Mr. Barr says: "That's no joke now."

Mr. Barr was instrumental in bringing a number of farmers from Iowa to Saskatchewan in 1913. He referred to one of them, Geo. H. Kerton, a tenant farmer in Iowa. He bought a quarter-section of improved land at $32.00 an acre near Hanley. From proceeds of crop in 1914, 1915, 1916, he has paid for the land. Mr. Barr asked him a week ago: "Well, George, what shall I tell friends down home for you?" The reply was: "Tell them I shall never go back to be a tenant for any man." Another man, Charles Haight, realized $18,000 in cash for his wheat crops in 1915 and 1916.

Mr. Barr when at home devotes most of his time to raising and dealing in live stock. On his first visit of inspection to Saskatchewan, he realized the opportunity there was here for grazing cattle. So his quarter-sections, not occupied, were fenced and rented as pasture lands to farmers adjoining. His creed is: "Let nature supply the feed all summer while cattle are growing, and then in the fall, take them to farmsteads to be finished for market. There is money in it."—Advertisement.

Too Common to Be Worth Much.

Little red-headed Mike Casey got a job as office boy for the president of a large Western railway. After he had been upon the job several days, they gave him a form to fill out with his "Personal Record."

When young Mike came to a particular paragraph that said, "Have you any visible marks for identification in case of accident or death?" he rose from his chair and rushed over to a mirror near by, to give himself a general inspection. Then he returned to his task and wrote as his answer to this personal query, "Nothing except freckles!"—Youth's Companion.

"CASCARETS" FOR SLUGGISH BOWELS

No sick headache, sour stomach, biliousness or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out to-night and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret to-night straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken. Adv.

SONS TO OBSERVE STATE'S BIRTHDAY

NATIVE SETTLERS PLAN CELEBRATION OF PASSAGE OF ACT CREATING TERRITORY.

PIONEERS CALLED GOPHERS

Name Is Outgrowth of Indian Custom—All Native Sons Invited to Banquet—Organization Promotes Better Citizenship.

Minneapolis. — On March 3rd, the Native Sons of Minnesota will celebrate the 68th anniversary of the birthday of their state. For on that date, 1849, the act creating the territory of Minnesota passed Congress, and from that time Minnesota appeared as a separate political division on the map of the United States. Previous to that time all of the country between Michigan and the Missouri river belonged to Wisconsin territory. In 1846 Wisconsin was ready to enter statehood, but the people along the St. Croix valley and round about Fort Snelling wished to form a government all their own, and after several unsuccessful attempts, finally persuaded the National Government to create a new territory called Minnesota, taking its name from the largest river wholly within its borders, and at that time the principal center of population. Some ten years later the territory was considered large enough to become a state, and while the 3rd of March is not statehood day, it is the day that the state was named in its infancy.

Minnesota, as most everyone knows, means Sky Colored in the Sioux language. This name was given to the river known by that name, but at one time called the St. Peter.

Settlers Called Gophers.

The early settlers of Minnesota were called Gophers, following no doubt, the Indian custom of adopting some animal as a mascot or totem for a clan.

For a number of years the older Natives of Minnesota, resident in Minneapolis, have made it a custom to gather round the banquet table once a year, to renew old friendship, rehearse old adventures and to extol the many advantages of Minnesota as a place of birth. The Association of the Native Sons of Minnesota is an incorporated body with headquarters in Minneapolis.

Such an organization can be useful to the state by inculcating a high ideal of citizenship, and to the individual in maintaining the friendship of a previous generation. The officers for the present year are: W. L. Bassett, president; B. H. Cobb, 1st vice president; Dr. A. M. Eastman, 2nd vice president; P. M. Holl, secretary; F. L. Gowen, treasurer.

A cordial invitation is extended to all of the Native Sons of the state, wherever located, to attend the annual banquet at the West hotel, at 7 p. m., on March 3rd.

Grocers Choose St. Paul.

St. Paul. — Selection of St. Paul for the 1918 meeting place and election of officers brought the annual three-day convention of the Minnesota Retail Grocers' association to a close in Minneapolis.

A. C. Ekelund of Minneapolis was re-elected president of the association. Other officers chosen are M. R. Bush, Duluth, first vice president; Herman Dahn, Minneapolis, second vice president; John W. Lux, St. Paul, treasurer, and State Senator George M. Peterson of Duluth, secretary.

Teachers at Montevideo.

Montevideo. — Teachers of Western Minnesota opened a three-day convention here and devoted most of the first day to visiting the local public schools.

A. J. Kittleson of Madison, superintendent of Lac qui Parle county schools, presided. An address on the "Mutual Responsibility of Superintendent and Teacher," by Dean L. D. Coffman, College of Education, University of Minnesota, was the principal number on the program.

On "Marks of a Methodist."

Northfield. — Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell of St. Paul, speaking on "The Marks of a Methodist," addressed the closing session of the midyear council of the Minnesota annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Winona Guards Take Oath.

Winona. — C company of the Second Minnesota infantry will continue, it is announced. There has developed some opposition among members to signing the dual oath. When explained by Captain O. A. Stubstad, the oath was taken readily.

Teachers Adopt Resolutions.

Winona. — The Southeastern Minnesota Educational association, at the closing session of the twenty-first annual convention, went on record in opposition to the tendency of the state legislature to curtail educational appropriations to such an extent that full aid is not available. Resolutions also were adopted protesting against the movement to secure the repeal of the teachers' retirement act. Officers were elected. Next year's convention was voted to Rochester, Minn.

Governors to Confer.

St. Paul. — Governor Burnquist has called a conference of governors of states in the Minnesota, Ohio and Missouri river valleys March 19, at New Orleans to form a permanent organization for river improvement and river traffic development. Governor Burnquist said Minnesota citizens are showing special interest in the undertaking.

"I regard this matter of the greatest importance," said Governor Burnquist. "For more than a year I have been co-operating with officers of various organizations on the general improvement and development plan.

"Those officials are convinced that the time has arrived to press the project to a successful conclusion and have requested me to call the governors of interested states to perfect a permanent congress."

A. L. Crocker and other Twin City supporters of the river improvement project are in New Orleans Mr. Crocker said before his departure that an effort was being made to have the large shipping concerns in all river towns represented at a meeting in New Orleans next month.

Commission Rule Attacked.

Duluth. — Petitions calling for an election on a charter amendment abolishing the commission form of government and substituting the old ward system with a city manager as the administrative head of all city affairs has been filed by C. L. Hood, secretary of the Taxpayers' league, with C. F. MacDonald, secretary of the charter commission. It is believed that these amendments will come up for a vote at the election on April 3.

The petitions bear a total of 1,500 signatures, according to Mr. Hood, while only 720 are required.

Veterans Offer Services.

Pipestone.—Members of Simon Mix post, G. A. R., of Pipestone, have unanimously passed a resolution offering their services to the government in case of war. The resolution reads: "In the event of foreign invasion, or attack upon the United States by enemies within or without our border, this post and its members hereby tender its services to the Governor of Minnesota, and through him to the United States in defense of same."

Bulwark in Nation's Defense.

Duluth. — Minnesota is shown to be the bulwark in the nation's defense, and one of the strongest links in the chain of business prosperity in time of peace or war, according to the industrial survey made by the Minnesota board of governors for the naval consulting board. None of the members are at liberty to give out details of the survey, but it is stated generally that the results have proved surprising.

"Reform" Candidate Beaten.

Bemidji.—By a majority of 95 votes Charles W. Vandersluis has been reelected mayor, getting 582 votes to 487 for T. Carlson. Carlson ran as a reform candidate, while the mayor insisted that "Bemidji is reformed." The proposal to issue $8,000 in bonds to build an armory carried. John F. Gibbons was chosen municipal judge over six candidates.

State Delegates Named.

St. Paul. — Governor Burnquist has announced the appointments of five Minnesota delegates to the Thirteenth National Conference on Child Labor, March 23-25, at Baltimore. They are Mrs. A. Tomlinson and George W. Wyckoff, St. Paul; Mrs. J. S. Thurston and Henry F. Burt, Minneapolis, and W. B. McEwen of Duluth.

Frost Hinders Mining.

Hibbing. — Stripping operations on the Minnesota iron ranges are being handicapped greatly by the unusual depth of frost, requiring slow and costly work. Engineers say that the frost in the ore is as deep as seven feet, which is record breaking, due to extremely cold weather and lack of snow.

Grocers in Mill City.

Minneapolis. — About 1,000 grocers were in Minneapolis to attend the sessions of the annual convention of the Retail Grocers and General Merchants' Association of Minnesota. Mayor Van Lear welcomed the visitors to Minneapolis.

No Hard Coal in Duluth.

Duluth. — Citizens have been unable to buy hard coal here. With the exception of stove coal, and a small amount of buckwheat size, companies announced they were "out" and most of them refused to take orders.

Towns Want License Vote.

Jackson. — Petitions to vote on the license question have been filed by the wets at Jackson and Litchfield and apparently every effort will be made to keep an oasis in Jackson county after the spring election.

Fair Managers Organize.

Rochester.—The Federation of Fair Managers, embracing twenty fairs in Southern Minnesota, has been organized here.

To Check Excessive Fire Waste.

St. Paul. — Deploring the excessive fire waste in Minnesota as well as other parts of the United States, John B. Sanborn, state insurance commissioner, urged officers and policyholders of the Retail Hardware Fire Insurance company, at their annual meeting at the Auditorium, to agitate public sentiment against negligence. "To reduce the excessive fire waste in the State of Minnesota," he said, "we must build up a strong public sentiment against negligence in fire prevention."

IMPORTANT HAPPENINGS IN THE MINNESOTA LEGISLATURE

A Review of Events of the Past Few Days

SUFFRAGE BILL IS PASSED BY HOUSE; FINAL VOTE IS 85-41

LOWER BODY OF LEGISLATURE VOTES TO SUBMIT TO PEOPLE QUESTION OF FULL SUFFRAGE TO WOMEN.

WOULD BE AMENDMENT TO STATE CONSTITUTION

Measure Passed Is Peterson Bill, Which Now Goes to Senate—Was Opposed by One Wing of Suffragists Who Wanted Suffrage by Statute.

St. Paul, Feb. 26.—The bill for constitutional woman suffrage will not be reported to the Senate for two weeks, Senator P. A. Gandrud, chairman of the Senate committee on temperance and one of the leaders in the Senate, states. It is the drys, acting under the advice of Dr. George B. Safford of the Anti-saloon league, who are opposing the passage of the suffrage bill, he said.

Suffrage Bill Is Passed.

St. Paul, Feb. 23.—By an overwhelming vote, the Minnesota House of Representatives passed the bill providing for the submission to the people of a constitutional amendment granting suffrage to women. The vote was 85 to 41.

The bill now goes to the Senate. If passed by the upper body, it will be voted on by the people in November, 1918, at the same time that the prohibition amendment is considered. A close fight in the Senate is predicted.

The fight for the bill was the tamest suffrage contest ever witnessed in the Minnesota legislature. Heretofore, there has been intense interest. The day when a suffrage bill came up for a vote was always a real "field day."

There was a lot of oratory before the vote, but it all lacked the old time fervor. The proponents were led by A. M. Peterson of Coleraine, author of the bill. Others who spoke for the bill included Representatives Leavitt Corning, H. H. Holmes, Oscar Stenvick and P. H. Konzen.

Thomas H. Girling of Robbinsdale, declaring that the fight was "too one-sided" spoke against the bill. He declared that a law should be passed making all men vote. George H. Nordlin of St. Paul also spoke against the bill. The only excitement of the day came over a parliamentary tangle.

General Orders Ban Sought.

St. Paul, Feb. 26.—"No more general orders in the House." This will be the slogan of the members whose favorite bills have been sidetracked for the consideration of other fellows' pet measures in the past two weeks.

Other members who have no special pets, but who say they want to see fair play, have agreed to join the protest.

"The making of so many special orders clogs business on general orders," Oscar Swenson, chairman of the committee on general legislation, said. "There is too much time wasted on oratory when we have a special order."

No Funds For Grain Probe.

St. Paul, Feb. 24.—By its failure to receive the "buck" passed to it by the rules committee, the House of Representatives has put a quietus on the proposed inquiry into grain exchanges asked for by A. F. Teigen.

The rules committee sent in a report calling for the employment of help amounting to $57 a day. The House, after listening to impassioned orators for two hours, refused to adopt the report by a vote of 53 to 61.

Economy Bills Ready.

St. Paul, Feb. 26.—Senator F. A. Duxbury, chairman of the Senate committee on civil administration, has just announced that the public domain bill, the bill separating the grain and warehouse department from the jurisdiction of the railroad commission, and the bill re-organizing the department of education and the state department of health would be reported to the Senate at once.

Confident Veto Is Valid.

St. Paul, Feb. 26.—Governor Burnquist has expressed confidence that his veto of the Pratt bill, assigning to the state supreme court rooms now occupied by the tax commission and adjutant general, conforms to all constitutional and statute requirements. His statement followed a report that he had not acted within the limited time prescribed by the constitution.

OPPONENTS WANT ORE TAX ACTION HURRIED

Believe Measure Can Be Killed In Senate—Bill Appropriating $4,424,050 State "U" Budget Introduced.

St. Paul, Feb. 26.—Efforts are being made to have the tonnage tax bill passed by the House considered by the Senate within a week or 10 days. Senator W. S. Dwinnell, chairman of the Senate committee on taxes and tax laws, has called a meeting to consider the measure.

It is understood that the opponents of the bill will ask that it be reported out and made a special order.

Representative W. I. Norton has introduced a bill appropriating $4,424,050 for the state university budget for the next two years. The bill was prepared by the state board of university regents. It provides $1,637,025 a year for maintenance, $45,000 each year for special equipment in the various departments, $522,250 a year for extraordinary repairs and new buildings.

Tonnage Tax Bill Passed

St. Paul, Feb. 22.—After one of the most bitter legislative struggles in the history of the state, the Minnesota house of representatives passed the so-called tonnage tax bill. The vote was 69 to 61.

The bill, termed a super-tax proposal, because it would levy a tax of 2 per cent of the value of merchantable ore, in addition to the present ad valorem tax on mining property, now goes to the senate. In the words of several house members, the lower body "passed the buck" to the upper branch.

Northern Minnesota was almost solidly arrayed against the measure.

The spectre of sectionalism, deprecated by leaders on both sides, crept into the four-hour debate on the bill. It would not down. Representatives from the northern part of the state said frankly their section was being discriminated against in the bill. Representatives from the southern part insisted that there was no discrimination.

While there were some notable exceptions, representatives from farming communities in the southern and western portions of the state were lined up for the bill.

Guard Bill Is Special Order.

St. Paul, Feb. 26.—Without giving its appropriations committee a chance to consider the measure, the Minnesota House of Representatives decided to make the bill appropriating nearly $500,000 for soldier pay a special order of business.

George H. Moeller of St. Paul, chairman of the committee on military affairs, who, with Representative Henry Steen of Winona, introduced the bill granting pay of 50 cents a day to all guardsmen who went to the border, asked for a suspension of the rules to make the bill a special order.

Bendixen Boom Launched.

St. Paul, Feb. 26.—Representative C. M. Bendixen of Morgan, chairman of the House committee on drainage and one of the leaders of the farmers' forum, probably will be a candidate for railroad and warehouse commissioner against Charles E Elmquist next year, or for railroad commissioner, if the grain and warehouse department is divorced from the railroad commission.

Mr. Bendixen is being boomed for the position by members of the forum and by other friends in the House.

Fund for Statue of Ramsey.

St. Paul, Feb. 26.—An appropriation of $10,000 is sought for a statue of former Governor Alexander Ramsey in the national statuary hall at Washington, and a replica of the statue to be placed in the capitol in St. Paul in a bill introduced in the house by Representative Thomas H. Girling and Frank Nimrocks of Minneapolis. The legislature of 1905 designated Alexander Ramsey as one of the state's citizens whose statue should be placed in the national statuary hall.

Lawmakers Fear "Leaks."

St. Paul, Feb. 24.—The possibility of "leaks" was urged as one of the most important reasons why the trade commission bill before the Legislature should not be reported favorably by Senate and House committees at a public hearing by a joint committee from both houses.

Makes Thanksgiving Holiday.

St. Paul, Feb. 24.—The supreme court has decided since the last session of the Legislature that Thanksgiving day is not a legal holiday in Minnesota, and so Senator J. A. Jackson of St. Paul has introduced a bill adding it to the legal holidays listed in the statutes.

To Help Plague Victims.

St. Paul, Feb. 24.—Scores of persons in Minnesota who need special treatment to overcome or mitigate the after effects of infantile paralysis will be benefited if the legislature passes a bill appropriating $50,000 to care for such cases and to fight new outbreaks.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls! Try This! Makes Hair Thick, Glossy, Fluffy, Beautiful—No More Itching Scalp.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable luster, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Adv.

Reclaim Land Valued at Three Million.

Since commencing operations, the Toronto harbor commission has reclaimed 300 acres of land in connection with their part of the work of the harbor front development scheme. Taking the value of the new land at $10,000 an acre, the harbor board has created an additional asset of $3,000,000.—Toronto Globe.

LIFT YOUR CORNS OFF WITH FINGERS

How to loosen a tender corn or callus so it lifts out without pain.

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called freezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out.

This drug dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn or callus without even irritating the surrounding skin.

A small bottle of freezone obtained at any drug store will cost very little but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

If your druggist hasn't stocked this new drug yet, tell him to get a small bottle of freezone for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

Sorry He Didn't.

Jim Wells paid a visit to old Lawyer Collingwood one morning and told him he wanted to get a divorce from his wife.

"Oh, nonsense, Jim!" said the lawyer, gazing at the enraged young man, "you don't want a divorce from Nancy. Why, it was only about two months ago you told me you were so much in love with her you could eat her."

"Well, gol dern it!" said Jim, terribly in earnest, "I wish I had et her!"—Mrs. James Todd, Michigan.

IS CHILD CROSS, FEVERISH, SICK

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

Strong Drinks Irritate

Strong drinks like beer, whiskey, tea and coffee, irritate the kidneys and habitual use tends to weaken them. Daily backache, with headache, nervousness, dizzy spells and a rheumatic condition should be taken as a warning of kidney trouble. Cut out, or at least moderate, the stimulant, and use Doan's Kidney Pills. They are fine for weak kidneys. Thousands recommend them.

DEFENSE POWERS AND FUNDS ASKED BY WILSON IN TALK BEFORE CONGRESS

AUTHORITY TO PLACE UNITED STATES IN STATE OF ARMED NEUTRALITY TO RESIST SUBMARINE MENACE REQUESTED.

CONVOYING OR ARMING OF MERCHANTMEN IS SOUGHT

President Asserts "Overt Act" Is Lacking but Continued Invasion of Rights and Blockade of Commerce Have Forced Step Toward Actual War.

Washington, Feb. 27.—President Wilson has appeared before Congress and asked for authority to place the United States in a state of "armed neutrality" to resist the German submarine menace.

Devoutly expressing the hope that it would not become necessary to put armed forces into action, the President specifically asked for authority to supply American merchant ships with defensive arms "with the means of using them" and "to employ any other instrumentalities" as well as a "sufficient credit" to enable him to provide "adequate means of protection."

This without being specific in terms was a request for the use of the army and navy and the necessary money to make them effective.

The President's Message.

The President spoke as follows:

"Gentlemen of the Congress:

"I have again asked the privilege of addressing you because we are moving through critical times during which it seems to me to be my duty to keep in close touch with houses of Congress so that neither counsel nor action shall run at cross-purposes between us.

Reviews Former Talk.

"On the third of February I officially informed you of the sudden and unexpected action of the imperial German government in declaring its intention to disregard the promises it had made to this government in April last and undertake immediate submarine operations against all commerce whether of belligerents or neutrals, that should seek to approach Great Britain and Ireland, the Atlantic coasts of Europe or the harbors of the eastern Mediterranean and to conduct those operations without regard to the established restrictions of international practice, without regard to any consideration of humanity whatever which might interfere with their object. That policy was forthwith put into practice. It has now been in active execution for nearly four weeks.

Co-operation Asked of Neutrals.

"Its practical results are not fully disclosed. The commerce of other neutral nations, is suffering severely but not, perhaps very much more severely than it was already suffering before the first of February, when the new policy of the imperial government was put into operation. We have asked the co-operation of the other neutral governments to prevent these depredations, but I fear none of them has thought it wise to join us in any common course of action. Our own commerce has suffered, is suffering, rather in apprehension than in fact, rather because so many of our ships are timidly keeping to their home ports than because American ships have been sunk.

Two U. S. Ships Lost.

"Two American vessels have been sunk, the Housatonic, and the Lyman M. Law. The case of the Housatonic, which was carrying foodstuffs consigned to a London firm, was essentially like the case of the Frye, in which, it will be recalled, the German government admitted its liability for damages, and the lives of the crew, as in the case of the Frye, were safeguarded with reasonable care.

"The case of the Law which was carrying lemon-box staves to Palermo disclosed a ruthlessness of method which deserves grave condemnation, but was accompanied by no circumstances which might not have been expected at any time in connection with the use of the submarine against merchantmen as the German government has used it.

Situation Grows Worse.

"In sum, therefore, the situation we find ourselves in with regard to the actual conduct of the German submarine warfare against commerce and its effects upon our own ships and people is substantially the same that it was when I addressed you on the third of February except for the tying up of our shipping in our own ports because of the unwillingness of our shipowners to risk their vessels at sea without insurance or adequate protection and the very serious congestion of our commerce which has resulted, a congestion which is growing rapidly more and more serious every day.

"This in itself might presently accomplish, in effect, what the new German submarine orders were meant to accomplish, so far as we are concerned. We can only say therefore that the overt act, which I have ventured to hope the German commanders would in fact avoid, has not occurred.

Escapes Due to Chance.

"But while this is happily true, it must be admitted that there have been certain additional indications and expressions of purpose on the part of the German press and the German authorities which have increased rather than lessened the impression that, if our ships and our people are spared it will be because of fortunate circumstances or because the commanders of the German submarine which they may happen to encounter exercise an unexpected discretion and restraint rather than because of the instructions under which those commanders are acting.

"It would be foolish to deny that the situation is fraught with the gravest possibilities and dangers. No thoughtful man can fail to see that the necessity for definite action may come at any time, if we are in fact and not in word merely to defend our elementary rights as a neutral nation It would be most impudent to be unprepared.

Asks Full Authority.

"I cannot in such circumstances be unmindful of the fact that the expiration of the term of the present Congress is immediately at hand by constitutional limitations, and that it would in all likelihood require an unusual length of time to assemble and organize the Congress which succeeds it.

"I feel that I ought in view of that fact, to obtain from you full and immediate assurance of the authority which I may need at any moment to exercise. No doubt I already possess that power without special warrant of law, by the plain indication of my constitutional duties and powers; but I prefer in the present circumstances not to act upon general implication. I wish to feel that the authority and power of Congress are behind me in whatever it may become necessary for me to do. We are jointly the servants of the people and must act together and in their spirit so far as we can divine and interpret it.

To Stand Steadfast.

"No one doubts what it is our duty to do. We must defend our commerce and the lives of our people in the midst of the present trying circumstances, with discretion, but with clear and steadfast purpose. Only the method and the extent remain to be chosen, upon the occasion, if occasion should indeed arise.

"Since it has unhappily proved impossible to safeguard our neutral rights by diplomatic means against the unwarranted infringements they are suffering at the hands of Germany, there may be no recourse but to armed neutrality, which we shall know how to maintain and for which there is abundant American precedent.

Hope to Avoid Conflict.

"It is devoutly to be hoped that it will not be necessary to put armed force anywhere into action. The American people do not desire it and our desire is not different from theirs. I am sure that they will understand the spirit in which I am now acting, the purpose I hold nearest my heart and I would wish to exhibit in every thing I do. I am anxious that the people of the nations at war also should understand and not mistrust us. I hope that I need give no further proofs and assurances than I have already given throughout nearly three years of anxious patience that I am the friend of peace and mean to preserve it for America so long as I am able. I am not now proposing or contemplating war or any steps that need lead to it.

"I merely request that you will accord me by your own vote and definite bestowal of the means and the authority to safeguard in practice the right of a great people who are at peace and who are desirous of exercising none but the rights of peace to follow the pursuit of peace in quietness and good will—rights recognized time out of mind by all the civilized nations of the world. No course of my choosing or of theirs will lead to war. War can come only by the willful acts and aggressions of others.

Can't Make Known Course.

"You will understand why I can make no definite proposals or forecasts of action now and must ask for your supporting authority in the most general terms. The form in which action may become necessary cannot yet be foreseen. I believe that the people will be willing to trust me to act with restraint, with prudence and in the true spirit of amity and good faith that they have themselves displayed throughout these trying months; and it is in that belief that I request that you will authorize me to supply our merchant ships with defensive arms should that become necessary, and with the means of using them, and to employ any other instrumentalities or methods that may be necessary and adequate to protect our ships and our people in their legitimate and peaceful pursuits on the seas. I request also that you will grant me at the same time, along with the powers I ask, a sufficient credit to enable me to provide adequate means of protection where they are lacking, providing adequate insurance against the present war risks.

Considers Rights of Humanity.

"I have spoken of our commerce and of the legitimate errands of our people, on the seas, but you will not be misled as to my main thought, the thought that lies beneath these phrases and gives them dignity and weight. It is not of material interest merely that we are thinking. It is, rather, of fundamental human rights, chief of all the right of life itself. I am thinking not only of the rights of Americans to go and come about their proper business by way of the sea, but also of something much deeper, much more fundamental than that. I am thinking of those rights of humanity without which there is no civilization.

Confident of Support.

"My theme is of those great principles of compassion and of protection which mankind has sought to throw about human lives, the lives of non-combatants, the lives of men who are peacefully at work keeping the industrial processes of the world quick and vital, the lives of women and children and of those who supply the labor which ministers to their sustenance. We are speaking of no selfish material rights, but of rights which our hearts support and whose foundation is that righteous passion for justice upon which all law, all structures alike of family, of state and of mankind, must rest as upon the ultimate base of our existence and our liberty. I cannot imagine any man with American principles at his heart hesitating to defend these things."

Navy Has Secret Devices.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The navy's advisory board of scientists has developed several new devices that are far in advance of anything today possessed by the navies of Europe, according to Elmer E. Sperry, chairman of two of the board's committees. Mr. Sperry asserted that, in the event of war, these devices would give the American navy a decided advantage over any opponent. Such invention as have been perfected by the board of scientists have been kept secret.

"Thirst Burglars" Appear in Kansas.

Wichita, Kan., Feb. 27.—With the advent of the "bone dry" law in Kansas the "thirst burglar" has made his apearance here. During the last 24 hours the police department has been flooded with reports of petty robberies, the majority of which have to do with losses of private stocks of beer, whisky and wines, laid by before the present law went into effect. Silverware and other valuables repeatedly have been left undisturbed while entire supplies of wet goods have been taken.

KUT-EL-AMARA TAKEN BY BRITISH FORCES

London, Feb. 27.—Kut-el-Amara has been recaptured by British forces. Chancellor of the Exchequer Andrew Bonar Law made the announcement in the house of commons. He said the Turkish garrison was in full retreat.

"The whole enemy's positions at Sannai-Yat and Kut-el-Amara have been secured," the Mesopotamian statement announced. "Kut itself is automatically ours. The Turks on the Tigris river front are in full retreat towards Baghailah, 24 miles to the west of Kut-el-Amara. The fleeing Turks are being harassed by the pursuing British cavalry."

LINER LACONIA, CARRYING AMERICANS IS TORPEDOED

Biggest Victim of New German Submarine Campaign Sunk Without Warning U. S. Consul Reports.

Queenstown, Feb. 27.—The Cunard line steamship Laconia of 18,099 tons gross which sailed from New York Feb. 18 for Liverpool, has been sunk. Wesley Frost, American consul at Queenstown, telegraphed the American embassy here:

"Cunarder Laconia torpedoed. Two hundred and seventy-eight survivors landed. Details lacking, but known some missing, one dead."

The Laconia is the biggest victim of the German submarine warfare since the new decree was announced. The Laconia was torpedoed without warning, it was reported here.

A further statement said that a majority of the survivors were expected to land at Queenstown and the others at Bantry, Ireland.

Twenty Americans, all native born were members of the crew of the Laconia.

U. S. VESSELS TO SAIL IF WILSON GETS AUTHORITY

American Line Steamships to Depart As Soon As Guns Can Be Provided According to Officials.

New York, Feb. 27.—If President Wilson is authorized by Congress to arm ships to protect American merchantmen on the high seas, the American line steamships tied up here will resume sailings as soon as guns can be provided, it is stated by the line's officials here.

Two freight steamships, the Falkland (Norwegian), from Manchester, and the Manxman (British), for Genoa, arrived here after passing through the German submarine zone.

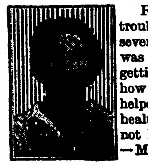
Germany to Force War on Holland.

London, Feb. 27.—Holland now understands why two months ago Germany began massing troops near the Dutch border. Rumors are widespread that these troops have constructed trenches paralleling the line. Public indignation over the sinking of seven Dutch ships by German submarines, was tempered by realization of the danger to The Netherlands in these massed German forces. Conviction grew in Great Britain that Germany deliberately planned the torpedoing of the seven Dutch ships.

Too Sick To Work

Many Women in this Condition Regain Health by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Convincing Proof of This Fact.



Ridgway, Penn. — "I suffered from female trouble with backache and pain in my side for over seven months so I could not do any of my work. I was treated by three different doctors and was getting discouraged when my sister-in-law told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her. I decided to try it, and it restored my health, so I now do all of my housework which is not light as I have a little boy three years old."—Mrs. O. M. Rhines, Ridgway, Penn.

Mrs. Lindsey Now Keeps House For Seven.

Tennille, Ga.—"I want to tell you how much I have been benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. About eight years ago I got in such a low state of health I was unable to keep house for three in the family. I had dull, tired, dizzy feelings, cold feet and hands nearly all the time and could scarcely sleep at all. The doctor said I had a severe case of ulceration and without an operation I would always be an invalid, but I told him I wanted to wait awhile. Our druggist advised my husband to get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has entirely cured me. Now I keep house for seven and work in the garden some, too. I am so thankful I got this medicine. I feel as though it saved my life and have recommended it to others and they have been benefited".—Mrs. W. E. Lindsey, R. R. 3, Tennille, Ga.

Woman Dressed as a Soldier.

Mme. Simone Puget, widow of Henri Puget, the French novelist, clipped her hair and donned the uniform of a British "Tommy", in order to reach her husband, who was dying in Belgium of wounds received in battle. Mme. Puget arrived in New York recently.

"Assisted by some English friends, I cut off my hair and obtained the uniform of a British soldier, which I donned after the military authorities had denied me permission to go to my husband," she said. "Thus garbed, I attracted no attention when I marched with an English artillery detachment into Belgium by way of Hazebrouck. Thank God, I reached my husband's side a few hours before he died."

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET.

A well known actress gives the following recipe for gray hair: To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off. Adv.

What Is Uric Acid?

Everyone has uric acid in the system, but naturally in small quantities. Excessive amount is caused by eating too much meat and foods that ferment in stomach. The kidneys, being the filters of the blood, are supposed to separate and throw the poisons out of the system. Weak, tired and overworked kidneys fail to do this, hence the uric acid accumulates and the urate salts are carried by the blood to the solid tissue structure, causing backache, lumbago, rheumatism, dropsy, drowsiness, and tired feeling.

To overcome the trouble is only a matter of toning up the kidneys, and this is best done by a treatment with Anuric, three times a day. Anuric is a recent discovery of Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., and can be obtained at any drug store.

Experience taught Doctor Pierce that Anuric is a more powerful agent than lithia in dissolving uric acid, and it is then carried out of the system.

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum; "but when truth is making the fight, maybe she'd prevail quicker if a lot of us wasn't so neutral."

Finest Dates Grow There.

Beyond the land of the Berbers, in the far south of Morocco, lies the great oasis of Tafilet, famous for its vast groves of date-palms. Here, for hundreds of square miles, the land is covered with a thick growth of the tall, straight stems of the palm, and the product of these close-growing trees is enormous in quantity. They produce the finest dates in the world.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

RAILWAY FARES LOW THEN

In England During 1856-57 Rates Were at the Minimum Because of Competition.

In calculating the recent big increase in railway fares, the powers that be unfortunately took the present-day ordinary rates, remarks London Tit-Bits. Travelers would have been better pleased had they taken as a basis the fares in vogue sixty years ago. Competition then reacted most beneficially for the traveler. During the winter of 1856-57 the fare from London to Peterborough was one shilling, the distance being 76 miles, and during the same period the ordinary return fare between York and London, 377 miles, was 3s 6d.

A year later there was a competitive effort to capture the Manchester passenger traffic, with the result that the double journey of 367 miles cost but five shillings. After that the companies became more commercial and less philanthropic.

Long-Distance Heroism.

"I see where a vaudeville performer bills himself as the 'Lusitania Singing Fireman.'"

"I presume he sang while the Lusitania was sinking?"

"That is what he wishes the public to infer, but he may have been singing in a theater 4,000 or 5,000 miles away."

Natural Result.

"Binks and I had an altercation yesterday and I called him a toad."

"What did he do?"

"He got hopping mad."

TAX CONFERENCE MADE PERMANENT

MINNESOTA ORGANIZATION TO BE NON-PARTISAN AND NON-POLITICAL, IS DECIDED.

NELSON IS MADE PRESIDENT

Chairman From Washington County Chosen—Four Vice Presidents Elected and Executive Committee of 11 Named.

St. Paul. — The Minnesota Tax Conference, a permanent organization that will concern itself with all problems relative to taxation, is in existence as result of the two-day conference of business men and taxation experts that has just adjourned after a two-day session in the old capitol, St. Paul. The organization will be non-political and non-partisan. From time to time it will publish data bearing upon taxation probelms, will concern itself with legislation of an important nature that may arise relative to taxation and will co-operate closely with the Minnesota tax commission. N. A. Nelson of Washington county, who was chairman of the conference, was made president.

Four vice presidents were elected: George H. Gardner, Crow Wing county; John F. Gustafson, Cottonwood county; Clayton Kennedy, Blue Earth county, and E. W. Smith, Otter Tail county.

An executive committee of 11 members will guide the commission and will meet at intervals between the annual conferences. The committee comprises W. L. Harris, Minneapolis; M. D. Munn, St. Paul; J. J. Springer, Zumbro Falls; Frank Simon, Mapleton; Henry Robel, Mankato; C. T. Kelley, Menahga; E. C. Wellin, Willmar; Henry H. Nolte, Duluth; Israel Sjoberg, Roseau; A. P. Moody, Cokato, and J. E. Kessner, Foley.

Taxable Assets $1,580,000,958.

St. Paul. — Current taxes of $55,969,523 are levied against Minnesota property of the taxable value of $1,580,200,958, according to an abstract of county tax lists made public in the office of State Auditor Preus. The last tax levy totaled $52,055,180 and the taxable value was $1,491,864,548. The average rate is 35.42 mills for taxes for collection this year, against 34.89 mills last year.

This average tax rate in Minnesota is the highest of record, despite the fact that the total of taxable values is also much larger than ever before.

Listed in the new abstract are 44,776,417 acres of land, valued, with structures, at $931,627,282, or an average of $20.80 an acre, and $486,092,140 of city realty and structures, also personal property of $212,481,536 taxable value.

A gain of $59,330,927 in unplatted real estate is the big item in the $88,236,437 increase in the taxable value total.

Thousand Dentists at Clinic.

Minneapolis.—More than 1,000 Minnesota dentists attended a clinic held by Dr. Arthur E. Smith, Chicago, and Dr. Henry B. Clark, Minneapolis, on the subject of practical nerve blocking, an extension of the local anesthesia, at the University of Minnesota, college of dentistry. A lecture by Dr. Rupert E. Hall, Philadelphia, on "Prosphesies," and another by Dr. Rodriquez Ottolenqui, New York, on "The Banishment of Infected Teeth," were the features of the program. The convention closed with the election of officers.

Political Leader Dies.

Little Falls. — Clarence B. Buckman, for forty-two years a resident of this vicinity, and prominent in public and business affairs, died at a sanatorium at Battle Creek, Mich., where he had been confined for several weeks suffering from Bright's disease.

Mr. Buckman was a former Republican representative in Congress from this district, and had served in the state Legislature several terms. For several years he was deputy United States marshal.

Loyalty Contest Planned.

St. Peter.—Frederick A. Donahower, said to be the oldest banker in Minnesota, died at his home here. He was 86 years old and complications incident to his advanced age caused his death.

Organize Farm Boys' Pig Club.

Blooming Prairie.—W. V. Goussoff, head of the Steele County Farm Bureau, and B. B. Jones, director of the Owatonna high school department of agriculture, have completed the organization of a farm boys' pig club here as the first unit of a series of farm boys' and girls' clubs. Other clubs, including corn and cow-testing organizations for boys, and garden and canning, sewing and bread-making clubs for girls, will be formed in the near future.

MADE $5,000 OUT OF HOGS

On His Western Canadian Farm.

It is getting to be a long drawn out story, the way that Western Canadian farmers have made money. Many of them a few years ago, came to the country with little more than their few household effects, probably a team of horses and a cow or two, and sufficient money to do them for a few months, until they got a start. Hundreds of such can be pointed out, who today have splendid homes, well equipped farms, the latest machinery and an automobile. Here is the case of A. E. Merriam, formerly of Devil's Lake, N. D. He didn't leave there because the land was poor, or farming not a success, for all who know that country are aware that it is an excellent country. He wanted to expand, to take advantage of the cheap land that Western Canada offers. And that same story has appealed to hundreds of others who have had like success with Mr. Merriam. But his story, and he signs it, too, is:

"I came to Alberta in the Spring of 1909 from Devil's Lake, North Dakota, locating on my farm near Dalroy.

"I arrived with six head of horses and two head of cattle and about $1,500. Since then, I have increased my live stock to seven head of horses, four head of cattle, and about one hundred head of hogs, a four-roomed house, good barn with all modern improvements, a feed grinder, elevator, chopper, fanning mill, etc. I have increased my original capital at least four times more since coming here.

"From the feeding of hogs during the last year, I had a gross return of $5,000.

"I first started grain farming, but during the past four years I have made hogs my specialty, and you may see by the foregoing statement for 1916 that I have not done so badly.

"Land has increased at least twenty per cent in value during the past few years, now selling for from $25 to $35 per acre, with nominal taxes of about $27 a quarter section yearly.

"The climate here is better than Dakota in that we do not have so much dry wind; the winters are similar to Dakota.

"As for farming in general, the growing and feeding of live stock is more sure than the grain farming, if continued year after year, and if every farmer follows this he will be ahead of the grain growers in the long run. Taking everything into consideration, I feel satisfied with my success in Alberta."

(Sgd.) A. E. MERRIAM.

MINNESOTA HOUSE KILLS BILL AIMED AT FUTURE TRADES

KNUTSON AND TEIGEN BILLS FOR TAXATION AND ABOLISHMENT OF FUTURE TRADES ARE PUT TO SLEEP.

DEBATES ARE ACRIMONIOUS AND LAST FOR SIX HOURS

Amendments Follow in Quick Succession Until Bills Could Hardly Be Recognized Before They Finally Are Slaughtered—Farmer Members Active.

St. Paul, March 2.—Two measures, both designed to cripple the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce, sponsored by certain farmer members, have been slaughtered in the Minnesota House of Representatives.

Men from the rural districts joined hands with city representatives in putting to sleep the Knutson bill for taxing future trades and the Teigen proposal to abolish future trading.

For nearly six hours, the House was surfeited with oratory. Every one of the so-called agricultural leaders had his say. A. F. Teigen took nearly two hours to explain his bill.

The Knutson bill looked like an old-fashioned "crazy quilt" by the time the host of amendments to it had been adopted. One amendment by T. H. Girling of Robbinsdale rendered the measure innocuous and presaged its defeat. The vote, taken after repeated attempts to send it back to committees, was 39 to 86.

Teigen Bill Amended.

The Teigen bill was amended on motion of C. M. Bendixen of Morgan. The amendment would permit hedging. Magnus Johnson of Kimball insisted that the Bendixen amendment killed the purpose of the bill. The vote on the Teigen bill was 34 to 72.

Asher Howard of Minneapolis, speaking against the Teigen bill, defended trading in options and pointed out the great harm that would be worked to the farmers of the Northwest and to Minneapolis by its passage.

Committee Is Sustained.

By its action on the Knutson bill the House sustained the action of the committee on taxes and tax laws which originally reported the bill for indefinite postponement by a vote of 13 to 2. Farmer members were responsible for bringing the bill before the House despite the committee's report.

Following the lengthy debate and the super-abundance of oratory, the House passed a resolution to limit debate hereafter. It was introduced by Charles H. Warner of Aitkin.

"This House never was intended to be a school of oratory," read the resolution. "It is desirable that we act more and talk less."

Constitution Revision Beaten.

St. Paul, March 2.—The House of Representatives has defeated the bill by C. E. Ryberg for submission of an amendment providing for a convention for revision of the state constitution.

The bill received 49 affirmative and 73 negative votes. Two-thirds majority was necessary for passage. A similar bill was defeated two years ago in the House by a substantial majority.

Evidence of I. W. W. Disorder.

The transcript of the evidence before the House labor committee in the recent investigation of labor disorders in Northern Minnesota has been delivered to Chairman George L. Siegel.

The subcommittee headed by Representative W. C. Briggs, named to prepare a report on the investigation, held a meeting to review the testimony.

Better ventilation of the House chamber at the state capitol is sought in a resolution presented by Representative J. I. Levin, which authorizes the rules committee to make the necessary arrangements.

The resolution recites that "it is a physiological fact that mental and physical efficiency of a person engaged in sedentary occupation depends on the generous inhalation of fresh air. The resolution was adopted.

Boxing Law Action Delayed.

A bill to authorize the little village of Mounds to dig a canal from Mounds lake to Lake Minnetonka was introduced by Senator Turnham of Long Lake. The bill provides for the levying of a tax on abutting property owners.

Action on the Sageng bill for the repeal of the boxing law has been again delayed by the state Senate. There were 124 bills on general orders, the greatest number during this session and but six on the calendar, so the calendar with the Sageng measure was skipped that bills might be cleared from general orders.

Keepers Favor Taxation of Bees.

Winona, Minn., March 2.— Members of the Southern Minnesota and Western Wisconsin Beekeepers association, in annual convention here, have gone on record as favoring taxation of bees. Their action is in harmony with that taken by the state association recently. The local association will make a recommendation to the state tax commission, asking that bees be given a separate classification in the schedules. They will urge that each colony be valued at $3 to $5, and that deductions be made from that amount.

Catarrh for Years No Relief

Three Bottles PERUNA Made Me Well.

Mr. Eli Lefevre, Jr., 854 Brush St., Detroit, Mich., writes: "I had been troubled with catarrh for a number of years, and had been taking medicine for it, but they did me no good. In reading one of Dr. Hartman's books entitled 'Winter Catarrh,' I discovered that Peruna was good for catarrh. After I had taken only three bottles of Peruna I was cured of the catarrh. I now advise everybody troubled with catarrh to take Dr. Hartman's Peruna, as it is a sure cure for catarrh.

"Friends to whom I recommend Peruna tell me that it is also good for headache, dizziness, and pain in the stomach."

Those who object to liquid medicines can now procure Peruna Tablets.

Diet, Exercise or Death!

An eminent medical authority writes that most of our city folks die of a thickening of the arteries or of kidney disease. The kidneys become clogged and do not filter the poisons from the blood, and one trouble follows another, high blood pressure damages the heart, arteries and kidneys. Usually its danger signals are backache, pain here or there, swollen feet or ankles, rheumatic twinges or spots appearing before the eyes.

"The very best remedy is this: Eat meat but once a day, or not at all. Plenty of outdoor exercise, and drink pure water frequently. Before meals take a little Anuric, the great uric acid, neutralizer that is easily obtained at the drug store. When you have dizziness, chills or sweating, worry, or dragging pains in back, try this wonderful enemy to uric acid, which Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., discovered and named Anuric. Anuric, more potent than lithia, dissolves uric acid as hot water does sugar."

HEALTHY CHILDREN come from healthy mothers. And mothers will certainly be healthy if they'll take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Nothing can equal it in building up a woman's strength, in regulating and assisting all her natural functions, and in putting in perfect order every part of the female system. It lessens the pains and burdens, supports and strengthens weak, nursing mothers.

It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and bracing nervine.

Castor oil is good for children or adults, and especially good for aged people. A pleasant form of a vegetable laxative that is to be had at any drug store, was invented by Dr. Pierce, who put together May-apple (podophyllin), aloes, jalap. Ask at any drug store for "Pleasant Pellets," and they can be had for little money. They contain no calomel and are of vegetable constituents, therefore harmless.

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best remedy any sick woman can take."—Mrs. MARGARET QUINN, Rear 259 Worthen St., Lowell, Mass.

Other warning symptoms are a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness, inquietude, and dizziness.

NEUTRALITY BILL FILIBUSTERED TO DEATH IN SENATE

CHAMPIONS OF PRESIDENT LET MEASURE DIE WHEN DOZEN SENATORS BLOCK ACTION FOR PASSAGE.

LA FOLLETTE IS NEVER GIVEN CHANCE TO SPEAK

Wisconsin Senator, However, Makes Expected Objection That Prevents Roll Call on Armed Neutrality Measure Which Expires With Session.

Washington, March 6.—Twelve senators, led by Senator La Follette and encouraged by Senator Stone, Democratic chairman of the foreign relations committee, in a filibuster, denounced by President Wilson's spokesman as the most reprehensible in the history of any civilized nation, defied the will of an overwhelmingly majority in Congress up to the last minute and denied to the President a law authorizing him to arm American merchant ships to meet the German submarine menace.

Unyielding through 26 hours of continuous session to appeals that their defiance of the President would be humiliating to the country; uncompromising in a crisis described to them as the most serious to the nation since the Civil war, La Follette and his small group of supporters refused a majority of their colleagues an opportunity to vote on the armed neutrality bill and it died with the Sixty-fourth Congress.

Seventy-six Sign Manifesto.

To fix responsibility before the country, 76 senators, 30 Republicans and 46 Democrats, signed a manifesto to proclaim to the world that they favored passage of the measure.

This declaration, embodied in the record of the Senate, referred to the fact that the House had passed a similar bill by a vote of 403 to 13, and also recited that the Senate rule permitting unlimited debate gave a small minority opportunity to throttle the will of the majority.

The Manifesto.

The text of the manifesto follows: "The majority of the United States senators favored the passage of the Senate bill authorizing the President of the United States to arm American merchant vessels, a similar bill having already passed the House by a vote of 403 to 13. Under the rules of the Senate allowing unlimited debate, it appears to be impossible to obtain a vote previous to noon, March 4, 1917, when this session of Congress expires. We desire the statement entered on the record to establish that the Senate favored the legislation and would pass it if a vote could be obtained."

Thirteen senators declined to sign the declaration, but one of them, Senator Penrose, Republican, of Pennsylvania, announced that he would have voted for the bill had opportunity been afforded him.

GOMPERS ISSUES CALL FOR LABOR GATHERING

Summons Spokesmen of Wage Earners to Determine Part Labor Should Take.

Washington, March 6.—Spokesmen of more than 3,000,000 American wage earners have been called to meet in conference here March 12 to determine and announce the part labor shall claim in the formulation of policies of preparedness and defense in the crisis confronting the nation.

The call was issued by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, under authority of the federation's executive council. It went to presidents of 110 national and international unions affiliated with the federation, department presidents, and the four great railroad employes' brotherhoods.

There will be a preliminary meeting of the executive council next Friday to arrange for the conference which promises to be the most notable gathering of American labor representatives ever held.

MOTHER! LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is ofttimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

PAIN? NOT A BIT! LIFT YOUR CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

No humbug! Apply few drops then just lift them away with fingers.

This new drug is an ether compound discovered by a Cincinnati chemist. It is called freezone, and can now be obtained in tiny bottles as here shown at very little cost from any drug store. Just ask for freezone. Apply a drop or two directly upon a tender corn or callus and instantly the soreness disappears. Shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can lift it off, root and all, with the fingers.

Not a twinge of pain, soreness or irritation; not even the slightest smarting, either when applying freezone or afterwards.

This drug doesn't eat up the corn or callus, but shrivels them so they loosen and come right out. It is no humbug! It works like a charm. For a few cents you can get rid of every hard corn, soft corn or corn between the toes, as well as painful calluses on bottom of your feet. It never disappoints and never burns, bites or inflames. If your druggist hasn't any freezone yet, tell him to get a little bottle for you from his wholesale house.—adv.

GERMANY ADMITS PLOT AGAINST U. S.; WAR MOVE UPHELD

FOREIGN SECRETARY MAKES ATTEMPT TO JUSTIFY CONSPIRACY — CALLS ACT "DEFENSE MEASURE."

CABAL NOTE PUBLISHED IN U. S. CORRECTLY QUOTED

Teuton Official Explains Plan Was to Fall Flat in Case United States Failed to Declare War—Says Traitor Must Have Given Away Secret.

Berlin, March 5.—Berlin has admitted that it set on foot the conspiracy to embroil Mexico and Japan in war against the United States, as revealed by the Washington administration.

German Foreign Secretary Zimmermann, in a statement given out by the official German news agency, stated that the imperial government had "prepared measures of defense" against the United States in case that government declared war over the submarine controversy.

Zimmerman Admits Cabal.

Zimmerman upheld the admitted cabal against the United States on the ground that its execution was to be contingent upon an actual declaration of hostilities by Washington.

Another admission that Germany had attempted to instigate an attack on the American frontier by Mexico came to light through another semi-official news bureau.

Zimmermann's instructions to the kaiser's minister in Mexico City, as admitted published in the United States, are admitted to have been correctly quoted.

Reports Based On Fact.

"The American press," says the bureau, "contains reports about instructions from the ministry of foreign affairs to the German minister in Mexico City, in the event that Germany, after the proclamation of unrestricted submarine warfare, failed to keep the United States neutral. These reports are based on the following facts: After the decision had been taken to begin unrestricted submarine warfare on Feb. 1 we had to reckon, in view of the previous attitude of the American government, with the possibility of conflict with the United States. That this calculation was right is proved by the fact that the American government severed diplomatic relations with Germany soon after the proclamation of a barred zone and asked other neutrals to follow its example.

Treachery Blamed.

"Anticipating these possibilities, it was not only the right but also the duty of our government to take precautions in time—in the event of a military conflict with us—in order to balance if possible the adhesion to our foes of a new enemy.

"How the American government received information of the instructions sent by a secret way to Mexico is not known. It appears, however, that treachery—and it only must have been treachery, was committed on German territory."

U. S. MILITARY ATTACHE KILLED ON ITALIAN FRONT

Major E. R. Heiberg of Rome Embassy Dies When Horse Falls, Ambassador Page Reports.

Washington, March 5.—Major E. R. Heiberg, American military attache to the Rome embassy, has been killed while at the Carso front. Major Heiberg, it was said, was killed while on duty in a fall from his horse.

Ambassador T. N. Page's report follows: "Please notify the secretary of war that Major Heiberg, military attache, was killed in an accident while riding during the performance of his duty visiting the Italian front. The king has sent personal condolences on the death of this distinguished officer."

London, March 5.—Emperor Charles of Austria has dismissed Field Marshal Conrad von Hoetzendorf, Austrian chief of staff, according to a Vienna dispatch to Reuter's. Baron Strauzzenberg succeeds Von Hotezendorf. Hoetzendorf has played an important part in almost all the major operations of the Austro-Hungarian forces. He has been credited with being one of the few Austrian generals held in favor in Berlin and in May, 1915, was decorated with the order of Pour le Merite by the Kaiser.

Tonoline is Beauty Aid

Announces Specialist

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said. "Take tonoline.

"Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the of the blood—and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:—As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

A Smooth Hairless Skin for Women.

From Beauty Secrets

With the aid of a plain delatone paste it is an easy matter to rid the skin of unsightly hairy growths. The paste is made by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. This is applied to the hairs and allowed to remain 2 or 3 minutes then rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. When you go to your druggist for delatone be sure you get the genuine article and if he will not supply you the American Proprietary Co. of Boston, will send you a 50c package by mail.

Can't Loose Hair

Twenty Years from Today a Baldheaded Man will be an Unusual Sight

One of the most prominent druggists of America made a statement a few weeks ago which has caused a great deal of discussion among scientists in the medical press. He said: If the new hair grower, Mildredina Hair Remedy, increases its sales as it has during the past year, it will be used by nearly every man, woman and child in America within 8 years.

When Mildredina Hair Remedy is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years from now a bald will be a rarity.

There is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the germs. There is only one hair preparation that will kill the germs and that is Mildredina Hair Remedy. This unusual hair restorer with its record of thousands of cures will grow hair on any head where there is any life left; it will cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp in three weeks or money back. WOMAN COULD HARDLY STAND

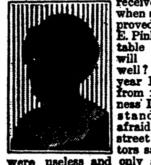
Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.



Fulton, N. Y. — "Why will women pay out their money for treatment and receive no benefit, when so many have proved that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will make them well? For over a year I suffered so from female weakness I could hardly stand and was afraid to go on the street alone. Doctors said medicines were useless and only an operation would help me, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved it otherwise. I am now perfectly well and can do any kind of work."—Mrs. NELLIE PHELPS, care of R. A. Rider, R.F.D. No. 5, Fulton, N. Y.

We wish every woman who suffers from female troubles, nervousness, backache or the blues could see the letters written by women made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have bad symptoms and do not understand the cause, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free.

Real Luck.

At a club meeting recently a South side woman said to a friend:

"Mrs. Whatyoumaycall is the luckiest woman I ever knew."

"Somebody leave her a fortune?" the friend inquired.

"No."

"Then why do you consider her so lucky?"

"The other day she accidentally knocked her percolator off the stove and bent the pedestal."

"Well—"

"And yesterday, when she knocked it off again, the pedestal went back into its proper position."

17-YEAR LOCUST AGAIN DUE

Coming of Periodical Cicada Is Predicted in Pennsylvania by College Professor.

The "17-year locust" is due in Pennsylvania this year, according to C. H. Hadley, Jr., in charge of entomology extension at State college. The pest is what is known as "brood eight of the periodical cicada," and it apeared here last in 1900.

"This is one of the largest insect broods to occur in this state," Hadley says. "While locusts are usually of importance mainly because of the popular interest aroused, it is quite possible that considerable damage may be caused in those places where the insects appear in unusual abundance."—Philadelphia North American.

Roger Williams.

Roger Williams was the founder of the state of Rhode Island. He was born in London in either 1604 or 1605. He refused to join the congregation at Boston because the people would not make public declaration of their repentance for having been in communion with the Church of England. Banished from the Massachusetts Bay colony in 1635, he escaped to the shores of Narragansett bay, accompanied by a few of the adherents of the extreme puritanism which he advocated; he purchased land of the Indians and founded the city of Providence in 1636.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Not Attracted.

"Some day you'll be rich enough to retire from business."

"Give up my nice, pleasant office and stay home?" rejoined Mr. Growcher. "I should say not."

OFFICERS CHOSEN BY FARM SOCIETY

ELECTION MARKS CLOSING SESSION OF CROP IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION'S MEETING.

CONTEST WINNERS NAMED

Valuable Prizes Awarded in Various Divisions—Two Binders Offered in Oats Class—C. L. Blanchar of Sherburn Again President.

Fairmont. — Re-election of all old officers with the exception of one member of the executive committee marked the closing session of the thirteenth annual convention of the Minnesota Crop Improvement association. Officers re-elected follow: C. L. Blanchar, Sherburn, president; C. W. Gotfelter, Waterville, first vice president; L. H. Robbins, Osakis, second vice president; F. H. Gibbs, St. Paul, secretary, and C. P. Bull, university farm, St. Paul, treasurer. Winners in the several events were announced.

A. D. Vansickle of Warren won first place in the barley and flax divisions.

In the oats class, N. C. Rasmusson of Hartlin took first place in the southern section, winning a $125 binder, and George Copp of Warren won the northern section prize, a $132 binder. Mr. Copp also took the sweepstakes event in oats.

Henry Holt of Cokato was first in rye, buckwheat, field peas and wheat.

The first prize for alfalfa went to Gust Raschke of West Brook.

Narum brothers of Hallock took first place for red clover and timothy, and N. Schneider captured the prize for alsike.

N. E. Anderson of St. Peter won the sorghum prize, Mrs. Mike Spefter of Cokato took first place for field beans and Ed Johnson of Fairmont won the millet prize.

Joe Mannix Again at Capitol.

Minneapolis. — Joseph T. Mannix, state expert printer, who has been confined in the Eitel hospital, Minneapolis, for the past three months, has sufficiently recovered to be able to resume his duties at the State Capitol. He has been a sufferer from pernicious anaemia.

"Joe" Mannix, as he is known throughout Minnesota and the Northwest, learned the printer's trade in New York state. He came to Minnesota in the eighties and for twenty years was engaged in reportorial and other capacities on Twin City dailies. He served as a state representative during the 1905 legislative session and in 1907 was chosen state expert printer, which position he has held continuously up to the present time.

Mr. Mannix has hosts of friends among the state officials and the newspaper fraternity, as well as others who will be glad to know of his recovery.

Funds for State Schools.

St. Paul. — Minnesota schools will receive $2.10 for each pupil, the same as last year, under the March semi-annual apportionment of $901,427.10 of current school funds, announced by C. G. Schulz, state superintendent of education. The fund represents the proceeds of the state one mill tax and the income on permanent school funds. Schools conducted for six months minimum are given the allowance for every pupil in attendance forty days or longer.

The current apportionment is based on a total attendance of 429,251 pupils.

Mayor to Keep Bemidji "Clean."

Bemidji. — Mayor Vandersluis, in taking office for the second time, announced he would keep the city as "clean" as he had in the past; urged economy and advocated the construction of a bridge across the Mississippi river to be built by the city bonding itself.

Newport Pioneer Passes.

Newport. — Levi W. Shelton, retired farmer and resident of this place for fifty-six years, died here after an illness of several years. He was 72 years old and was a native of Danbury, Conn., having come to Minnesota in 1861.

Mother and Babies Burned.

Fish Lake. — Mrs. Sander Peterson and her two young children were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their farm home near here. The charred bodies were recovered. The fire, it is believed, resulted from a stove explosion.

St. Charles Remains Wet.

St. Charles. — By a majority of 95 St. Charles has voted to retain its six saloon.

Wreck Near Red Wing.

Red Wing. — One person was seriously injured and many other passengers suffered minor hurts when two coaches of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway's coach train, the eastbound Columbian, left the rails at Eggleston, six miles west of here. One coach turned over on its side. J. Rowland of Sioux Falls, S. D., was severely cut about the head and face. He was attended by physicians from Red Wing, who also aided others suffering from less serious cuts and bruises.

Burton Makes Good Impression.

Minneapolis.—Before 150 members of the University of Minnesota senate, composed of faculty members and student leaders, President-elect Marion Le Roy Burton declared that President George E. Vincent and the regents are altogether right in asking, through the university budget, now in hands of the legislature, funds with which to provide a larger faculty, and to pay bigger salaries to professors.

"It is a basic principle of educational work," he continued, "that you must not only have enough instructors for the classes, but you must pay them sufficient salaries."

This announcement of the incoming president regarding the salary question brought gratification to the face of every instructor present, and when Dr. Burton cited his efforts at Smith college, where he now is president, to keep salaries high enough to retain good instructors, the professors broke into enthusiastic applause."

Turrittin Gets Appointment.

Washington, D. C. — A. H. Turrittin of St. Paul, former superintendent of state banks, has been appointed treasurer and director of the new St. Paul Federal Farm Loan bank, it has just been announced.

E. G. Quamme of Finley, N. D., was appointed president; Ben F. Faast of Eau Claire, Wis., vice president, and H. K. Jennings of Charlotte, Mich., secretary.

Walter S. Harris of Minneapolis and the officers comprise the directorate. F. W. McLean of Fargo, N. D., was appointed registrar and attorney.

The bank is expected to be organized and ready for business by April 1.

County Builds Bridges.

Austin.—Mower county is entering on one of the biggest bridge-building projects ever taken by any one county in the West, according to word received by the State Highway commission, and will spend $200,000 on 102 new bridges. All the old and worn-out wooden structures which are a danger to traffic and which cost large sums for repairs and when washed out in the spring, will be replaced by reinforced concrete bridges. A bond issue of $175,000 was voted recently in a close county election, committing the county to the project.

Less Wheat on Farms.

Washington, D. C.—The amount of wheat on farms in Minnesota March 1 of this year was virtually one-fourth that of a year ago, and half of that of two years ago, according to the government crop report just made public.

The estimated stock this year was 5,790,000 bushels, compared with 19,844,000 a year ago.

The amount of corn on farms in the state on March 1 was 18,570,000 bushels, compared with 9,016,000 a year ago and 26,390,000 two years ago.

Slain in Fight Over Straw.

Becker. — Following a quarrel over some straw, James Murphy, 38 years old, section foreman, shot and killed C. D. Hamilton, a farmer living between Becker and Clear Lake. The shooting occurred on the farm occupied by Hamilton and was witnessed by the victim's wife and two sons.

Murphy, who has lived in this vicinity all his life and is well known, is in jail here charged with murder. Hamilton was 40 years old and has lived in this vicinity three years.

Avery Addresses Farmers.

Fairmont.—Rare natural resources of Minnesota were pointed out by Carlos Avery, state game and fish commissioner, in an illustrated address at the Minneapolis Crop Improvement association's thirteenth annual convention. Advantages to be gained from fostering the fish and game of the state were illustrated by Mr. Avery, who also showed the expense involved in carrying out the work of his department.

Road Credits $1,613,500.

St. Paul.—Credits to the state road and bridge fund for 1917 will total $1,613,500, according to the official estimate furnished by State Auditor Preus to the State Highway Commission to govern its current apportionments. The amount is based on the following items: One mill tax levy, $1,550,000; motor vehicle licenses, $50,000; interest on internal land improvements, $12,000; miscellaneous receipts, $1,500.

Lambert Resigns as Colonel.

St. Paul. — After 27 years of service in the Minnesota National Guard, Col. George C. Lamber, St. Paul, has announced his resignation. He was mustered out of federal service last July, following a decision by federal medical officers, and has nominally remained in state service since.

Sells 20 Steers for $2,900.

Fairmont. — George Johnson of the Triumph stock farm finds it profitable to raise steers, for he has just sold twenty head to M. Seerup of this place for $2,900, an average of $145 a head.

Lutherans to Celebrate in June.

All the congregations in this district, which includes Pipestone, Lakefield, Rose Town, Delafield, Brewster, Windom, Mountain Lake, Butterfield, Okabena, Rushmore, Jasper, Bigelow, Luverne and Worthington, will take part. The program will be conducted in both the German and English language.

NEW UNIVERSITY HEAD WELCOMED BY STATE SOLONS

DR. MARION LE ROY BURTON IS INTRODUCED TO JOINT ASSEMBLY BY FRED B. SNYDER OF REGENT BOARD.

ONCE SOLD NEWSPAPERS IN MILL CITY STREETS

President-elect Receives Ovation—Tells Audience He is "Extremely Receptive and Brutally Independent"—To Devote Life to Institution.

St. Paul, March 10.—The Minnesota legislature in joint session of both houses welcomed a former Minnesota boy back home. The "boy" was Marion LeRoy Burton, once a newsboy in the streets of Minneapolis, returned after 14 years to be president of the state university.

Dr. Burton was introduced by Fred B. Snyder, president of the board of regents, who reviewed the career of the president-elect of the state's greatest institution and asked that the legislators extend him its welcome and take him to their hearts.

Both Houses Applaud.

They did both. The two houses, meeting in the chamber of the House of Representatives, rose when Dr. Burton was introduced and gave him generous applause, but the applause mounted to an ovation after he had addressed them.

The president-elect said he had no policies to announce for the future of the university. He intended to spend the first few months or a year, after taking hold July 3, to "watching the wheels go round."

The university, he was sure, needed no surgical operation. He paid tribute to the leadership of President Vincent and voiced the belief that the legislature and the people of the state were of one mind in desiring to make the university as big and as powerful and as serviceable as it was possible to make it.

Democracy and Education.

Because Mr. Snyder had set forth something of his personal history, Dr. Burton said he felt justified in referring to it himself.

"If I were to tell you my experiences in Minnesota," he said, "what I have undergone, what this state means to me, I could make every man and woman in this room blubber like a baby.

"I never had a cent of money that I didn't earn, every cent came to me through toil. I have no desire to parade my own experience before you, but I want to make this point—that my own experiences in this state, which I love, are a proof of the marvelous connection between democracy and education.

Is Good Listener.

The president-elect told the lawmakers that he was "extremely receptive and brutally independent"; that he was a good listener and wanted to hear from all who might have any suggestion to make about the university. "However," he added, "I want to say that while I possess an open mind, it is not an empty one."

Public Domain Bill Reported.

St. Paul, March 10.—The efficiency and economy bill creating a department of public domain and abolishing a number of boards has been reported to the senate for passage by the committee on civil administration bearing a number of minor amendments.

The bill groups the state land, mines and timber administration and the departments of immigration, game and fish, highways and drainage under a single director of public domain, with each division under a commissioner.

GERMANS HAVE WIRELESS CONNECTION WITH MEXICO

Information of Direct Communication Between Two Countries Reach Government at Washington.

Washington, March 10.—Information has reached the government from a semi-official source that through the perfection of a powerful wireless telegraph plant in Mexico City, direct communication between the Mexican capital and Germany has been established.

Officials realize that if confirmed this news is of great importance and an investigation has been ordered. Through connection by Mexico City with the land telegraphs leading into the United States, Germany would be able to secure complete exemption from the censorship which is now imposed upon its communications by the American government at the wireless stations at Sayville and Tuckerton and by the British and French governments in their control of the Atlantic cables.

Badger Solons Criticize La Follette.

Madison, Wis., March 10. — Senator J. Henry Bennett says he has the signature of 16 senators to an address directed to President Wilson pledging loyalty to him and criticizing Senator La Follette for his part in the recent senatorial filibuster. The State Senate has 33 members.

Sure Test of Diamond.

The fact that real diamonds are phosphorescent after being treated in the following manner is said to make the following test a sure one: First of all, expose the stone for a few minutes to the light of an electric lamp. Then rub briskly on wood or metal. Now take it into a dark place, when the diamond will glow brightly. This does not occur in the case of a false gem.

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save Your Hair! Get a 25 Cent Bottle of Danderine. Right Now—Also Stops Itching Scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, luster and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp. Barber Worked by Pattern.

A man wearing his hair long under a wide western hat and concealing his face behind a beard of much length and breadth strode into the barber shop of the Parker house in Boston and settled into a chair. "Just a minute," he said, searching in a pocket. "Five years ago I came to Boston and got a shave and haircut here. I liked the work so well that I had my picture taken. Here is the picture. That's how I want to look. Do it again." And with the photograph on a stand before him as a pattern, the barber began operations.

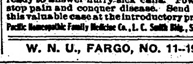
Sudden Death

Before an insurance company will take a risk on your life the examining physician will test your water and report whether you are a good risk. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headache, dizzy spells, or twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism and gout, or sleep is disturbed two or three times a night—take heed, before too late!

You can readily overcome such conditions and prolong life by taking the advice of a famous physician, which is: "Keep the kidneys in good order, avoid too much meat, salt, alcohol or tea. Drink plenty of pure water and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking Anuric, in tablet form." You can obtain Anuric at drug stores, the discovery of Dr. Pierce of Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo.



THE VERY BEST TIME to take Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is now, if you feel that your blood is out of order. Don't wait until you have to cure disease; it's easier and better to prevent it.

With the first blotches or eruption, or the dullness, weariness, and depression that are some of the symptoms, you need this medicine. It will rouse every organ into healthy action, thoroughly cleanse and repair your system, and build up needed flesh, health, and strength. It's the only reliable blood remedy. In the most stubborn Skin or Scalp affections; in the worst forms of Scrofula; in every disease caused by a torpid liver or impure blood—it never fails to benefit or cure.

The machinery of the body needs to be well oiled, kept in good condition just as the automobile, steam engine or bicycle. Most people neglect themselves. To clean the system take a pleasant laxative, such as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. For sale by druggists—25 cents a vial.

BILIOUS, HEADACHY, SICK "CASCARETS"

Gently cleanse your liver and sluggish bowels while you sleep.

Get a 10-cent box.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels of sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Adv.

Heads—She Lost.

The room was full of little girls in pink slips and pigtails. They sat in rows at wooden desks, as quiet as mice. Over them presided a sweet-faced damsel, stern withal. The lesson concerned coins of the realm, and they had been through the entire range, from pennies to silver dollars. One little miss, however, was singularly inattentive. Her gaze was fixed upon a playful sparrow on the window-sill, and she had no thought for coins. Suddenly the teacher pounced upon her. Placing a half-dollar on the pupil's desk, she demanded: "What's that?" "Heads," came the instantaneous reply.

DOUBLY ARMED FRENCH LINER CLEARS NEW YORK

Permission Granted Rochambeau to Depart with Cannon Mounted Fore and Aft—Armed Guard Will Be American Navy Gunners—Neutrals' Action in Doubt.

Washington, March 13.—Formal notice that American ships traversing the German submarine zone are to carry "armed guard for the protection of the vessel and the lives of the persons on board" has been sent by the State department to embassies and legations of all foreign governments in Washington.

Armed Liner Clears.

Permission for clearance of the French liner Rochambeau from New York, the first belligerent merchantman to arrive in an American harbor with guns mounted fore as well as aft, also was granted by the State department, which ruled that the Rochambeau as a passenger-carrying vessel plying usual routes was a peaceable merchantman, entitled to take adequate precautions against illegal attack.

Communication Public.

Following is the text of the communication to foreign envoys as made public by the State department:

"In view of the announcement of the imperial German government on January 31, 1917, that all ships, those of neutrals included, met within certain zones of the high seas, would be sunk without any precaution being taken for the safety of the persons on board and without the exercise of visit and search, the government of the United States has determined to place upon all American merchant vessels sailing through the barred areas an armed guard for the protection of the vessels and the lives of the persons on board."

Mistakes Not Likely.

The official notice will serve to warn submarines of the Allied powers as to America's intentions. British undersea boats, however, are understood to be operated only under convoy, hence there is little likelihood that the armed ships will make mistakes as to recognizing the nationality of submarine.

The notification, it is expected, will be sent to Germany by the Swiss legation here. No obstacle will be placed in the way of such action. Whether other neutral governments will admit American armed ships to their ports is a question for them to decide, but it is not expected here that objections will be made. Holland is the only neutral known to have barred armed merchantmen from her harbors.

Conference at White House.

State department officials did not wish to make it clear whether it was mandatory for all American vessels to have arms or whether they might sail without them if they so desired. The Navy department position is that it will equip with arms all ships whose owners apply for it.

The State department gave out the copy of its statement shortly after Secretary Lansing had conferred at the White House with President Wilson.

The armed guard will be American navy gunners. The official statement shows, too, that it is the intention of the government to arm not only passenger steamers, but also to provide guns and navy gunners for munition ships.

TAUSSIG HEADS NEW BOARD

Professor Named By Wilson for Tariff Commission.

Washington, March 13.—Professor Frank W. Taussig of Harvard university, has been selected by President Wilson as chairman of the new tariff commission of six members. Daniel G. Roper, democrat, of South Carolina, former first assistant postmaster general, and former Representative William M. Kent, republican, of California, are other probable members. The following are under consideration: E. P. Costigan of Denver; Professor Irving Fisher of Yale; E. E. Pratt, chief of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, and Miss Ira Tarbell, a writer.

Swiss Feed Yarrowdale Americans.

Zurich, Switzerland, March 13.—Laden with cigars, cigarettes and food showered upon them by the hospitable Swiss, 59 of the new historic Yarrowdale prisoners are in Zurich, after a continuous trip from the prison camp at Brandenburg to the German frontier at Lindau. The sailors, although emaciated from imprisonment and serious lack of food since their arrival in Germany Dec. 31, are in fair condition and confident they will soon be themselves again. The party was met here by Consul Keene.

CANADA'S BONUS TO FARM LABORERS

Offering 160 Acres to Farm Hands.

Canada today, with the great demand that is made upon it for foodstuffs, finds itself almost in the throes of a labor famine. A novel means of solving the problem has been evolved by the Canadian Government at Ottawa on Wednesday last, when it was decided to practically bonus every farmhand going to Canada, by giving him 160 acres free as a homestead, and to allow the time he would be working out for, the good wages offered, to count as residence duties on the homestead. Western Canada has been a big producer of grain and it is estimated that there is a shortage of over thirty thousand men, necessary to produce an average crop in 1917. This shortage has been caused by so many young men having left the farms to go to war, and it is essential to make an unprecedented offer of this kind, to fill their places on the land at once.

It has been required in the past to do three years' duties on homesteads to get title, but an additional inducement has been offered by practically reducing this term to two years. As explained by an official of the Canadian Government, Canada's need for farm laborers is intense, and exceptional inducements are being offered to get the needed farm workers at once. A farmhand will make his entry for one of the 160-acre farms, satisfy the Government that he is working for a farmer and that time will apply as residence on the land filed for, just the same as if he was actually living on it.—Advertisement.

Swearing Off.

"Why are you so strong for prohibition?"

"Well," replied Uncle Bill Bottletop, "a country is a good deal like an individual. After havin' had liquor without limit for a period of years, it's a mighty good thing to go without for awhile."—Washington Star.

With the Fingers! Says Corns Lift Out Without Any Pain

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn can shortly be lifted right out with the fingers if you will apply on the corn a few drops of freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

At little cost one can get a small bottle of freezone at any drug store, which will positively rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain or soreness or the danger of infection.

This new drug is an ether compound, and dries the moment it is applied and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding skin. Just think! You can lift off your corns and calluses now without a bit of pain or soreness. If your druggist hasn't freezone he can easily get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR A CHILD'S BOWELS

It is cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.

His Stroke of Luck.

"I've had a bit of luck. I picked up $100 day before yesterday, and, learning this morning that it belonged to that old miser Marx, I returned it to him."

"I see; and he gave you a reward."

"Oh, no; but he didn't charge me any interest for the two days I had it."

An eloquent prayer doesn't get any higher than the other kind.

TRIAL BY ORDEAL IN POISONING CASE IS URGED BY DEFENSE

TESTS TO PROVE INNOCENCE OF PRISONERS CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY TO MURDER SUGGESTED.

APPEAL OF MOHAMMEDAN LAWYER PUZZLES JUDGE

Application for Revival of Ancient Method of Conducting Trial Rejected—Mysterious Secret Government Agent Fails to Testify.

London, March 12.—In an eloquent and vigorous speech in summing up the case of the four prisoners on trial charged with conspiring to murder Lloyd George and Arthur Henderson, member of the war council, S. H. Riza, the Mohammedan lawyer, who is acting as attorney for the defendants, startled the courtroom by suggesting a trial by ordeal. He referred to the medieval form of judicial trial in which in the place of evidence supernatural aid is invoked as in a test by fire, water, poison or other agencies.

Witness Not Produced.

Attorney Riza had been endeavoring to impress the jury with the alleged sinister significance of the failure of the crown to produce a certain witness against the four defendants—Mrs. Alice Weeldon, her two daughters and Alfred George Mason, husband of one of the daughters. This person, he said, was a man who should have been its principal witness, namely the mysterious secret government agent known as "Gordon."

Suggests Trial by Ordeal.

The attorney declared Gordon was a police spy who had started the whole plot, who had lured the defendants on and then when he had got them well within his net had handed them over to another agent named Booth so that his own connection with the case would not be so flagrantly apparent.

Then after a long and impressive pause Attorney Riza suddenly said: "In the absence of Gordon I would suggest that the defendants should have a trial by ordeal."

Judge Is Puzzled.

The judge was puzzled and said: "I fear that would be impossible. It has been abolished. Do you seriously suggest the ladies should walk over hot ploughshares in order to prove their innocence?"

Riza: "I do."

The judge: "It is no use submitting such a suggestion. You are not serious."

Riza: "I do sincerely suggest it."

FALL OF BAGDAD REPORTED

London Paper Prints Unofficial News of Capture.

London, March 12.—The Daily Chronicle says that it is virtually certain that the British troops now are in Bagdad and that official confirmation of this may be expected at any moment.

The Chronicle's military correspondent, upon whose information the assertion apparently is based, writes:

"One is entitled to assume that the city was occupied without any serious fighting and we probably shall learn that our cavalry dashed through it and along the Tigris toward Samdra."

MOVE STRENGTHENS MARKET

Stocks Respond to U. S. Decision to Arm Merchant Ships.

New York, March 12.—Responding to the administration decision to arm American merchantmen, Marine jumped 1¼ points at the stock market opening Saturday.

General strength was shown in other issues, with United States Steel touching 112⅞, an advance of ⅝ over Friday's close.

Crucible Steel opened at 68½, up ⅝; General Motors 119⅞, up ⅞; Central Leather 93½, up ½; Utah Copper 115, up 1¼.

FREIGHTER REPORTED SUNK

French Steamer Ohio Torpedoed, New York Hears.

New York, March 12.—A report is current in shipping circles that the 8-700-ton freight steamship Ohio flying the French flag has been torpedoed. The vessel left here February 19 and is overdue in Havre. The French line said it had no confirmation of the report but had cabled for information. The Ohio, one of the largest freighters in the Allied service, was well armed.

German Swindler Held.

New York, March 12.—Max Wex, a native of Hamburg, is under arrest here charged with swindling Germans in different parts of the country by means of a machine said to be capable of reproducing paper currency. The police say they have complaints from Germans in New York, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Chicago and other places. Frank Sternberg of this city told the police that Wex assured him that he had been sent out by the German government on a mission to entangle the currency in this country.

Saves Eggs

Royal Baking Powder makes it possible to produce appetizing and wholesome cakes, muffins, cornbread, etc., with fewer eggs than are usually required.

In many recipes the number of eggs may be reduced and excellent results obtained by using an additional quantity of Royal Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, for each egg omitted. The following tested recipe is a practical illustration:

SPONGE CAKE

1 cup sugar
½ cup water
3 eggs
2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1 cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ cup cold water
1 teaspoon flavoring

DIRECTIONS:—Boil sugar and water until syrup spins a thread and add to the stiffly beaten whites of eggs, beating until the mixture is cold. Sift together three times the flour, salt and baking powder; beat yolks of eggs until thick; add a little at a time flour mixture and egg yolks alternately to white of egg mixture, stirring after each addition. Add ⅛ cup cold water and flavoring. Mix lightly and bake in moderate oven one hour.

The old method called for six eggs and no baking powder

Canada Offers 160 Acres Free to Farm Hands

Bonus of Western Canada Land to Men Assisting in Maintaining Needed Grain Production

The demand for farm labor in Canada is great. As an inducement to secure the necessary help at once, Canada will give

ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY ACRES OF LAND FREE AS A HOMESTEAD

and allow the time of the farm laborer, who has filed on the land, to apply as residence duties, the same as if he actually had lived on it. Another special concession is the reduction of one year in the time to complete duties. Two years instead of three as heretofore, but only to men working on the farms for at least six months in 1917. This appeal for farm help is in no way connected with enlistment for military service but solely to increase agricultural output. A wonderful opportunity to secure a farm and draw good wages at the same time. Information as to low railway rates may be had on application to

Twenty Years from Today a Baldheaded Man will be an Unusual Sight

One of the most prominent druggists of America made a statement a few weeks ago which has caused a great deal of discussion among scientists in the medical press. He said: If the new hair grower, Mildredina Hair Remedy, increases its sales as it has during the past year, it will be used by nearly every man, woman and child in America within 6 years.

When Mildredina Hair Remedy is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years frim now a bald will be a rarity

There is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the germs. There is only one hair preparation that will kill the germs and that is Mildredina Hair Remedy. This unusual hair restorer with its record of thousands of cures will grow hair on any head where there is any life left; it will cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp in three weeks or money back. It is the most pleasant and invigorating tonic, is not not sticky nor greasy and is used extensively by ladies of refinement who desire to have and to keep their hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant. Fifty cents for a large bottle of druggists everywhere. Mail orders filled by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass.

A Smooth Hairless Skin for Women

From Beauty Secrets

With the aid of a plain delatone paste it is an easy matter to rid the skin of unsightly hairy growths. The paste is made by mixing some water with powdered delatone. This is applied to the hairs not wanted and after 2 or 3 minutes rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. When you go to your druggist for delatone be sure you get the genuine article, and if he will not supply you, the American Proprietary Co. of Boston, will send you a 50c or $1.00 package by mail.

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver and bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Adv.

PRICES OF FISH HAVE RISEN

Why Product of the Sea Should Cost as Much as Choice Steaks Is Question Asked.

One of the inexplicable things in connection with the tremendous increase in the cost of foodstuffs in New York is the rise in the price of fish. Nothing gives a more specific evidence of the necessity of some sort of regulation to prevent artificial price making, a New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Times-Star says. Neither the freight congestion nor the increased demand which prosperity has brought can be argued as a cause. Fish cost more simply because the dealers have the opportunity to charge more. Spanish mackerel, brought a few miles into New York harbor by the fishermen, are now selling for as much per pound as the choicest steaks.

Only a few months ago, when a local newspaper chartered a score of big fishing boats and opened sale stations all over the city, it was possible for housewives to buy the choicest and freshest fish at 6 cents a pound. It was contended and it is no doubt true that an inexhaustible supply of fish is ready to the nets near New York and that the cost of taking them is small. It is a common thing for dealers to dump cargoes of fresh food fish into the harbor, after they have bought them, in order that an oversupply may not reduce prices.

"Well," queried the teacher, "what is your word?"

Then came the reply: "'Pious, full of pie!'"—Tit-Bits.

"There's a Reason"

ADAMSON RAIL ACT IS CONSTITUTIONAL HIGH COURT RULES

EIGHT-HOUR RAILROAD LAW VALID IN ALL RESPECTS—ESTABLISHES STANDARD FOR DAY'S WORK AND WAGES.

CONGRESS HAS RIGHT TO REGULATE WAGES

Nation's Highest Tribunal By Vote of 5 to 4 Settles Controversy—Chief Justice Writes Opinion—Reviews President's Efforts—400,000 Men Win Wage Increases.

Washington, March 20.—The Adamson eight-hour railroad law has been held constitutional and valid in all respects by the supreme court.

The decision makes eight hours the standard of a day's work and wages for men in operation of trains and legalizes the wage increases which went into tentative effect on its passage.

Upholds Right of Congress.

Besides declaring the Adamson law constitutional, the highest tribunal held congress has a right to legislate on wages.

The court's decision was 5 to 4, with Justices William R. Day, Mahlon Pitney and Willis Van Deventer dissenting from the bench and Justice J. C. McReynolds later announcing his non-concurrence.

The immediate temporary wage increases won by the railroad employees affect 400,000 trainmen as of Jan. 1 and are estimated to total between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000.

Hook's Ruling Reversed.

Federal Judge W. C. Hook's ruling in the Missouri, Oklahoma & Gulf railroad test case, enjoining enforcement of the Adamson act and holding it "unconstitutional, null and void," was reversed.

The majority opinion was handed down by Chief Justice Edward D. White.

In announcing the opinion, the chief justice reviewed the negotiations leading to the enactment of the law. He did not read from a prepared opinion, giving it apparently from memory. He told of the president's efforts to avert the strike last September.

Reviews Wilson's Efforts.

"He suggested arbitration. The employers accepted and the employees refused," said the chief justice. "He then suggested a basic eight-hour day standard. The employers rejected that and the employees accepted."

How the president went to congress was then recited.

"Congress passed the law that is before us and the carriers refused to recognize it," he continued. He said the agreement to expedite the case was "very laudable."

Eight-Hour Provision Paramount.

In the early course of the opinion the chief justice said the law was both an eight-hour day act and also a wage fixing statute. He said it "strips the parties of the power of contract" as to wages. He said the eight-hour provision was the paramount feature.

SOURCE OF BIG GERMAN WAR LOANS IS MYSTERY

Issue Raises Question Among Financial Experts — Foreign Trade Ceases—Few Workmen Left.

Berne, March 20.—The issue of Germany's sixth war loan again has raised the question as to the sources of the empire's sinews of war. Financial experts point out the German people are living more economically than before, while earnings have greatly increased and capital formerly used in carrying on the foreign trade of the country has been invested in war bonds.

Two facts which cannot be dodged are that nearly the entire ablebodied male population has been withdrawn from production and has become a burden and that foreign trade practically has ceased.

To Loan to Farmers at 5 Per Cent.

Washington, March 20.—The Farm Loan board announces that the interest rate on all loans made to farmers throughout the country by federal land banks would be 5 per cent. A rate of 4½ per cent on bonds to be issued by the land banks also was officially announced.

Chinese Take German Concessions.

Peking, March 20.—Chinese troops have occupied without opposition the German concessions at Tien-tsin and Hankow. The Dutch have taken over the German consulates.

Oregon National Forest Enlarged.

Washington D. C., March 20.—Acting under the authority of a special act of Congress, approved September 8, 1916, the President has, on recommendation of the Secretary of Agriculture, signed a proclamation adding approximately 50,000 acres to the Whitman National forest, Oregon. The lands involved are situated on the divide between the John Day, Powder and Burnt rivers. Over 4,000 acres consist of timber lands. As the result of suits by the United States, the patents had been canceled.

PAYS FOR 160 ACRES OF LAND

From the Crop of Wheat on 53 Acres in Western Canada.

This story of paying for your land out of one year's crop is fully authenticated by a great many farmers in Western Canada.

And now, all that the farmer makes is velvet and you find him going more extensively into stock raising, for all authorities agree that in a short time there will be a demand for live stock, such as even will tax the vast resources of Western Canada. They will go into stock raising because of the adaptability of the country to provide food and fodder without feeding grain if necessary. They will go into stock and improve their places. They will install steam and heating plants—in fact, many are now doing it. They will have automobiles, in fact in many districts there is not a farmer but has one. They will beautify their homes and erect fine barns until the whole country will be as attractive as many of the counties in the best states in the Union. But we started out to tell you of the farmer who paid for 160 acres of land from the crop of wheat off of 53 acres. The Holden district on the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific does not appear to the ordinary observer to be any better than many other districts along that line, and probably isn't. It was in this district that John Larcome, a settler, purchased in 1915 160 acres of raw prairie land. He broke and seeded 53 acres. His crop turned out well, and he sold the greater portion of it for $2,970. His land cost him $16.50 per acre, or $2,640. So that the crop from the 53 acres paid for the land and left a balance of over $300, which with part of the crop left over would just pay for the cost of operation. This is not really an unusual case, hundreds of other farmers in Alberta and Saskatchewan having been able to do the same.

Sales of land are being reported from many districts in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta at good prices. And values are yet low, but with the flow of any value that will take place after the war, no doubt they will be considerably increased. The homesteads in the Park sections which are to be had actually free are having the attention of a good class of settlers, who want to go into mixed farming.—Advertisement.

Paints King by Proxy.

King Alfonso of Spain, absorbed by his occupation, has been unable to give the necessary number of sittings to Carlo Vasquez, who is engaged in painting the monarch's portrait. Senor Vasquez, however, has solved the difficulty. No matter at what time one visits his studio the king can be seen there sitting in a familiar pose in the uniform of a colonel of infantry.

If one examines the sovereign attentively it can be seen that he retains his immovability—it is a wax figure which represents him. The figure and attitude of Alfonso have been exactly copied and he will have to pose only for the face and hands.

"CASCARETS" ACT ON LIVER; BOWELS

No sick headache, biliousness, bad taste or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box.

Are you keeping your bowels, liver, and stomach clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with Salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters?

Stop having a bowel wash-day. Let Cascarets thoroughly cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken or cause any inconvenience, and cost only 10 cents a box from your store. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Biliousness, Coated Tongue, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipation. Adv.

U. S. VESSELS SUNK; RAIL STRIKE OFF; WAR IS IMMINENT

GERMAN U-BOATS GET THREE AMERICAN CRAFT—FEELING IS MOST INTENSE

RAIL HEADS AVERT STRIKE AS WAR MENACE NEARS

Unofficial Washington Thinks Virtual Warfare Already Exists —Technical Status Is Same as Before.

London, March 18.—The sinking of the American steamships City of Memphis, Illinois and Vigilancia was announced today. Fourteen men from the Vigilancia are missing, as are some of the men from the City of Memphis. The crew of the Illinois landed safely.

The City of Memphis, in ballast from Cardiff for New York, was sunk by gun fire. The second officer and fifteen men of the crew have been landed. A patrol boat has gone in search of the other members of the crew. The Illinois, from London for Port Arthur, Tex., in ballast, was sunk at 8 o'clock this morning.

Vigilancia Not Warned.

The Vigilancia was torpedoed without warning. The submarine did not appear. The captain, first and second mates, first, second and third engineers and 23 men of the crew have been landed at the Scilly islands. The fourth engineer and thirteen men are missing.

Memphis Sunk Saturday.

London, March 18.—The American vessel, City of Memphis, which left Cardiff Friday in ballast for New York was sunk Saturday. When she left port the City of Memphis had the Stars and Stripes painted on both sides. She encountered a submarine about 5 o'clock Saturday evening. The German commander ordered the captain of the steamer to leave his ship within 15 minutes.

The entire crew entered five boats and the submarine then fired a torpedo which struck the vessel, tearing a great hole. The ship foundered within a few minutes.

Virtual Warfare Now Exists.

Washington, March 18.—With the announcement of the ruthless destruction of three unarmed American merchant ships by submarines it was unofficially admitted here tonight that virtually a state of war exists between the United States and Germany. Technically the United States remains in a position of armed neutrality. Whether this shall be changed between April 16, the date fixed for a special session of congress, the war-making branch of the government, President Wilson has not decided.

One step the president is contemplating is a call for an immediate session of congress to hear an address asking for authority to adopt aggressive measures against the submarine menace. Already American ships are being armed to defend themselves; the next move must be to send warships with orders to seek out submarines and clear the trans-Atlantic lanes.

RAIL HEADS AVERT STRIKE

Chairman Lee Issues Letter Conceding Government's Request

New York, March 19.—The conference committee of railroad managers early this morning authorized President Wilson's mediators to make whatever arrangements were necessary with the railroad brotherhoods to call off the threatened strike.

The formal letter in which this authorization was made, signed by Elisha Lee, chairman of the managers' committee, was as follows:

"In the national crisis precipitated by events of which we heard this afternoon the national conference of railroads joins with you in the conviction that neither at home nor abroad should there be fear or hope that the efficient operation of the railroads of the country will be hampered or impaired.

Assures no Strike

"Therefore you are authorized to assure the nation there will be no strike, and as a basis for such assurance we hereby authorize the committee of the council of national defense to grant to the employes who are about to strike whatever adjustment your committee deems necessary to guarantee the uninterrupted and efficient operation of the railroads as an indispensible arm of national defense."

The decision reached by the managers at their midnight conference means that the brotherhoods have won an important victory altho it does not bring them all their original demands. By the agreement it is assumed they will be awarded pro rata time for overtime on the basic 8-hour day which they have been assured.

Berlin Announces Retreat.

Berlin, March 18.—via Sayville.—Systematic retirement of the German troops between Arras and the Oise on the French front is announced by the war office today. Peronne, Noyon, Bapaume, Roye and several other towns have been abandoned by the Germans.

Peronne was one of the strongholds of the Germans on the Franco-Belgian front. It is a town of about 4,000, on the Somme, and is of strategical importance on account of its railway and high road connections.

BIRD UTILIZES SNAKE SKIN

Various Reasons Advanced by Naturalists for the Action of the Crested Fly-Catcher.

Habit of generations leads the crested fly-catcher to select a dried snake skin to line his nest. There are various explanations of why he does it. Some naturalists believe it is an effort on the part of the bird to render the nest waterproof. Others think the dried skin serves as a burglar alarm, to rattle at the approach of a squirrel or another enemy and warn the bird to defend his home.

He builds his nest in hollow trees, stumps or posts, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. Sometimes he rents the abandoned home of a woodpecker. Prof. H. A. Surface, Pennsylvania state zoologist, tells of one that usurped a rural mail box for his flat; of recent years they have been known to inhabit box homes put up for their special benefit.

So if you want to encourage the crested fly-catcher, build him a box nest. He'll pay his rent many times over. He eats beetles, flies, grasshoppers, butterflies and moths, and few insects are speedy enough to escape the snapping of his bill.

ANY CORN LIFTS OUT, DOESN'T HURT A BIT!

No foolishness! Lift your corns and calluses off with fingers—It's like magic!

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn, can harmlessly be lifted right out with the fingers if you apply upon the corn a few drops of freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

For little cost one can get a small bottle of freezone at any drug store, which will positively rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain.

This simple drug dries the moment it is applied and does not even irritate the surrounding skin while applying it or afterwards.

This announcement will interest many of our readers. If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to surely get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

Died of Premature Old Age!

(BY V. M. PIERCE, M. D.)

How many times we hear of comparatively young persons passing away when they should have lived to be 70 or 80 years of age. This fatal work is usually attributed to the kidneys, as, when the kidneys degenerate, it causes auto-intoxication. The more injurious the poisons passing thru the kidneys, the quicker will those noble organs be degenerated, and the sooner they decay.

To prevent premature old age and promote long life, lighten the work of the kidneys by drinking plenty of pure water all day long, and occasionally taking a little Anuric before meals. This can be obtained at almost any drug store. Anuric will overcome such conditions as rheumatism, dropsical swellings, cold extremities, scalding and burning urine and sleeplessness due to constant arising.

YOU GET STRONG, if you're a tired-out or "run-down" woman, with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. And, if you suffer from any "female complaint" or disorder, you get well. For these two things—to build up women's strength, and to cure women's ailments—this is the best medicine to benefit or cure. The "Prescription" regulates and promotes all the natural functions, never conflicts with them, and is perfectly harmless in any condition of the female system. It brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and vigor.

If you eat the right foods, and not too much of them, the poisons in your system can be kept down and thrown out by taking a natural laxative, such as that composed of May-apple, juice of aloes, root of jalap, sugar-coated, and long sold by all druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Get them to-day.

Canada Offers 160 Acres Free to Farm Hands

Bonus of Western Canada Land to Men Assisting in Maintaining Needed Grain Production

The demand for farm labor in Canada is great. As an inducement to secure the necessary help at once, Canada will give

ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY ACRES OF LAND FREE AS A HOMESTEAD

and allow the time of the farm laborer, who has filed on the land, to apply as residence duties, the same as if he actually had lived on it. Another special concession is the reduction of one year in the time to complete duties. Two years instead of three as heretofore, but only to men working on the farms for at least six months in 1917. This appeal for farm help is in no way connected with enlistment for military service but solely to increase agricultural output. A wonderful opportunity to secure a farm and draw good wages at the same time. Canadian Government will pay all fare over one cent per mile from St. Paul or Duluth to Canadian destination. Information as to low railway rates may be had on application to

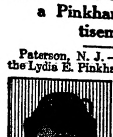
WOMAN NOW IN PERFECT HEALTH

What Came From Reading a Pinkham Advertisement.



Paterson, N. J.—"I thank you for the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies as they have made me well and healthy. Sometime ago I felt so run down, had pains in my back and side, was very irregular, tired, nervous, had such bad dreams, did not feel like eating and had short breath. I read your advertisement in the newspapers and decided to try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It worked from the first bottle, so I took a second and a third, also a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier, and now I am just as well as any other woman. I advise every woman, single or married, who is troubled with any of the aforesaid ailments, to try your wonderful Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and I am sure they will help her to get rid of her troubles as they did me."—Mrs. ELSIE J. Ambiguous.

"My husband's a brute," sobbed the pretty bride.

"What has he done?" asked her sympathetic friend.

"I told him today I had a letter saying mother was ill and couldn't come to visit us."

"And what did he do?"

"He said—he said he hoped it was nothing trivial."

GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER

Few persons can be sick who use Green's August Flower. It has been used for all ailments that are caused by a disordered stomach and inactive liver, such as sick headache, constipation, sour stomach, nervous indigestion, fermentation of food, palpitation of the heart from gases created in the stomach, pains in the stomach, and many other organic disturbances. August Flower is a gentle laxative, regulates digestion, both in the stomach and intestines, cleans and sweetens the stomach and whole alimentary canal, and stimulates the liver to secrete the bile and impurities from the blood. Try it. Two doses will relieve you. Used for fifty years in every town and hamlet in the United States and in all civilized countries.—Adv.

RUSSIAN REGENT ALSO ABDICATES FOLLOWING CZAR

NAMED AS REGENT BY RETIRING EMPEROR HE HIMSELF QUITS BRINGING ROMANOFF DYNASTY TO END.

MONARCHY FOR THE TIME BEING DOES NOT EXIST

Duma Committee to Rule Until Constitutional Assembly Meets and Order Returns to Country With New Regime at Helm, Receiving Support of People.

Petrograd, March 19. — Emperor Nicholas abdicated on behalf of himself and the heir apparent, Grand Duke Alexis, in favor of Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch.

Now Grand Duke Michael himself has abdicated, thus bringing the Romanoff dynasty to an end.

The government, pending a meeting of the constitutional assembly is vested in the executive committee of the Duma and the newly chosen council of ministers. A manifesto to this effect has been issued by the Duma committee and it was telegraphed to the general army headquarters.

Russia appears to be in a fair way toward solving the greatest problem with which, perhaps, any nation was ever confronted. Order is growing with incredible rapidity out of the chaos of the last week and the new government, gathering up the broken threads of national and municipal life is striving to set the organization of the country in motion so that the conduct of the war will suffer as little as possible from the revolution.

The members of the new ministry already have assumed their posts and the government buildings, empty and deserted for four days, are again open for official business. The banks, all the commercial and financial houses, and some of the factories, have already responded to the new government's appeal, opened their doors and express a willingness to do everything in their power to effect as quick a recovery as possible from the paralysis of the last week. The soldier-policemen are guarding the streets in place of the old gendarmes.

Masses of soldiers and others daily gather around the Duma building where remarkable scenes are taking place. The lobby seethes with earnest colloquies and mob oratory mingles with calls for patriotic work and self-sacrifice.

Hundreds of messages have been received from all over the country, declaring the allegiance of important cities and fortresses to the new regime. Moscow, Kharkhov, Tsaritsyn and Vologda already have formally acknowledged the new government. Supported by unanimous vote the present government is really a government of the people.

IRISH OPPOSITION MAY FORCE BRITISH ELECTION

Bonar Law Appeals Eloquently to All Factions to Join in Negotiations to Settle Questions.

London, March 17.—If the Irish party members continue their opposition to the Lloyd George government, a general election will be forced and England's activity in the war will be paralyzed, according to the chancellor of exchequer, Andrew Bonar Law, in a statement made in the house of commons.

He appealed eloquently to all Irish members to join in negotiations designed to effect a settlement of the Irish question. He declared an appeal to the country might be forced on the ground that the nationalists were unwilling to permit the government to get on with the war.

EXECUTION OF CREWS OF U. S. SHIPS THREATENED

German Paper Says Gunners Who Fire on U-Boats May Expect Fate of Captain Fryatt.

Berne, Switzerland, March 17.—The crews of armed American merchantmen who venture to fire on German submarines must expect to meet the fate of Captain Fryatt, warns the Muenchner Neueste Nachrichten, in commenting on the announcement of the state department that American merchantmen will be armed.

Captain Charles Fryatt of the Great Eastern Railway steamer Brussels was tried before a German naval court martial in July, 1916, and sentenced to hang on a charge that he had attempted to ram the German submarine U. 33.

Predicts More Effective Education.

New York, March 17.—In its annual summary of educational research work, the General Education board, established by John D. Rockefeller, states that a more effective and more economical education ultimately should result from the new scientific attitude toward proposed innovations as well as established traditions. The board put aside $900,000 for 10 colleges in various parts of the country during the year ending June 30. It had on hand at that time funds totaling $45,735,440.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT, BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Make It Thick, Glossy, Wavy, Luxuriant and Remove Dandruff—Real Surprise for You.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store and just try it. Adv.

A Day's Wage.

It is interesting to note the definition of a living wage as formulated by the court of industrial arbitration of New South Wales in 1914:

"The living wage is standardized as the wage which will do neither more nor less than enable a worker of the class to which the lowest wage would be awarded to maintain himself, his wife and two children—the average dependent family—in a house of three rooms and a kitchen, with food, plain and inexpensive, but quite sufficient in quantity and quality to maintain health and efficiency, and with an allowance for the following other expenses: Fuel, clothes, boots, furniture, utensils, rates, life insurance, savings, accident or benefit societies, loss of employment, union pay, books and newspapers, train and tram fares, sewing machine, mangle, school requisites, amusements and holiday intoxicating liquors, tobacco, sickness and death, domestic help, unusual contingencies, religion, or charity."—National Geographic Magazine.

THE 3 D'S IN DODD'S

Mr. Robert W. Ferguson, Hingham, Mass., writes: I suffered from kidney disorder for years. Had incessant backache and trouble. Nearly died from it at one time while in Vancouver, but overcame it by a persistent use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Finally I was completely cured. I occasionally use the remedy now in order to keep the kidneys regulated. I have the highest praise for Dodd's. Be sure to get "DODD'S," the name with the three D's for deranged, disordered, diseased kidneys, just as Mr. Ferguson did. No similar named article will do.—Adv.

Airship Losses in Europe.

An official recapitulation in Berlin of the statistics of airship losses during the year 1916 indicates that the Germans lost 221 machines and their opponents sacrificed 784. The bulk of the losses on both sides was in the West, where the Germans lost 181 airships and the English and French 739, it is declared.

FRECKLES

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription othine — double strength — is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from your druggist, and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than one ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Adv.

FIRST MINNESOTA IS MUSTERED OUT

INFANTRY REGIMENT IS LAST OF STATE TROOPS TO LEAVE FEDERAL SERVICE.

FORT SNELLING IS DESERTED

Group of Mustering Officers Expected to Return to Mexican Border—Last Issue of "Border Patrol" Contains Appeal for Universal Service.

Fort Snelling.—With the mustering out of the First Minnesota infantry the long line of Gopher and Flickertail guardsmen who have passed through the hands of the mustering officers at Fort Snelling is ended and the group of officers will depart. The First infantry received $27,000 in gold for 14 days' pay and clothing allowance, together with the best wishes of Colonel Erle D. Luce, who complimented the men on their excellent showing. He said the border trip had cemented the friendship between the two cities.

The last issue of "The Border Patrol," the popular magazine published by the soldiers while on the border, was issued to the men. Among other things, it carried a strong editorial appeal for universal military service.

Captain L. P. Butler and Captain C. H. Danforth are the assisting officers in the mustering group. The fort will be deserted except for Captain L. F. D. Rucker, quartermaster and post commander, with his staff of 20 men.

To Develop Lake of Woods Power.

Winona. — Immediate development of water power in the Lake of the Woods region is expected to follow the early adoption by the international joint commission of the United States and Great Britain of the report to be made to that body April 3, according to James A. Tawney, member of the commission.

The special commission has been working on the report for the past five years and it is expected to be formally passed upon at the next semi-annual meeting. A special meeting has been called for March 30 at Washington to receive the report from the committee.

The report will recommend the most advantageous use of waters of the Lake of the Woods and the waters into and from the lake, also an agreement as to compensation to riparian land owners and others who would suffer loss and damage on account of the overflowing of their lands; according to Tawney.

Veteran Newspaperman Dies.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Smith B. Hall, veteran newspaperman, who had lived in Minneapolis most of the time since 1884, died early Friday in Eitel hospital where he had been ill for 10 days with pneumonia.

Mr. Hall came to Minneapolis after spending two years as editor of a newspaper in Fergus Falls, Minn. He was Minneapolis representative of the St. Paul Globe and later was managing editor of that paper. He also was city editor of the Minneapolis Times and at one time city editor of the Kansas City Star. He was employed for a time by papers in Omaha, Neb. About 15 years ago he was a member of the New York Journal staff.

U. S. to Call Naval Militia.

St. Paul. — Positive announcement that the Minnesota Naval militia, in common with other Federal naval forces, will be called out soon has been made in St. Paul by Captain Guy W. Eaton, Duluth, commander of the Minnesota units, on his return from Washington, where he conferred with navy officers. "They told me to go home and get ready and that I would be back very soon with the Minnesota naval militiamen," said Captain Eaton. "Everything looks like business."

Grade Permit Mixed Durum.

St. Paul. — New Federal wheat grades will permit a percentage of mixed durum in spring wheat as now carried in Minnesota grades O. P. B. Jacobson of the State Railroad and Warehouse Commission announced on his return from Washington where at the direction of the state Legislature, he attended the final hearing on the Federal grain grading act. Resolution of the Minnesota Legislature urging adoption of established grades carried great weight.

$2,000,000 Road Pledged.

Minneapolis. — A hard surface road, built of brick or concrete, to extend across the state of Minnesota at a cost of $2,000,000, has been pledged by the Minnesota division of the Yellowstone Trail association at the annual state meeting here. Minnesota is the eighth state to pledge such a road to be completed before 1920.

Recruiting Begun at University.

Minneapolis.—Under the direction of the secretary of the navy, recruiting of officers in the United States Marine corps has been started among the men students in the senior class at the University of Minnesota. Four students in the senior class will be appointed second lieutenants in the Marine corps immediately. They will be recommended by President Vincent and the commandant of the University Cadet corps, and, after taking a physical examination, will be given commissions upon graduation.

Tonoline is Beauty Aid Announces Specialist

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said, "Take tonoline.

Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies--stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the of the blood--and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:--As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

Finest Dates Grow There.

Beyond the land of the Berbers, in the far south of Morocco, lies the great oasis of Tafilet, famous for its vast groves of date-palms. Here, for hundreds of square miles, the land is covered with a thick growth of the tall, straight stems of the palm, and the product of these close-growing trees is enormous in quantity. They produce the finest dates in the world.

Fast on the Wing.

Homing pigeons in calm weather can travel at a speed of 1,200 yards a minute. With a brisk wind prevailing and blowing in the direction of its flight, a pigeon has been known to make 1,900 yards a minute.

Invented in 1589.

The knitting frame was invented in 1589 by William Lee, a graduate of Cambridge university and a native of Woodborough, near Nottingham, England. So perfect was the invention in every detail that to this day the essential feaures of the machine continue in use for the class of work to which Lee applied it.

Above Them All.

Twenty Years from Today a Baldheaded Man Will be an Unusual Sight

One of the most prominent druggists of America made a statemant a few weeks ago which has caused a great deal of discussion among scientists in the medical press. He said: If the new hair grower, Mildredina Hair Remedy, increases its sales as it has during the past year, it will be used by nearly every man, woman and child in America within 8 years.

When Mildredina Hair Remedy is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years frim now a bald will be a rarity.

There is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the germs. There is only one hair preparation that will kill the germs and that is Mildredina Hair Remedy. This unusual hair restorer with its record of thousands of cures will grow hair on any head where there is any life left; it will cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp in three weeks or money back. It is the most pleasant and invigorating tonic, is not not sticky nor greasy and is used extensively by ladies of refinement who desire to have and to keep their hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant. [illegible] for a large bottle at druggists everywhere. Mail orders filled by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass.

A Smooth, Hairless Skin for Women.

From Beauty Secrets

With the aid of a plain medol paste it is an easy matter to rid the skin of unsightly hairy growths. The paste is made by mixing some water with powdered medol. This is applied to the hairs not wanted and after 2 or 3 minutes rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. When you go to your druggist for medol be sure you get the genuine article, and if he will not supply you, the American Proprietary Co. of Boston, will send you a 50c or $1.00 package by mail.

IS CHILD CROSS FEVERISH, SICK

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls! Try This! Makes Hair Thick, Glossy, Fluffy, Beautiful—No More Itching Scalp.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable luster, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Adv.

DENY KNOWLEDGE OF PACIFIST NOTE

FACULTY MEMBERS DISCUSS LETTER CIRCULATED BY 87 STUDENTS OF MACALESTER.

STATEMENT BY PRESIDENT

Dr. Hodgman Declines to Discuss Opinion of Letter Which Drew Spirited Rebuke From Congressman Miller.

St. Paul. — Dr. Thomas M. Hodgman, president of Macalester college, has declared that the pacifist and "pro-enemy" letter circulated by 87 students of that school and which caused Congressman C. B. Miller of Duluth to address them in rebuke, was sent out without the knowledge of the faculty.

The letter indulged in the usual statement of pro-Germans that a "munitions trust" is trying to inflame public sentiment, that the newspapers were suborned, and indicated a weak-kneed spirit which would surrender all American rights rather than meet the test to uphold them.

President Hodgman said the letter is not necessarily indicative of the attitude of the faculty, but he declined to discuss his view. It is not known among the professors who started the letter, he said. Congressman Miller's reply had not been received at the college

Mr. Miller roundly spanks these student pacifists and rebukes the spirit of surrender generally.

Professors Urge War.

St. Paul.—Declaring the petition circulated by the so-called Macalester Neutrality and Peace association, and forwarded to Minnesota senators and representatives in Congress does not represent the true sentiment of Macalester college, students and faculty members have taken steps to counteract the impression it has given of the institution.

Dr. James Wallace and fourteen of the other sixteen men of the faculty signed a message to President Wilson urging immediate participation in the European war in the interests of "democracy, the rights of humanity and its own good name."

Church Academy for Red Wing.

Red Wing. — With the forming of a new church body by the merging of the United church and the Hauge and Norwegian synods, the leading academy of the new organization will be established in Red Wing.

Two departments of Red Wing seminary are to be transferred to other institutions as the result of the merging of the synods. The college department will be taken over by St. Olaf college at Northfield and the theological department will form a part of the work at the United Church seminary at St. Anthony Park.

Pioneers Die on Same Day.

Hastings. — Lauren E. Traine, aged 66, artist and engraver, for 23 years a resident of Minneapolis, died here of heart trouble. He is survived by his widow, one daughter and a son, Fred H., of Saskatchewan. Interment was at Rochester. Patrick Burlong, 82 years old, pioneer resident of Dakota county, died at the home of his son at Ridge Valley the same day. The funeral was from his home at Inver Grove. He is survived by two sons and three daughters.

No Choice in Road Material.

St. Paul.—The department of agriculture, which has charge of the expenditure of money under the Federal Road Aid act, has sent word to George W. Cooley, secretary and chief engineer of the Minnesota Highway commission denying reports circulated in this state that states to obtain federal aid must build only expensive roads, and making it clear that no particular kind of material will be required or favored by his department.

Duluth Holds Primary.

Duluth. — Complete primary election returns place John T. Armstead and C. R. Magney as mayoralty nominees on the ballot for the general municipal election April 3. The final count was: Armstead, 5,327; Magney, 5,287; Mayor W. L. Prince, 5,140.

Candidates nominated for commissioners were Fred J. Voss, Edward R. Ribenack, P. G. Phillips and H. H. Phelps. Judge W. H. Smallwood and J. A. P. Neil were nominated for municipal judge.

Rare Books Given High Court.

St. Paul. — Rare and valuable law books, some of which are more than 100 years old, have been presented to the Supreme Court law library by John W. Willis, a St. Paul attorney. Chief Justice Calvin L. Brown, on behalf of members of the court, accepted the gift and expressed to Mr. Willis the thanks of the court.

Bankers Back Boys' Contest.

St. Peter.—The First National bank of this city has decided again to hold an annual acre yield contest for youthful corn growers living in the trade territory of St. Peter. Prizes aggregating about $100 will be offered as an incentive to the young men to show their abilities as agriculturists. The contest is open to boys less than 18 years old and the winners will have an opportunity to enter the state contest, conducted by the Minnesota Agricultural society.

U. S. to Call Gopher Troops.

Washington. — That the Minnesota national guard will be called into the general service soon after congress meets in extra session is indicated at the war department. The plan of the army general staff is to recruit the regular army up to its maximum strength, and also to have the national guard enlarge its number to the extent authorized in the army reorganization law of last year, an aggregate of 400,000 national guardsmen.

"Precautionary Instructions."

Minneapolis.—Orders directing preliminary steps looking to a mobilization of the Minnesota National guard have been received by regimental commanders, has become known. The orders are from the war department and are known in military parlance as "precautionary instructions."

In Duluth, Brigadier General F. E. Resche, commander of the Minnesota troops, and Colonel H. V. Eva of the Third Minnesota, were in conference concerning the order.

In Minneapolis Colonel Erle D. Luce, while he refused to affirm or deny the report that precautionary instructions had been received, was in conference with officers of the First Minnesota infantry. Colonel George E. Leach had gone to St. Paul and left word that he could not be reached.

Ready for Quick Mobilization.

As a result of the orders, commanders, it was said, will revise their regimental rosters, check up on equipment and arrange to be ready for speedy mobilization at Fort Snelling.

The Minnesota guard would be in much better condition for quick mobilization than when the call came for border service.

Two Harbors Socialists Lose.

Mapleton, Minn., has voted out the saloons by a majority of 55 votes, the climax of an exciting anti-saloon fight that has continued several years. Two Harbors voted to continue dry and ousted the Socialists from the control of public affairs they have enjoyed for six years. Good Thunder, Minn., voted to continue wet, 76 to 58.

The vote at Two Harbors was the largest in the history of the city. The vote on the no license issue was 620 to 329.

W. R. Irwin, Progressive and Independent league candidate, was chosen mayor over C. E. Bergren, Socialist, by 53 votes.

Serious Coal Shortage Unlikely.

Duluth. — Prospects of a serious coal shortage in the Northwest until the opening of navigation on the Great Lakes are remote, local dealers say. Consumers will have to burn soft coal instead of hard in many cases. Stocks on the docks will last out, according to A. C. Beuglet, a coal company sales agent. Prospects of lower prices are remote, it was said. Vessel charterings from Lake Erie will be at 50 cents a ton, compared with 30 cents last year.

To Arm Pleasure Craft.

Duluth.—Great Lakes pleasure boat owners, at the American Head of the Lakes at least, will be given an opportunity to contribute to the nation's defense in the event of war. Scout patrol companies will be organized. Each company will consist of six of the larger type of pleasure boats. Each boat will be equipped for war by an armament of a 3-inch gun, machine guns, anti-aircraft gun, wireless plant and signal outfit.

Democratic Body Incorporates.

St. Paul. — The Minnesota Democratic association, organized with headquarters in St. Paul to encourage loyalty and devotion to democratic principles and establish a forum and medium for like purposes, has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. Its emblem will be a portrait of Thomas Jefferson and an M. D. A. monogram on an outline map of Minnesota. Officers have been chosen.

Sees $4 Potatoes.

Chisholm.—Potatoes on the Iron ranges soon will sell for $4 a bushel, J. J. Hayes, president of the Balkan Farmers' club, declares.

"I see no prospect of relief from high prices until the new crop is harvested," Hayes asserted. "There are no potatoes on the market. What few potatoes farmers have they need for seed."

Sister of Lawmaker Expires.

Brainerd. — Mrs. Caroline Sundberg, 69 years old, died of pernicious anemia. She had been at Rochester where transfusion of blood failed to save her. She was a sister of Representative Sydney Anderson of Winona.

Pin Kills After Nine Years.

Winona.—A pin swallowed with food when he was 3 years old, has caused the death of Francis Chapman in a hospital at Wabasha. The boy was 12 years old.

New Farmers' League Incorporates.

St. Paul. — An organization terming itself the Minnesota Nonpartisan league has just filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state.

St. Cloud Gets 1919 Convention.

St. Cloud.—The next biennial convention of the Minnesota grand lodge, Woodmen Circle, will be held at St. Cloud in 1919. The date was left in the hands of the incoming officers of the Circle. The delegates to the convention in St. Paul completed their business at the session by providing for the payment of railway fares of the fifty-four delegates and fifteen grand officers. Incoming officers were installed by Mrs. Mary E. La Rocca. The ceremony was followed by a dance.

SENATE TO ACT ON BILL FOR SUFFRAGE BY STATUTE SOON

SAGENG-PUTNAM MEASURE PROVIDING LIMITED FRANCHISE FOR WOMEN SPECIAL ORDER FOR MARCH 29.

BILLS BY CHILD WELFARE BOARD ARE INTRODUCED

Forty-one Measures in Senate Are Duplicates of House Bills—Oil Inspection Fee Reduction Resolution Passes House—Health Bill Delayed.

St. Paul, March 22.—The Sageng-Putnam statutory suffrage bill, enactment of which would allow Minnesota women to vote for president and vice president, will come before the Senate on special order on March 29 at 2 p. m. The bill was made a special order by motion of Senator Putnam.

All the pending bills relating to the game and fish laws were made a special order for 11 o'clock Saturday in the House.

Other Special Orders.

The track scales bill and the measure giving shippers a lien on memberships in grain exchanges were made a special order for 11 o'clock Tuesday.

The fee for inspection of oil would be reduced from seven cents a barrel to five cents if the Senate concurs in a bill which was passed by the House.

The 41 bills drawn by the child welfare commission were introduced in the Senate. They are duplicates of the bills introduced in the House.

Public Domain Bills Delayed.

On request of Senator F. A. Duxbury, chairman of the civil administration committee, the special order on bills creating a department of public domain and reorganizing the department of health was postponed by the Senate until Tuesday at 11 o'clock. The bill reorganizing the department of education will come up on special order at the same time.

The members of the House visited the state prison at Stillwater.

Hennepin County Bills Passed.

St. Paul, March 22.—The Minnesota House of Representatives did a "land office business" in Hennepin county measures. In three hours' time, 48 bills were sent through the legislative hopper. Bond bills, big and little, tax levies, enabling acts, salary increases, pension changes and extensions, measures affecting the courts, all went through the mill without any show of dissension among the members of the Hennepin county delegation.

Won't Hurry Committee.

The Senate decided overwhelmingly yesterday to permit its Finance committee to consider fully the bill to pay state militia men 50 cents a day before passing the measure. Senator W. A. Campbell of Minneapolis asked that the bill be taken from the committee and passed.

The Senate by a vote of 60 to 4 turned down the Campbell motion. Senator after senator pointed out that while they believed the measure itself meritorious, they objected to hurrying a committee that was doing its best to gather the necessary information.

The attempt to take it from committee was labeled by some of the senators as simply a "grand stand" play and unworthy of consideration.

Only three senators out of the 64 present voted with Senator Campbell.

Resent Interference.

Ernest Lundeen and Thomas D. Schall, Minneapolis congressmen, now in Washington, have sent telegrams to legislators from the Fifth and Tenth districts urging them to vote against changes in the primary election laws.

Representatives who received the message from the congressmen stated that the latter evidently were not aware that the bills before the Legislature did not contemplate any change in the method of selecting nominees for Congress. Some of those who received the messages were incensed at the attempt on the part of the congressmen to take a hand in state legislation, a procedure heretofore unprecedented.

Dispatches from Washington stated that neither of the congressmen was willing to give a lengthy explanation of his reasons for interfering in state politics.

So far as known, this is the first time congressmen from Washington have attempted to direct legislation in Minnesota.

No Lives Lost on Memphis.

New York, March 22. — No lives were lost in the sinking of the American steamship City of Memphis in the German submarine zone. The missing Captain Borum and seven men have reached Glasgow safely, according to a dispatch received here from the captain by the owners, the Ocean Steamship company.

Germans Add to Tonnage Destroyed.

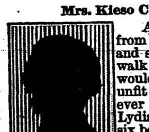
Berlin, March 22.—An official communication issued by the German admiralty reports that German submarines have destroyed an additional 116,000 gross tons of shipping in the British channel, in the Atlantic ocean and in the North sea.

A Medicine for Women

For Forty Years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Relieved the Sufferings of Women.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

Mrs. Kieso Cured After Seven Month's Illness.



Aurora, Ill.—"For seven long months I suffered from a female trouble, with severe pains in my back and sides until I became so weak I could hardly walk from chair to chair, and got so nervous I would jump at the slightest noise. I was entirely unfit to do my house work, I was giving up hope of ever being well, when my sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles and today I am a healthy woman able to do my own housework. I wish every suffering woman would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and find out for herself how good it is."—Mrs. Karl A. Kieso, 596 North Ave., Aurora, Ill.

Could Hardly Get Off Her Bed.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—"I want you to know the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was in such bad health from female troubles that I could hardly get off my bed. I had been doctoring for a long time and my mother said, 'I want you to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.' So I did, and it has certainly made me a well woman. I am able to do my house work and am so happy as I never expected to go around the way I do again, and I want others to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. Josie Copner, 1668 Harrison Ave., Fairmount, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Getting Around a Difficulty.

Automobile manufacturers of the United States do not purpose allowing a serious matter, such as railway traffic congestion, to interfere with their business, if they can help it. When the big freight tieup first began to look formidable, automobile makers faced a prospective loss running into many millions of dollars, because, apparently, they could not secure deliveries. Not until then did it occur to them that, if an automobile was worth anything at all, it should be able to deliver itself. And now what is known to the trade as the "drive-away" has been inaugurated. The cars leave the factory and arrive at their destination under their own power. A drove of 62 cars was recently sent from Cleveland to Chicago in this way. It is expected that the "drive-away" will become a fashionable thing during the coming summer.—Christian Science Monitor.

"Chinese Knew the English."

An Englishman who was appointed to an important post in China married soon after. Among the recipients of the usual little cardboard boxes containing pieces of wedding cake was a Chinese merchant with whom the bridegroom had an outstanding account for goods supplied. After the honeymoon one of the first persons the newly-wedded husband met was his Celestial creditor.

"And how did you like the cake?" said the Englishman, laughingly, after the usual congratulations.

"Ah, ha," returned the Chinaman, with a cunning leer, "me no such big fool to eat him, sah, me put cakee in fire. Burn him up. Ha! he!"

"Oh, that's too bad," said the Englishman, very much hurt. "You might have tasted it at least, out of compliment to my wife and myself. Why didn't you?"

"Me too clute, sah," said the Celestial, with the same cunning smile. "You owe me monee, sah; sendee poison cakee; I eat him; I die; you no payee up. Houp-la! He! he! he! I know you Ingleesh!"

GREAT DEMAND FOR CANADIAN LAND

Americans Are Buyers and Becoming Settlers—Anxious to Get Cheap and Productive Land.

Reports are to hand that there will be a large influx of settlers from the United States into the Canadian West during the coming Spring. For a time there has been a falling off, on account of the fear of conscription, which of course was not possible, and which the Canadian Government gave every assurance would not be put into operation. In any case it would not affect the American settler, and more than that the man who was working on the farm, helping to produce the grain that goes to feed those who are at war, would not be affected.

The excellent yields of the Western Canada crops, and the high prices secured is having its influence on those looking for homes. The authenticated reports that have been sent out from time to time that this farmer and that farmer had paid for their entire farm holdings out of one crop has reached the ears of the man looking for a farm. When he hears that G. H. Beatty of Nanton, Alberta, had 679 bushels of wheat from 12 acres or an average of 56½ bushels to the acre, he becomes interested. When he learns that Sidney E. Phillips of Beddeford, Alberta, threshed ten hundred and fifty-three bushels of wheat, the average being 52½ bushels per acre, his interest is further aroused. Thos. Long of Lethbridge had 120 bushels of oats to the acre from a field of 25 acres, W. Quinn of Milk River had 6,094 bushels of wheat from 100 acres, an average of 60 bushels per acre, and Robert Tackaberry of Nobleford makes affidavit that he had an average of seventy-six bushels of wheat per acre from a field of 10.63 acres. Thos. Boulton of the same place makes affidavit that from fifty acres he had a yield of fifty-three bushels of wheat per acre. Newell J. Noble's affidavit of getting 54 bushels per acre from 1,000 acres stands out most strongly as evidence of what the wheat grower can do. This affidavit is strengthened by a paragraph stating that he had 122 bushels and 30 lbs. per acre from 394.69 acres. Mrs. Nancy Coe makes affidavit that on her farm at Nobleford she threshed six thousand one hundred and ten bushels of wheat from one hundred and fifteen acres, or fifty-three bushels and eight lbs. per acre, and from a flax field (stubble field) she got 20 bushels and 38 pounds per acre.

It cannot be said that these were freak yields because so many had such great success. When these reports are read, the man looking for a farm becomes convinced.

These are only a few of the reasons that will cause a large influx of American farmers into the Canadian West during the coming Spring.

The farmers now resident in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta are purchasing additional lands. Prices are low and Free homestead land can be had in many districts and the homesteader is welcome.—Advertisement.

WAR DEPARTMENT CALLS GUARDSMEN INTO U. S. SERVICE

AMERICA PLACED ON WAR FOOTING BY PRESIDENT — POLICE SYSTEM BY MILITIA TANTAMOUNT TO MARTIAL LAW.

20 INFANTRY REGIMENTS ARE ORDERED MOBILIZED

Force Comprises About 25,000 Men —"To Prevent Interference With Postal, Commercial and Military Channels and Instrumentalities."

Washington, March 27.—By order of the President of the United States the United States has been placed on a war footing and certain sections at once policed by the national guard under a system that is tantamount to martial law.

By the time Congress convenes in extraordinary session it is expected the entire land forces of the country will be in a state of complete readiness and the naval armament will be ready for any duty demanded of it by the representatives of the people.

Twenty Regiments Called.

Washington, March 27.—Twenty additional complete infantry regiments and five additional separate battalions of national guard troops, comprising about 25,000 men, have been ordered into the federal service for the protection of property in the event of possible internal disorder. The troops have been called out in 18 western and middle western states, not including the list of similar orders made public yesterday.

War Department's Statement.

The War department's statement follows:

"Following additional national guard organizations have been called into the federal service for general purposes of police protection against possible interference with the postal, commercial and military channels and instrumentalities:

"Illinois, First, Fifth and Sixth regiments infantry; Indiana, Second regiment infantry; Iowa, First regiment infantry; Missouri, First and Third regiments infantry; Nebraska, Fourth regiment infantry; Minnesota, First regiment infantry; Michigan, Thirty-third regiment infantry; Wisconsin, Third regiment infantry; South Dakota, Third battalion of Fourth regiment infantry; North Dakota, Second battalion of First regiment infantry; Colorado, First and Second separate battalions infantry; Wyoming, Second separate battalion infantry; Ohio, Third and Sixth regiments infantry; Washington, Second regiment infantry; Oregon, Third regiment infantry; California, Second, Fifth and Seventh regiments infantry; Idaho, Second regiment infantry; Montana, Second regiment infantry.

Voluntary Censorship Requested.

"Of these organizations the following are already in the federal service, and in consequence will not be mustered out as originally planned:

"Michigan, Thirty-third infantry; Colorado, First and Second separate battalions; Ohio, Third and Sixth regiments.

"It is requested that no details of locality be carried in the press with regard to further distributions of these troops unless given out by the War department."

FARMER SLAYS FAMILY OF 5

Kills Wife and Children With Ax and Hangs Self.

Redwood Falls, Minn., March 27.—William Kleeman, a well known young farmer living near Clements, Redwood county, killed his wife and four little children with an ax, and then hanged himself.

Discovery of the gruesome tragedy was made by Miss Ruth Snyder, a young school mistress, a boarder at the Kleeman home, upon her return from a week-end visit at her home in Mankato. Local authorities were notified.

CHANGES IN CABINET SEEN

Goethals May Be War Secretary—Baker to Succeed Gregory.

Washington, March 27.—Reports have again spread that President Wilson is contemplating the reorganization of his cabinet. Attorney General T. W. Gregory is slated to go, according to reports, and will be succeeded by Secretary of War Newton D. Baker. As secretary of war the president is said to be considering Major General George W. Goethals, who built the Panama canal.

U. S. Plot Probe Is Demanded.

Chicago, March 27.—United States government investigation of the San Francisco preparedness parade bomb plot is demanded in a resolution adopted by 8,000 persons who heard W. Bourke Cockran, New York lawyer, tell labor's side of the case at a mass meeting. Cockran was defense counsel for Thomas Mooney, San Francisco labor leader, convicted of murder in connection with the plot and now under sentence of death. He told the mass meeting the charge against Mooney was a "frameup."

"CASCARETS" FOR SLUGGISH BOWELS

No sick headache, sour stomach, biliousness or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out to-night and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret to-night straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken. Adv.

A Lucky Bullet.

Hussar declares that there is no mascot to compare with the bullet with which a man has been wounded. "At the Battle of the Marne," he says, "I was struck by a bullet which lodged in my right thigh without doing much damage. When it was extracted I drilled a hole through it, and suspended it by a string from my neck. And, although I have been through dozens of fierce battles since then, including the hottest fights on the Somme, and have seen my comrades fall in hundreds, I have come through them all without a scratch, thanks, I firmly believe, to my bullet mascot."—Tit-Bits.

Customer Had Change Coming.

A man bearing a small basket of potatoes on his arm went into a grocery store to make a purchase. He could not produce enough change by 5 cents and, handing the clerk a medium-sized potato, started out. YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You say to the drug store man, "Give me a small bottle of freezone." This will cost very little but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn relieves the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, dries up and can be lifted off with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that freezone dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn or callus without irritating the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to order a small bottle from his wholesale drug house for you.—adv.

TEUTONS THREATEN WAR DECLARATION AT FIRST U. S. SHOT

SAY WAR TO BE DECLARED JUST AS SOON AS U-BOAT IS FIRED UPON BY AN AMERICN GUN.

WAR WON'T BE SHORT IS WASHINGTON'S WARNING

Administration Cautions That Preparations Must Be Made For Long and Bitter Struggle—Preparing People for Sacrifices That Must Be Made.

Washington, March 26.—The crash of war with Germany may come at any moment.

Word has been wired from Zurich that several of the German newspapers received there assert the kaiser will declare war on the United States just as soon as the first American shot is fired at a German submarine.

It is understood here that several American merchantmen armed for defense are now approaching the barred zone and the news of a clash is likely to come shortly.

In the event of a declaration by Germany, America is prepared to strike and strike hard.

To Be Aggressive.

The United States government is getting ready to put into effect measures of the most far-reaching and aggressive character. It will not be satisfied with mere attempts to protect American merchant vessels. Its preparations will be designed to meet any eventuality—a long war, if necessary. There will be no half-way measures.

This program was agreed upon at a long cabinet meeting and it guided the Council of National Defense when it met with its advisory commission.

May Send Army Abroad.

The program decided upon includes military, naval, industrial and financial measures.

The question of sending an army abroad will be left for future consideration.

Whether political alliances with the Allies will be formed is not known, although military as well as naval co-operation is possible and the government will furnish both money and supplies to the Allies without stint.

Suggestions before President Wilson include the possibility of floating a loan of $5,000,000,000 for the Allies.

People Are Warned.

In the meantime the administration is sounding a warning to the people of the nation that preparations must be made for the possibility of a long and bitter war. It is part of a "preparedness program" of the administration to "prepare" the people to a full realization of what sacrifices they must be ready to make; to achieve sober realization of all citizens of the magnitude of the task ahead of the nation; to displace a careless optimism with a studious knowledge of what is ahead.

Part of this preparation is in advance of the demands which will be made shortly by the government for men, money, labor and materials, on a scale unprecedented in the nation's history. The administration proposes no half way measures if it can be avoided.

BILLION DOLLAR GIFT TO FRANCE IS POPULAR

Suggestion Made By New York Newspaper Seems to Be Meeting Approval Over Country.

New York, March 26.—Following up its suggestion of a gift of $1,000,000,000 from the United States to France, the New York World declares the plan has met with approval from every quarter.

Bankers, business men and toilers, the World said, had registered unqualified approval of the plan. Telegrams from editors of newspapers in various parts of the country indorsing the idea were printed. They came from Philadelphia, Seattle, Charleston, Cleveland, Columbia, S. C., and many other points.

Should France refuse to accept such a gift from this country, the World suggests it be made in the form of a loan, carrying only such interest as would pay its expenses. It was declared Wall street, through interviews and letters, had swung solidly behind the plan.

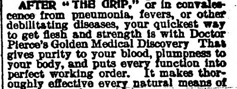
Infantry to Guard Germans.

Washington, March 26.—The Seventeenth infantry will arrive soon at Forts McPherson and Oglethorpe, Ga., to guard the German interned sailors to be removed from the Philadelphia navy yards. Six companies have been sent to Fort McPherson and six to Oglethorpe. The regiment left Fort Bliss several days ago. Secretary Daniels will order the interned Germans south as soon as the Seventeenth arrives and completes its arrangements. A marine guard will act as escort for the sailors.

Healthy Skin

DEPENDS ON KIDNEYS.

The skin and the intestines, which work together with the kidneys to throw out the poisons of the body, do a part of the work, but a clean body and a healthy one depends on the kidneys. If the kidneys are clogged with toxic poisons you suffer from stiffness in the knees in the morning on arising, your joints seem "rusty," you may have rheumatic pains, pain in the back, stiff neck, headaches, sometimes swollen feet, or neuralgic pains—all due to the uric acid or toxic poisons in the blood. This is the time to go to the nearest drug store and simply obtain a 50c. package of Anuric, the discovery of Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y. Then drink a cup of hot water before meals, with an Anuric Tablet, and notice the gratifying results. You will find Anuric more active than lithia. Dissolves uric acid as water does sugar.



AFTER "THE GRIP," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other debilitating diseases, your quickest way to get flesh and strength is with Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That gives purity to your blood, plumpness to your body, and puts every function into perfect working order. It makes thoroughly effective every natural means of repairing and nourishing your system. For pale, puny, scrofulous children, nothing approaches it. It builds up completely their flesh, their strength, and their health.

In the most stubborn Scrofulous, Skin or Scalp Diseases, Eczema, Salt-rheum, and every kindred ailment, it effects wonderful cures. Contains no alcohol or harmful drugs. In tablet or liquid form.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take.

Wolfe's Sash to a Museum.

A new and valued addition has just been made to the museum of the Chateau de Ramezay. It consists of a cabinet containing a portion of the garnet silk sash worn by Gen. James Wolfe on the day he became the "victor of Quebec" in 1759. In addition to the sash are the original letters that prove unmistakably the authenticity of the relic.—Montreal Star.

So He Would.

Bill—They say one of the kings of Europe has a bed which cost $25,000.

Gill—Gee! If I had that I'd retire on a fortune!

Explained.

"My daughter, don't use powder on your face so much. It is so loud."

"But, pa, this is noiseless powder."

A Bit of "Old" Canada.

There exists at Unionville, Ontario, a pioneer house 124 years old. This is probably a unique record for a Canadian log house, and it is said to be the oldest log house of similar dimensions in the Dominion. Some of the logs are from 30 to 36 inches in diameter. It is still occupied, and it is interesting to note, as a testimony to the comfort of the house, that its occupants, numbering 13, took first prize in 1912 at a political picnic as the "heaviest family attending the event."

The Reason.

"The young officer you introduced to me appeared to be blue."

"Naturally. He is a sub marine."

The man who is too busy to figure out whether he is losing generally is.

You Can Make Excellent Cake With Fewer Eggs

Just use an additional quantity of Royal Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted.

This applies equally well to nearly all baked foods. Try the following recipe according to the new way:

CREAM LAYER CAKE

Old Way	New Way
1 cup sugar	1 cup sugar
½ cup milk	1 cup milk
2 cups flour	2 cups flour
2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder	4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
3 eggs	1 egg
½ cup shortening	2 tablespoons shortening
1 teaspoon flavoring	1 teaspoon flavoring

Makes 1 Large 2-Layer Cake

DIRECTIONS—Cream the sugar and shortening together, then mix in the egg. After sifting the flour and Royal Baking Powder together, two or three times, add it all to the mixture. Gradually add the milk and beat with spoon until you have a smooth pour batter. Add the flavoring. Pour into greased layer cake tins and bake in a moderately hot oven for twenty minutes. This cake is best baked in two layers. Put together with cream filling and spread with white icing.

Canada Offers 160 Acres Free to Farm Hands
Bonus of Western Canada Land to Men Assisting in Maintaining Needed Grain Production

The demand for farm labor in Canada is great. As an inducement to secure the necessary help at once, Canada will give

ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY ACRES OF LAND FREE AS A HOMESTEAD

and allow the time of the farm laborer, who has filed on the land, to apply as residence duties, the same as if he actually had lived on it. Another special concession is the reduction of one year in the time to complete duties. Two years instead of three as heretofore, but only to men working on the farms for at least six months in 1917. This appeal for farm help is in no way connected with enlistment for military service but solely to increase agricultural output. A wonderful opportunity to secure a farm and draw good wages at the same time. Canadian Government will pay all fare over one cent per mile from St. Paul or Duluth to Canadian destination. Information as to low railway rates may be had on application to

Lesson From the Lily.

How easily we lose poise, swept by the current of life! Our root is not deep enough. Consider the lily resting on the face of the waters, its roots far below. Wrong Position for Sleep.

Sleep cannot knit up the raveled sleeve of care or do any other reparative knitting, if the head is bent sharply to an acute angle with the collar joints. Frequently men and women who have slept in this supposedly objectionable fashion for years and years suddenly lose the capacity for sleep with no new discoverable reason. It is difficult to convince them that the elasticity and resiliency of youth has heretofore made up for their lifelong awkward pose.

The Prayer of the Horse

To Thee, My Master, I Offer My Prayer:

Feed me, water and care for me, and when the day's work is done provide me with a shelter: a clean dry bed and a stall wide enough for me to lie down in comfort. Talk to me. Your voice often means as much to me as the reins. Pet me sometimes, that I may serve you the more gladly and learn to love you.

Do not jerk the reins, and do not whip me when going up hill. Never strike, beat or kick me when I do not understand what you mean; but give me a chance to understand you.

Watch me, and if I fail to do your bidding, see if something is not wrong with my harness or feet.

Examine my teeth when I do not eat. I may have an ulcerated tooth, and that, you know, is very painful. Do not tie my head in an unnatural position or take away my best defense against flies and mosquitoes by cutting off my tail.

And finally, Oh my master, when my useful strength is gone, do not turn me out to starve or freeze, or sell me to some cruel owner to be slowly tortured and starved to death; but do thou, my master, take my life in the kindest way and your God will reward you here and hereafter. You may not consider me irreverent if I ask this in the name of Him who was born in a stable. Amen.

"CASCARETS" FOR LIVER, BOWELS

For sick headache, bad breath, Sour Stomach and constipation.

Get a 10-cent box now.

No odds how bad your liver, stomach or bowels; how much your head aches, how miserable and uncomfortable you are from constipation, indigestion, biliousness and sluggish bowels —you always get the desired results with Cascarets.

Don't let your stomach, liver and bowels make you miserable. Take Cascarets to-night; put an end to the headache, biliousness, dizziness, nervousness, sick, sour, gassy stomach, backache and all other distress; cleanse your inside organs of all the bile, gases and constipated matter which is producing the misery.

A 10-cent box means health, happiness and a clear head for months. No more days of gloom and distress if you will take a Cascaret now and then. All stores sell Cascarets. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a cleansing, too. Adv.

A Turn Down.

The late Jack London once arranged with a magazine editor to do a short story for $1,500.

"And," said London, hopefully, the deal being concluded, "can I have the money now, before I write the stuff?"

The editor gave a laugh and a shrug.

"Your stories, my dear London," he said, "are immortal, but you, unfortunately, are not."

YES! LIFT A CORN OFF WITHOUT PAIN!

Cincinnati man tells how to dry up a corn or callus so it lifts off with fingers.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted off, root and all, without pain.

A small bottle of freezone costs very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

FRECKLES

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription othine — double strength — is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from your druggist, and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than one ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Adv.

GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER

Few persons can be sick who use Green's August Flower. It has been used for all ailments that are caused by a disordered stomach and inactive liver, such as sick headache, constipation, sour stomach, nervous indigestion, fermentation of food, palpitation of the heart from gases created in the stomach, pains in the stomach, and many other organic disturbances. August Flower is a gentle laxative, regulates digestion, both in the stomach and intestines, cleans and sweetens the stomach and whole alimentary canal, and stimulates the liver to secrete the bile and impurities from the blood. Try it. Two doses will relieve you. Used for fifty years in every town and hamlet in the United States and in all civilized countries.—Adv.

ASKS CONGRESS TO DECLARE THAT STATE OF WAR EXISTS

Washington, April 2.—President Wilson at 8 o'clock this evening delivered to congress his message relative to the German submarine situation. He said:

"I have called the congress into extraordinary session because there are serious, very serious, choices of policy to be made, and made immediately, which it was neither right nor constitutionally permissible that I should assume the responsibility of making."

After reviewing the development of the German submarine policy since the beginning of February, he continued:

Criticizes Submarine Policy

"The new policy has swept every restriction aside. Vessels of every kind, whatever their flag, their character, their cargo, their destination, their errand, have been ruthlessly sent to the bottom without warning and without thought of help or mercy for those on board, the vessels of friendly neutrals along with those of belligerents. Even hospital ships and ships carrying relief to the sorely bereaved and stricken people of Belgium, though the latter were provided with safe conduct through the proscribed areas by the German government itself, and were distinguished by unmistakeable marks of identity, have been sunk with the same reckless lack of compassion or principle.

"I was for a little while unable to believe that such things would in fact be done by any government that had hitherto subscribed to the humane practices of civilized nations. International law had its origin in the attempt to set up some law, which would be respected and observed upon the seas, where no nation had right of dominion and where lay the free highways of the world. By painful stage after stage that law has been built up with meager enough results, indeed, after all was accomplished that could be accomplished, but always with a clear view, at least, of what the heart and conscience of mankind demanded.

Scruples Thrown to the Winds

"This minimum of right the German government has swept aside, under the plea of retaliation and necessity, and because it had no weapons which it could use at sea except these, which it is impossible to employ as it is employing them without throwing to the winds all scruples of humanity or of respect for the understandings that were supposed to underlie the intercourse of the world.

"I am not now thinking of the loss of property involved, immense and serious as that is, but only of the wanton and wholesale destruction of the lives of non-combatants, men, women and children, engaged in pursuits which have always, even in the darkest periods of modern history, been deemed innocent and legitimate. Property can be paid for; the lives of peaceful and innocent people cannot be."

The president denominated the present German submarine campaign as a warfare against mankind; and expressed his withdrawal from the belief that it could be dealt with by methods of armed neutrality. He continued:

"The German government denies the right of neutrals to use arms at all within the areas of the sea which it has proscribed, even in defense of rights which no modern publicist has ever before questioned their right to defend. The intimation is conveyed that the armed guards which we have placed on our merchant ships will be treated as beyond the pale of law and subject to be dealt with as pirates would be. Armed neutrality is ineffectual enough at best; in such circumstances and in the face of such pretentions it is worse than ineffectual; it is likely once to produce what it was meant to prevent; it is practically certain to draw us into the war without either the rights or the effectiveness of belligerents.

Declaration of War Advised

"With a profound sense of the solemn and even tragical character of the step I am taking and of the grave responsibilities which it involves, but in unhesitating obedience to what I deem my constitutional duty, I advise that the congress declare the recent course of the imperial German government to be in fact nothing less than war against the government and people of the United States; that it formally accept the status of a belligerent which has thus been thrust upon it and that it take immediate steps not only to put the country in a more thorough state of defense, but also to exert all its power and employ all its resources to bring the government of the German empire to terms and end the war.

Co-operate With Allies

"What this will involve is clear. It will involve the utmost practicable co-operation in counsel and action with the governments now at war with Germany and, as incident to that, the extension to those governments of the most liberal financial credits, in order that our resources may, so far as possible, be added to theirs. It will involve the organization and mobilization of all the material resources of the country to supply the materials of war and serve the incidental needs of the nation in the most abundant, and yet the most economical and efficient way possible. It will involve the immediate full equipment of the navy in all respects but particularly in supplying it with the best means of dealing with the enemy's submarines. It will involve the immediate addition to the armed forces of the United States already provided for by law in case of war, at least 500,000 men who should, in my opinion, be chosen upon the principle of universal liability to service, and also the authorization of subsequent additional increments of equal forces as soon as they may be needed and can be handled in training.

Plans for War Fully Prepared

"I shall take the liberty of suggesting, through the several executive departments of the government for the consideration of your committees, measures for the accomplishment of the several objects I have mentioned. I hope that it will be your pleasures to deal with them as having been framed after very careful thought by the branch of the government upon which the responsibility of conducting the war and safeguarding the nation will most directly fall.

"While we do these things, these deeply momentous things, let us be very clear, and make very clear to all the world what our motives and our objects are. My own thought has not been driven from its habitual and normal course by the unhappy events of the last two months, and I do not believe that the thought of the nation has been altered or clouded by them.

Autocracies Menace Peace

"I have exactly the same things in mind now that I had in mind when I addressed the senate on the 22nd of January last; the same that I had in mind when I addressed the congress on the third of February and on the 26th of February. Our object, now as then, is to vindicate the principles of peace and the justice in the life of the world as against selfish and autocratic power and to set up amongst the really free and self-governed peoples of the world such a concert of purpose and of action as will henceforth insure the observance of those principles; neutrality is no longer feasible or desirable where the peace of the world is involved and the freedom of its peoples, and the menace to that peace and freedom lies in the existence of autocratic governments backed by organized force which is controlled wholly by their will, not by the will of their people. We have seen the last of neutrality in such circumstances.

No Quarrel With German People

"We have no quarrel with the German people. We have no feeling towards them but one of sympathy and friendship. It was not upon their impulse that their government acted in entering this war. It was not with their previous knowledge or approval.

"It was a war determined upon as wars used to be determined on in the old, unhappy days when peoples were nowhere consulted by their rulers and wars were provoked and waged in the interest of dynasties or of little groups of ambitious men who were accustomed to use their fellowmen as pawns and tools.

"Self-governed nations do not fill their neighbor states with spies or set the course of intrigue to bring about some critical posture of affairs which will give them an opportunity to strike and make conquest. Such designs can be successfully worked only under cover and where no one has the right to ask questions.

"A steadfast concert for peace can never be maintained except by a partnership of democratic nations. No autocratic government could be trusted to keep faith within it or observe its covenants. It must be a league of honor, a partnership of opinion. Intrigue would eat its vitals away; the plottings of inner circles who could plan what they would and render account to no one would be a corruption seated at its very heart. Only free peoples can hold their purpose and their honor steady to a common end and prefer the interests of mankind to any narrow interest of their own."

Hope From Russian Revolution

The president expressed high hopes from free Russia, as a factor in world affairs; and bitterly assailed the espionage systems of Germany. He said:

"We are now about to accept the guage of battle with this natural foe to liberty and shall, if necessary, spend the whole force of the nation to check and nullify its pretensions and its power. We are glad, now that we see the facts with no veil of false pretense about them, to fight thus, for the ultimate peace of the world and for the liberation of its peoples, the German peoples included; for the rights of nations, great and small, and the privilege of men everywhere to choose their way of life and of obedience. The world must be made safe for democracy. Its peace must be planted upon the trusted foundations of political liberty."

The president disavowed any present wish to include Germany's allies in the declaration of war. Reverting again to the spirit of the undertaking proposed, he said:

"It will be all the easier for us to conduct ourselves as belligerents in a high spirit of right and fairness because we act without animus, not in enmity towards a people or with the desire to bring any injury or disadvantage upon them, but only in armed opposition to an irresponsible government which has thrown aside all considerations of humanity and of right and is running amuck."

FRAZIER PROMISES SUPPORT OF STATE

BISMARCK, N. D., April 2.—Governor Lynn J. Frazier of North Dakota tonight issued the following statement:

"President Wilson in this crisis may depend upon the support of every loyal North Dakotan. There never has been any question as to the stand of North Dakota in any matter where loyalty and true patriotism were concerned. There can be no question now."

CHANGES PLAN FOR TRAINING BILLS

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Changing it to make it effective in promptly raising armed forces, Senator Chamberlain today virtually completed his universal compulsory military training bill.

The chief change provides for registration and training this year of men between 20 and 23. In subsequent years men of 21, 22 and 23 years would be subject to training upon call of the president.

MORE AMERICANS DIE ON SHIPS SUNK WITHOUT WARNING

BRITISH STEAMERS THE SNOWDON RANGE AND THE LINER CRISPIN TORPEDOED, CONSUL FROST REPORTS.

EACH OF ILL-FATED SHIPS CARRIED DEFENSE GUNS

Submarines Submerged and Not Seen by Survivors—Wakes of Torpedoes Visible—Second Dispatch Establishes Death of At Least One American.

Washington, April 2.—A second dispatch from Consul Wesley Frost definitely established the killing of one American and said others probably had been killed on the British ship Crispin, torpedoed without warning.

Two Ships Torpedoed.

Washington, April 2.—Two British steamers, the Snowden Range and the Booth liner Crispin, both with Americans aboard, of whom a number are unaccounted for, have been reported to the state department to have been sunk without warning by a submarine.

On the Crispin the torpedo which struck the engine room killed five men.

Two Believed Americans.

Two of them are believed to have been Americans.

United States Consul Wesley Frost, at Queenstown, reporting the loss of the freight liner Crispin, says:

"The liner Crispin, 2,483 tons, Newport News to Liverpool, carrying 686 horses, was torpedoed without warning 14 miles off Hook head at 7:15 p. m. on March 29. Sixty-eight of the ship's complement of 112 were Americans. Two boats are missing, not improbably lost.

"The torpedo struck the engine room on the starboard side, the explosion killing five men, two of whom are believed to be Americans. The submarine was not seen, but the wake of a torpedo was seen by Americans. The vessel carried a gun and wireless. The latter was wrecked by the explosion. The vessel sank slowly, but return on board was not feasible owing to heavy sea."

Torpedo Shot While Submerged.

The dispatch from Liverpool reporting the sinking of the Snowdon Range follows:

"The British steamer Snowdon Range, Philadelphia to Liverpool with a general cargo and powder, carrying one gun aft, was torpedoed without warning at 8:45 a. m. March 28, 35 miles from Hollyhead. No vessel was in sight, the sea calm, the weather hazy, no resistance was made, the submarine being submerged at the time of the attack.

"Four were killed by the explosion; the remainder of the crew took to the boats, including James Carroll, Philadelphia; George Alexander, colored, Wilmington, N. C.; Burt Thebalt, Philadelphia, native born American, and Harry McCabe, naturalized."

MAMMOTH PATRIOTIC GATHERING IN CHICAGO

Flag Day, Set Aside by Mayor Thompson, Ends with Great Mass Meeting — Enthusiasm Rampant.

Chicago, April 2.—Chicago on Saturday staged a mammoth patriotic demonstration which concluded with a mass meeting which promised to become one of the most profound in the history of the city. The day was set apart by Mayor W. H. Thompson as Flag day, and thousands of the national emblems hung in the downtown and residence districts.

The patriotic enthusiasm began early, when two battalions of the First Illinois infantry, accompanied by a detachment of mounted police, paraded downtown streets.

STARS AND STRIPES NOW FLY OVER WEST INDIES

Final Act of 50 Years of Negotiations Completed—Danish Minister Handed $25,000,000 Warrant.

Washington, April 2.—The final act of more than 50 years effort to bring the Danish West Indies under the American flag was completed with formal ceremonies at the state department when Danish Minister Brun was handed a treasury warrant for $25,000,000, the purchase price, and wireless messages were sent to the American and Danish authorities at the islands to lower the Danish flag and raise the Stars and Stripes. Secretary Lansing said the warrant was worth 48 tons of gold.

Chicago Bars 1-Piece Bathing Suits.

Chicago, April 2.—Young women may not wear white or flesh colored bathing suits on Chicago beaches this summer, the city council committee on bathing beaches has just decreed. One-piece bathing suits also were put under the ban, it being ruled that all garments must be provided with a skirt or a "skirt effect." The distance between the bottom of the skirt and the top of the knee shall not be greater than six inches, and that all blouses must have quarter arm sleeves or close fitting armholes.

To Prevent Old Age Coming Too Soon!

"Toxic poisons in the blood are thrown out by the kidneys. The kidneys act as filters for such products. If we wish to prevent old age coming too soon and increase our chances for a long life, we should drink plenty of pure water and take a little Anuric," says the world-famed Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y.

When suffering from backache, frequent or scanty urine, rheumatic pains here or there, or that constant tired, worn-out feeling, the simple way to overcome these disorders is merely to obtain a little Anuric from your nearest druggist and you will quickly notice the grand results. You will find it many times more potent than lithia, and that it dissolves uric acid as hot water does sugar.

A PRETTY FACE is the result of a healthy physical condition. "Beauty is but skin deep" yet it greatly depends on a clear complexion, free from wrinkles and hollow cheeks.

Health always brings wealth of beauty. A healthy state of the system comes with Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It's a medicine prepared for woman's ailments—it cures those derangements and weaknesses which make woman's life miserable.

You can overcome most bodily ills, escape sickness, build up your health with regular hours, plenty of water, sensible food, and a chance to get the poison out of the system. Take a natural laxative once or twice weekly. Such a one is made of May-apple, juice of aloes, and root of jalap, sugar-coated and supplied to all druggists years ago by Doctor Pierce and known as Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. PAINS SHARP AND STABBING

Woman Thought She Would Die. Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Ogdensburg, Wis.—"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. ETTA DORION, Ogdensburg, Wis.

MOTHER! LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE

If cross, feverish, constipated give "California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is ofttimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

CALL FOR 2 MORE REGIMENTS SEEN

SECOND AND THIRD MINNESOTA EXPECT SUMMONS TO JOIN TWIN CITY UNIT.

FORT SNELLING MADE READY

To Be Regimental Headquarters at Least During Mobilization—Col. Luce of First Appeals for Recruits.

St. Paul. — The Second and Third Infantry regiments of the Minnesota National guard may be called into service following the convening of Congress. Military officials at the state capitol have indicated belief that the remaining infantry would be called to arms shortly to supplement the First infantry in meeting policing demands provided in the orders of the Central department.

Col. Erle D. Luce of the First Infantry regiment has issued an appeal for recruits, to bring the regiment from peace to war strength to meet the requirements of the Central department for proper policing.

Fort Snelling is being put into shape as quarters for the troops. The regiment headquarters will be quartered at the Fort, at least during mobilization and recruiting.

H. W. Howland, Philippine war veteran, was elected colonel and F. E. Williamson, vice president of the Central Commercial club of Minneapolis, who spent 15 years in national guard service in Illinois, was named lieutenant-colonel, when 20 men who are expected to be commissioned or noncommissioned officers of a provisional regiment met to elect officers. The regiment, which numbers more than 600 men, officers hope, will be allowed to join any expeditionary force to France that Colonel Roosevelt may organize.

Babcock Is Road Commissioner.

St. Paul. — Governor J. A. A. Burnquist has just announced the appointment of Charles M. Babcock of Elk River as highway commissioner of Minnesota, under the provisions of the highway act passed by the present Legislature and signed by the Governor. The commissioner's term of office is six years, with an annual salary of $4,500.

Mr. Babcock was a member of the old highway commission of three members, which is abolished by the new law. Other members were C. I. McNair of Cloquet and Fred B. Lynch of St. Paul.

The new law, which was introduced in the Legislature by Senator R. C. Dunn of Princeton, also abolishes the office of secretary and state engineer, long held by George W. Cooley.

To Fight Pine Blister Rust.

St. Paul. — A call from the United States department of agriculture for a conference April 10 to consider a white pine blister rust quarantine in several states, including Minnesota, has caused the division of entomology, University of Minnesota agricultural college, to request speedy action on senate and house bills providing a fund for stamping out the disease.

"The only place the rust has been found in this state is along the St. Croix river and we have bills before the legislature now asking for money to stamp it out." A quarantine would cause a large loss to nurserymen, Mr. Washburn said.

Shippers Await Opening.

Duluth. — Commissioner Robert MacFarlane of the Lake Carriers' association states that he is preparing to ship several crews for ordinary overhauling that must be done on all steamers before they go into commission. The crews are expected to arrive during the week. The commissioner has men waiting for berths and more are coming in each day so that there will be little difficulty in manning the vessels when they are ready.

Says Mayo Foundation Is Gift.

St. Paul.—"The Mayo Foundation is a gift; it does not perpetuate a private business, and the income may be spent either within or without the state at the discretion of the board of regents." This was the answer of F. B. Snyder, president of the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota, to the statement of Dr. C. L. Greene.

Free Dentistry For Recruits.

St. Paul.—Any applicant for enlistment in United States war service in St. Paul, whether for army, navy, marine corps or national guard, who is rejected because of bad teeth, will have his teeth put in shape for acceptance. The work will be done free by members of the St. Paul Dental society.

Win Buttermakers' Contest Prize.

Hills. — Fritz Lemberg of Hills, Rock county, with a score of 95½, won the March competition in the winter contest for butter and cheesemakers under the direction of the State Dairy and Food Commission. Carl Bomholtz of Georgeville was second. Four buttermakers tied on a score of 93¾ for third place are Carl P. Olson, Litchfield; N. J. Hedlund, Annandale; August Schoberg, Rush City, and Ben Carlson, Braham. Prize winners in the winter contest will be announced later.

HAD A CAPITAL OF $400

In Six Years He Was Well Off

An Alberta farmer, who had borrowed from a loan company, in remitting to them the last payment on his mortgage, decided to give them the history of his experience, on a Manitoba farm. It was that of many another farmer, and for the benefit of those who contemplate a change the liberty is taken of reproducing it.

"I will give you here a brief summary of my experience since coming here six years ago. I was a new hand at farming, my trade being meat-cutting and butchering. My capital was $400, which was a first payment on my quarter section (160 acres). Most of my stock, harness, implements, etc., were bought at sales, all "on time," necessarily. The buildings on the place were about as good as nothing and had either to be rebuilt or replaced entirely. There were 26 acres broken, and very badly farmed, bringing poor returns the first year." After mentioning a number of mischances, he says: "In spite of all these drawbacks, I have done well. I consider my farm worth $3,500 to $4,000. I have four head of horses, 12 of cattle, over 400 purebred Buff Orpington chickens and 125 turkeys, besides implements, harness, etc., to run my place. I have a well 170 feet deep with an inexhaustible supply of water. The well with pump cost me $400. I have built a $125 chicken house and put up nearly $50 worth of poultry fencing; have built root cellars to hold over 3,000 bushels of potatoes and other vegetables. As to income, I raise about ten acres of garden and roots annually which net from $600 to $1,000 total. I generally sell from 20 to 40 tons timothy hay which brings from $6 to $14 per ton. My grain is most all used on the farm except a few hundred bushels sold to the neighbors for seed. My four milk cows bring in from $50 to $80 each (counting calf). Last year 80 hens laid 600 dozen eggs which averaged more than 25 cents a dozen (I always work for winter egg production). The surplus hens were sold in spring, dressed at $1 each. My turkeys average $2.50 each in fall. By having vegetables to feed my young cattle, the two-year-old steers bring $75 each in spring."—Advertisement.

HOUSE PASSES BUT SIX CHILD WELFARE MEASURES IN DAY

REMAINING THIRTY-FOUR BILLS UNDER SAME CATEGORY ARE PUT OVER AND MADE SPECIAL ORDER.

MARRIAGE LICENSE ACT CAUSES DELAY IN PLAN

Requirement for Advance Notice Eliminated From Bill After Long Debate—Commissioner's Bill for Care of Children by Welfare Boards Is Passed.

St. Paul, March 28.—The so-called child welfare program struck a snag in the House and instead of the 40 measures going through according to advance plans, only six were passed, and only one of these was of major importance. The others will be considered on special order later.

The bill amending the present law governing the issuance of marriage licenses caused the split that disarranged the plans of the sponsers for the measures.

The bill was originally presented with a recommendation that applicants be compelled to give ten days' notice of their intention to wed.

The joint legislative committee changed the bill so that only five days' notice should be required.

Representatives George L. Siegel and George H. Moeller started a fight to eliminate the notice altogether and won by a vote of 61 to 48.

Both Parties Must Appear.

The existing law requires the clerk of court to examine the applicant for a marriage license relative to the legality of the contemplated union. The proposed new law would compel both parties to appear.

If objection is made in writing, the application must be certified to the district court and no license issued without a judge's order.

Marriage of persons afflicted with contagious diseases also would be prohibited by the proposed law.

After several unsuccessful efforts had been made to amend it, the commissioner's bill to centralize the responsibility for the care of all children needing the care of guardians, was passed. The bill provides for welfare boards in each county under the direction of the State Board of Control.

Refuses to Testify.

M. W. Thatcher, public accountant who has examined the books of the Equity Co-Operative Exchange at intervals in the past two years, refused to give the Teigen investigating committee any information regarding the financial affairs of the company.

Chairman A. F. Teigen of the committee believes that Mr. Thatcher can be compelled to testify. Attorney James Manahan for the Equity takes an opposite view, and is waiting for Mr. Teigen to make a move to compel the witness to testify.

"The Equity books are open to the committee," Mr. Manahan declared. "We welcome an inquiry, but Mr. Thatcher was within his rights in refusing to testify. He simply is an employe of the Equity company."

Dry Forces Receive Setback.

St. Paul, March 28.—The dry forces in the Minnesota House of Representatives received a setback when they failed to muster enough votes to make the Cummings-Norton bill relating to blind pigs a special order of business. The vote was 63 to 57. The drys needed 66 votes, however.

Wet leaders in the House object to the bill in its present form on the ground that it is so drastic that a brewery, a hotel or a cafe could be abated as being a blind pig.

Public Domain Bill Up.

The public domain bill, the first of the important bills prepared by the efficiency and economy commission, was considered by the Senate.

That the vote on the measure would be very close was the prediction of leaders on both sides.

Very little surface opposition was developed in the first two hours of debate. But there is much opposition just the same, sufficient, say many, to defeat it.

The bill making two years in college one of the requirements for registration as a pharmacist was killed in the state Senate.

May Break Teuton Grip in Balkans.

Petrograd, March 28.— Russia may break the grip of the Teutonic empires in the Balkans—may even bring about withdrawal of Bulgaria and Turkey from the war. Two moves by the new government leaders were cited as likely to have far-reaching effect to this end.

Dead Naval Hero Awarded V. C.

London, March 28.—For "most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty." in the battle of Jutland, a posthumous Victoria cross has just been awarded Commander Loftus Jones. Jones in the torpedo boat destroyer Shark led a division of destroyers to attack the enemy battle cruiser squadron. A shell hit the Shark's bridge, putting the steering gear out of order, and disabled the main engine. Although wounded in the leg Jones went aft to help connect and man the after wheel. He went down with his ship.

Canada Offers 160 Acres Free to Farm Hands

Bonus of Western Canada Land to Men Assisting in Maintaining Needed Grain Production

The demand for farm labor in Canada is great. As an inducement to secure the necessary help at once, Canada will give

ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY ACRES OF LAND FREE AS A HOMESTEAD

and allow the time of the farm laborer, who has filed on the land, to apply as residence duties, the same as if he actually had lived on it. This special concession is the reduction of one year in the time to complete duties. Two years' residence instead of three as heretofore, but only to men working on the farms for at least six months in 1917. This appeal for farm help is in no way connected with enlistment for military service but solely to increase agricultural output. A wonderful opportunity to secure a farm and draw good wages at the same time. Canadian Government will pay all fare over one cent per mile from St. Paul or Duluth to Canadian destination. Information as to low railway rates may be had on application to

RAILROAD SITUATION IS NOW LARGELY UP TO CONGRESS

Must Share Responsibility In Future Development.

ROBERT S. LOVETT'S VIEWS

"Unification of Regulation Is Essential." A Complete, Harmonious, Consistent and Related System Needed—Federal Incorporation of Railroads by General Law Favored.

Washington, March 26. — Responsibility for the railway development of the country, for providing necessary transportation facilities to care for the growing business and population of the country, now rests largely with congress and not entirely with the railroad managers. This was the statement of Judge Robert S. Lovett, chairman of the executive committee of the Union Pacific system, to the Newlands joint congressional committee when that body resumed its inquiry into the subject of railroad regulation this week.

In making this statement of the changed conditions of the railroad situation Judge Lovett undoubtedly had in mind the decision of the supreme court on the Adamson law, handed down last week, which establishes the right of the federal government to fix railroad wages and to prevent strikes. This decision is regarded by railroad men and lawyers as marking an epoch in the development of transportation in the United States.

"We have our share of responsibility," said Judge Lovett, "but it rests primarily on congress. When the government regulates the rates and the financial administration of the railroads, the borrowing of money and the issuance of securities it relieves the railroad officers of the responsibility of providing and developing transportation systems, except within the limits of the revenue that can be realized from such rates and under such restrictions.

"For a country such as ours, for a people situated as we are, to blunder along with a series of unrelated, inconsistent, conflicting statutes enacted by different states without relation to each other, instead of providing a complete and carefully studied and prepared system of regulation for a business that is so vital to the life of the nation, is worse than folly."

He summed up the present problems and difficulties of the railroads as follows:

First.—The multiplicity of regulations by the several states with respect to the issue of securities, involving delays and conflicting state policies generally dangerous and possibly disastrous.

Second.—The state regulation of rates in such a manner as to unduly reduce revenues, to discriminate in favor of localities and shippers within its own borders as against localities and shippers in other states and to disturb and disarrange the structure of interstate rates.

Third.—The inability of the Interstate Commerce Commission, whoever the commissioners may be, to perform the vast duties devolving upon it under existing laws, resulting in delay—which should never occur in commercial matters—and compelling the commissioners to accept the conclusions of their employees as final in deciding matters of great importance to the commercial and railroad interests of the country.

Fourth.—The practical legality that has been accorded conspiracies to tie up and suspend the operation of the railroads of the country by strikes and violence and the absence of any law to compel the settlement of such disputes by arbitration or other judicial means, as all other issues between citizens in civilized states are to be settled.

Fifth.—The phenomenal increase in the taxation of railroads in recent years.

Sixth.—The cumulative effect of these conditions upon the investing public, to which railroad companies must look for the capital necessary to continue development.

"We believe that the unification of regulation is essential," said Judge Lovett, "and that with the rapid increase of state commissions in recent years congress will in time be compelled to exercise its power in the premises. To unify regulation there should be a complete, harmonious, consistent and related system. We believe the best, if not the only practical plan, is the federal incorporation of railroads by general law, which will make incorporation thereunder compulsory, thus imposing on all railroad companies throughout the United States the same corporate powers and restrictions with respect to their financial operations and the same duties and obligations to the public and the government, so that every investor will know precisely what every railroad corporation may and may not lawfully do."

Judge Lovett contended that the solution of these problems and difficulties rested with congress. He told the committee that under the constitution the authority of the federal government is paramount, that congress has the power to legislate for a centralized control of railroads under federal charters and that it only remains for that body to exercise that power.

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said, "Take tonoline,

Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the of the blood—and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:—As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

Greatest Poets.

Homer, Lucretius, Dante, Shakespeare, Goethe, Milton, Shelley, Byron, Tennyson, Browning. Perhaps others might be added. It is largely a matter of taste and temperament—although there is but little room for argument about the first six names.

Invented in 1589.

The knitting frame was invented in 1589 by William Lee, a graduate of Cambridge university and a native of Woodborough, near Nottingham, England. So perfect was the invention in every detail that to this day the essential feaures of the machine continue in use for the class of work to which Lee applied it.

Early Slave-Holding State.

Maryland was an early slave-holding colony, for in 1642 Governor Calvert bargained with a certain shipmaster for the delivery of 13 African "slaves."

War Declared.

The United States Congress has passed a resolution declaring that a state of war exists with Germany and extensive preparations are being made all over the country to protect the lives and property of our people on both land and sea.

Now that war has been declared it is no time for discussions about it, but everyone should show their loyalty. Despite the fact that Germany previous to Feb. 1st, (when the ruthless submarine campaign was commenced that caused the war) tried to get Mexico to make war on us in case the U. S. entered the war against Germany, and promised them they could annex Texas, New Mexico and Arizona to Mexico and also wanted them to get Japan to fight us too and promise them the Philippine Islands as their reward,— despite all this and lots more— there are still a few people who think the United States should not go to war, but instead let the Kaiser "Lord it" over the world.

The United States Navy wants 40 men a day from Minnesota. Warships are waiting for men to run them. One man to-day may be worth two to-morrow. Minnesota should not be backward. If the volunteer system does not bring men fast enough the draft will be resorted to, in fact such a bill is being urged on Congress right now.

Nils Engebretsen has received word from the Navy Department, if two or more from here want to enlist a recruiting agent will be sent [illegible] tation to the Minneapolis station will be furnished at Government expense. Apprentices, firemen and clerks are sent to the Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Illinois, machinists and experienced marine boiler firemen to the Navy Yard at Bremerton, Wash., electricians to the Navy Electrical School at the Navy Yard in New York, for training. Slight physicial defects will not bar a man from joining the navy The army needs men too. Full information at the postoffice. Get busy and do something for your country.

Hog Raisers Can Lower the Cost of Pork Production

Big profits can not be expected from hogs that cost too much to fatten. Unless a hog's digestion is good he can not earn you a penny as too much high priced grain passes through its system undigested and is wasted.

Can You Afford to Waste High Priced Grain Feed?

Under ordinary feeding conditions, an animal will fail to digest about 45 per cent of its grain food—nearly one-half will pass through its system and be wasted. You can improve the digestion and assimilation of farm animals through the use of

INTERNATIONAL STOCK FOOD TONIC

You can save from 20 to 33 per cent of their grain feed. It improves digestion and assimilation, purifies the blood, strengthens the entire system and keeps the animal in good health and condition.

Good For All Kinds of Live Stock

It will help to fatten hogs, beef cattle and sheep quickly, will improve the milk flow of cows, and will help horses to do more work at a big saving in grain feed.

106 Fly Poison Cases Reported in 3 Years

A Large Percentage Fatal

Appalling as this record seems, it is only a fraction of the real number. The symptoms of cholera infantum and arsenical poisoning are almost identical. Diagnosis is extremely difficult. Many actual fly poison cases are unrecognized and unreported.

The Government recognizes this danger to childhood and issues this warning, in supplement No. 29 to the Public Health Report:

"Of other fly poisons mentioned, mention should be made, merely for the purpose of condemnation, of those composed of arsenic. Fatal cases of poisoning of children through the use of such compounds are far too frequent, and owing to the resemblance of arsenical poisoning to summer diarrhea and cholera infantum, it is believed that the cases reported do not, by any means, comprise the total. Arsenical fly-destroying devices must be rated as extremely dangerous, and should never be used, even if other measures are not at hand."

Rats and Fires.

At a time when everyone is complaining of the high cost of living it might be well to see if we cannot eliminate two great sources of waste—fires and rats.

Most fires are needless. All rats are so. Some years ago a study of the rat problem in Philadelphia arrived at the conclusion that the rodents of that city ate more than a million dollars' worth of food each year. At that rate, the disgusting creatures can hardly cost less than $100,000,000 per year to the whole country. This is a pretty high price to pay for the companionship of impish pests which, besides their other bad habits, undermine floors and carry the most dreaded of all diseases, bubonic plague.

Yet fires are more expensive than rats. In 1915—the last year for which figures are at hand—the American people paid out in premiums for fire insurance $419,361,346. Of this vast sum at least three-fourths could be saved by reducing our fire record to the rate prevailing in England, France or Germany; and even in our time and nation $300,000,000 per year is a saving worth noting, and one which would have a perceptible effect on the cost of living.

An extravagant man is always talking to his wife about the necessity of economy.

CONGRESS DECLARES STATE OF WAR BETWEEN U. S. AND GERMANY

Adopts Joint Resolution That Places This Country in the Ranks of the Belligerents—Six Senators Vote Against Measure After Hot Debate—Great Majority in the House Favors the Action.

Text of the joint resolution adopted by congress, declaring a state of war between the United States and Germany:

"Whereas, The imperial German government has committed repeated acts of war against the government and the people of the United States of America; therefore, be it

"Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the state of war between the United States and the imperial German government which has thus been thrust upon the United States is hereby formally declared; and that the president be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to employ the entire naval and military forces of the United States and the resources of the government to carry on war against the imperial German government; and to bring the conflict to a successful termination, all of the resources of the country are hereby pledged by the congress of the United States."

Washington, April 6.—The United States is now formally enlisted among the belligerents in the great war, for congress has adopted the resolution declaring a state of war between this country and Germany, brought on by the imperial government's repeated hostile acts.

The senate was the first to act on the war resolution and adopted it by a vote of 82 to 6. The six senators who voted against the resolution for war were:

ASLE J. GRONNA, Republican, North Dakota.

HARRY LANE, Democrat, Oregon.

R. M. LA FOLLETTE, Republican, Wisconsin.

G. W. NORRIS, Republican, Nebraska.

WILLIAM J. STONE, Democrat, Missouri.

J. K. VARDAMAN, Democrat, Mississippi.

There were eight senators absent or paired. They were: Bankhead, Goff, Gore, Hollis, Newlands, Smith of Maryland, Thomas, and Tillman. Of those absent it was announced that all except Senator Gore of Oklahoma against the resolution were members would have voted for the resolution if present.

All six of the senators who voted against the resolution were members of the group of twelve which defeated the armed neutrality bill at the last session. There was no attempt to filibuster this time, however.

Thirteen Hour Debate.

Thirteen hours of heated debate preceded the vote. Party lines disappeared in this discussion and Republicans joined with Democrats in sounding the call to the nation to support the president unitedly.

The little group opposed to the resolution drew fire from every side. Senator La Follette, defending Germany and heaping blame upon England, was informed by Senator Williams that Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German chancellor, would have made the same speech in the reichstag had he been imbued with sufficient effrontery.

Senator Norris, charging that the United States is going to war at the behest of the munition barons of Wall street, drew from Senator Reed the retort that such an accusation is "almost treason."

The assertion that the nation was going to war on the demand of gold, he said, was "an indictment of the president of the United States, an indictment of congress, of the American people, and of the truth."

"The president is not calling America to arms for the sake of a few paltry dollars," Senator Reed continued, "but for the life, honor, and integrity of this country."

Introduced by Hitchcock.

In introducing the resolution into the senate, Senator Hitchcock made a brief statement in which he said that the present time was one "for action, not discussion."

"The time for discussion has passed," he said. "The president has stated clearly, effectively, more conclusively the reasons which make this grave step necessary. The resolution provides for war against the imperial German government. It places responsibility for the war squarely upon the shoulders of the German government, charged with repeated acts of war against the United States.

"We want no more territory. We will demand no indemnity. We have no grudge to settle, nor racial antipathy. We will spend our treasure and our blood and sacrifice our lives without the thought of gain. We are going to war to vindicate our honor and independence as a great nation and in defense of humanity.

"Such quarrel as we have with Germany is not of our choosing. It was forced upon us and we did much to avoid it. For nearly three years the president, congress, and the American people have hoped to avoid it. But one desperate act by the imperial German government has followed another."

German Pledges Broken.

Senator Hitchcock was followed by Senator Swanson of Virginia, who said the German government "has repeatedly and grossly violated its treaty obligations to us, and wantonly broken solemn assurances."

"The issue is not peace or war," Senator Swanson continued. "War has already been declared upon us. The issue is whether we shall accept war or abject and cowardly submission."

Reciting the sinking of American ships, German plots, and outrages in this country, Senator Swanson said the Zimmermann plot to incite Mexico against this country "reaches the lowest depths of national turpitude."

Many other senators took part in the debate, Gronna, Stone, Vardaman, Norris and LaFollette, all opposing the resolution.

Senator Smoot made the last speech—a short prayer that God would "hasten the day when liberty will be enjoyed by all the peoples of the earth."

The roll call was taken while the senators and spectators sat solemn. A few cheers greeted the result and then all filed quietly out of the chamber.

House Vote, 373 to 50.

The house, after a debate lasting about seventeen hours, adopted the joint resolution by a vote of 373 to 50. Nearly a hundred representatives made speeches.

In offering the senate resolution as a substitute for its own, the house foreign affairs committee submitted a long report reviewing the history of submarine warfare and America's futile protests against it, German intrigues and bomb plots in this country, the effort to ally Japan and Mexico against the United States and the mistreatment of American officials and citizens in Germany.

"It is with the deepest sense of responsibility for the momentous results which will follow the passage of this resolution," said the report, "that your committee reports it to the house, with the recommendation that it be passed.

"The conduct of the imperial German government toward this government, its citizens and its interests, has been so discourteous, unjust, cruel, barbarous, and so lacking in honesty and practice that it has constituted a violation of the course of conduct which should obtain between friendly nations.

"In addition to this the German government is actually making war upon the people and commerce of this country, and leaves no course open to this government but to accept its gage of battle and declare that a state of war exists."

Flood Opens the Debate.

Under the unanimous consent rule by which the resolution was considered Representative Flood could move the previous question at any time after one hour and, if sustained, bring the measure to a vote. He was disposed, however, to give members every opportunity to speak throughout the day. The debate began without any limitation.

"War is being made upon our country and its people," Representative Flood said in opening. "Our ships are being sunk. Our noncombatant citizens, including men, women and children, are being murdered, our merchantmen are denied the freedom of the seas. There is no choice as to our course. We are compelled by the acts of the German government to enter into this most colossal war.

"We should take our stand by the side of the allied nations who have been fighting humanity's battles for two and one-half years, determined that our power shall be so employed that complete victory shall crown their efforts and that Prussian militarism shall be crushed and the world shall be delivered from the threat and danger of the Hohenzollern dynasty."

Villa to Be "Neutral."

El Paso, Tex., April 6.—Villa will be an "incorruptible neutral" in the event of war between the United States and Germany, it was announced by leaders of the Villa junta here, after the arrival of a courier with this message direct from Villa's camp in Mexico. Villa wants Mexico to avoid any entangling alliances. He is expected to make a statement defining his attitude, which will be sent out by messenger as soon as news of war reaches Villa's camp.

Edison Toils on War Devices.

Washington, April 6.—Somewhere on the seaboard, guarded from prying eyes, Thomas A. Edison and a little group of super-inventors are working hard—plotting Germany's downfall.

Just what the brain children are—just how far they will upset all past methods of warfare—and just how far the German government will come to fear this little group of workers, is yet to be revealed. Other than a small inner circle of governmental experts their activities are known to no one.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR A CHILD'S BOWELS

It is cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.

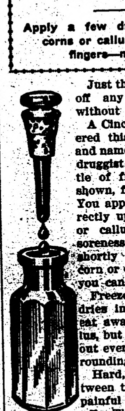
WOMEN! IT IS MAGIC! LIFT OUT ANY CORN

Apply a few drops then lift corns or calluses off with fingers—no pain.



Just think! You can lift off any corn or callus without pain or soreness.

A Cincinnati man discovered this ether compound and named it freezone. Any druggist will sell a tiny bottle of freezone, like here shown, for very little cost. You apply a few drops directly upon a tender corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears, then shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can lift it right off.

Freezone is wonderful. It dries instantly. It doesn't eat away the corn or callus, but shrivels it up without even irritating the surrounding skin.

Hard, soft or corns between the toes, as well as painful calluses, lift right off. There is no pain before or afterwards. If your druggist hasn't freezone, tell him to order a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

AUSTRIA SEVERS RELATIONS WITH U. S.; WAR SEEN

ENVOY AT WASHINGTON ASKS FOR PASSPORTS FOR STAFF —U. S. AMBASSADOR NOW OUT OF AUSTRIA.

GERMAN PRESSURE IS BLAMED FOR DECISION

Breach Believed Prelude to Declaration of State of War—Communication With Sofia and Constantinople Cut—Bulgars and Turks to Act.

Washington, April 10.—Austria-Hungary, under pressure of Germany, has severed diplomatic relations with the United States.

Baron Erick Zweidinek, charge d' affaires of the Austro-Hungarian embassy here, has called at the state department and asked for passports for himself and the embassy staff.

Word From Switzerland.

Almost at the same time a dispatch was received from American Minister P. A. Stovall at Berne, Switzerland, saying the dual monarchy had broken off diplomatic relations with the United States in Vienna.

It is presumed this was done by handing passports to American Charge J. C. Grew.

Spain Takes Over Interest.

American Ambassador F. C. Penfield, who had left Vienna on Saturday, probably did not know of the government's action.

By prearrangement, Spain will take over the diplomatic and consular interests of the United States in Austria-Hungary. All Austrian consular agents will depart from the United States with the diplomatic mission, as was the case with Germany.

Austria-Hungary has asked Sweden to take over its interest in the United States.

Expect Bulgars and Turks to Act.

Up to the time Charge Swiedinek asked for his passports no similar action had been taken by Bulgaria and Turkey—Germany's two other allies—and their representatives here disclaimed having any knowledge of the intention of their governments. It is expected here they will follow by breaking diplomatic relations.

Austria's break with the United States undoubtedly is the prelude to a declaration of a state of war. Sixty-two days elapsed between the break in relations between the United States and Germany and the formal declaration of a state of war.

War Believed Certain.

How many days will elapse before Germany's chief ally enters a state of war with Germany's newest enemy will be decided entirely by circumstances. The diplomatic history of civilization and the precedents of centuries show a state of war invariably follows a breach in diplomatic relations between first class powers.

Quite aside from this, Austria has subscribed, even if only academically, to Germany's campaign of ruthlessness, although it has not carried it out against American interests.

Besides that it is considered that it would be quite impossible to have abroad in the United States on a friendly status the diplomatic and consular agents of Germany's ally.

Penfield at Zurich.

The safe arrival of Ambassador and Mrs. Penfield at Zurich, Switzerland, with three members of the embassy was reported to the department.

Joseph C. Grew, formerly secretary at Berlin, is charge in Vienna. He received his passports at Berlin, so this is the second diplomatic break in which he has been a participant.

Austria's severance cuts off all communication with Sofia and Constantinople as the Greek cable to the latter city, the only route except via Vienna, has just been cut.

$5,000,000,000 WAR BOND BILL COMES UP THURSDAY

Decision Reached by McAdoo and Member of Committee—Bill Aimed at Plotters Passed.

Washington, April 10.—A decision to introduce the $5,000,000,000 bond issue measure on Thursday in the house has been reached by Secretary W. G. McAdoo and Representative Henry T. Rainey of Illinois, ranking democratic member of the ways and means committee.

Without discussion a bill providing for punishment for destruction of war materials has been passed by the senate. It is the first legislation passed aimed at the activities of plotters in this country.

U. S. Supreme Court Reconvenes.

Washington, April 10.—The Supreme court has reconvened after a fortnight's recess. Numerous decisions are anticipated, but it is generally believed that, because of the nation's entrance into the war, the court will refrain from deciding litigation such as the federal dissolution suits against the so-called "Steel," "Harvester" and "Anthracite Coal" trusts, which might disturb economic conditions or interests involved in the mobilization and utilization of industrial resources for war purposes.

CRISIS OF WOMAN'S LIFE

Change Safely Passed by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Wagoner, Okla.—"I never get tired of praising Lydia E. FARM LABOR IN DEMAND IN WESTERN CANADA

Extraordinary Inducements Being Offered.

Previous articles have dealt with the necessity of producing extra quantities of foods to feed the world during this stress of high consumption and paucity of production. Instead of the condition improving it is growing worse, and unless drastic and immediate action is taken, prices will continue to climb high. It is hoped by the Canadian government that by offering extra inducements to secure a homestead of 160 acres of excellent land in the homesteading areas of Western Canada, with the combined effort of the farmer in extraordinary preparation of tillage and bigger wages than ever, that Western Canada, with the assistance of a Divine Providence, may produce a greater number of million acres of wheat than ever in the past. The farm laborer can now secure a homestead on easier conditions than ever before. All the time that he works for a Western Canadian farmer during 1917, after he makes his entry or filing will count as residence on his homestead for that year, leaving him but two additional years' residence, before getting title to a piece of land that should then be easily worth $1,600. The response to this offer has been wonderful, and hundreds have already taken advantage of it.

The climate of Western Canada is one that breeds energy, instils life and buoyancy, and with the soil that the country possesses, no greater asset could be desired. The country is past the pioneering stage; its ability to grow all the smaller grains better than any other portion of the continent has been proven so often that it seems a waste of time to speak of it. The high name that has been given the country in the splendid class of live stock that it raises, has placed it in the high column with the best states of the Union. And then social conditions, something that every housewife asks about, are as nearly perfect as could be wished for. Thousands of miles of telephone line connect the remotest hamlet with the principal cities of the country and continent, miles of excellent graded roads, as well as the perfect natural roads of the prairie, make driving and hauling easy. Gridironed as these provinces are with railway lines bring the farm near to Atlantic or Pacific, or United States markets, rural mail delivery brings the settler still closer to the homes abroad. Rural and consolidated schools everywhere are easy adjuncts to the colleges and universities, which are said to be among the best on the continent.

Taxation is light, and only applied on the farm land, cattle, implements, etc., on the farm being exempt. Many farmers, having realized sufficient from one crop of wheat to pay for their entire farm holdings, have installed their own electric light and heating plants, have their automobiles and many luxuries they would not have possessed on their old home abroad. Life is comfortable and existence enjoyable in Western Canada. In no country is there a greater per centage of contented farmers, and in no part of the continent is farming easier or more profitable.

Land there will produce 30 bushels of wheat to the acre, while there are many cases where the yield was higher, as high as 70 bushels. What this means to the farm laborer does not fully appear on the surface. He will get good wages, he can secure a homestead worth at the end of three years about $1,600, while working for wages he can put in residence duties, and can also look around, and find a good location.

Besides the homesteading attraction of Western Canada, there remains the other fact that other lands can be purchased at from $15 to $30, while improved farms may be had at reasonable figures.

The desire to have a piece of land of one's own is a natural instinct in the heart of every properly developed man and woman. In earlier years, on account of the great areas of land available in the United States, no great difficulty was experienced by any ambitious settler of that country who wished to become his own landholder, but the rapid increase in population, combined with the corresponding rise in the price of land, has completely changed this condition. Land, which a generation ago might be had for the homesteading, now commands prices ranging to $100 an acre and over. At such prices it is quite hopeless for the tenant farmer or the farmer's son in moderate circumstances, or the city man with limited capital, to attempt to buy a farm of his own. To pay for it becomes a life-long task, and the probability is that he will never do more than meet the interest charges. If he is serious in his desire to secure a farm home, he must look to countries where there is still abundant fertile land available at moderate cost, and where these lands are to be purchased on terms which make it possible for the settler with small capital to become a farm owner as the result of a few years' labor. He will also want land in a country where the practices of the people are similar to those to which he has been accustomed; a country with the same language, same religion, same general habits of living, with laws, currency, weights and measures, etc., based on the same principles as those with which he is familiar. He wants a country where he can buy land from $10.00 to $30.00 an acre, which will produce as big or bigger crops as those he has been accustomed to from lands at $100.00 an acre. He wants this land where social conditions will be attractive to himself and his family, and where he can look forward with confidence to being in a few years independent, and well started on the road to financial success.

All these conditions he will find in Western Canada, and nowhere else. The provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, commonly called "Western Canada," provide the one and only answer to the land-hungry. The land is here; it is the kind of land he wants; the conditions are as nearly ideal as is possible, and the prices and terms are such that the man of moderate capital has an opportunity not available to him elsewhere.—Advertisement.

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save Your Hair! Get a 25 Cent Bottle of Danderine Right Now—Also Stops Itching Scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, luster and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use; when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp. WAR PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT; ALIENS ARE WARNED

Subjects of Kaiser Ordered to Keep the Peace.

CITIZENS OF U. S. ASKED TO SUPPORT GOVERNMENT

Wilson Calls for Volunteers for Both the Navy and Army—May Resort to Selective Draft Later—Enemy Foreigners Barred From Government Property.

Washington, April 7.—The state of war proclamation which President Wilson signed on Friday follows:

"Whereas, the congress of the United States, in the exercise of the constitutional authority vested in them, have resolved by joint resolution of the senate and house of representatives bearing date this day, 'that a state of war between the United States and the imperial German government, which has been thrust upon the United States,' is hereby formally declared:

"Whereas, it is provided by section 4067 of the revised statutes as follows:

"'Whenever there is declared a war between the United States and any foreign nation or government or any invasion or predatory incursion is perpetrated, attempts or threatened against the territory of the United States by any foreign nation or government and the president makes public proclamation of the event, all natives, citizens, denizens or subjects of a hostile nation or government being male of the age of fourteen years and upward who shall be within the United States and not actually naturalized shall be liable to be apprehended, restrained, secured and removed as alien enemies.'

Authority Given President.

"The president is authorized in any such event by his proclamation thereof or other public acts to direct the conduct to be observed on the part of the United States toward the aliens who become so liable; the manner and degree of the restraint to which they shall be subjected.

"Whereas, by sections 4068, 4069 and 4070 of the revised statutes, further provision is made relative to alien enemies:

Proclaims a State of War.

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim to all whom it may concern that a state of war exists between the United States and the imperial German government, and I do specially direct all officers, civil or military, of the United States that they exercise vigilance and zeal in the discharge of the duties incident to such a state of war, and I do, moreover, earnestly appeal to all American citizens that they in loyal devotion to their country, dedicated from its foundation to the principles of liberty and justice, uphold the laws of the land and give undivided and willing support to those measures which may be adopted by the constitutional authorities in prosecuting the war to a successful issue and in obtaining a secure and just peace.

Duties of American Citizens.

"And, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution of the United States and the said sections of the revised statutes, I do hereby furher proclaim and direct that the conduct to be observed on the part of the United States toward all natives, citizens, denizens or subjects of Germany, being male, of the age of fourteen years and upward, who shall be within the United States and not actually naturalized, who for the purpose of this proclamation and under such sections of the revised statutes are termed alien enemies, shall be as follows:

Position of Aliens.

"All alien enemies are enjoined to preserve the peace toward the United States and to refrain from crime against the public safety and from violating the laws of the United States and of the states and territories thereof, and to refrain from actual hostility or giving information, aid or comfort to the enemies of the United States and to comply strictly with the regulations which are hereby or which may be from time to time promulgated by the president, and so long as they shall conduct themselves in accordance with law they shall be undisturbed in the peaceful pursuit of their lives and occupations and be accorded the consideration due to all peaceful and lawabiding persons, except so far as restrictions may be necessary for their own protection and for the safety of the United States, and toward such alien enemies as conduct themselves in accordance with law all citizens of the United States are enjoined to preserve the peace and to treat them with all such friendliness as may be compatible with loyalty and allegiance to the United States.

Penalties for Disobedience.

"And all alien enemies who fail to conduct themselves as so enjoined, in addition to all other penalties prescribed by law shall be liable to restraint or to give security or to remove, depart from the United States.

"And pursuant to the authority vested in me, I hereby declare and establish the following regulations, which I find necessary in the premises and for the public safety:

"1. An alien enemy shall not have in his possession at any time or place any firearms, weapons or implements of war or component parts thereof, ammunition, maxim or other silencer, arms or explosives or material used in the manufacture of explosives.

"2. An alien enemy shall not have in his possession at any time or place, or use or operate, any aircraft or wireless apparatus, or any form of signaling devices, or any form of cipher code or any paper, document or book, written or printed in cipher or in which there may be invisible writing.

"3. All property found in the possession of an alien enemy in violation of the foregoing regulations shall be subject to seizure by the United States.

Must Not Approach Forts.

"4. An alien enemy shall not approach or be found within one-half of a mile of any federal or state fort, camp, arsenal, aircraft station, government or naval vessel, navy yard, factory or workshop for the manufacture of munitions of war, or of any products for the use of the army or navy.

"5. An alien enemy shall not write, print or publish any attack or threat against the government or congress of the United States or either branch therof, or against the measures or policy of the United States, or against the persons or property of any person in the military, naval or civil service of the United States, or of the states or territories, or the District of Columbia or of the municipal governments therein.

Residences Restricted.

"6. An alien enemy shall not commit or abet any hostile acts against the United States or give information, aid or comfort to its enemies.

"7. An alien enemy shall not reside in or continue to reside in, to remain in or enter any locality which the president may from time to time designate by an executive order as a prohibitive area.

"8. An alien enemy whom the president shall have reasonable cause to believe to be aiding or about to aid the enemy or to be at large to the danger of the public peace or safety of the United States, or to have violated or to be about to violate any of these regulations, shall remove to any locality designated by the president by executive order and shall not remove therefrom without permit, or shall depart from the United States if so required by the president.

"9. No alien enemy shall depart from the United States until he shall have received such permit as the president shall prescribe or except under order of a court, judge or justice, under sections 4069 and 4070 of the revised statutes.

"10. No alien enemy shall land in or enter the United States except under such restrictions and at such places as the president may prescribe.

May Compel Registration.

"11. If necessary to prevent violation of the regulations all alien enemies will be obliged to register.

"12. An alien enemy whom there may be reasonable cause to believe to be aiding or about to aid the enemy, or to be at large to the danger of the public peace or safety, or who violates or who attempts to violate, or of whom there is reasonable grounds to believe that he is about to violate, any regulation to be promulgated by the president or any criminal law of the United States or of the states or territories thereof will be subject to summary arrest by the United States marshal or his deputy or such other officers as the president shall designate, and confinement in such penitentiary, prison, jail, military camp or other place of detention as may be directed by the president.

"This proclamation and the regulations herein contained shall extend and apply to all land and water, continental or insular, in any way within the jurisdiction of the United States."

Call for Volunteers.

The president also issued a call for volunteers to bring the army and navy up to war strength, and gave his indorsement to the general staff army bill designated to obtain men by selective conscription.

"The necessary men," said the president in a statement, "will be secured for the regular army and the National Guard by volunteering, as at present, until, in the judgment of the president, a resort to selective draft is advisable.

"The principles embodied in the legislation presented by the war department to the military committee of the senate and house have my entire approval, and its specific recommendations embody the best judgment of the officers of the war department."

SHOULD SUPPORT RED CROSS

President Wilson Recognizes Society as Official Volunteer Aid Organization of the Country.

Washington, April 7.—"Relief work which is undoubtedly ahead of us" was referred to by President Wilson in a letter sent to the Washington branch of the American Red Cross, saying that as the official volunteer aid organization of the country the society should receive the generous support of the American people. The letter was read at a meeting to raise funds for the local organization.

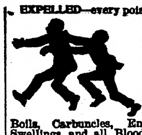
"In order that the relief work which is undoubtedly ahead of us should be made thoroughly efficient," the president wrote, "it is most desirable that it should be concentrated under one organization. The American Red Cross comes under the protection of the treaty of Geneva and has received due recognition from all foreign governments. Its status is thus definitely determined and assured."

Old Looks?

(BY DR. L. H. SMITH)

Persons suffering from too much uric acid in the system frequently look older than they should. They age faster and the appearance of gray hair or baldhead in early years is, indeed, often a sign of uric acid. The face appears lean and haggard, lines and wrinkles appearing in young men or women.

The best way to combat this premature age and the obstruction to the arteries and faulty circulation is of the simplest: Drink copiously of pure water between meals. This will not make you fat, as it is only the water taken with the meals that fattens. Obtain at any drug store a small package of Anuric, which is to be taken before meals, in order to expel the uric acid from the system. The painful effects of backache, lumbago, rheumatism, gout, due to uric acid in the blood should quickly disappear after treatment with Anuric.



EXPELLED—every poison and impurity of your blood, by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Then there's a clear skin and a clean system. Tetter, Saltrheum, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Enlarged Glands, Swellings, and all Blood and Skin Diseases, from a common blotch or eruption to scrofula, are benefited by it.

In building up needed flesh and strength of pale, puny, scrofulous children, nothing can equal it. In liquid or tablet form.

BILIOUS, HEADACHY, SICK "CASCARETS"

Gently cleanse your liver and sluggish bowels while you sleep.

Get a 10-cent box.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Adv.

No Eggs, Milk or Butter

The following recipe shows how an appetizing, wholesome cake can be made without expensive ingredients.

In many other recipes the number of eggs may be reduced one-half or more by using an additional quantity of ROYAL Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted.

EGGLESS, MILKLESS, BUTTERLESS CAKE

1 cup brown sugar
1¼ cups water
1 cup seeded raisins
2 ounces citron
⅓ cup shortening
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon salt
2 cups flour
5 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

The old method (fruit cake) called for 2 eggs

DIRECTIONS—Put the first eight ingredients into saucepan and boil three minutes. When cool, add the flour and baking powder which have been sifted together; mix well. Bake in moderate oven in loaf pan (round tin with hole in center is best) for 35 or 40 minutes. Ice with white icing.

AS PRICES RISE HIGH COST OF LIVING HITS THE RAILROADS

Service Will Be Crippled Unless Relief Comes Soon.

EXPENSES UP, RATES DOWN

Wasteful and Conflicting Regulations Hamper Railroad Credit, While Advance In Labor and Materials Outstrips Revenues, Chairman Kruttschnitt Tells Congress Committee. Unified Federal Control Will Improve Conditions.

Washington, April 2.—The condition in which the railroads find themselves as a result of constant increases in wages, prices of material, taxes and other expenses, while their revenues are restricted by legislation, was strikingly described by Julius Kruttschnitt, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Southern Pacific Company, in his testimony during the past few days before the Joint Congressional Committee on Interstate Commerce, which is making a study of the question of railroad regulation. Mr. Kruttschnitt urged the committee to recommend a plan of regulation which will center responsibility for regulation and its results in the federal government, so that conditions affecting both expenses and revenues may be made subject to a uniform policy instead of the wasteful and often conflicting policies involved in the system of combined state and federal regulation.

Why Roads Need More Money.

Mr. Kruttschnitt's testimony also had a bearing on the reasons for the application of the roads to the Interstate Commerce Commission for a general advance in freight rates. He showed that while the price of transportation has declined in recent years, the cost of producing transportation, like the cost of almost everything else, has rapidly advanced. This he illustrated by showing that if freight and passenger rates had increased during the past twenty years in the same proportion as average commodity prices the railroads of the United States would have received $1,654,000,000 more for transportation in 1915 than they did receive.

This saving to the public was effected, in spite of an increase of 93 per cent in the cost of operation of trains, by a reduction in the average passenger rate per mile from 2.04 cents in 1895 to 1.98 cents in 1915, a decrease of 3 per cent, and by a reduction in the average freight rate per ton mile from 8.39 mills in 1895 to 7.3 mills in 1915, or 13 per cent. During the same period the cost of operation per train mile rose from 92 cents to $1.78, almost doubling. At the same time the average price of 340 commodities enumerated in a bulletin of the Department of Agriculture increased 115 per cent. Transportation is practically the only commodity in general use that has not increased tremendously in price during the past twenty years, freight and passenger charges being lower than they were twenty years ago.

Big Saving to Public.

If rates had risen proportionately to the increase in the cost of other articles of ordinary use, Mr. Kruttschnitt told the committee, the average passenger rate in 1915 would have been 2.95 cents a mile, or 50 per cent higher than it was, and the average freight rate would have been 1.21 cents, or 66 per cent higher than it was. The saving to the public in passenger fares through this difference was $314,000,000 and in freight rates $1,340,000,000.

Universal railroad bankruptcy under this reduction in rates and increased cost of operation, he said, was avoided only by heavy expenditures to obtain increased efficiency in train movement, making it possible to haul more tons of freight per locomotive. This had reduced the average cost of hauling a ton of freight, but the decline in the average freight rate had reduced the net revenue of the roads from each ton hauled. If the operating costs of the railroads, including the prices of coal, labor and material, continue to advance at the present rate a lot of railroads will be in the hands of receivers by 1918 unless some relief is afforded Mr. Kruttschnitt told the committee.

"Owing to the rise of commodity prices," he said, "the purchasing power of the dollar has fallen 55 per cent and the railroads are in the position of being compelled by law to accept payment for their service to the public in currency worth 45 cents on the dollar.

Public's Chief Interest.

"The public's greatest interest is in adequate transportation facilities and not so much in low rates. As to most commodities freight rates form a very small proportion of their cost. Excluding low grade commodities, the percentage of the freight rate to the cost is so slight as to offer no justification for any substantial increase in prices to the consumer. It may be stated with little fear of contradiction that the consumer seldom, if ever, profits from a lowering of freight rates.

"Extortionate charges are a thing of the past, and under the attempt to cut rates to their lowest possible figure the interest of the whole public in the character and standard of transportation is subordinated to the interest of that part of the public only that profits by lower rates—that is to say, the shippers and their agents and not the general public, the ultimate consumer."

The Boy Who Dreams.

It is a good thing for the farmer boy to have an imagination, says the Prairie Farmer. It is a good thing for him to "dream dreams and see visions." It takes a dreamer to see the transformation that intelligent effort will bring to pass on the old place. It takes a dreamer to see how much more desirable that place will be in ten years than a job in a dry goods store.—Emporia Gazette.

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said, "Take tonoline.

Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the of the blood—and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:—As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

Sleep cannot knit up the raveled sleeve of care or do any other reparative knitting, if the head is bent sharply to an acute angle with the collar joints. Frequently men and women who have slept in this supposedly objectionable fashion for years and years suddenly lose the capacity for sleep with no new discoverable reason. It is difficult to convince them that the elasticity and resiliency of youth has heretofore made up for their lifelong awkward pose.

Potatoes are selling at $3.00 a bu. and up, in all the large cities. Wonder why it would'nt pay to raise a good sized patch of the tubers this year?

Greatest Poets.

Homer, Lucretius, Dante, Shakespeare, Goethe, Milton, Shelley, Byron, Tennyson, Browning. Perhaps others might be added. It is largely a matter of taste and temperament—although there is but little room for argument about the first six names.

Early Slave-Holding State.

Maryland was an early slave-holding colony, for in 1642 Governor Calvert bargained with a certain shipmaster for the delivery of 13 African "slaves."

Start raising pure seed potatoes or grains this year. T. M. McCall, Experiment Station, Crookston gives full information free. They can also tell how to treat potato seed for any kind of diseases.

Potato yields can in most cases be doubled by the corrosive sublimate treatment. Well rotted manure is what is needed on potato fields.

Our Country's Peril

The Authorities at Washington have called upon the people at this time to assist the nation by intensive cultivation of the soil, thereby increasing all kinds of crops, vegetables and food-stuffs. Also to increase herds, flocks, etc., and their products. Butter, cheese, eggs and all kinds of meats will bring good prices, also vegetables of all kinds as flour is already higher than at any time since the civil war.

The need is great. Every patriot should do their part, whether fighting for their country or raising food for the people. A large Army and Navy is to be fed, and their fighting strength depends on food and care. They must be fed no matter what the cost. Then too there are those to feed who toil in factories, shops and other trades, the business and professional men, the women and children, all must eat or die as they have by the thousands in Europe and Asia. Many have been and more will be taken from the producing class and become consumers of food. The awfulness of war, which pen cannot describe, is upon on. Our peril is great from within and without. Foes are within and without that will give the country lots of trouble, there will be loss of life and property, sickness, suffering and untold sorrow, too terrible to think about. The farmer must not add to the burdens of this government, but must produce the largest crop possible. Town people must help with the largest gardens possible. Already prices of food-stuffs are soaring skyward and unless a halt is soon called— there will be starvation [illegible]

With all possible loyalty to the flag and to our country, we say from a heart that cannot feel any bitterness for the common people of Germany, "May God hasten the day when the Dove of Peace shall again reign over this fair land of ours," "the home of the Free and the Land of the Brave." Our Country First, Last and All the Time.

Since setting the above in type an S. O. S. message has come from the U. S. Navy Dept., stating their great need for men at this time, the most critical and perilous, in our national history. Congress can vote money, ammunition, cannon, etc., but the men must come from all the walks of life. The enlistment papers are ready at the postoffice for all who desire to serve their country.

Recruits Wanted!

Having received official orders to act as a recruiting agent, I take this opportunity of soliciting young men for enlistment in the Army and especially for the Navy, which needs men to run ships that are already and waiting.

The safety of the United States is in peril and men are needed to protect the country, its citizens and their rights. Will you heed your country's call for help? How many men of this community are willing to go to the front now, while you may enlist for the duration of the war, only, under legislation just enacted by congress? Give us your application which will have prompt attention.

Yours for the United States,
Nils Engebretsen,
Postmaster.

Notice

The United States Government at the present time is [illegible] the people the necessity of increasing the production of food stuffs to the utmost extent, with a view to making the crop this year the largest in history, in all products of the soil. By so doing they will not only be performing a patriotic duty but will be acting in their own best interests, as the prospects point to a continuation of high prices with a ready market.

In line with this movement, we urge upon all the importance of increasing the acreage in crop to the largest possible extent. No field should lie idle. As much new land as possible should be opened up for crop. All available spaces in the country and in town should be made truck gardens.

Wherever seed is lacking we will endeavor to supply same as far as we may be able at lowest possible prices.

Yours truly,
Red Lake Falls Milling Co.

Melvin Mortrud came over from Newfolden the first of the week to run the butcher shop for Ole Pachlund.

A farmer recently told us that he was going to treat all his seed grain and potatoes for smut and scab and that he would thereby get a much larger yield at very little expense. He also told us he was going to plant 15 acres of corn and that raising corn was better for the land than summer fallowing, also the same was true of potato raising.

Sheriff's Proclamation To Foreign Born Residents.

I, Hans C. Hanson, Sheriff of Marshall County, deem it wise in the present crisis, in this formal proclamation to assure all residents of foreign birth that even in the event of the United States becoming actively involed in the great European war, no citizen of any foreign power, resident in Marshall County, need fear any invasion of his personal or property rights so long as he goes peaceably about his business and conducts himself in a law-abiding manner.

The United States has never, in any war, confiscated the property of any foreign resident unless by his own hostile acts he made it necessary.

I take this formal means of declaring to all foreign born residents that they will be protected in the ownership of their property and money, and that they will be free from personal molestation, so long as they obey the laws of the State and Nation.

Let it be understood that every citizen owes undivided allegiance to the American flag, that he is expected to loyally fulfill all obligations which citizenship and residence impose upon him, and that any act, however slight, tending to give aid or comfort to the enemy is treason, for which severe penalities are provided in addition to that punishment which public opinion inflicts upon the memory of all traitors in all lands.

I urgently request that all our people refrain from publicly criticising our Government in [illegible] present crisis and maintain a calm and considerate attitude toward all without regard to their nationality.

Dated this 17th. day of April 1917
Hans C. Hanson
Sheriff of Marshall County Minn.

The Marshall county press is loyal to the country in this time of dire distress, with but one exception.

Chas Hagglund has moved back onto the farm just west of town. His son Oscar will work the Johnson farm this year.

Lewis Brandt moved from Roseau Wednesday with a car of stock, mchinery, etc which he moved onto a farm near Newfolden.

Thirty five cases of eggs were shipped from this station last Saturday. Wonder how much they would bring at present prices?

Young men can now enlist in the army just for the time the war lasts, and have all the advantages of soldiers even if never sent to the front. Enlist now.

The war may last a long time, and it will take many men from their regular employments. They must be feed no matter what the cost. Farmers are urged to plant every available acre to potatoes beans peas, rutabagas, carrots, onions and all kinds of vegtables. About 20 pounds of navy beans are required to plant an acre. They have always been on the rations of the army and the price will be high.

In planning for the seasons crop, don't forget that patch of potatoes and corn, which you will need this year. There is need that every acre be made to produce a full crop.

Mangels, stock carrots and rutabagas yield 12 to 20 tons per acre and should be grown as feed for stock. They can be used to some extent in place of grain and will be [illegible]

Ole Reierson recently shipped 43 bu. pure Early Ohio seed potatoes to Clarksville, Iowa, which he sold for $2.00 a bushel F. O. B., Holt. Does it pay to raise pure seed? Try it and see if it don't pay.

There is already a shortage of food stuffs in this country. Just in the last few days it was announced that the supply of wheat in the United States and Canada will be exhausted before the 1917 crop is ready.

This should be sufficient warning to the farmers. The granaries of the world are nearly empty. A shortage of crops in the United States this year will mean a shortage all over the world next winter. This warning is sent out by the county agent, R. C. Matwig, at Warren.

Twenty-six horses, 26 head of cattle, 3 hogs, baled hay, seed oats and barley, 2 mowers, 2 hayrakes, corn planters and cultivators, discs, gang, sulky and breaking plows, all kinds of harrows, wagons, boxes and buggies, gas engines, feed and fanning mills, seperators, drill, potato planter, harnesses, etc., will be sold Friday April 20, by Nordlum & Schenkey, on their farm, a half mile north of Middle River.

Sleep cannot knit up the raveled sleeve of care or do any other reparative knitting, if the head is bent sharply to an acute angle with the collar joints. Frequently men and women who have slept in this supposedly objectionable fashion for years and years suddenly lose the capacity for sleep with no new discoverable reason. It is difficult to convince them that the elasticity and resiliency of youth has heretofore made up for their lifelong awkward pose.

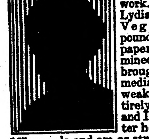
WOMAN SICK TWO YEARS

Could Do No Work. Now Strong as a Man.



Chicago, Ill.—"For about two years I suffered from a female trouble so I was unable to walk or do any of my own work. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and determined to try it. It brought almost immediate relief. My weakness has entirely disappeared and I never had better health. I weigh 165 pounds and am as strong as a man. I think money is well spent which purchases Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Jos. O'Bryan, 1755 Newport Ave., Chicago, Ill.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver and bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Adv.

LIFT YOUR CORNS OFF WITH FINGERS

How to loosen a tender corn or callus so it lifts out without pain.

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called freezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out.

This drug dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn or callus without even irritating the surrounding skin

A small bottle of freezone obtained at any drug store will cost very little but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

If your druggist hasn't stocked this new drug yet, tell him to get a small bottle of freezone for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

SMALL TOWNS ASK MILITARY GUARDS

REQUESTS FOR PROTECTION OF GRAIN ELEVATORS AND OTHER PROPERTY RECEIVED.

MANY OWNERS ARE ANXIOUS

Uneasiness Attributed to Reports of Incendiary Fires in Minneapolis Industrial Plants in the East. Much Seed Wheat Stored.

St. Paul.—Numerous requests for military guards to protect various property, and especially grain elevators in small towns, which are being made to state executives are attributed by Lyndon A. Smith, attorney general, to anxiety on the part of owners following reports of incendiary fires in Minneapolis elevators and industrial plants and war demonstrations in eastern cities.

"Large quantities of seed wheat are stored in country elevators and a general fear seems to be that efforts will be made to destroy it," Mr. Smith said. "The anxiety expressed in many quarters appears genuine, whether the real situation is such to demand extra precautions in this direction."

Investigation by state inspectors showed that in the case of the recent fires in Minneapolis flames were communicated from one elevator to the other, but failed to disclose the origin of the first fire, R. W. Hargadine, state fire marshal, announces.

Offers Services to Nation.

St. Paul.—Public officials, professional and business men and other patriotic citizens in all sections of Minnesota are bombarding Governor Burnquist with tenders of service to American fighting forces. Mayors of towns without national guard organizations are offering volunteer companies. Physicians and dentists, clergymen, business executives, veterans of other wars and numerous others are sending telegrams and letters urging that they be called whenever the country needs their services.

Merwin M. Carleton Post No. 5, Veterans of Foreign Wars, St. Paul, tendered the services of its members through Commander William H. Eckley.

Offers of volunteer organizations have been received from Mayor G. A. Hansen, Tracy, and Mayor F. J. Schisler, Winthrop; Charles M. Brewer, a St. Paul attorney; Van Gordon of Brown's Valley; George P. Gurley, attorney, Pipestone; C. N. Carver, Lamberton, and Putnam Grey, 82 years old, Minneiska.

F. E. Kenaston of Hopkins, Capt. J. H. Barnard, United States cavalry, and A. X. Schall, a Minneapolis attorney, are others who have made similar tenders to the governor. All these communications were acknowledged and referred to Adjutant General Wood, pending further developments.

Baptist Young People Meet.

Little Falls.—Predictions were made by those in charge of arrangements that attendance records would be shattered at the seventh annual convention of the Baptist Young People's union of the Northwestern Association of Minnesota, which held a four-day session here.

Election of officers took place Saturday noon. The afternoon session was marked by a debate between representatives of the Brainerd and Detroit branches of the union. The question at issue, "Resolved, that the challenge legion will be of greater value to the B. Y. P. U. than the standard of excellence."

On Indian Land Sales.

Minneapolis. — The immediate development of more than 700,000 acres of land lying idle in Minnesota because of litigation over title is the probable result of a decision handed down by the United States supreme court in a test case involving the right of mixed-blood Indians to sell their lands.

This is the statement of Marshall A. Spooner, Bemidji, who made the winning argument before the court at Washington, March 15, and who was in Minneapolis when the news of the decision reached him.

Cooley, State Engineer, Retires.

St. Paul. — George W. Cooley, state engineer and secretary of the state highway commission during the last 11 years, has retired from active service. He declined appointment as deputy commissioner under Babcock.

Grow Hemp at Crookston.

Crookston. — A group of farmers in this vicinity are co-operating with the Northwest Experiment station and the International Harvester company in growing hemp.

Youths to Help Feed Nation.

St. Cloud.—Corn, pig raising, chicken raising and potato contests feature the program of the schools of Stearns and Benton counties to meet emergencies during the coming farming season. The work will be carried on under the high schools of St. Cloud and Sauk Rapids, and boys and girls from 10 to 18 years will take part. The Stearns county fair also has offered inducements on pig raising and the Benton county fair has offered big prizes for increased yield in all departments.

PERMANENT PROGRAM OF WORK ADOPTED BY CLUBS

Farmers' Federation Urges Erection of County Exhibition Building at Brainerd.

Brainerd. — The County Federation of Farmers' Clubs, in session in Brainerd, has adopted a permanent program of work, the projects to be followed up and progress reported at monthly meetings of clubs. These include:

The organization of live stock shipping association. Organization of federal farm loan association. Formation of cow-testing association. Organization of potato growers' association to be affiliated with the State Potato Growers' association. To promote the erection of a county exhibition building in Brainerd. Preliminary exhibitions are advocated to show the need of the proposed building.

Demonstrations and experiments with soils, farm crops and live stock to be carried on by club members in co-operation with the county agents.

Officer Faces Court-Martial.

Duluth. — Brigadier General F. E. Resche, commanding the Minnesota National Guard, has stated that charges had been preferred against Lieutenant Colonel Oliver J. Quane of St. Peter, Minn., by Colonel William T. Mollison, commanding the Second infantry, Minnesota National Guard, his immediate superior.

The court-martial will convene in St. Paul late in April, the general said. Specifications of the charges against Lieutenant Colonel Quane were not made public here, although it was said that he was accused of being instrumental in circulating a petition signed by ten officers of the Second regiment calling upon Colonel Mollison to resign.

Lieutenant Colonel Quane was given his rank last January.

Can Aid U. S. in Building Roads.

St. Paul. — Virtually one-half the road building outfits used in Minnesota can be turned over to the government on short notice should such equipment be needed for the defense of the country. Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, has been investigating the available resources of the state for road construction in connection with military operations in defense of the country and has received data which warranted this conclusion.

The response by the counties and townships to the inquiries sent out by the commission was almost immediate.

Funds for Armory at Crosby.

Crosby. — The State Board of Investment has voted to buy $10,000 of certificates of indebtedness issued by the armory board to provide funds for a new armory at Crosby. Applications for a loan of $1,000 from Rose town, Ramsey county, on refunding bonds, and another of $2,000 from School District No. 35 in Big Stone county were approved. A disbursement of $20,000 was ordered on a loan to District No. 84, Lincoln county, for a new school at Hendricks.

More Guards to Be Called.

Minneapolis. — Drafting into the federal service of the Second and Third infantry regiments and First Field artillery, Minnesota National guard, is being considered by the War department, in the belief of army officers in the Twin Cities. It has been pointed out that all officers in the First infantry now rendering federal service must be recommissioned or new officers placed in command of the regiment by President Wilson.

State Plants Salmon Fry.

Duluth. — Millions of land-locked salmon fry are being planted this spring in the inland lakes of Northern Minnesota, according to a report given out by John C. Green of Duluth, deputy game warden. So far 3,500,000 fry have been planted. Fifteen years ago all of the inland lakes of the North contained these fish, but they disappeared.

Medical School Open All Summer.

Minneapolis. — At the request of the Council of National Defense, the University of Minnesota medical school will not close for the summer. Sessions will continue until the war ends. "Under this plan," the dean said, "the present junior class may be graduated next February and the sophomore class in August, 1918."

Dead Fish in Lake Winona.

Winona. — Dead fish, smothered in Lake Winona, have given the authorities here a health problem. The matter of hauling away millions of the decaying bodies of the fish washed up on the shore is receiving serious consideration. It is difficult to get to the point where the fish lie.

Students to Hold Stock Show.

Minneapolis. — The second annual live stock show by students of the Minnesota Agricultural college who are members of the Live Stock club will be held Saturday afternoon, April 21.

City Fights High Living Cost.

Duluth.—To help fight the high cost of living, employes of the public works division of Duluth will plow ground for home gardens. The Exposition association is bringing together owners of lots and growers who lack ground. Two men and a team will be used for the work until the need for a larger force is apparent, when further city teams will be employed. T. W. Walker, president of the Duluth Exposition association, has in mind using boy scouts to weed the gardens.

ATTEMPT IS MADE TO CALL SUFFRAGE BILL BACK TO LIFE

RESURRECTION OF MEASURE FAILS IN STATE SENATE WHEN 49 DECIDE TO LET BILL REST IN ITS GRAVE.

ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION IS ATTEMPTED IN VAIN

Outcome Is Foregone Conclusion Before Contest Is Started—Several Military Bills Introduced in Both Houses—Governor Delays Safety Bill.

St. Paul, April 10.—Attempts to resurrect the suffrage issue in the Minnesota legislature have failed.

Senator D. P. O'Neill and 13 others tried to bring the constitutional suffrage amendment bill back to life by voting to overturn the report of the election committee whereby the measure had been killed. There were 49 who decided to let the measure rest in its grave.

The efforts of Senator O'Neill and his small number of followers were directed mainly to putting some of the heretofore ardent supporters of suffrage into the open. Senator Olai Lende, chairman of the elections committee, frankly stated that the bill had been killed because the drys did not want to submit the suffrage amendment at the same time that prohibition is submitted to the people.

Outcome Was Foreseen.

The outcome of the resurrection attempts were a foregone conclusion long before the fight was started. A group of women, comprising members of the Equal Franchise league, were responsible for the attempts, however.

Senator Ward of Martin county, aroused many of the senators when he insisted that the vote would show who was hypocritical on the suffrage question. Incidentally, Senator Ward had voted against constitutional suffrage two years ago and was criticized for his "change of heart."

With the action the last vestige of hope—if it could have been called such—for resurrecting the suffrage issue, vanished.

Governor Delays Bill.

Upon the request of Governor Burnquist, action on the public safety commission bill was delayed.

It is understood the governor objects to the present form of the section relating to pay for the soldiers who served on the Mexican border. He wants the legislature to fix the amount. The bill gives the public safety commission such power.

The Senate finance committee will go over the bill again and will later report it to the Senate for action.

Military Bills Introduced.

Several military bills were introduced in both houses. One to prevent interference with enlistments, another to prohibit aliens from having firearms or explosives in their possession were introduced by Senator George H. Sullivan and Representative Albert F. Pratt.

Representative Sudheimer introduced a resolution in the House urging the federal government to place the burden of the war upon persons having incomes of $7,500 or more a year. Representative Devold, Socialist, introduced a resolution asking for confiscation of railroads, warehouses, mines and incomes of $10,000 or more.

Public Safety Bill Passed.

St. Paul, April 11.—Without a dissenting vote the Minnesota Senate has passed the George H. Sullivan bill providing for creation of a public safety commission with wide powers to handle the war situation so far as Minnesota is concerned. The bill carries an appropriation of $1,000,000.

Immediately after the passage of the big "war measure," a drastic bill aimed at the I. W. W.'s and all others who advocate criminal syndicalism, terrorism and sabotage, was passed with only the Socialist member, Richard Jones of Duluth, opposing it.

"Product of an Emergency."

The Public Safety commission bill had been amended by the finance committee so as to provide for the establishment of home guards. Governor Burnquist's request that the Legislature take all of the responsibility for the pay of soldiers who served on the Mexican border was turned down by the committee. Under the bill as passed by the Senate, the commission, with the governor acting as the chairman, will have to take full responsibility.

Senator G. H. Sullivan, in asking for immediate passage of the Public Safety commission bill, said that it was the "product of an emergency."

Three Changes Made.

Three important changes were made in the bill before it was passed. Provisions for establishment of home guards was the most striking change. The summary removal of civil officers by the governor upon the recommendation of the commission was another change.

Both the Public Safety commission and the I. W. W. measure will now go to the House for action. Supporters will ask that the two bills be passed under suspension of rules.

GREAT BATTLE ON FROM NORTH SEA TO SWISS BORDER

FIGHTING ON WESTERN FRONT HAS ASSUMED PROPORTIONS OF GENERAL ENGAGEMENT ON LONG LINE.

ENEMY WRECKING LENS; HAIG NEAR ST. QUENTIN

Desperate German Resistance and British Choice of Action Delay Fall —Raiding Operations Carried Out by Belgian and French Troops.

London, April 17.—Fighting on the western front has assumed almost the proportions of a general engagement from the North Sea to the Swiss border.

As yet the infantry has not been heavily engaged except to the north of Loos, in the Lens region or east of the Soissons region, within which confines the battle of Arras and the struggle for St. Quentin are being waged.

Artillery Duels More Intense.

The artillery duel, however, is growing in intensity in the region of Rheims, in the Champagne and down the line to Lorraine and Alsace.

Raiding operations by the French in these sectors also have assumed great importance and similar significant activities are being displayed by the Belgians north of the present great battlefield.

Infantry Offensive Seen.

Were attention not centered at present on the dramatic situations about Lens and St. Quentin, the fall of both being considered imminent, the great artillery battle in the region between Soissons and Rheims, which has been going on for several days, doubtless would have attracted more notice. As it is, the potential importance of this duel of the big guns cannot be minimized, presaging, as it may, offensive movements of the infantry on a large scale.

German Resistance Desperate.

In this connection the probability of a northward push by the French from the Rheims region to turn the left flank of the Hindenburg line as the British have turned the right at Vimy, has come to the front while the artillery battle has been raging.

Desperate German resistance and a probable desire by the British to squeeze the Germans out of Lens, rather than drive them from this coal mine and factory town by a direct bombardment and frontal attack, have delayed the fall of the city.

Lens Being Wrecked.

The latest official statement from London, however, shows the British lines creeping steadily closer, notably on the northwest.

Within the town the Germans are reported working havoc in the destruction of industrial plants and mines and feverishly removing guns and stores to follow the population in the exodus which already has been effected.

The situation around St. Quentin is little changed, but both the British and French statements reveal a situation there which is making the town untenable for the Germans.

Haig Closing on St. Quentin.

London, April 17.—In the face of the fiercest opposition yet rallied against the British drive, Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig's forces have battered their way still further around Lens and pushed another wedge to within a mile and a half of the Cambrai-St. Quentin line.

EVENTFUL WEEK FACED BY PEOPLE OF AMERICA

Congress to Put War on Firm Footing—President's Appeal to Hasten Active Participation.

Washington, April 17.—One of the most eventful weeks in American history lies before the United States.

With President Wilson's appeal calling for the co-operation of every man and woman of the nation in waging a successful war, bringing the conflict home to every farm, factory and household, events of the next few days will move America rapidly forward to participation in the struggle with Germany. Congress will put the war on a firm footing this week.

ALEXIEFF MADE CHIEF OF ALL RUSSIAN ARMIES

Petrograd, April 17.—General Alexieff has been named commander-in-chief of all the Russian armies. He had been chief of staff of the army.

German-Americans Are Loyal.

Kansas City, April 17.—In a great Americanization meeting here, 10,000 Americans, born under 14 different flags, sprang to their feet, waving the American colors and rending the Sabbath peace with shouts of approval at the utterances of Rev. Andreas Bard, German pastor here. "The word is spoken," he told his audience, 1,000 of whom were German-Americans, "we will back the president to the limit. We raise the Stars and Stripes and shout to the world: 'America for all; all for America!'"

Makes Hard Work Harder

A bad back makes a day's work twice as hard. Backache usually comes from weak kidneys, and if headaches, dizziness or urinary disorders are added, don't wait—get help before the kidney disease takes a grip—before dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease sets in. Doan's Kidney Pills have brought new life and new strength to thousands of working men and women. Used and recommended the world over.

Sidney Goodnow, machinist, 208 W. Eleventh St., Devils Lake, N. D., says: "Three years ago I was suffering from my back. It was lame and weak and ached most all the time. My kidneys were weak and disordered, too. The first few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills gave me relief and as I continued using them, they removed the trouble. I have found this medicine to be just as represented."

New Test for Color Blindness.

A new and accurate test for color blindness has been devised in Sweden and is described in the Upsala Lakareforenings Forhandlingar by Drs. C. G. Bostrom, G. F. Gothlin and H. J. Ohrvall.

It is made with a chart on which are evenly scattered patches of color, all very much alike and of irregular outline, showing the white background between them all. They are a light and a dark reddish lavender and a dull cherry red. The dull red patches are arranged in such a way that they form a large figure three or six, but as these are exactly the same tone as the lighter lavender it would be impossible to distinguish the figure unless one was certain of the difference in tint between the red and the lavender.

The figures are to be spoken aloud as read.

Died of Premature Old Age!

How many times we hear of comparatively young persons passing away when they should have lived to be 70 or 80 years of age. This fatal work is usually attributed to the kidneys, as, when the kidneys degenerate, it causes auto-intoxication. The more injurious the poisons passing thru the kidneys the quicker will those noble organs be degenerated, and the sooner they decay.

It is thus the wisest policy, to prevent premature old age and promote long life, to lighten the work of the kidneys. This can be done by drinking plenty of pure water all day long, and occasionally taking a little Anuric before meals. This can be obtained at almost any drug store. You will find Anuric more potent than lithia for it dissolves uric acid as water does sugar.

WITH YOUR HANDS TIED by some chronic "female complaint" or weakness, what can you expect? There's nothing you can accomplish—nothing you can enjoy. And no good reason for it. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure you, safely and certainly, if you'll give it faithful use. For every one of these womanly troubles, this is the only remedy: In periodical pains, bearing-down sensations, organic displacements, and every kindred ailment, and in all the nervous disorders caused by functional derangements.

An easily procured vegetable pill is made up of May-apple, the dried juice of the leaves of aloes, and the root of jalap, made into a tiny pellet and coated with sugar. It was first put into ready-to-use form by Dr. Pierce nearly 50 years ago. Almost every drug store in this country sells these vegetable pellets in vials for 25c—simply ask for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They have Dr. R. V. Pierce stamp.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT, BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Make It Thick, Glossy, Wavy, Luxuriant and Remove Dandruff—Real Surprise for You.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store and just try it. Adv.

PRESIDENT CALLS ON NATION TO JOIN TO SERVE COUNTRY

REGARDLESS OF AGE, ALL ARE URGED TO HELP SHOW EFFICIENCY OF GREAT DEMOCRACY SUCH AS OURS.

SUPREME TEST HAS COME; ALL MUST ACT TOGETHER

The Food Supply Is Paramount and "Everyone Helps Who Cultivates a Garden"—Housewives Are Asked to Use Economy—Duty Is Outlined.

Washington, April 16. — President Wilson has issued the following personal appeal to the people of the United States:

Text of Address.

"My Fellow Countrymen—The entrance of our own beloved country into the grim, terrible war for democracy and human rights which has shaken the world, creates so many problems of national life and action which call for immediate consideration and settlement that I hope you will permit me to address to you a few words of earnest counsel and appeal with regard to them.

"To do this great thing worthily and successfully we must devote ourselves to the service without regard to profit or material advantage and with an energy and intelligence that will rise to the level of the enterprise itself. We must realize to the full how great the task is and how many things, how many kinds and elements of capacity and service and self-sacrifice it involves.

Armament a Simple Task.

"We are rapidly putting our navy on an effective war footing and are about to create and equip a great army, but these are the simplest parts of the great task to which we have addressed ourselves. There is not a single selfish element, so far as I can see, in the cause we are fighting for. We are fighting for what we believe and wish to be the rights of mankind and for the future peace and security of the world.

"These then are the things we must do and do well, besides fighting—the things without which mere fighting would be fruitless:

"We must not only supply abundant food for ourselves and for our armies and our seamen but also for a large part of the nations with whom we have now made common cause, in whose support and by whose sides we shall be fighting.

"We must supply ships by the hundreds out of our shipyards to carry to the other side of the sea, submarines or no submarines, what will every day be needed there and abundant materials out of our fields and our mines and our factories with which not only to clothe and equip our own forces on land and sea but also to clothe and support our people for whom the gallant fellows under arms can no longer work, to help clothe and equip the armies with which we are co-operating in Europe to keep the looms and manufactories there in raw material; coal to keep the fires going on ships at sea and in the furnaces in hundreds of factories across the sea; steel out of which to make arms and ammunition both here and there; rails for worn-out railways back of the fighting fronts; locomotives and rolling stock to take the place of those every day going to pieces; mules, horses, cattle for labor and for military service; everything with which the people of England and France and Italy and Russia have usually supplied themselves but cannot now afford the men, the materials or the machinery to make.

More Efficiency Needed.

"It is evident to every thinking man that our industries, in farms, in shipyards, in the mines, in the factories, must be made more prolific and more efficient than ever and that they must be more economically managed and better adapted to the particular requirements of our task than they have been; and what I want to say is that the men and the women who devote their thought and their energy to these things will be serving the country and conducting the fight for peace and freedom just as truly and just as effectively as the men on the battlefield or in the trenches. The industrial forces of the country, men and women alike, will be a great national, a great international reserve army—a notable and honored host engaged in the service of the nation and the world, the efficient friends and saviors of free men everywhere. Thousands, nay, hundreds of thousands of men otherwise liable to military service will of right and of necessity be excused from that service and assigned to the fundamental, sustaining work of the fields and factories and mines, and they will be as much part of the great patriotic forces of the nation as the men under fire.

Addresses the Farmers.

"I take the liberty therefore of addressing this word to the farmers of the country and to all who work on the farms. The supreme need of our own nation and of the nations with which we are co-operating is an abundance of supplies and especially of foodstuffs. The importance of an adequate food supply, especially for the present year, is superlative.

"Without abundant food alike for the armies and the peoples now at war, the whole great enterprise on which we have embarked will break down and fail. The world's food reserves are low. Not only during the present emergency, but for some time after peace shall have come both our own people and a large proportion of the people of Europe must rely on the harvests in America. On the farmers of this country therefore, in large measure rests the fate of the war and the fate of the nations. May the nation not count on them to omit no step that will increase the production of their land or that will bring about the most effectual co-operation in the sale and distribution of their products? The time is short. It is of the most imperative importance that everything possible be done and done immediately to make sure of large harvests.

"I call on young men and old alike and on the able-bodied boys of the land to accept and act on this duty—to turn in hosts to the farms and make certain that no pains and no labor is lacking in this great matter.

Appeals to the South.

"I particularly appeal to the farmers of the South to plant abundant foodstuffs as well as cotton. They can show their patriotism in no better or more convincing way than by resisting the great temptation of the present price of cotton and helping, helping on a great scale, to feed the nation and the peoples everywhere who are fighting for their liberties and for our own.

"The government of the United States and the governments of the several states stand ready to co-operate. They will do everything possible to assist farmers in securing an adequate supply of seed, an adequate force of laborers when they are most needed at harvest time and the means of expediting shipments of fertilizers and farm machinery as well as of the crops themselves when harvested. The course of trade shall be as unhampered as it is possible to make it and there shall be no unwarranted manipulation of the nation's food supply by those who handle it on its way to the consumer. This is our opportunity to demonstrate the efficiency of a great democracy and we shall not fall short of it.

Middlemen Admonished.

"This let me say to the middlemen of every sort, whether they are handling our foodstuffs or our raw materials of manufacture or the products of our mills and factories: The eyes of the country will be especially on you. This is your opportunity for signal service, efficient and disinterested. The country expect you as it expects all others, to forego unusual profits, to organize and expedite shipments of supplies of every kind, but especially of food with an eye to the service you are rendering and in the spirit of those who enlist in the ranks, for their people, not for themselves.

"I shall confidently expect you to deserve and win the confidence of people of every sort and station.

"To the men who run the railways of the country, whether they be managers or operative employes, let me say that the railways are the arteries of the nation's life and that on them rests the immense responsibility of seeing to it that these arteries suffer no obstruction of any kind, no inefficiency or slackened power.

"To the merchant let me suggest the motto 'small profits and quick service'; and to the shipbuilder the thought that the life of the war depends on him. The food and the war supplies must be carried across the seas no matter how many ships are sent to the bottom. The places of those that go down must be supplied and supplied at once.

Miner Stands With Farmer.

"To the miner let me say that he stands where the farmer does. The work of the world waits on him. If he slackens or fails, armies and statesmen are helpless. He also is enlisted in the great service army. The manufacturer does not need to be told, I hope, that the nation looks to him to speed and to perfect every process; and I want only to remind his employes that their service is absolutely indispensable and is counted on by every man who loves the country and its liberties.

"Let me suggest also that everyone who creates or cultivates a garden helps and helps greatly to solve the problem of the feeding of the nations and that every housewife who practices strict economy puts herself in the ranks of those who serve the nation. This is the time for America to correct her unpardonable fault of wastefulness and extravagance. Let every man and every woman assume the duty of careful, provident use and expenditure as a public duty and as a dictate of patriotism which no one can now expect ever to be excused or forgiven for ignoring.

"In the hope that this statement of the needs of the nation and of the world in this hour of supreme crisis may stimulate those to whom it comes and remind all who need reminder of the solemn duties of a time such as the world has never seen before, I beg that all editors and publishers everywhere will give as prominent publication and as wide circulation as possible to this appeal. I venture to suggest also to all advertising agencies that they would perhaps render a very substantial and timely service to the country if they would give it widespread repetition. And I hope that clergymen will not think the theme of it an unworthy or inappropriate subject of comment and homily from their pulpits.

"The supreme test of the nation has come, we must all speak, act and serve together.

A Smooth Hairless Skin for Women.

From Beauty Secrets

With the aid of a plain medol paste it is an easy matter to rid the skin of unsightly hairy growths. The paste is made by mixing some water with powdered medol. This is applied to the hairs not wanted and after 2 or 3 minutes rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. When you go to your druggist for medol be sure you get the genuine article, and if he will not supply you, the American Proprietary Co. of Boston, will send you a 50c or $1.00 package by mail.

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said, "Take tonoline.

Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the of the blood—and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:—As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

Greatest Poets.

Homer, Lucretius, Dante, Shakespeare, Goethe, Milton, Shelley, Byron, Tennyson, Browning. Perhaps others might be added. It is largely a matter of taste and temperament—although there is but little room for argument about the first six names.

Above Them All.

Homan—"One of the waiters at this place was formerly a duke, one of the chefs was a count and the bellhop was a prince." Ryontoo—"I suppose the manager was formerly a king or emperor?" Homan—"No; he was a milk wagon driver."—New York Sun.

Fireproof Wood.

To make wood fireproof, slack a small quantity of fresh lime and add water until it has the consistency of cream; stir well and add one pound of alum, 12 ounces of commercial potash and about one pound of salt. Stir again and apply while hot. Two or three coats will keep wood fireproof for many months.

Lesson From the Lily.

How easily we lose poise, swept by the current of life! Our root is not deep enough. Consider the lily resting on the face of the waters, its roots far below. How serene it rides the ripples, and how confidently it has sought the light, that its life may expand t... in above the turbulence of the waves.—Trinities and Sanctities.

The Boy Who Dreams.

It is a good thing for the farmer boy to have an imagination, says the Prairie Farmer. It is a good thing for him to "dream dreams and see visions." It takes a dreamer to see the transformation that intelligent effort will bring to pass on the old place. It takes a dreamer to see how much more desirable that place will be in ten years than a job in a dry goods store.—Emporia Gazette.

Sheriff's Proclamation
To Foreign Born Residents.

I, Hans C. Hanson, Sheriff of Marshall County, deem it wise in the present crisis, in this formal proclamation to assure all residents of foreign birth that even in the event of the United States becoming actively involed in the great European war, no citizen of any foreign power, resident in Marshall County, need fear any invasion of his personal or property rights so long as he goes peaceably about his business and conducts himself in a law-abiding manner.

The United States has never, in any war, confiscated the property of any foreign resident unless by his own hostile acts he made it necessary.

I take this formal means of declaring to all foreign born residents that they will be protected in the ownership of their property and money, and that they will be free from personal molestation, so long as they obey the laws of the State and Nation.

Let it be understood that every citizen owes undivided allegiance to the American flag, that he is expected to loyally fulfill all obligations which citizenship and residence impose upon him, and that any act, however slight, tending to give aid or comfort to the enemy is treason, for which severe penalities are provided in addition to that punishment which public opinion inflicts upon the memory of all traitors in all lands.

I urgently request that all our people refrain from publicly criticising our Government in the present crisis and maintain a calm and considerate attitude toward all without regard to their nationality.

Dated this 17th. day of April 1917
Hans C. Hanson
Sheriff of Marshall County Minn.

Recruits Wanted!

Having received official orders to act as a recruiting agent, I take this opportunity of soliciting young men for enlistment in the Army and especially for the Navy, which needs men to run ships that are already and waiting.

The safety of the United States is in peril and men are needed to protect the country, its citizens and their rights. Will you heed your country's call for help? How many men of this community are willing to go to the front now, while you may enlist for the duration of the war, only, under legislation just enacted by congress? Give us your application which will have prompt attention.

Yours for the United States,

BIG RUSH NOW ON

For Western Canada and the 160-Acre Homesteads.

"In a war like this, they also serve and serve effectively who till the fields and gardens.

"It cannot be repeated too often that the world needs every ounce of food it can produce this year, and that the growers of that food are sure of good prices. When men now of middle age were casting their first ballot, 'dollar wheat' was the farmer's ideal of prosperity. Today, we have two-dollar wheat, with other grains and meats and vegetables in proportion; and indications that any shift from these prices is as likely to be up as down.

"Every acre must work. The farmer who increases his crops is performing a national service, as well as assuring prosperity for himself. There cannot be too much, and unless a united and consistent effort is made, there will not be enough."—Chicago Journal.

Now that the United States has joined with the Allies, the sentiment of the past has merged into the personal interest of the present. The duty of the loyal and patriotic citizen is to bend every effort to bring the great World's War to a satisfactory conclusion, to assist in all ways the forces that have been fighting at tremendous odds the giant power of autocracy. Victory is now assured; the union of the great fighting force of the United States navy, its military, its financial co-operation, its full and complete sympathy, will eventually bring about a peace that will be solid and lasting. Canada, just across the border line, that has no mark of fortification, no signs of defense, welcomes the assistance that the United States is rendering, welcomes this new partner into the arena that is battling for a disruption of the forces that breed and beget tyranny and oppression, and fighting for a democratic and free world. What a sight it will be to see the American and the Canadian, with the Stars and Stripes and the Maple Leaf of Canada emblazoned in one fold and entwined in their effort to rid the world of an incubus that has disregarded all laws—human and divine.

There is a necessity for the greatest effort ever was made, not only on the battlefields of Europe, not only on the mined and submarined seas, but in carrying out on the peaceful fields of agriculture, the plans so urgently requested by those at the head of the departments of resources. The recent reports by the Government show a great falling off in the amount of grain that may be expected from the crop as of recent date, being only a little over 60 per cent, 16 per cent less than the average. Every patriotic American will bend all his effort towards increasing this. He may not shoulder a musket, but he can handle a hoe, he can drive a team and manage a plow. He will be doing yeoman service in this way, and assist in a wonderful manner the man who is fighting in the trenches. If he does not now own a piece of land, by all means get one—rent it, buy it—get it. There is lot of vacant land that will give ample return for his labor.

The desire to possess a home, to improve it and to prosper, is natural to every American, and today unprecedented offers are being made to secure the residence of the home-hunter. The war condition is draining the continent of its foodstuffs and economists are endeavoring to meet the rapid depletion of the nation's stores of grain and other farm products. Western Canada has proven her claim to being the natural producer of economically grown foodstuffs and is endeavoring to overcome a world's shortage in necessities by offering her lands, practically free, to anyone who will take them and produce. Labor is scarce in Canada, and is now being bonused. Good wages are offered and the time a farm hand is drawing pay in 1917, is considered by the Canadian Government, the same as residence duties on one of the free 160-acre farms, that this Government is giving away, in order to settle the fertile prairies and bring about within a few years a half billion annual crop of wheat.

The most conclusive evidence is available to any inquirer, that Western Canada farm lands will produce more wheat of a better quality and at a lower cost of production per acre than has heretofore been known in grain-growing countries. It is no idle statement to say, that yields of fifty bushels to the acre of wheat are grown in Canada; the statement is made in all seriousness and is backed up by the letters and affidavits of reliable farmers in Western Canada. These farmers are enjoying the same home comforts that their neighbors to the south participate; they have the same good houses, the same good horses and cattle, the same good roads and communication, as well as the same good social conditions, and, best of all, they own their land and what they earn they own for themselves, being a foundation for greater wealth and independence.—Advertisement.

SHORTAGE OF CARS GLUTS TERMINALS

TWENTY-FIVE MILLION BUSHELS OF GRAIN NOW HELD IN MINNEAPOLIS.

FLOUR MILLS ARE AFFECTED

Able to Run Only at Half Capacity According to Complaint to Rail Commission—Moving of Next Crop May Be Hindered.

Minneapolis. — A glut of 25,000,000 bushels of grain now paralyzing the big Minneapolis terminals will not be more than one-third moved at the present rate before the new 1917 crop begins to arrive. Minneapolis flour mills, running only from 40 to 60 per cent of capacity since last fall, present another serious phase of a car shortage situation almost without precedent.

The foregoing complaints laid before the Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse Commission, are to be taken up with George T. Slade, vice president of the Northern Pacific road, who will represent Western lines on the railway war board, immediately on his return from the East.

This was the only method of seeking relief suggested, following expressions of doubt of the commission's authority because the problem involves interstate traffic largely.

"Unless relief is given, the Northern Pacific and Great Northern roads will be in worse shape than ever next fall because there will be no place available to carry the grain," W. T. Fraser, manager of the Cereal Grading company, said.

New Court Law Explained.

St. Paul. — Chief Justice Calvin L. Brown of the supreme court has issued a statement explaining the workings of the act passed by the Legislature abolishing the two terms of the court, with their call of the calendar. Hereafter appeals will be set by the court as they come in, and the attorneys notified.

This, the chief justice says, will greatly reduce the ever-increasing cost of appeals, for it will do away with the necessity of the client's paying the expense of an attorney's journey to St. Paul on the opening day of the term.

Ice Smothers Fish.

Fairmont.—Thousands of rough and game fish were smothered to death in the ice-covered lakes of Martin county in the past winter. Game Warden Altenberg, who has been making a survey of the fish piled on the shores of the lakes, estimates that no less than 1,777,000 pounds of edible fish, with a market value of $65,000, perished from preventible causes.

Many muskrats also died. The disposition of the dead fish is a problem for local health boards.

First Steamer Loads at Duluth.

Duluth.—The frozen expanse of Lake Superior shifted before the howling blast of the recent northeaster, and great cracks and open spaces showed on the surface in front of Duluth for the first time this spring. Coincident with the coming break-up the steamer Saxonia smashed its way through eighteen inches of blue ice in the harbor to Elevator D for a cargo of grain. The Saxonia will take 250,000 bushels of wheat, and it is expected that more vessels will follow.

Company G Goes to Duluth.

Duluth. — Requests for more troops at the head of the lakes have led to the shifting of Company G, First infantry, to Duluth, Lieutenant-Colonel McGee, in charge during the illness of Colonel Erle D. Luce, it has just been announced. The troops will perform duties similar to those on guard in Minneapolis.

Gopher Debaters Beat Badgers.

Minneapolis. — The University of Minnesota debaters have won a unanimous victory over the University of Wisconsin team on the question of compulsory military training in the United States. The Minnesota team upheld the affirmative side, arguing in favor of universal service.

Pledge Loyalty to U. S.

Wheaton. — In a demonstration of intense loyalty to America fully 1,500 residents of Traverse and adjoining counties gathered in the community school building here and pledged their lives and fortunes to the nation in its war for human freedom.

Pipestone High School Burns.

Pipestone.—Fire of somewhat mysterious origin has destroyed the Pipestone high school building with a loss estimated at $100,000, though it will cost, it is believed, $150,000 to rebuild it.

Owners Offer Use of Idle Tracts.

St. Paul. — Owners of idle tracts of land in Northern Minnesota are literally swamping R. E. Hilton, association commissioner of the St. Paul association, who is listing the lands for use by stockmen in an effort to increase the area available for grains.

Business Men Enroll For Drill.

Stillwater.—More than 30 business men have enrolled for special drill. The list includes a number of former members of Company K, who saw service in the Philippines.

Plan Big Red River Crops.

Crookston. — Northwestern Minnesota will do its share toward providing food stuffs for the United States and its Allies in the war against Germany. This was the expressed conviction of 100 representative farmers, bankers and business men, who met here to formulate plans for increasing food production in the Red River valley.

A survey of the seed and labor supply was urged as the first step to be taken in the campaign for a "bumper" crop. Speakers also laid stress on the necessity for an increase of acreage by farmers.

The labor supply was declared to be one of the big problems that must be solved. It was asserted that the Red River valley will require nearly 20,000 farm hands to harvest the increased crops.

U. S. Appeals to 38 Counties.

Washington, D. C. — Thirty-eight Minnesota counties are called on specifically in an appeal by Secretary Houston of the Department of Agriculture to serve the world need by increasing their spring acreage this month.

The Minnesota counties named in the appeal, in order of importance as spring wheat producers, as the government lists them, are:

Ottertail, Polk, Clay, Kittson, Lac Qui Parle, Marshall, Renville, Stearns, Wilkin, Big Stone, Blue Earth, Norman, Sibley, Swift, Traverse, Faribault, Kandiyohi, Meeker, Pope, Redwood, Yellow Medicine, Brown, Chippewa, Douglas, Le Sueur, McLeod, Stevens, Waseca, Wright, Grant, Nicollet, Becker, Carver, Freeborn, Morrison, Rice, Steele, Todd.

Fight Mosquitos With Fish.

Winona, Minn.—Armed with authority, as well as facts and data collected by the U. S. bureau of entomology, and pressing forward with his most able ally, the bureau of fisheries, F. M. Barnes, a scientist, is now waging a war which he says will never end until mosquitos ask for quarter. The relationship of fish to the mosquito larvae is being investigated. It is known that in southern waters and even in lakes in the north, fish feed on mosquito larvae.

New Range Tax Fight Up.

St. Paul. — Another fight in the long series by iron range towns to tax mining companies has come before the supreme court on arguments in a certiorari review on the petition of the City of Ely against the Minnesota Tax commission. The city is attacking the action of the commission in reducing assessments of certain companies on ore, totaling several million dollars, and contending that the commission exceeded its legal authority.

Hospital Reforms Assured.

Hastings.—Prompt action is planned by the State Board of Control, Chairman Ralph W. Wheelock says, to provide proper medical and other protection for patients, to establish an efficient system of discipline among the employes and to correct other conditions at the Hastings State Insane hospital, which was criticized by the state board of visitors after an investigation of the administration of the institution in a report just made public.

Settlers for Minnesota.

St. Paul.—Minnesota received the largest percentage of settlers who passed through the Minnesota Transfer in April, according to the Transfer report just made public. Of 1,592 settlers who were routed by the Transfer, 489 were on their way to homes in this state. North Dakota was second with 337, Montana third with 321 and Canada fourth with 231.

Snelling Is Training Post.

Fort Snelling has been designated by the War department as one of four army posts where 2,500 reserve officers and candidates for commissions will be given three months of intensive training. The four groups will constitute the first 10,000 to become officers of the half-million troops to be raised for the United States army.

Cloudburst Hits Houston.

Houston.—A cloudburst passed over a six-mile section near this village and in the period of twenty minutes enough water fell to swell a small stream in Looney valley out of its banks. A score or more of small bridges were washed out.

J. J. Hill Estate $50,000,000.

The estate of James J. Hill to be disposed of through the Ramsey county probate court will total more than $50,000,000. It is estimated that $1,500,000 inheritance tax, the largest ever paid in Minnesota, will be paid by the Hill estate.

Orders Flood Range Houses.

Duluth.—The entrance of the United States into the world war has brought a flood of orders for materials of all kinds which have made the range country famous. Private consumers are pressing to obtain deliveries of goods ordered months ago.

Seed Shortage Not Feared.

Minneapolis.—Fear of a shortage of seed wheat and seed potatoes has passed in Minnesota, the crop production sub-committee of the state committee on food production and conservation announces.

C. P. Bull, a member of the subcommittee, explained that the farmers of this state had been notifying the body, since it instituted inquiry, that they were supplied with enough potatoes to plant the increased acreage urged. Seed wheat is now known to be available in sufficient quantities.

U. S. WAR GARDENS WILL HELP TO END WORLD STRUGGLE

MINNESOTA STATE FOOD PRODUCTION COMMITTEE URGES UNIVERSAL PLANTING AS WAR MEASURE.

FOOD SHORTAGE THREATENS

Peril Moves Thousands to Activity—Gardeners Advised to Obtain Bulletin By University—Work Encouraged Because Women Can Carry it on If Men Are Called.

St. Paul.—The peril of a food shortage during the coming winter is moving tens of thousands of persons to start war gardens this spring. Many of these gardeners are new at the game. For this reason some suggestions are given here—suggestions that may be of use even to veteran gardeners.

Gardeners are advised by those familiar with a bulletin on Vegetable Gardening, published by the Agricultural Extension Division of the University of Minnesota, University Farm, St. Paul, to get the bulletin, as it is full of valuable hints and directions of a very practical nature. It gives information regarding the treatment of the soil, manures, seed-sowing, transplanting, insects, plant diseases, hotbeds, amount of seed required, and instructions as to the cultivation of all of the garden vegetables.

This is the kind of an emergency in which every person must do his bit, say the gardeners at University Farm. The gardens started in Minnesota this spring should go far toward feeding those who operate them, thus releasing enormous stores of food for the sustenance of those who are fighting the battles of permanent peace and free government. For this reason the slogan, "Eat more vegetables," should be the guide of all of Minnesota's people, say those in charge of the food production campaign.

The eating of more vegetables during the summer, and in canned form during the winter will mean the saving of large quantities of corn and other non-perishable foodstuffs that may be shipped to America's allies. With these allies bread will count as much as bullets.

Gardening is encouraged, too, because the work can be done largely by women and the young folk in the homes if the men are called to other duties. It is estimated that 20,000 boys and girls can be enrolled in the garden and canning projects, which will help to feed America's armies.

R. S. Mackintosh, of the Agricultural Extension Division of the University, recommends a square-rod garden as the unit from which to work. If one has more space than this to work he can simply add more units on the same plan, or more fractions of units. A plan for a square-rod war garden is given herewith. Mr. Mackintosh suggests that the gardener should find out what he wants and plan his garden accordingly. Only a few vegetables are suggested in the plan he gives, but others may be substituted—potatoes, for example. Every garden, he says, should be just as large as it can be made in order that more than enough vegetables for the summer can be grown—enough for the winter. Early white turnips are suggested as a means of saving potatoes. These turnips mature very soon. Carrots, beets, chard, tomatoes, cabbage, squash, sweet corn, peas, beans (lots of them), parsnips, and early and late potatoes, are other desirable products of the vegetable garden.

In addition to the bulletin already mentioned, a two-page letter containing valuable hints may be had by addressing the Agricultural Extension Division, University Farm, St. Paul.

The plan for the war garden mentioned follows:

Row No.	PLAN FOR A SQUARE ROD GARDEN	Inches between rows
1	Radish and Carrots followed by Tomatoes	12 18
2	Early Peas	12
3	Early Peas	18
4	Radish and Carrots followed by Tomatoes	18 18
5	Early Peas	12
6	Early Peas	18
7	Lettuce followed by Tomatoes	18
8	String Beans	12
9	String Beans	18
10	Spinach followed by Tomatoes	18
11	Early Beets	12
12	Early Beets	12 12

This garden is 16½ feet each way, and is given simply as a suggestion for a garden plan.

Training School For Troops Open.

Superior, Wis., April 21.—A military industrial training school for troops in service has just been opened in Superior. Three hundred and eighty-four enrollments were listed ranging from 23 to 93 in the various classes. Soldiers off duty will be instructed in locomotive and stationary engineering, Morse and wireless telegraphy, field telephony, operation and mechanism of autos, trucks and motorcycles, hippology and the care and treatment of horses and mules, topography, maps, etc.

BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP

A Valued Household Remedy for Over Half a Century.

In our climate, with its sudden changes of temperature, rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day, it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, many deaths resulting from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept in the house, and a few doses taken in time, will possibly prevent a severe illness, a doctor's bill, and perhaps death. For fifty years this has been a very successful remedy for coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles. It induces a good night's sleep with easy expectoration in the morning. For sale by druggists in all parts of the civilized world, 25 and 75 cent bottles.—Adv.

Getting Old Too Fast?

Late in life the body shows signs of wear and often the kidneys weaken first. The back is lame, bent and achy, and the kidney action distressing. This makes people feel older than they are. Don't wait for dropsy, gravel, hardening of the arteries or Bright's disease. Use a mild kidney stimulant. Try Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands of elderly folks recommend them.

A North Dakota Case

Mrs. W. M. Lemmay, 1001 N. Fifth St., Grand Forks, N. Dak., says: "My back began to pain and was very lame. When I tried to get up after sitting, I had to place my hands on my back for support. Mornings when I first got up, I could hardly endure the pain. Finally, I used Doan's Kidney Pills and after I had taken three boxes, the trouble entirely left me."

Too Many Operations

The Right Medicine in Many Cases Does Better than the Surgeon's Knife. Tribute to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Doctor Said Operation or Death—But Medicine Cured.

Des Moines, Iowa.—"My husband says I would have been in my grave today had it not been for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered from a serious female trouble and the doctors said I could not live one year without an operation. My husband objected to the operation and had me try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I soon commenced to get better and am now well and able to do my own housework. I can recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any woman as a wonderful health restorer."—Mrs. BLANCHE JEFFERSON, 703 Lyon St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Another Operation Avoided.

Richmond, Ind.—"For two years I was so sick and weak from female troubles that when going up stairs I had to go very slowly with my hands on the steps, then sit down at the top to rest. The doctor said he thought I should have an operation, and my friends thought I would not live to move into our new house. My daughter asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she had taken it with good results. I did so, my weakness disappeared, I gained in strength, moved into our new home, do all kinds of garden work, and raised hundreds of chickens and ducks. I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. M. O. JOHNSTON, Route D, Box 190, Richmond, Ind.

Of course there are many serious cases that only a surgical operation will relieve. We freely acknowledge this, but the above letters, and many others like them, amply prove that many operations are recommended when medicine in many cases is all that is needed.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

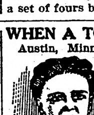
Do You Neglect Your Machinery?

The machinery of the body needs to be well oiled, kept in good condition just as the automobile, steam engine or bicycle. Why should the human neglect his own machinery more than that of his horse or his engine? Yet most people do neglect themselves. To clean the system at least once a week is to practice preventive measures. You will escape many ills and clear up the coated tongue, the sallow complexion, the dull headache, the lazy liver, if you will take a pleasant laxative made up of the May-apple, juice of the leaves of aloes, root of jalap, and called Pleasant Pellets. You can obtain at almost any drug store in this country these vegetable pellets in vials for 25c—simply ask for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. There can be no counterfeit if they have the Dr. Pierce stamp. Proven good by 50 years' use.

WHEN A TONIC IS NEEDED



Austin, Minn.—"I have taken Dr. Pierce's Favorite prescription and Golden Medical Discovery together several times during the last few years when I have felt the need of something to tone up my system and they have always built me up so that I have never had to call in a doctor. I have also taken the 'Pleasant Pellets.' Before I took them I was terribly constipated and since they cured me of that I have not found it necessary to take any purgative at all. I am very glad to recommend Dr. Pierce's remedies."—MRS. GRACE PUGH, 303 Cedar Street.

AN ANCIENT JAPANESE ART

Embroidery Made in Flowery Kingdom for Centuries Before Country Was Opened to World.

Japanese embroidary, now so popular in this country, is one of the oldest arts of the mikado's people. For centuries before the country was opened to foreign intercourse heavily embroidered silk kimonos, screens, and other articles were made by professional embroidery experts, principally in Kyoto. This same profession continues today, having been handed down from father to son for many generations. For this reason the center of the country's art-embroidery industry is at Kyoto, although cheaper embroideries, principally for export, are produced in large quantities in other part of the Kobe district.

The majority of the workers in Kyoto are men, who produce the finer grades of embroidery. It is essentially a household industry, and is usually conducted in small shops, where from three to ten apprentices and skilled embroiderers are employed. The men received from 40 to 75 cents gold per day. The women, however, are able to earn from 15 to 50 cents gold per day, depending upon their ability and diligence.

The manufacture of hand-made lace is a comparatively new industry in Japan, as lace was not used by the Japanese before the advent of foreigners. The industry is still in its infancy, and the output is small.

Takes a Strong Wind, Too.

Dr. George T. MacCoy of Columbus recalls that when the Spanish-American war broke out, in April, 1898, two Irishmen were at work on a new asphalt pavement, being laid on Washington street. He was watching them when one stopped handling his pick and glanced up at the courthouse tower, where a flag was waving.

"What's the use of putting a flag up there?" the man questioned. "The wind will whip it to pieces."

"Yes, but the wind's the only thing that can whip it," was the other's quick reply.—Indianapolis News.

CHINESE MILITARY TACTICS

Celestials Planned to Trip Up Foes, Throw Water in Their Faces and Then Cut Off Their Heads.

At the beginning of the Chino-Japanese war, says a contributor to the Washington Star, one of our military attaches saw a Chinese regiment take the field at a review and go through a very curious performance.

The soldiers carried long bamboo poles like fishing rods, and with these they rushed at one another, yelling wildly and making very queer gestures and grimaces.

"What's the game?" asked the American.

"That regiment," a Chinese general answered, "is one of our very oldest. It is now practicing a form of assault that dates from prehistoric times. The idea is to trip the enemy up with the long wand, throw water in his face and, in the midst of his bewilderment at this extraordinary treatment, to cut off his head."—Youth's Companion.

NEW DRIVE ON WIDE FRONT IN FRANCE IS LAUNCHED BY HAIG

THIRD PHASE OF OPERATIONS AGAINST FORMIDABLE ENEMY DEFENSE BEGUN AFTER A WEEK OF PREPARATION.

TEUTON FLEETS PREPARE FOR BLOW AT PETROGRAD

Transports Leave Libau for Unknown Destination—Believed to Presage Attack—Allies Take Wood and Village from Invaders—General Offensive Resumed.

London, April 24.—While momentous battles are being fought on the western front a new movement of possible vital importance may have been initiated by the Germans in the eastern theater of war. A dispatch from Petrograd reports the departure from Libau on the Baltic south of the gulf of Riga of German transports for an unknown destination.

May Mean Petrograd Offensive.

This may mean that the Germans have begun their threatened operation of making a combined land and sea movement against the Russians by landing on the gulf of Finland in the rear of the Russian northern flank, fighting their way inland and cutting off Petrograd.

British Begin New Drive.

London, April 24.—After a week's interlude, during which they had been consolidating the gains of the first week's offensive and bringing up their guns, the British at dawn began another phase of the operations against the formidable German defense on the front in northern France.

Haig Reports Progress.

General Sir Douglas Haig reports that the forces under his command attacked on a wide front on both sides of the river Scarpe where a portion of the Hindenburg line forms a barrier defending Cambrai, and that they are making satisfactory progress.

More Ground Captured.

Further south, British troops have captured the remainder of the village of Trescault and occupied the greater part of Havrincourt Wood, which formed a two-mile bulge in their line. From this point to St. Quentin, the line approaches very closely the Cambrai-St. Quentin road and canal.

Contemplate Alternate Smashes.

London hailed Haig's report as indicative of resumption of the general British offensive. While there has been no abatement in the pressure around Lens and on the Cambrai-St. Quentin line in the last week, nevertheless it was felt here that the Franco-British strategical plans contemplated alternate smashes in force between the Haig and Nivelle armies. While the French army was making its terrific assault on the Soissons-Auberive front, the British seized the time to consolidate the positions they won in the first smashing drive.

Force Enemy to Concentrate.

Now, however, according to military experts' belief, the British army has started its concerted, all along the front offensive, forcing Hindenburg to concentrate his reserves in opposition and permitting the French in turn to consolidate their positions, bring up more guns and get a breathing spell.

CHINESE LOYAL TROOPS BATTLE REBEL FORCES

Fighting in Cheng Tu Breaks Out As Result of Friction Between Parties—Foreigners Safe So Far.

Cheng Tu, China, April 24.—Fierce fighting has broken out in the streets here between the Sze-Chuen and Yunnan troops, after friction between the two parties since the Yunnanese forces entered Cheng Tu last April. The direct cause of the outbreak was the attempt of the military governor of Sze-Chuen, who is a Yunnanese, to disband the provincial troops and strengthen his grip on the province.

The British, French and Japanese consuls, at much personal risk, have succeeded in arranging an armistice, but the situation is still critical. All foreigners are safe so far.

Turks Sent to West Front.

Copenhagen, April 24.—Berlin is thronged with Turkish troops en route to the western front, and stirred by Socialist peace talk, according to information from the German capital reaching here.

Swedes Would Fight for U. S.

Stockholm, April 24.—More than a hundred Swedish citizens have called on American Minister Morris offering to serve against Germany in the American army.

Ousted pro-German Professor Watched.

Chicago, April 24.—Federal officials are reported closely watching the activities and speech of Scott Nearing, ousted professor of social sciences at Toledo university. Nearing's recent statement in an address at the University of Chicago that "following the President now would lead to the ruin of the republic" is regarded in some quarters as at least seditious if not treasonable. German propagandists are again becoming active here, federal officials declare.

TURKS DECIDE TO SEVER DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS

Constantinople Dispatch Relayed Thru Switzerland—State Department Announces Safe Arrival of British Foreign Minister Balfour and Party.

London, April 23.—The admiralty announces that two German destroyers, possibly three, have been sunk in the course of a German raid near Dover.

Five German destroyers took part in the Dover raid. They were engaged by two Dover patrol vessels. The British suffered no material damage.

The British casualties were slight in comparison with the results obtained. One hundred and five Germans were saved.

Turkey Breaks With United States.

Basel, Switzerland, April 23.—A dispatch from Constantinople says the Ottoman government has notified the American embassy that following the example of its ally, Austria-Hungary, it has broken diplomatic relations with the United States.

Relief Ship Ringhorn Sunk.

London, April 23.—Officials here of the American commission for relief in Belgium have been advised that the steamship Ringhorn, outward bound from Rotterdam with a safe conduct, has been sunk.

Relief Ship Destroyed.

Amsterdam, April 23.—The relief ship Kongsli has been sunk by a mine or submarine. One member of the crew is missing.

Balfour and Party Arrive.

Washington, April 23.—The safe landing of British Foreign Minister Arthur J. Balfour and his party has been announced by the state department. The official announcement said: "The department of state has been advised of the safe landing of Mr. Balfour and his party."

THREE BROADWAY STARS PASS AWAY WITHIN WEEK

"Dave" Montgomery, Ben Teal and "Diamond Jim" Brady Are Dead—"Tin Woodman" To Be Seen No More.

New York, April 23.—For the second time within a week, death has checked the laughter and the song of Broadway.

The theatrical district mourns the loss of three men who contributed much to its life, its art and its works which made the world a little brighter.

The "tin woodman" will never oil his creaky joints again.

The man who first produced "Ben Hur" and who directed the elaborate staging of "Humpty Dumpty," "Beauty and the Beast," and other famous musical productions, will never again add his artistic touch to an author's works.

"Dave" Montgomery, Ben Teal and "Diamond Jim" Brady have been taken away from Broadway within a week.

MINNESOTA CAMPAIGN FOR BIG 1917 CROP LAUNCHED

Committee Named By Governor Holds First Meeting and Decides On Initial Step.

Minneapolis, April 23.—Minnesota's statewide campaign for a big 1917 crop that has been in the planning stage since war with Germany was declared, actually got under way when the Minnesota committee on food production and conservation had its first meeting at the state agricultural college.

Every train going out of Minneapolis Saturday night carried letters to mayors of country towns, commercial clubs and other organizations asking cooperation. Statewide organization was the first step decided upon.

REVOLT IS IMMINENT IN HUNGARY IS REPORT

Rome, April 23.—A revolution is imminent in Hungary, according to Vatican advices. As a result of various disturbances, the information here asserted, Budapest and 25 other cities and towns had been proclaimed in a state of siege.

Woman Cleared at "Greek Trial."

Chicago, April 23.—Mrs. Carrie A. Herndon, for five years principal of Irving school, Hammond, Ind., has been given what she termed a trial after the manner of the ancient Greeks. She herself had demanded the public trial. The proceedings embodied a hearing in the auditorium of her school, before a mass meeting of citizens, under the auspices of the Hammond school board. Mrs. Herndon defended herself, and many of her pupils testified in her behalf. She cleared herself of several charges.

PAIN? NOT A BIT!
LIFT YOUR CORNS
OR CALLUSES OFF

No humbug! Apply few drops then just lift them away with fingers.

This new drug is an ether compound discovered by a Cincinnati chemist. It is called freezone, and can now be obtained in tiny bottles as here shown at very little cost from any drug store. Just ask for freezone. Apply a drop or two directly upon a tender corn or callus and instantly the soreness disappears. Shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can lift it off, root and all, with the fingers.

Not a twinge of pain, soreness or irritation; not even the slightest smarting, either when applying freezone or afterwards.

This drug doesn't eat up the corn or callus, but shrivels them so they loosen and come right out. It is no humbug! It works like a charm. For a few cents you can get rid of every hard corn, soft corn or corn between the toes, as well as painful calluses on bottom of your feet. It never disappoints and never burns, bites or inflames. If your druggist hasn't any freezone yet, tell him to get a little bottle for you from his wholesale house.—adv.

Unloading the Responsibility.

"Can you keep a secret?" "Yes." "Then listen while I give you one that I can't keep any longer."

Shortly after marrying a widow a man discovers the true meaning of the deadly parallel.

The Man Hire Up.

"Hello, hello, is this the fire department?" asked an excited voice on the telephone.

"No, madam," answered the manager of an employment agency, whose phone bell had been rung by mistake. "This is the hire department."

Pimples, boils, carbuncles, dry up and disappear with Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. In tablets or liquid. —Adv.

Of course it is absent-mindedness when you forget, but it's gross neglect when your wife forgets.

Canada Offers 160 Acres Free to Farm Hands

Bonus of Western Canada Land to Men Assisting in Maintaining Needed Grain Production

The demand for farm labor in Canada is great. As an inducement to secure the necessary help at once, Canada will give

ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY ACRES OF LAND FREE AS A HOMESTEAD

and allow the time of the farm laborer, who has filed on the land, to apply as residence duties, the same as if he actually had lived on it. This special concession is the reduction of one year in the time to complete duties. Two years' residence instead of three as heretofore, but only to men working on the farms for at least six months in 1917. This appeal for farm help is in no way connected with enlistment for military service but solely to increase agricultural output. A wonderful opportunity to secure a farm and draw good wages at the same time. Canadian Government will pay all fare over one cent per mile from St. Paul or Duluth to Canadian destination. Information as to low railway rates may be had on application to

A Smooth Hairless Skin for Women.

From Beauty Secrets

With the aid of a plain medol paste it is an easy matter to rid the skin of unsightly hairy growths. The paste is made by mixing some water with powdered medol. This is applied to the hairs not wanted and after 2 or 3 minutes rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. When you go to your druggist for medol be sure you get the genuine article, and if he will not supply you, the American Proprietary Co. of Boston, will send you a 50c or $1.00 package by mail.

The United States Government at the present time is impressing upon the people the necessity of increasing the production of food stuffs to the utmost extent, with a view to making the crop this year the largest in history, in all products of the soil. By so doing they will not only be performing a patriotic duty but will be acting in their own best interests, as the prospects point to a continuation of high prices with a ready market.

In line with this movement, we urge upon all the importance of increasing the acreage in crop to the largest possible extent. No field should lie idle. As much new land as possible should be opened up for crop. All available spaces in the country and in town should be made truck gardens.

U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn, April 13, 1917.

Notice is hereby given that Lars Ingebrigtsli, of Golden Valley, Minn., who on May 6, 1913, made Homestead Application Serial No. 08906, for SW 1-4 NW 1-4 Sec. 1, Lot 2 S 1-2 NE 1-4, Sec. 2, Township 155 N, Range 41 W, 5th P. Mildred Louise Talk of Interest

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said, "Take tonoline."

Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say; I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies--stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the of the blood--and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:--As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefitted by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

Everyone is urged to raise a big garden this year, the bigger the better. A garden will pay big profits.

If you need seed of any kind and cannot get it here, try the Northwest School of Agriculture at Crookston.

Young men can now enlist in the army just for the time the war lasts, and have all the advantages of soldiers even if never sent to the front. Enlist now.

Start raising pure seed potatoes or grains this year. T. M. McCall, Experiment Station, Crookston gives full information free. They can also tell how to treat potato seed for any kind of diseases.

The war may last a long time, and it will take many men from their regular employments. They must be feed no matter what the cost. Farmers are urged to plant every available acre to potatoes beans peas, rutabagas, carrots, onions and all kinds of vegtables. About 20 pounds of navy beans are required to plant an acre. They have always been on the rations of the army and the price will be high.

A farmer recently told us that he was going to treat all his seed grain and potatoes for smut and scab and that he would thereby get a much larger yield at very little expense. He also told us he was going to plant 15 acres of corn and that raising corn was better for the land than summer fallowing, also the same was true of potato raising.

Mangels, stock carrots and rutabagas yield 12 to 20 tons per acre and should be grown as feed for stock. They can be used to some extent in place of grain and will be easy to raise. Try it.

The Red River Valley Seed Growers Assn. has a list of farmers in this part of the state who have seed grain for sale. Send to the Northwest Experiment Station at Crookston, Minn., for a copy of the list.

Parties wishing to enlist in either the army or navy can leave their applications with Postmaster Engebretsen who will foward them to the recruting office in Duluth.

Potatoes are selling at $3.00 a bu. and up, in all the large cities. Wonder why it would'nt pay to raise a good sized patch of the tubers this year?

In planning for the seasons crop, don't forget that patch of potatoes and corn, which you will need this year. There is need that every acre be made to produce a full crop.

There is already a shortage of food stuffs in this country. Just in the last few days it was announced that the supply of wheat in the United States and Canada will be exhausted before the 1917 crop is ready.

This should be sufficient warning to the farmers. The granaries of the world are nearly empty. A shortage of crops in the United States this year will mean a shortage all over the world next winter. This warning is sent out by the county agent, R. C. Matwig, at Warren.

Fireproof Wood.

To make wood fireproof, slack a small quantity of fresh lime and add water until it has the consistency of cream; stir well and add one pound of alum, 12 ounces of commercial potash and about one pound of salt. Stir again and apply while hot. Two or three coats will keep wood fireproof for many months.

AMERICAN ARMED SHIP SUNK; 10 U. S. GUNNERS MISSING

STEAMER VACUUM TORPEDOED—UNITED STATES LOSES FIRST FIGHTING FORCE OF WAR WITH GERMANY.

CAPTAIN AND GUN CREW ARE UNACCOUNTED FOR

Cablegram Indicates 16 Men of Ship's Crew Lost—Hope Nearly Abandoned for Sailor from Aztec—Vacuum Was Engaged in Carrying Oil to Allies in Europe.

London, May 1.—America has lost its first fighting force in the war with Germany in the torpedoing of the American armed steamer Vacuum, reports received here indicate.

The lieutenant in command of the gun crew and nine of his men were among the missing.

Three naval gunners were among those saved. Those rescued included the chief mate and 17 men in all. The captain of the Vacuum and some of the crew are still unaccounted for.

One Life Boat Missing.

Captain S. S. Harris was in the one lifeboat still missing, with the American bluejackets and their lieutenant and other members of the Vacuum's crew still unaccounted for.

The Vacuum was of 1,992 tons. It carried two guns, forward and aft, in charge of a naval gun crew. The Vacuum had a crew of 34. It has been carrying oil to Europe since 1914.

J. I. Epolucci, a boatswain's mate, United States navy, is still missing from the Aztec torpedoing, and he may be the first of America's fighting men to be killed.

Sixteen of 34 Believed Lost.

New York, May 1.—Only three of the American gunners aboard the American oil tanker Vacuum, sunk by a submarine, are listed as saved in a cablegram received at the oil company's offices here.

The cablegram indicated that 16 men, including Captain Harris and most of the American gun crew, probably were lost. The Vacuum's crew numbered 34, and 18 were reported landed in the reports from London. Fifteen members of the crew were Americans. With the gunners and the lieutenant in command the Americans aboard numbered 25.

Text of Message.

The message follows:

"Vacuum torpedoed 28th, 140 miles west of Barra. No. 1 lifeboat with captain and others drowned. No. 2, with chief officer and following saved: Simpson and Williams, engineers; Linegren, carpenter; Lotus, quartermaster; Witzen, Gissos, oilers; Parde, stoker; Singros, Vimegapham, Byl, seamen; Dia and Andrews, stewards; Hatton, wireless; William Orell and Nichola Hitson and Lasker, naval."

Lieutenant Thomas in Command.

Lieutenant Thomas, U. S. N., commanded the American navy gun crew aboard it, according to information obtained here.

Among the Vacuum's crew were: R. Williams, assistant engineer, born in Wisconsin, and L. J. Hatton, wireless operator, of Niagara, Wis.

One passenger said he learned just previous to sailing that the reported labor troubles were widespread.

BOTH HOUSES PASS CONSCRIPTION BILL BY BIG MAJORITIES

OPPONENTS OF BILL RALLY TO ITS SUPPORT AFTER VOLUNTEER AMENDMENTS HAVE FAILED

AGRICULTURAL WORKERS MAY BE HELD EXEMPT

Pay of Enlisted Men Will Be Materially Increased—Conference to Settle Minor Details—Big Appropriation Held Up by the House

Washington, April 28.—By overwhelming majorities, both the senate and house passed late tonight the administration bill to raise a war army by selective draft.

The final roll call brought into line behind the bill many senators and representatives who had fought for the volunteer system until routed by decisive defeat of volunteer amendments earlier in the day in both houses. The senate, which had voted down the volunteer plan, 69 to 18, passed the bill by a vote of 81 to 8. In the house the vote against the volunteer plan was 313 to 119 and that by which the bill itself was passed was 397 to 24.

As passed by the senate, the measure provides for the draft of men between the ages of 21 to 27 years, while in the house measure the limits are fixed at 21 to 40. This and lesser discrepancies, will be threshed out in conference early in the week. The war department already has completed plans for carrying it into effect.

Senators who voted against the bill were: Democrats—Gore, Hardwick, Kirby, Thomas and Tramell; Republicans—Borah, Gronna and LaFollette.

Representatives who voted no were: Democrats—Burnett, Church, Clarke of Florida, Claypool, Crosser, Dill, Dominick, Gordon, Hilliard, Huddleston, Keating, Sears, Sherwood, Sisson; Republicans—Bacon, Hayes, King, LaFollette, Lundeen of Minnesota, Mason, Nolan, Powers. Prohibitionists—Randall. Socialist—London.

Increase Soldiers' Pay

Both senate and house adopted bills just before final roll call which would greatly increase the pay of enlisted men during the war. The house provision would make their pay $30 a month, and that approved by the senate would fix it at $29 a month. The present pay is only $15.

In the house, Chairman Fitzgerald of the appropriations committee opposed the appropriation of $3,000,000,000, carried in the bill for the expense of the new army, and the section was finally eliminated. Mr. Fitzgerald declared this amount in the hands of the secretary of war would "make congress a mere automaton," and proposed that if the section were voted down the committee would provide funds promptly in a separate measure.

To Exempt Agriculturists

Among the more important amendments adopted in the house was one empowering the president to exempt from the draft, in his discretion, persons engaged in agricultural work.

In the senate, among amendments adopted, was one to make it unlawful to sell intoxicating liquors to soldiers in uniform, and giving the president wide discretionary authority to make other prohibition regulations. In the house a similar amendment was rejected on a point of order.

SUPREME COURT SAYS OLD REGENTS MAY HOLD JOBS

Hands Down Decision Denying Petition of Governor Frazier in Behalf of the State

Bismarck, N. D., April 28.—The state supreme court today denied the petition of the state in quo warranto proceedings brought to oust L. F. Crawford, Frank White, J. D. Taylor, Emil Scow and J. A. Power as members of the state board of regents. Under the decision the old board will continue in office, including two members whose terms expire in July of this year, unless further action is brought to test the case relative to these two members. Justices Birdzell and Grace wrote dissenting opinions.

St. Paul. April 28.—The headless body of a man believed to be Val Phillips, of Great Falls, found today lying besides a railroad track, has added another murder mystery here.

NO HOPE FOR ENTOMBED MEN

Hastings, Colo., April 28.—Virtually all hope of saving any of the 120 men entombed in the Hastings mine of the Victor-American fuel company here yesterday morning by an explosion, was abandoned today. James Dalrymple, state coal mine inspector, who came from the mine late today, gave it as his opinion that there was no one left alive in the mine. Rescue men expressed themselves similarly.

Accidental Pudding.

Stopping a friend in a department store recently, a Glenwood avenue woman enthusiastically said:

"I am so glad to meet you, because I have been wanting to ask you for a recipe."

"If I have any recipe you like," the friend answered, "you surely shall have it."

"It is the recipe for that pudding you served the last time I had dinner at your house."

"Last week."

"Uh huh! What do you call it?"

"Well, I think I should call that 'accidental pudding.'"

"What an odd name!"

"But it fits the dish exactly."

"How do you make it?"

"By accident."

"Really?"

"Yes. You see it was like this: I had baked a fine raisin pie and was taking it from the oven when I dropped it on the table where it lit right on the edge. I didn't want to waste it altogether, so I just scrambled it up a little more, put it in sauce dishes, and put some whipped cream on it. I am so glad you liked it."—Youngstown Telegram.

What's Doing in Minnesota

St. Paul. — Former Governor Samuel R. Van Sant has written Governor Burnquist, tendering his services to the state and nation in war.

Red Wing.—The wets carried the city in the recent election by 183. Both sides increased their vote over last year but the wets added to their majority which was then 151.

Duluth.—At a meeting of the striking Duluth boilermakers and helpers a proposition submitted by seven of the contract shop owners was turned down by a unanimous vote.

St. Paul.—Local committees throughout the state are taking hold of the food problem with enthusiasm, reports received at the headquarters of the state food commission show.

St. Paul. — L. W. Hill, president of the Great Northern railroad, has left for Washington and will spend about a week in conference with government officials on the war situation.

Hastings. — Mrs. Thomas A. Brown of Hastings was elected president of the Third District Federation of Women's Clubs at the closing session here. Winthrop was voted the 1918 meeting.

Minneapolis. — About 100 members of the Tenth district group of the Minnesota Bankers' association were present when J. E. Vanstrom of Chisago City, group president, called the fourth annual session to order here

Hibbing. — The Mesabi iron range is ready for the shipping season which has been officially opened and from present prospects, conditions look favorable for a record in output which will equal last year's banner season.

Stillwater. — The soldiers and sailors monument erected on the courthouse grounds here by the Washington County Monument association was unveiled at 3 p. m. Friday, April 27. A patriotic program was carried out.

Duluth. — Charles H. Hamilton walked 150 miles to get to the Duluth naval recruiting office to enlist, according to Officer F. L. McClure, who received the young man's application here. Hamilton was rejected on account of illness.

St. Paul. — The printing of 5,000 booklets outlining the plan for utilizing idle lands in Northern Minnesota and Wisconsin for grazing purposes has been authorized by the Northwest development subdivision of the St. Paul association.

Pipestone.—The meeting held here to discuss plans for having the route of the King of Trails highway from Winnipeg to the Gulf changed so as to come down through this section of the state resulted in an organization to take up the matter.

Minneapolis.—Jeanette Rankin, representative in Congress for Montana, and Dr. Marion L. Burton of Smith college, president-elect of the University of Minnesota, will be among the speakers of the 55th annual meeting of the Minnesota Educational association to be held in Minneapolis October 31 to November 3.

St. Paul. — More than 200 telegrams to state officials and men interested in live stock were sent out by the committee on arrangements for the Northwest live stock conference in St. Paul May 1. The call for the meeting was signed by Governor Burnquist. Governors of Montana, North Dakota and Wisconsin were invited.

Beroun, Minn.—Free use of 320 acres of excellent potato land twelve miles east of Beroun, Pine county, has been offered by the owner, Thomas C. Kohin, LaSalle, Ill., in a letter to Governor Burnquist, to any one who desires to crop it. "About one-third of the land is natural meadow and ready for the plow," Mr. Kohin wrote.

Winona. — Pleading that the discontinuance of the manufacture and sale of liquor will release a large number of men for productive service and the army and navy and will conserve for necessary purposes a vast amount of grain, three leading local churches have sent messages to congressmen and senators, urging support of the measure providing for national prohibition as a war necessity.

Minneapolis. — That the federal government guarantee every wheat raising farmer $1.50 a bushel for his 1917 crop is the suggestion of Reserve Agent John H. Rich of the Minneapolis federal reserve board before the authorities in Washington. Mr. Rich said he believes such a step would be wise. The question of a maximum price naturally arises, he said, as a corollary to a minimum price.

St. Paul.—Exercising his constitutional right to veto separate items in appropriations bills, Governor Burnquist has slashed $2,027,018 from the total of $23,867,329 voted by the Legislature. The veto of some of the items in the appropriation measure and in his pocket veto of at least one other bill, is considered an aftermath of the bitter fight over the public domain bill.

More than half the total reduction was effected by executive disapproval of single items of deficiency school aid Other appropriations for educational purposes were cut more than $200,000 in addition.

Winona.—Farmers are plowing under their hay lands and large pastures in many cases to replace them with crops that will produce more dollars per acre. In a vast territory waste land along public highways is under plow and will be seeded to "nonperishable" crops.

St. Paul.—Every one of Minnesota's agricultural counties may have a county agent soon under the United States Department of Agriculture if Congress grants the $25,000,000 appropriation asked by Secretary of Agriculture Houston to promote the country's food production possibilities.

FIRST REGIMENT IS AT FULL STRENGTH

FIELD ARTILLERY AND INFANTRY DIVISIONS AWAIT ORDERS—SUSPEND RECRUITING.

FIGHT ON PLAGUES STARTED

Health Officials to Wage Aggressive War on Meningitis and Infantile Paralysis—Frequent Conferences Planned.

St. Paul.

The First Field artillery and First Infantry regiments, Minnesota National Guard, have attained full peace strength and suspended recruiting. Eight men from Pipestone brought the First Infantry up to its peace strength of 1,372 men and similar delegations from Virginia and other points brought the artillery up to its peace strength.

Both regiments expect orders to recruit to war strength and for that reason will accept and list applications for enlistment, and swear the men in later when the order arrives.

The Minneapolis batteries of the artillery are overloaded and many men will be transferred to St. Paul batteries, Col. George E. Leach of that branch said.

Twenty marine corps recruits including seven University of Minnesota students have left for the training quarters at Mare Island.

Plan War on Plagues.

A fight against the present epidemic of cerebro-spinal meningitis and toward prevention of a general recurrence of infantile paralysis will be features of enlargements of state health activities made possible by largely increased appropriations and outlined at a recent meeting of the Minnesota board of health.

The campaign is to start immediately, financed by a new appropriation of $25,000 now available for the coming year.

Frequent conferences are planned between Dr. H. M. Bracken, executive officer, Dr. A. J. Chesley, director of the communicable diseases branch, and members of the executive committee of the board.

The state health department has a fund totaling $102,000 for the coming year against $72,000 last year, exclusive of the special poliomyelitis fund of $25,000 compared with an emergency appropriation of $5,000 for the special epidemic work last year.

* * *

Food Commission Enlarged.

Appointments of four additional members on the state committee on food production and conservation have been announced by Governor Burnquist. They are: John H. Rich, Minneapolis, superintendent of the Federal Reserve bank; Ira B. Mills, St. Paul, chairman of the Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse Commission; C. G. Selvig, Crookston, superintendent of Northwestern agricultural school, and Fred Lorenz, Minneapolis, a sales agent.

* * *

Clause Veto Kills Bill.

By disapproving numerous items in the state park appropriations allowed by the legislature, Governor J. A. A. Burnquist in effect vetoed the accompanying provisions for commissions to administer the fund. The attorney general holds that the commission clause is meaningless and of no effect since the appropriation was vetoed. The same ruling will apply to several similar provisions in the bill.

* * *

Names Deputy Inspectors.

A. M. Opsahl, state inspector of illuminating oils, has announced appointments of 62 deputy inspectors in his department. Appointments for Ramsey and St. Louis counties will be made public in a few days, Inspector Opsahl said. The deputyships are on the fee basis, and compensations depend largely on the amount of oils for inspection in the various districts.

* * *

Advised to Work at Home.

New York men who wish to come to Minnesota and work on farms, on condition that their railroad fare to the place of employment be paid, have been advised by the labor committee of the state labor commission to seek employment on the farms in their own state.

* * *

Officials Aid War Work.

Heads of the various state departments are casting about for ways to aid the government in its campaign to increase production and to conserve the product, and nearly every one has found some way in which his department can be of service.

* * *

State Farm Work Extended.

Farm work is planned on enlarged scales at practically all state institutions, Chairman Ralph W. Wheelock of the board of control announces.

* * *

Taxes for 1918 Expenses 2.8 Mills.

New state tax rates will be 2.8 mills for 1918 expenses and 1.6 mills for 1919 expenses, according to figures based on the total appropriations granted by the recent legislature and made public by J. A. O. Preus, state auditor. Compared with these rates are 1 mill levied for 1917 and 1.4 mills for 1916 state expenses.

Estimated receipts of $8,223,100 and $7,323,200 leave the sums of $4,098,769 and $2,460,975 of expense funds for the respective years 1918 and 1919 to be raised by taxation.

POLYNESIAN KING SHRIEKS IN LIFT

Harrowing Experience in Great City Too Much for Island Monarch.

RETURNS TO SUBJECTS

Takes Back Some New Ideas About Victuals, Having Learned to Appreciate the Virtues of the Tastable T-Bone.

San Francisco.—Across the perilous channel leading to Tari Tari, northernmost of the equatorial Gilbert islands, the current averages 70 miles in 24 hours. But navigating it is simple compared to crossing Market street, this city, for Chief Tumbremaa, eighty-five years old, Polynesian ruler of the far-away isle.

Chief Tumbremaa is in San Francisco getting his first glimpse of twentieth century civilization, while nestled in the foliage of a 100-foot high royal palm on Tari Tari, hour by hour and every day, there sits a lookout, watching for a sail.

But nary a sail. And if there was, it wouldn't do any good, because the natives couldn't get out and the vessel couldn't get in. The only pilot who knows the intricate waters of Tari Tari is Chief Tumbremaa and he isn't sure he wants to go back, having tasted steam beer.

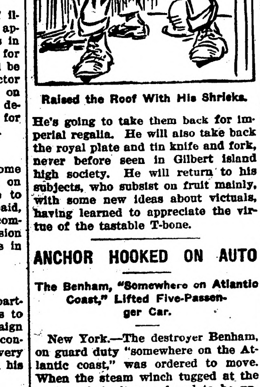
So He Came Along.

Tumbremaa came here uninvited and without a passport on the steamer Expansion, which he boarded to pilot into his bailiwick. But the winds went wrong after he had sent his royal flagship back to port under command of his prime minister. For six weeks the Expansion tried to land, but could not, so it gave up the attempt and came here, bringing along the island's king.

From the waterfront the captain of the Expansion took the chief in an automobile to the center of the city, and the hardy old fighting man trembled with fear. Trolley cars terrified him. He was escorted into an express elevator of a tall building and the lift made the longest trip on record there because His Royal Highness raised the roof the equivalent of two stories with his shrieks.

Clad in Regal Dignity.

The chief boarded the Expansion in his regal dignity and nothing else, but when the vessel reached colder weather he put on his first habiliments; overalls, a shirt and shoes.



Raised the Roof With His Shrieks.

He's going to take them back for imperial regalia. He will also take back the royal plate and tin knife and fork, never before seen in Gilbert Island high society. He will return to his subjects, who subsist on fruit mainly, with some new ideas about victuals, having learned to appreciate the virtue of the tastable T-bone.

ANCHOR HOOKED ON AUTO

The Benham, "Somewhere on Atlantic Coast," Lifted Five-Passenger Car.

New York.—The destroyer Benham, on guard duty "somewhere on the Atlantic coast," was ordered to move. When the steam winch tugged at the anchor chain it was found to be unusually difficult to lift, and more power was applied. When the anchor came out of the water it carried a five-passenger auto. The car was sold to a dealer and the funds divided among the crew of the Benham.

Just how the car happened to be in the sea is not known, but it is supposed to have slipped from a distant ferry and to have been driven toward shore by the action of the tide.

Kidney & Co.

(BY DR. J. H. WATSON)

The kidneys and the skin work in harmony. They're companions, the skin being the second partner. If we are anxious to keep well and preserve the vitality of the kidneys and, also, free the blood from noxious elements, we must pay special attention to a good action of the skin and to see that the kidneys are flushed so as to eliminate the poisons from the blood.

Sweating, by hard work or in a bath, at least once a week, helps to keep the skin and kidneys in good condition. Flush the kidneys by drinking plenty of pure water with meals and between meals. Occasionally obtain at the drug store Anuric, double strength, which will help flush the kidneys and the intestines. You will find that Anuric is many times more active than lithia and that it dissolves uric acid as hot water does sugar.

MOTHERS OF DAKOTA

Fargo, N. Dak.—"I had been troubled with woman's weakness for a long time, and during my last expectancy I grew much worse. I could not eat or sleep, and suffered all the time with backaches and bearing-down pains. I began the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it soon restored me to good health. I just felt fine right along, due, I believe, to the use of this medicine."—MRS. HARRY LAWRENCE, 520 7th Ave., N.

This herbal tonic for women is made up in liquid or tablet form and can be obtained in almost any drug store in the United States. It contains no alcohol or narcotic, and its ingredients are printed on the wrapper. Purely an herbal tonic derived from nature's roots and herbs. If not obtainable, send $1.00 to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and he will mail large package of tablets, or send fifty cents for smaller size.

With the Fingers! Says Corns Lift Out Without Any Pain

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn can shortly be lifted right out with the fingers if you will apply on the corn a few drops of freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

At little cost one can get a small bottle of freezone at any drug store, which will positively rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain or soreness or the danger of infection.

This new drug is an ether compound, and dries the moment it is applied and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding skin. Just think! You can lift off your corns and calluses now without a bit of pain or soreness. If your druggist hasn't freezone he can easily get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said. "Take tonoline.

Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the of the blood—and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:—As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

Lesson From the Lily.

How easily we lose poise, swept by the current of life! Our root is not deep enough. Consider the lily resting on the face of the waters, its roots far below. How serene it rides the ripples, and how confidently it has sought the light, that its life may expand in above the turbulence of the waves.—Trinities and Sanctities.

Wrong Position for Sleep.

Sleep cannot knit up the raveled sleeve of care or do any other reparative knitting, if the head is bent sharply to an acute angle with the collar joints. Frequently men and women who have slept in this supposedly objectionable fashion for years and years suddenly lose the capacity for sleep with no new discoverable reason. It is difficult to convince them that the elasticity and resiliency of youth has heretofore made up for their lifelong awkward pose.

RECORD OF SERVICE

Veteran Still Living Who Joined at Tender Age of Seven Years.

WHEN it comes to drummer boys of the military services of the early days of the countries, there can be no denial to Washington, D. C., of the honor of having the oldest drummer boy, living right within her bounds. He beat his drum in the United States marine corps when some of the drummer boys of the Civil war were not heard of; he beat in Washington during the Mexican war days; was with Perry when Japan's doors were opened to the trade of the world; shouldered a musket and fought throughout the Civil war, and played "Yankee Doodle" when the corner stone of the Washington monument was laid. In fact, since he was seven years old he has been under the finger of Uncle Sam, answering his every beck and call, and is still answering it.

This veteran is Jared Mundell of 649 E street southeast, and he is employed at the Washington navy yard. He is in charge of the museum containing hundreds of naval war relics and trophies, dating from the Revolution down to the war with Spain. And when a reporter called on him for some information about "his" museum he got down his lists and read various articles cherished sentimentally by a proud government, and read from them without the aid of glasses. Born in Washington, D. C., December 22, 1839, he has claimed it as his residence ever since, leaving it only "under orders" to help in defending the nation. He is a member of Kit Carson Post No. 2, G. A. R.

Mr. Mundell has under his charge hundreds of relics and trophies, and he watches over them every day, explaining every phase of the advance of naval ordnance from the Revolution.

When but seven years old, the country was embroiled in the Mexican troubles, and the then patriotic young Mundell was imbued with the military spirit. The marines which then garrisoned Washington were needed at the front. They were sent, and then they needed more to garrison the post at the capital. The officials were willing to accept young men for the post there while the older and more trained men went to the front. So, Mr. Mundell enlisted as a drummer boy. When the regular garrison returned the youngsters were mustered out. But Mr. Mundell remained out only a short time. He liked the marine corps so well that he re-enlisted when he became a few years older.

Jens Sorter Commits Suicide.

Jens Sorter committed suicide early Saturday morning by shooting himself in the roof of the mouth with a 22 rifle. Himself and wife had been doing the morning chores and while in the well house he told her she could go to the house and he would be there soon. Mrs. Sorter told him not to stay long for breakfast would soon be ready. When he failed to come, she sent the children but they only called to him. She then went to the pump house and found him dead. The coroner was notified and upon arrival and investigation did not consider an inquest necessary. Mr. Sorter had been in poor health and suffered a good deal from headaches, which undoubtedly unbalanced his mind temporarily, and caused him to take his own life. The day before he had been to Thief River Falls to consult a traveling doctor whose charges worried him so much he was unable to sleep that night. He was in good circumstances, and there is no reason known for the rash act, except temporary insanity.

Jens P. Sorter was born in Telemark, Norway Oct. 4th, 1874, and came with his parents to Marshall Co., where they settled on a homestead in 1888 and had lived in the same vicinity since then. About 15 years ago he was united in marriage with Miss Emma Patzrick and their married life had been happy. Four children, all boys, are left with the sorrowing widow to mourn the death of a loving husband and father. Also the aged parents, four brothers and two sisters. One brother in Roseau Co. was unable to attend the funeral, also the two sisters, one of whom lives in Portland Ore., and the other in Minneapolis. The latter was quarantined because a niece Miss Esther Sorter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gunder Sorter who made her home with her aunt had a slight attack of scarlet fever. A cousin, Elev Aakre, of Goodridge was the only relative from a distance in attendance at the funeral which was held at the Ringbo church Monday afternoon, Rev. Kettman of Chicago officiating. Interment was made in the Ringbo cemetery. The News extends sincere sympathy to the sorrowing family.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors for their kindly help and tender sympathy at the time of the tragic death and the funeral of our beloved husband, father, son and brother.

Mrs. Jens P. Sorter and children, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Sorter and the brothers and sisters.

Congress Gives Money and Material

The Northwest must give the men. The Nation has called for its sons. It is up to the Northwest to answer. Young men have been coming forward at a fair rate, but more must come. Part of the fleet is idle and will be until America wakes up. Another 40 men a day would put four more big guns in action. Leave your application at the postoffice. Recruiting stations at 304 Marquette Avenue Minneapolis, Commercial Bldg., St. Paul, also at postoffices in Duluth, Fargo, Grand Forks and other cities. Government Issues Warning Against Fly Poisons

Following is an extract from "The Transmission of Disease by Flies," Supplement No. 29 to the Public Health Reports, April, 1916.

"Of other fly poisons mentioned, mention should be made, merely for a purpose of condemnation, of those composed of arsenic. Fatal cases of poisoning of children through the use of such compounds are far too frequent, and owing to the resemblance of arsenical poisoning to summer diarrhea and cholera infantum, it is believed that the cases reported do not, by any means, comprise the total. Arsenical fly-destroying devices must be rated as extremely dangerous, and should never be used, even if other measures are not at hand."

106 fly poisoning cases have been reported by the press within the last three years. As stated above this number is but a fraction of the real number. Protect your children by using the safe, efficient, non-poisonous fly catcher

Tit for Tat.

There was an uproar in the nursery and papa rushed upstairs to inquire into the cause. "Now, then, children, what's all this noise? Stop it at once!"

"Boo-hoo!" sobbed Eva. "Billy kicked me!"

ANY CORN LIFTS OUT, DOESN'T HURT A BIT!

No foolishness! Lift your corns and calluses off with fingers—it's like magic!

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn, can harmlessly be lifted right out with the fingers if you apply upon the corn a few drops of freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

For little cost one can get a small bottle of freezone at any drug store, which will positively rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain.

This simple drug dries the moment it is applied and does not even irritate the surrounding skin while applying it or afterwards.

This announcement will interest many of our readers. If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to surely get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

EXPLAINS METHODS OF OPERATION OF ARMY DRAFT LAW

EXPLICIT INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF THOSE HAVING MATTER IN CHARGE.

COUNTY OFFICIALS TO ACT

Their Duties Designated, With the Governors of Each State Placed at the Head of All Registration Machinery—Voting Places to Be Used as Centers of Gatherings.

Washington.—To facilitate the work of raising the military forces called for by the army draft law, now in effect, the war department has issued the following letter of instruction, by which all officials connected with the duty will be governed:

The approval of the new national army bill and the president's proclamation thereunder have been coincident. All persons within the age limits prescribed are required to present themselves for registration at the customary voting places in the voting precincts in which they have their permanent homes, on a day which the president will announce.

There was a time in the country's history when military enumerators, backed by bayonets, went out among the people to take a compulsory service census. Today, under the principle of universal liability to service, the execution of the law is put into the hands of the people.

The governor of each state is the chief of registration therein. The machinery of registration in each county is in charge of the sheriff, the county clerk, and the county physician, acting ex officio, unless a different board shall be announced by the governor. In cities containing populations of more than 30,000, the registration will be under the control of the mayor and selected boards of registration. In order that the disignated county and city officials, and the people generally, can get a clear understanding of the census methods the following brief outline is given:

The sheriffs, or other designated officials, immediately upon receiving notice from the governor, shall appoint registrars for each voting precinct.

Apportionment of Registrars.

The proportion of registrars shall be one for each 170 persons to be registered. Each age to be registered will comprise about 1 per cent of the population.

If, for instance, all men between nineteen and twenty-five years of age, inclusive, are to be registered, the registrar would have to enroll about 7 per cent of the precinct population.

It is desirable to accept the services of competent volunteer registrars to serve without compensation. All registrars must be sworn.

The voting place in each precinct must be prepared for registration. Full printed instructions covering every detail of registration will be in the hands of sheriffs and mayors on the fifth day after the president's proclamation.

Cities of Over 30,000 Population.

The mayor of a city containing more than 30,000 inhabitants, or the officials designated by the governor therein, shall, with approval of the governor, appoint for each ward or convenient minor subdivision containing about 30,000 people one registration board, and shall designate one officer of each board to perform duties similar to those imposed on the sheriff, as heretofore outlined. If the mayor desires, he may appoint a central board to coordinate the work of minor boards.

Duties of County Clerks, and of Clerks of Cities of Over 30,000 People.

On the fifth day after the president has issued his proclamation, clerks of counties and cities of over 30,000 must secure a supply of blanks and copies of the registration regulations from the sheriff or from the mayor. Absentees and the sick will apply to such clerks to have their registration cards filled out. In no case shall such persons be given registration certificates. They are to be instructed by the clerk that the burden is on them to see to it that the cards reach the registrars of their home precincts by registration day.

Absentees and the Sick.

Persons absent from their home counties may be registered by mail. If so absent, a man should go to the clerk of the county where he may be staying, on the sixth day after the date of the president's proclamation. If he is in a city of over 30,000 population, the city clerk is the official to whom to apply. The absentee will be told how to register, but he must mail his card in time to reach his precinct by registration day.

Persons too sick to present themselves for registration must send a competent person to the county or city clerk on the sixth day after the issuing of the proclamation. The clerk will give instructions for registration.

Colleges, Universities, Homes and Other Institutions.

Officials of educational, charitable and other institutions should apply for instructions to the county or city clerk on the sixth day after the date of the proclamation for instructions as to a convenient method of registration.

The wardens of jails, penitentiaries, and reformatories should apply to the county or city clerk for instructions on the sixth day.

Five days after the date of the president's proclamation complete regulations will be in the hands of all sheriffs and of the officials of cities of over 30,000 population.

The president is authorized to call upon all public officers to assist in the execution of the law. The plan is, however, to rely on the people for the proper execution of the law. It is expected that patriotic citizens will offer their services free as registrars. Such edged. Volunteers for this service should communicate immediately with the proper official.

BANKS ASKED TO CO-OPERATE

Secretary Authorizes Financial Institutions to Receive Subscriptions for the Bond Offerings.

Washington.—Secretary McAdoo telegraphed the entire list of 27,513 national and state banks and trust companies in the United States, authorizing them to receive subscriptions for the $2,000,000,000 bond offering, enlisting their co-operation, and requesting them to telegraph a rough estimate of the amount of bonds each would take for itself and its patrons.

"You can render an invaluable service to your country," Mr. McAdoo told the banks, "by receiving subscriptions and co-operating with the federal reserve bank in your district."

Loan Subscriptions Pour In.

To all clearing house associations in the country Mr. McAdoo sent a telegram in which he said:

"The amount of the initial loan has been determined by the needs of the government and not arbitrarily. The enthusiastic and patriotic co-operation of the banks and bankers of the country will guarantee the success of the undertaking."

The result of the first announcement of the loan has been a deluge of subscriptions, aggregating many millions. Most of these came in by wire to the treasury. Virtually every large city and every state in the Union was represented.

Lend $100,000,000 to Italy.

Negotiations continued today with representatives of the nations to which the United States is extending credit. Count di Cellere, the Italian ambassador, received the full amount of the first $100,000,000 loan made by this government to Italy.

Subscriptions to the second offering of treasury certificates were received during the day by the federal reserve banks. Indications are that the secretary will call for the proceeds within a week, possibly a few days.

The $100,000,000 loan to France will be turned over to Ambassador Jusserand, in whole or part, within a day or so.

MAY CENTER IN WASHINGTON

Probability That One Committee Will Purchase All Supplies Needed by the Allied Countries.

Washington.—Creation of a central purchasing committee in Washington for all supplies bought in the United States for the allied governments was forecast here by Sir Hardman Lever, financial expert of the British war mission. The committee will supplant J. P. Morgan & Co.

Discussing the world financial situation, the British expert expressed the opinion that Germany will be practically bankrupt in the credit markets after the war.

"Our enemies," he said, "for all their boasted efficiency, have never had the courage to face their financial problems, with the result that when the war is over they will be hard put to it."

The Teutonic governments having pyramided one internal loan upon another, he explained, their interest charges would be so great that he believed they would either have to repudiate a large part of their debt or face inability to buy the enormous quantities of material they would need for reconstruction.

The allies, he added, had paid their way in the war "by the straightforward and natural means, by pouring out their gold, by selling enormous masses of American securities, by raising loans." As a result, he predicted that the end of the war would find the allies in good shape financially, despite their enormous permanent debts.

Another U. S. Ship Sunk.

Washington, May 4.—The American sailing vessel Willard Abrahams was sunk off the Irish coast, the crew of six being rescued, according to a message received by the state department.

CONTROL OF FOOD SUPPLIES

Measure Introduced in Congress to Give President Full Authority in the Matter.

Washington.—Governmental control of food, fuel, clothing and other necessaries of life is contemplated in a bill which Representative Lever introduced. The measure has administration support.

The bill would bring every agency connected with the food supply under control of the president. This will include stimulation of production, prevention of waste, regulation of distribution, prohibition of hoarding and elimination of speculation.

The president would have authority to direct shipments of foodstuffs into markets where needed most. He would also have power to requisition factories, mines and other establishments.

The bill contains a clause to prevent flooding of the American market by importations, so these articles will not compete with American products.

GAP MILE DEEP IS CUT IN ENEMY LINE BY AUSTRALIANS

COLONIALS PENETRATE TEUTON FRONT AROUND REINCOURT, HEMMED TO EAST, WEST AND SOUTH BY BRITISH.

BULLECOURT IS ENTERED BY BRITISH, IS REPORT

War Office Statement Shows Many Prisoners Taken—Dutch Fishermen Lay Up Boats as Result of Torpedoings—German Supply of Fish Cut Off—Norse Ships Sunk.

London, May 8.—Australian troops have forged ahead a mile into the German lines around Reincourt.

Reincourt is hemmed in by British troops to the west, the east and the south.

After sharp fighting the British have pushed forward east of Bullecourt and have taken a number of prisoners, according to a statement by the war office.

British Enter Bullecourt.

"There was sharp fighting in the Hindenburg line," says the announcement. "East of Bullecourt our position has been improved. We progressed westward in the direction of the village and took a number of prisoners. A hostile bombing attack during the night on our front line south of Oppy delivered after heavy artillery preparation was successfully driven off."

A dispatch from British headquarters in France says the British have pushed their way well within the town of Bullecourt and hand to hand fighting has developed there.

Dutch Resent Torpedoing.

According to a dispatch from Copenhagen, the Norwegian foreign office has announced the sinking by German submarines of the steamships Capto and Natuna. The crews were rescued.

Special dispatches from Holland say that the persistent torpedoing of Dutch trawlers has caused the fishermen to lay up their boats. The trawlers were guaranteed safety within prescribed limits and a supply of German coal on condition that they supply fish for the German market. The promised coal was not received and the sinkings continued, so the German legation at The Hague is said to have been notified that no more fish will be supplied.

BLAST WRECKS PART OF GREAT MUNITIONS PLANT

One Dead and Two Fatally Burned at Kingsport, Tenn.—Wild Excitement Follows Explosion.

Kingsport, Tenn., May 8.—One-third of the mammoth munitions plant of the Federal Dyestuff and Chemical company has been destroyed by a terrific explosion.

One man was killed and two others probably fatally burned. No statement has been obtained as to the cause of the explosion.

Some of the federal troops stationed outside the factory were thrown to the ground by the shock of the explosion. None was reported injured.

Wildest excitement followed the explosion and officials feared for the safety of suspects, should any be arrested.

MAY WIPE OUT THREE BUREAUS

Governor and Advisers Said to Be Working Out Changes.

St. Paul, May 8.—Practical wiping out of three state departments in the interests of "efficiency and economy," through consolidation with other departments, is to be effected through plans being worked out by Governor J. A. A. Burnquist and his advisers, it has just been learned.

The departments affected are oil inspection, hotel inspection and state fire marshal. The oil inspection department is to be handled under the dairy and food department, according to the plans. The state first marshal and the hotel inspection service are to work under the insurance commissioner.

AIRPLANE SHELLS LONDON

Bombs Kill One in Outskirts, According to Statement.

London, May 8.—An airplane has dropped four bombs on the northwestern outskirts of London killing one person and injuring two, according to a statement issued by Lord French, commander in chief of the home defense forces. Slight damage was done to buildings, the statement said.

Wind Frees Steamers at Soo.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., May 8.—Steamers which lay here waiting favorable conditions are having better luck than those which went into the ice pack to run their chances of getting through. A large fleet has left the Soo and by taking a course to the east of Parisian island succeeded in getting into open water. The north wind had pinned the ice tight to the south shore, holding steamers there and at the same time clearing water toward the Canadian shore. West of Parisian island ice is heavy.

WAY TO CLEAR SEA OF SUBMARINES IS FOUND BY AMERICA

CHAIRMAN OF NAVAL CONSULTING BOARD MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT—TESTS PROVE METHOD IS SUCCESSFUL.

PRESIDENT IN GALLERY, HEARS BALFOUR SPEECH

Wilson Sets Precedent by Action—Is Among Those Who Applaud English Statesman Loudest—Many Notables Present in Diplomatic Gallery.

New York, May 7.—W. L. Saunders, chairman of the naval consulting board, announced here late Saturday that the board had forwarded to Washington plans for dealing with the submarine menace which, it is believed, has solved the problem successfully.

Successful Solution Reached.

Mr. Saunders, who has been chairman of the naval consulting board about two months, supplemented his announcement by saying that, while the submarine problem cannot be considered in reality to have been solved until the U-boats have been destroyed, nevertheless numerous experiments made along the Atlantic coast led the board to feel confident that a successful solution had been reached.

President in Galleries.

Washington, May 7.—President Wilson occupied a seat in the executive gallery of the house while British Foreign Minister Arthur J. Balfour and members of the British mission were received on the floor.

It was the first time as far as capitol historians could find that any president of the United States had appeared in the galleries.

Balfour Addresses House.

Minister Balfour in his address said in part:

"The menace of militarism increases. We free peoples of western civilization are banded together to fight this menace. In this cause we will surely conquer."

President Wilson was among those who applauded loudest as Mr. Balfour began speaking.

The president entered unnoticed while Representative Albert Estinopal of Louisiana was reading, in French, a message from the president of the chambers of deputies of Rumánia. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. W. G. McAdoo accompanied the president.

Wilson Joins Handshakers.

Mr. Balfour concluded his address by again thanking the house and saying he had a "profound sense of this unique greeting."

Apparently he did not know President Wilson was one of the most interested listeners and when he ended his speech went to the well of the house, where members began passing by to shake his hand.

President Wilson came down from the gallery and joined the line. As he appeared on the floor he was cheered again and took a place just ahead of Representative Jeanette Rankin.

Supreme Court Suspended.

Justices of the supreme court occupied chairs on the floor. In the diplomatic gallery were American, British and French officials.

Accompanying Minister Balfour were Major General G. T. Bridges, Captain H. H. Spencer-Clay, Rear Admiral Sir Dudley R. S. De Chair, Fleet Paymaster General V. A. Lawford, Lord Cunliffe, governor of the Bank of England, Assistant Secretary Philips and Hugh Gibbons of the state department.

REICHSTAG MAY CURTAIL POWER OF THE EMPEROR

Committee Decides to Alter Section of Imperial Constitution, According to Dispatch from Berlin.

Amsterdam, May 7.—A restriction of the power of the emperor of Germany has been decided upon by the constitution committee of the reichstag, according to a dispatch from Berlin.

The committee has decided to alter Article XVII of the imperial constitution as follows:

"Ordinances and decrees of the kaiser will be issued in the name of the empire and will require for validity the countersignature of the imperial chancellor or his representative, who thereby assumes responsibility to the reichstag."

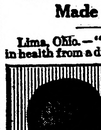
The decision of the committee was in accordance with a joint proposal by the centrists, national liberals and the progressives. Four conservative members voted against the change.

To Avert Tin Can Shortage.

Washington, May 7.—A committee of tin can makers and consumers has made public a series of specific recommendations to farmers, and manufacturers, canners and dealers, by which a shortage may be avoided. Manufacturers are urged to give preference to orders for can material, and can makers to sell only to customers who will pack perishable products. The committee includes representatives of manufacturers, the National Cannery association and the National Wholesale Grocers.

BROKEN DOWN IN HEALTH

Woman Tells How $5 Worth of Pinkham's Compound Made Her Well.



Lima, Ohio.—"I was all broken down in health from a displacement. One of my lady friends came to see me and she advised me to commence taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I began taking your remedies and took $5.00 worth and in two months was a well woman after three doctors said I never would stand up straight again. I was a midwife for seven years and I recommended the Vegetable Compound to every woman to take before birth and afterwards, and they all got along so nicely that it surely is a godsend to suffering women. If women wish to write to me I will be delighted to answer them."—Mrs. JENNIE MOYER, 342 E. North St., Lima, Ohio.

Women who suffer from displacements, weakness, irregularities, nervousness, backache, or bearing-down pains, need the tonic properties of the roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Children Cry for Fletcher's Castoria

The Children's Poet.

In the St. Nicholas Magazine Hildegarde Hawthorne gives a sympathetic sketch of the life of Robert Louis Stevenson, whose "Child's Garden of Verses" is perhaps the most popular book of poetry ever written. His passionate attachment to children is expressed best by Andrew Lang, whom Miss Hawthorne quotes:

"There was a very pleasant trait in Stevenson's character which, perhaps, does not display itself in most of his writings—his great affection for children. . . . In an early letter he writes: 'Kids is what is the matter with me. . . . Children are too good to be true.' He had a natural infatuation, so to say, for children as children . . . little boys and girls were his delight, and he was theirs."

Martyr—One that goes with her, but falls asleep in the store.

Hero—One that goes with her and flirts with all the cashgirls.

Coward—The sneaky character that always remembers he has an engagement.

Obstructing Navigation.

"They tell me that Smith was arrested today because he drowned his dog in the river," said Jones.

"How could they arrest him for drowning a dog in the river?" demanded Brown.

"Why, they claimed that a sunken bark obstructed navigation."

Preserve the Wild Flowers.

An earnest appeal has been made for the preservation of one of the most beautiful of wild flowers, the columbine, particularly along tourist routes. This appeal will find sympathetic support everywhere throughout the states in which the columbine is a natural annual, but it should be broadened to include all wild flowering plants that are needlessly, and often wantonly pulled up by the roots. The conservation of wild flowers is a patriotic duty.—Christian Science Monitor.

BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP

Panacea of the Home the World Over.

Why will you allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as pneumonia or lung trouble, when by the timely use of a few doses of Boschee's German Syrup you can get relief. This medicine has stood the test of fifty years. It induces a good night's sleep with easy expectoration in the morning. One Nurse to Ten Patients.

One nurse to every 200 soldiers is the requirement in modern conflict, as the war in Europe has demonstrated. The proportion of sick and wounded to the entire army is about 5 per cent. That is, if we throw 1,000,000 soldiers against an enemy, at least 50,000 of them will be in the hospitals continually. In a war hospital the average proportion of patients to nurses is ten to one.—Red Cross Magazine.

Canadian Farmers Profit From Wheat

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

The war's devastation of European crops has caused an unusual demand for grain from the American Continent. The people of the world must be fed and wheat near $2 a bushel offers great profits to the farmer. Canada's invitation is therefore especially attractive. She wants settlers to make money and happy, prosperous homes for themselves by helping her raise immense wheat crops.

You can get a Homestead of 160 acres FREE and other lands at remarkably low prices. During many years Canadian wheat fields have averaged 20 bushels to the acre many yields as high as 45 bushels to the acre. Wonderful crops also of Oats, Barley and Flax.

Mixed farming as profitable an industry as grain raising. The excellent grasses full of nutrition are the only food required for beef or dairy purposes. Good schools, churches, markets convenient, climate excellent.

There is an extra demand for farm labor to replace the many young men who have volunteered for the war. The Government is urging farmers to put extra acreage into grain. Write for literature and particulars as to reduced railway rates to Supt. of Immigration, Ottawa, Canada, or

What's Doing in Minnesota

Winona. — With more than 75 per cent of the small grain in the ground in this section, there is nothing alarming in the weather conditions at present, according to E. F. Heim, grain expert.

St. Peter. — A petition signed by 125 farmers adjacent to Swan lake has been presented to the board of county commissioners, praying that the lake be drained. A hearing on the petition will be held in this city May 28.

Le Sueur Center. — Mrs. Mary Casey, the oldest resident of this place, is dead, aged 100 years 2 months and 20 days. She was born in County Cork, Ireland, and came to Minnesota in 1855, first locating in Nicollet county.

St. Paul.—For the first time since 1876, the Minnesota State Fire Department association will not hold a convention this summer. The executive board, at a meeting in St. Paul, decided to postpone it this year because of the war.

Fergus Falls. — A milk war is on in this city. The milkmen here announced that on May 1 they would raise the price from 8 cents per quart to 10 cents. Mayor Erickson announced they would not if there was any legal way to prevent it.

Stillwater.—The Washington county board of commissioners has authorized a bond issue of $10,000 toward paying its share of a highway around White Bear lake from White Bear to Wildwood. Ramsey county proposes to bear $20,000 of the expense.

Red Wing.—Joseph Evans, 30 years old, farmer of Leon township, was killed instantly, and Ludwig Johnson, his companion, was injured seriously when Evans' automobile crashed through the railing of a bridge at Stanton and plunged into the creek.

Winona. — More than half the population of Winona participated in a parade and patriotic demonstration of greater magnitude than anything of that nature ever before in the city's history. Nearly 20,000 men, women and children marched three miles in the parade.

St. Paul. — Andrew E. Fritz, state public examiner has certified to the Minnesota Tax commission a list of more than 100 freight line and private car companies failing to report for the last year as required by the gross earnings tax law and 35 companies found to have omitted earnings from reports.

Mankato. — At a largely attended meeting of farmers and business men, at the courthouse, the Blue Earth County Farmers' and Business Men's league was organized, with County Commissioner T. H. Foley, chairman; County Auditor C. L. Kennedy, secretary, and the five county commissioners an executive committee.

St. Paul.—The officers of the Public Safety commission are being flooded with letters from towns all over the state, asking how the people shall go about organizing a home guard. In reply the commission is sending out a letter and a blank, containing the form of enlistment and space for the signatures of those who enlist.

St. Paul. — Premiums paid for fire, tornado and hail insurance in Minnesota during the last calendar year show an increase of $289,974, while the losses were $141,052 greater than the previous year, according to a preliminary report by John B. Sanborn, state insurance commissioner, which will be ready soon for distribution.

St. Paul.—John H. Mullen has been named deputy state highway commissioner by Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, and his salary fixed at $3,500 a year. At the same time it was announced that Carl E. Nagel, who has been deputy engineer of bridges, will be retained as deputy engineer at a salary of $2,500 a year.

Minneota. — Minneota, Lime county, made a vigorous clutch at the banner for champion recruiting when it sent a delegation of twenty-four young men to Minneapolis to join the army and navy. Nine already have enlisted from Minneota, making thirty-three from this village of 950 persons, or more than 3 per cent, and probably a fourth of the men of fighting age.

St. Paul.—Important Minnesota war developments have just been announced Captain W. F. Rhinow, United States army officer detailed as military instructor at the University of Minnesota, has become military secretary to Governor J. A. A. Burnquist. Adjutant General Fred B. Wood was placed in charge of registration for conscription in the state and will devote his time to that task, while Captain Rhinow will take over other military duties, including supervision of the national guard.

Fort Snelling. — The opening date for the Fort Snelling training camp for reserve corps officers was postponed from May 8 to May 14. This action was taken by the War department, "in order to enable a more careful selection to be made of the limited number that can be accommodated."

Brainerd.—The body of Selwyn P. Coffrain, Brainerd business man, drowned last October while hunting, was found in Lake George by a homesteader living near the lake. An extensive search has been made for the body by men who accompanied Coffrain on his trip.

Duluth. — Precautions adopted by authorities in guarding the ore docks here have been doubled in the past twenty-four hours, since the loading of vessels started. Strict orders have been given to shoot to kill any suspicious persons refusing to halt after being challenged, guards say.

MORE MAN POWER NEEDED ON FARMS

FOOD CONSERVATION COMMITTEE CALLS ON MINNESOTANS TO HELP SOLVE PROBLEMS.

MORE GUARDS MAY BE CALLED

Call, Possibly for Service in Trenches in Europe, Expected to Follow Conference on Transportation at Capitol.

St. Paul.

The present food shortage is due not to inefficiency on the farm but to the fact that there are not enough people on the land to feed all of the rest of the people, says A. D. Wilson, chairman of the state committee on food production and conservation, and the man-shortage is caused in part by war conditions and in part by the preferences of people for the shorter hours of labor in town.

It is believed that bankers, merchants and others in farming trade centers should in periods of labor stress on the farms go out and take a hand with the farmers. This will not only help to solve the present labor problem, but it will help to bind town and country into closer union for their permanent good.

The crop production committee of the state committee is making a final appeal to the farmers of the corn belt to plant the largest possible acreage of corn as a means of offsetting the shortage in the wheat of the winter wheat states.

To Call 2nd and 3rd Regiments.

A call to the colors, perhaps, to put the flag on the fighting front, was reported an early probability for the Second and Third Minnesota regiments when Major Harry L. Brady called operating officials of Northwestern railroads into conference at the Capitol to arrange schedules for transportation of troops.

Major Brady, in charge of troop transportation as United States property and disbursing officer, admitted that the War department has directed immediate preparation of such schedules but declined to give any further information, believing it would be contrary to public policy.

The conference was to forward schedules to central headquarters at Chicago and early mobilization calls for the Second and Third infantry are expected.

The meeting to arrange for actual railroad movements of troops and the fact that most companies already are recruited to the maximum, was regarded as an indication that the regiments will be sent soon to Fort Snelling and perhaps prepared without delay to go to the fighting front.

To Hold Recruits' Positions Open.

The Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse Commission by formal resolution has pledged that body to retain the places of any of its employes who are enlisted for military purposes during the war. Several of them already have joined the colors without any assurance that their positions would be restored to them on their return and it was to show their appreciation for such action and to assure others in the department who have desired to enlist that their places will be protected, that the commission made their position a matter of formal record.

Border Service Pay Ready.

Guardsmen who served on the Mexican border last summer will receive their additional state pay of 50 cents a day as soon as payrolls now in the hands of the printers have been checked up and signed, it has been announced. How soon the men actually will receive this money, which amounts to from $75 to $125 for each, cannot be predicted, Adjutant General Fred B. Wood said. The money has been available for two weeks. Payment will be made through company and battery commanders.

Personal Reports of Real Cases

HEALTH WAS RESTORED.
T. A. Matchke, Hillsboro, N. D., says: "My back got so lame I could hardly work and before long headaches and dizzy spells came on. I was nervous and run down and doctors failed to help me. I was becoming discouraged until a friend told me about Doan's Kidney Pills. The first box helped me and by the time I had used six boxes, my kidneys were in good shape and my back was cured. All the other ailments left me and I was restored to good health."

GIVES DOAN'S THE CREDIT.
Mrs. R. S. Andrews, 1621 Eighth Ave., N., Great Falls, Mont., says: "I suffered intensely from my back and rheumatic pains. My hands, feet and limbs swelled and I was unable to stand. Finally, I had to take to my bed and leave my housework undone. I lost so much weight that my garments just hung on me. Finally I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and they rid me of all the trouble. I give them the credit for my cure."

Fought With Hessians.

An ancestor of Count von Bernstorff, the dismissed German ambassador, fought against America in our war for freedom. The fact is brought out by a passage in the "Souvenirs du Chevalier de Cussy." Among the acquaintances made by the chevalier in 1820, when he joined the staff of the French embassy in Berlin, was the court chamberlain, Count von Bernstorff, grandfather of the former ambassador. "Countess Bernstorff," wrote De Cussy, "bears a singular forename, 'America.' This was bestowed on her because she was born in that country during the war of independence. Her father was in command of one of the regiments hired out to the English by the elector of Hesse."

It Sounds Ridiculous.

Joseph H. Choate said, at a luncheon in New York:

"When the Germans talk about protecting little nations, freeing the seas and championing international law, it sounds so ridiculous that it reminds me of the tramp.

"'Lady,' said a tramp to a farmer's wife, 'could you oblige me with the loan of a cake of soap?'

"The farmer's wife threw up her hands.

"'Soap!' she said. 'Do you mean to tell me you desire soap?'

"'Yas'm,' said the tramp. 'Me partner's got the hiccups and I want to scare him.'"

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said, "Take tonoline."

Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the of the blood—and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at your druggists.

Notice:—As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

Wonderful Cuban Caves.

The wonderful caves of Bellamar, Cuba, to the east of Havana, attract the attention of the ambitious tourist. They are on a plateau as level as a table top, which presents no signs of the existence of such caves. After descending into the earth, however, a picture unfolds itself. Then come many passages, and at last the great "Catholic temple," 250 feet long and 80 feet wide.

Lady Recruiting Officer.

Miss Beatha Nelson has been appointed a recruiting officer for the goverment and will be furnished a ladys' uniform to wear while serving her country. She will gladly furnished full information to any one in Holt or vicinity who is eligible for enlistment in Uncle Sam's service. We expect to see several of our young men volunteer for service in in the navy, uow that Miss Nelson will be actively engaged in the work.

Appointed Conscription Registar.

Sheriff Hanson has appointed Clarence Kolden to register all those in this village who are liable for military duty. The date of registration will be some time this month which will be announced later. As we understand it, the government will still receive volunteers for the army as same as for the navy, so no one need wait to be drafted.

Johnson Dredge Arrived

Olaf Johnson's dredge came Monday and he has been hauling it a distance of 12 miles from here to about 6 miles east of Steiner. This dredge is a big affair and cost about $6000. It is something of a job to unload it and haul it to its destination, which was done with a traction engine, as were also the cook and sleeping cabins.

Mr. Johnson has a $16000 contract for excavating a ditch 18 1-2 miles long in Adjar and Grand Plain. His outfit is equipped with an electric light plant, so they can work day and night shifts.

Congress Gives Money and Material

The Northwest must give the men. The Nation has called for its sons. It is up to the Northwest to answer. Young men have been coming forward at a fair rate, but more must come. Part of the fleet is idle and will be until America wakes up. Another 40 men a day would put four more big guns in action. Leave your application at the postoffice. PREPARE MORE LAND -GROW MORE FOOD

"Seed and Feed" the Slogan of the Year.

The papers are filled with the appeal for soldiers, sailors and farmers, and all are timely, all are necessary. The sailor is needed to man the ships that protect the shores, police the seas and clear the ocean of tormenting and meddlesome masked buccaneers, to give help to the allies, to make more efficient the present fighting units that are keeping free the sea lanes and ocean routes. The soldier is required to keep alive and intact the unity of the nation and the freedom of the world, to protect the lives of its citizens from incursions without and raids within, to guard the honor and preserve the dignity of the great United States, to render not only sentimental but practical assistance to those who for two and a half years on the battlefields of Flanders and the steppes of the East have been fighting for the freedom of the world against a dominant autocratic and militarist Prussianism, which, were it to become successful, would mean autocratism, militarism and Prussianism, and a "get-off-the-sidewalkism" over the entire world. The allies are proud to welcome these new accessions to the fighting forces, which mean an earlier termination of the war and the dawn of an era that will be historic, one that we will all be proud that we lived in. Throughout all Canada, Great Britain, France, and all the allied countries, when the news was received that the United States had entered the war, a thrill went up and down the nation's sides, and the pulses throbbed with a new life, keenly appreciative of the practical sentiment that had brought to their sides an ally of the strength and virility of the United States.

But the soldier and the sailor need to be fed, and therefore the cry for agricultural enlistment. The strength of the fighting man must be maintained. In his absence from the field there comes the necessity for provision to take his place. The appeal for farm help is well timed, opportune and important. There are vacant lands aplenty in the United States that, given a fair opportunity under competent advisement and reasonable help, will produce abundantly. Western Canada also provides an excellent field for the prosecution of work in growing wheat and other grains, and while it is not the desire of the Canadian Government to draw from the resources of the United States, believing that it is the duty of every patriotic citizen to do all he possibly can to build up the stores of depleted foods and making use of every energy at home, the wish is to lay before the public the fact that Canada has millions of acres of excellent land capable of producing wonderful crops. If for any reason the reader, having patriotism and a love of his country in his heart, and a desire to forward the cause of the allies, cannot avail himself of the opportunities afforded in the United States, Western Canada will be glad to render him any assistance it can in locating him on its vacant areas, where large crops can be grown at minimum of cost. Let us grow the grain, raise the cattle, produce the food to feed our soldiers, our sailors and provide food for our allies, no matter whether it is done to the North or to the South of the boundary line that in the object in view should not be known as a boundary. Let us keep up the spirit of patriotism, whether it be growing grain in the United States or in Canada, but Canada, fully alive to the necessity, joins in the appeal of its allies—the United States—for more food and more food.—Advertisement.

Something Promised.

"Of course you expect to reduce the cost of living with that little two by four garden of yours," sneered the cynical person.

"Not materially," replied the suburban optimist. "But I've given away several cans of angleworms dug up in the course of my agricultural labors. If there is such a thing as luck in fishing and gratitude in the human heart I may have some fish for breakfast."

Washington.—The administration war revenue bill as unanimously agreed upon by the house committee on ways and means and reported to the house Wednesday, is estimated to produce $1,800,000,000 a year.

If the framers overlooked any tangible article upon which it is possible to levy a tax, it was not because of any desire to do so.

Incomes, inheritances, business profits, amusements, liquors, tobacco, automobiles, moving pictures, baseball games, medicines, letter postage, transportation and jewelry are among some of the things which will feel the burden of taxation.

Tariff Will Yield $200,000,000.

The committee found it necessary to go to the tariff to make up a deficit of something like $200,000,000. This was done by an agreement to a tax of 10 per cent upon all articles now on the free list and 10 per cent additional upon all articles now upon the dutiable list.

Income-tax increases as made public by Chairman Kitchin follow:

Taxes for the year ending December 31, 1916, have been increased exactly one-third. These taxes are due in June.

Exemption limits have been reduced to $1,000 for single men and $2,000 for married men.

The normal tax on new classes of incomes to be taxed, those between $1,000 and $3,000 for single men and between $2,000 and $4,000 for married men, has been fixed at 2 per cent.

Normal taxes on all incomes formerly taxed, those above $3,000 for single men and $4,000 for married men, have been increased from 2 to 4 per cent.

Increases in All Surtaxes.

The increased surtaxes are as follows:

$ 5,000 to	$ 7,500	1 per cent
7,500 to	10,000	2 per cent
10,000 to	12,500	3 per cent
12,500 to	15,000	4 per cent
15,000 to	20,000	5 per cent
20,000 to	40,000	6 per cent
40,000 to	60,000	8 per cent
60,000 to	80,000	11 per cent
80,000 to	100,000	14 per cent
100,000 to	150,000	17 per cent
150,000 to	200,000	20 per cent
200,000 to	250,000	24 per cent
250,000 to	300,000	27 per cent
300,000 to	500,000	30 per cent
500,000 and upwards		37 per cent

The inheritance tax starts with one-half of 1 per cent as the basic tax on all estates of $50,000 or less. The remainder of the schedule is applied to the various excesses in graduation as follows:

Inheritance Tax Scale.

On excess of more than $50,000, but not exceeding $150,000, 1 per cent.

On excess of more than $150,000, but not exceeding $250,000, 1½ per cent.

On excess of more than $250,000, but not exceeding $450,000, 2 per cent.

On excess of more than $450,000, but not exceeding $1,000,000, 2½ per cent.

On excess of more than $1,000,000, but not exceeding $2,000,000, 3 per cent.

On excess of more than $2,000,000, but not exceeding $3,000,000, 3½ per cent.

On excess of more than $3,000,000, but not exceeding $4,000,000, 4 per cent.

On excess of more than $4,000,000, but not exceeding $5,000,000, 4½ per cent.

On excess of more than $5,000,000, but not exceeding $8,000,000, 5 per cent.

On excess of more than $8,000,000, but not exceeding $11,000,000 7 per cent.

On excess of more than $11,000,000, but not exceeding $15,000,000, 10 per cent.

On excess of more than $15,000,000, 15 per cent.

The income tax schedules were not changed except for the determination to place an added tax of one-third on individual income taxes which are due in June of this year. Under this provision those who already have paid their income taxes for the year ending December 31, 1916, will have to pay another one-third of their taxes again, and those who have not paid will have to pay one-third more when they do pay.

The tax on excess profits was not changed and stands as printed previously at 16 per cent on profits over 8 per cent and $5,000.

Liquor Touched Up.

The tax on spirits, whisky and similar beverages has been increased to $2.20 per gallon.

The tax on beer is $2.75 per barrel.

The tax on rectifiers is 15 cents per gallon.

The tax on tobacco has been doubled.

The taxes on cigars have been advanced to a new schedule ranging from 50 cents to $10 per thousand, retail value.

The bill specifies that purchasers shall pay the 10 per cent tax on amusement, theater, and baseball tickets.

A new tax of 5 per cent on heat, light, and telephone bills was inserted in the bill. Under this section when the householder goes to pay his monthly bills for these articles he will have to pay an additional 5 per cent of the amount of the bills for the support of the government.

The stamp tax on telephone and telegraph messages was fixed at 5 cents on each message the toll of which is more than 15 cents.

Commuters' tickets were exempt from the passenger ticket tax of 10 per cent tax where the one way fare is less than 25 cents.

Mail Rate Increases.

The second-class mail rate increase was decided on according to the zone system. On motion of Representative Dixon of Indiana, this was reduced to the following:

Two cents a pound on second-class mail in first and second zones.

Three cents a pound on second-class mail in the third and fourth zones.

Five cents a pound on second-class mail in the fifth and sixth zones.

Six cents a pound on second-class mail in the seventh and eighth zones.

Religious, fraternal, labor and agricultural papers not operated for profit were put on a straight one and one-half-cent-a-pound basis.

The old regulations concerning the free distribution of small papers within the county were unchanged.

A tax of 5 per cent was inserted in the bill on pleasure boats.

Musical instruments costing less than $10 each, were exempted from the provisions of the 5 per cent tax on these articles.

A motion was made in committee to reduce the automobile tax to 3 per cent, but failed by a large margin.

Lodging-House Geometry.

Learning is one thing and wit is another, but that does not prevent them from meeting at times in the same brain. One of the most amusing of those jests, which it takes a certain amount of scholarship to make or enjoy, was the collection of Euclidean axioms that Prof. Stephen Leacock of McGill university wrote some years ago for Truth. Here is one of the cleverest of them: If there be two boarders on the same flat and the amount of side of the one be equal to the amount of side of the other, each to each, and the wrangle between one boarder and the landlady be equal to the wrangle between the landlady and the other boarder, then shall the weekly bills of the two boarders be equal, each to each. For, if not, let one bill be the greater. Then the other bill is less than it might have been, which is absurd.—Youth's Companion.

PLANS FOR RAISING NEW UNITED STATES ARMIES BY DRAFT

DETAILS OF THE UNIVERSAL SERVICE LAW AS DECIDED UPON BY CONGRESS.

CALLS MEN FROM 21 TO 30

Provisions Also Made for Volunteers Who Wish to Join the Military Forces of the Country—Prohibition Clause Is Made Drastic—Army Medical Officers Assigned to Duty in France.

Approximately ten million men between the ages of twenty-one and thirty inclusive will be required to register as available for military service in the war with Germany under the terms of the new national army bill perfected by the conference committee of the house and senate.

From these ten million men there will be selected the first 500,000 recruits to the selective conscription army, the second 500,000 when the president decides to call for them, and recruits to bring the regular army and National Guard up to maximum war strength in the event that volunteers to these forces fail to come forward in sufficient numbers and the president exercises his power to draft.

But in order that men under twenty-one and over thirty may serve their country if they so desire, the measure provides for the acceptance of volunteers over eighteen years and under forty years.

The gigantic number of men subject to draft will not all be called to the colors by any means. The proposed law gives authority to the president to draft as many men as he deems necessary to fill up the regular army, the National Guard and the conscription force of 1,000,000 men.

2,001,000 Armed Men.

It is estimated by the war department that as a result of the authority conferred and the action to be taken 2,001,000 officers and men will comprise the military establishment of the United States.

Under the new bill agreed to authority is given to fill up by draft the regular army and the National Guard to war strength, and to raise outside this 1,000,000 men, 500,000 to come as the first quota.

The war strength of the regular army is about 290,000 men. It has now about 135,000 men and is short about 155,000. The National Guard has a war strength of 625,000 men. It has now about 125,000 and is short about 500,000 men.

Therefore, on the first call there can be taken for war service about 655,000 men to fill up gaps in the regular army and National Guard and in addition 500,000 as the first quota of the conscript army of 1,000,000 men.

In the first draft it is possible about 1,155,000 men will be taken for active service, leaving authorization under the present bill to call out immediately 500,000 more for another conscript army.

No Place for Roosevelt.

The action allowing Col. Theodore Roosevelt to enlist volunteers for foreign service has been eliminated.

What the colonel will do now that his pet project is incapable of realization is a question. It is generally understood that President Wilson is absolutely opposed to the idea of a volunteer organization under command of the colonel.

Pay for enlisted men and noncommissioned officers was agreed upon as follows:

Men now receiving less than $21 per month are increased to $31 per month; those who received $24 are increased to $32; men who receive $30, $36 or $40 are increased $6 each; men who receive $45 are increased to $50.

Army Officers Pleased.

Army officers received notice of the age limit with pleasure. They had expected a higher maximum, though they would rather have had the original ages of nineteen to twenty-five.

A new section in the bill authorizes the president to organize and equip three machine-gun companies for each infantry and cavalry brigade and four machine-gun companies and an armored motorcar for each infantry and cavalry division. These will be additional to those already provided.

An interesting change is that the draft will not be based upon the number of persons "available for service," as first proposed, but upon the population.

A man may register by mail, if necessary. Fraud in registration, examination, etc., is punishable by the same imprisonment, "or, if subject to military law, the individual shall be tried by court-martial and suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct."

Dry Clause Drastic.

The prohibition provision is exceedingly drastic. The president is authorized to make regulations governing the prohibition of alcoholic liquors "in or near" military camps. Not only can liquor not be sold or supplied but it will be illegal for any person to have in his possession any intoxicating or spirituous liquors at any military station, cantonment, camp, fort, post or officers' or enlisted men's club.

It will be unlawful for anyone to sell intoxicating liquor, including beer, to any officer or member of the military forces while in uniform.

Likewise, the social evil is guarded against through the suppression and prevention of the setting up of any houses used for immoral purposes.

The fact that under the authority of congress the president is authorized to call 11,000,000 men to the colors is expected to have a great moral effect in Germany. It is quite true that the entire force he can commandeer at this time will number two and a quarter million. But even this number would constitute a re-enforcement which British and French officers say would assure victory if employed in France.

Could Relieve British.

England to date has raised some 6,000,000 men. With the exception of a couple of million these men are at the front in France, Belgium, Egypt, the Balkans and Mesopotamia.

What the president and Secretary Baker desire first and above all is to train the officers and men. When they are ready to fight the drilled troops of Germany, then probably they will be sent abroad, and not before.

But Germany doubtless will watch with increasing anxiety the preparedness of the American people and will realize that peace will be most desirable and necessary, before they are ready for service in France.

Officers Go to France.

Three army medical officers—Maj. William L. Keller and Capts. Daniel P. Card and George M. Edwards—were assigned to duty at the French military hospital at Ris Orangis, France.

Organization of two reserve air squadrons for the army was authorized by Major General Scott, chief of staff.

The first class at West Point will be graduated August 30, the war department announced, and immediately commissioned to supply 154 highly trained officers to aid in the instruction of the first 500,000 selective draft army to be called to the colors some time in September. Under normal conditions the cadets would have completed their course in June, 1918.

Women Form Committee.

The woman's liberty loan committee has been formed. Announcement to this effect is made by the treasury department.

The committee met in the office of the secretary of the treasury. The members present were Mrs. George Bass, Mrs. Antoinette Funk and Mrs. Kellogg Fairbanks of Chicago, Mrs. Gilford Dudley of Tennessee, Miss Pierce of Kansas City, representing Mrs. Guernsey, and Mrs. John O. Miller of Pittsburgh.

READY FOR SEPARATE PEACE

Russian Socialists Announce Willingness to Act With Germans in Plans to End the War.

Petrograd.—Twelve members of the council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, including the president, have gone to Schlusselburg to cope with the situation created by the district committee in declaring itself an autonomous unit.

Skobeleff, who moved the report of the executive committee of the council concerning the proposed socialist conference at Stockholm, said that for the sake of restoring the internationale and stopping the war he was willing to meet not only Scheidemann but the devil and his grandmother.

The tone adopted by the Russian socialist pacifists is exemplified by Gorki's Novaia Zhizn, which declares that even if the British and French socialists refuse to participate in the conference the Russian socialists will, in any event, participate.

AN OPERATION AVERTED

Philadelphia, Pa.—"One year ago I was very sick and I suffered with pains in my side and back until I nearly went crazy. I went to different doctors and they all said I had female trouble and would not get any relief until I would be operated on. I had suffered for four years before this time, but I kept getting worse the more medicine I took. Every month since I was a young girl I had suffered with cramps in my sides at periods and was never regular. I saw your advertisement in the newspaper and the picture of a woman who had been saved from an operation and this picture was impressed on my mind. The doctor had given me only two more days to make up my mind so I sent my husband to the drug store at once for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and believe me, I soon noticed a change and when I had finished the third bottle I was cured and never felt better. I grant you the privilege to publish my letter and am only too glad to let other women know of my cure."—Mrs. THOS. MCGONIGAL, 3432 Hartville Street, Phila., Pa.

FRECKLES

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription othine — double strength — is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from your druggist, and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than one ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Adv.

No Sense at All.

Out in the cold and dreary street, where the icy wind whipped the puddles into little whirlpools, two men were talking together.

It was Saturday forenoon and they were undecided as to how they should amuse themselves in the afternoon.

One of them was heard to say:

"Coom on, Jack. T' finest match o' t' season is on today. Coom along with me."

The other shook his head, and a contemptuous smile curled his lip.

"Nay," he replied. "Does ta think Ah've no more sense than to go an' watch a football match on a cowd day like this? No' me! Ah'm goin' fishin'."—London Tit-Bits.

Apostle of Poverty.

Eaton La Rue Moses, who died recently in Jamestown, N. Y., at the age of eighty years, was an apostle of poverty. Highly educated, of pleasing address and manners and the father of a family, he habitually dressed like a tramp, maintained no regular home and wandered about a wide district. Graduate of Cornell, classmate of Andrew D. White, welcomed for his conversation in the homes of many well-to-do friends, he despised money and property, accumulated none and died practically penniless as he desired.

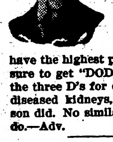
THE 3 D'S IN DODD'S



Mr. Robert W. Ferguson, Hingham, Mass., writes: I suffered from kidney disorder for years. Had incessant backache and trouble. LENGTH OF WIRELESS WAVE

Naturally, It Is Four Times That of the Aerial, But This Does Not Always Hold Good.

In articles of wireless telegraphy such expressions as 200-meter wave-lengths, 600-meter wave-lengths, 15,000-meter wave-lengths are constantly used. In reply to a correspondent who asks how the length of the waves is measured the Scientific American gives the following simple explanation:

"The length of an electric wave is determined by a wave-meter. The natural wave-length of an aerial is four times its linear length, just as the wave-length of a note of a closed organ pipe is four times the length of the pipe, and the wave-length of the note of a tuning fork is four times the length of the box which is resonant with the note. However, other considerations make it difficult to measure the wave-length by a rule, and the wave-meter gives a more correct result than can be found by measuring the length of the wire."

He Couldn't Lose.

One of the justices of the Supreme court tells of a young lawyer in the West who was trying his first case before the late Justice Harlan. The youthful attorney had evidently conned his argument until he knew it by heart. Before he had consumed ten minutes in his oratorical effort the justice had decided the case in his favor and told him so. Despite this, the young lawyer would not cease. It seemed that he had attained such a momentum that he could not stop.

Finally Justice Harlan leaned forward and in the politest of tones, said:

"Mr. Smith, despite your arguments, the court has concluded to decide this case in your favor."—Harper's Magazine.

The Purchase of a Saxon Insures Riding Satisfaction
Saxon cars are today generally recognized as the best cars in their price classes.
Their greater value has been definitely and decisively established by their performance records in the hands of thousands of owners in all parts of the country.
The Saxon Motor Car Corporation has earned one of the biggest successes in the automobile industry. It owes its success to the policy of building good cars and building them in quantities. Its cars have won the respect of the motor buying public.
Such absolute satisfaction as is represented in the following testimonial is the big reason back of Saxon success:
"I want to say that Saxon 'Six' is an automobile that will do all the Saxon Motor Car Corporation claims it will do—and more.
"We have driven our car many thousand miles and can honestly say it is the easiest riding car we ever rode in."

What's Doing in Minnesota

Duluth.—Prediction of a record ore production from the state's iron mines during 1917 has been made by J. A. O. Preus, state auditor, who was here for a day.

Red Wing, Minn.—At the annual convention of the state council of the Knights of Columbus, which was held here, St. Cloud was chosen as the 1918 convention city.

Bemidji.—One hundred Bemidji business men attended a banquet held in honor of Minnesota legislators who led the fight for a bill appropriating $75,000 for the construction of a new normal school here.

Washington, D. C.—Charles E. Elmquist, representing the Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse commission, and president of the interstate organization, has proposed that the state commission enlist in the war.

Pipestone.—F. E. Cogswell has been named as manager of all municipal affairs in Pipestone. He has been made chief of police and chief of the fire department and will have supervision of the other departments.

Dunnell.—Frank A. Sandin, banker of this village, has been arrested by Sheriff Carver charged with having made utterances tending to discourage enlistments and derogatory to the United States and President Wilson.

Rochester.—Ralph Rasmusson, 30 years old, proprietor of the Queen City restaurant here, was shot and seriously wounded by his cousin, Pete Rasmusson, who confessed, following his arrest five hours after the shooting.

Brainerd.—The Cuyuna district will supply a large quota of members for the engineering corps of the government. A number already have been examined in Duluth by Lieutenant Colonel E. H. Schulz, engineer corps, U. S. A.

Minneapolis.—Minnesota club women took their first big step in war preparedness, when a union was effected between the state federation of women's clubs and the Red Cross. The plan was announced at the state Red Cross headquarters by J. T. Gerould, assistant director.

Jackson, Minn.—Seeding is all done here and there is a good stand of young grain. Farmers are plowing for corn and some began planting about May 14. Indications point to a big acreage. Gardening clubs and individual gardeners are unusually active and there will be a big supply of staple vegetables.

Hutchinson.—Twenty-three young men, who left here three weeks ago with the town on the zenith of a wave of patriotism, to become members of C battery, First Minnesota field artillery, are home again and wondering where they are at and what kind of system obtains at the military headquarters of the state.

Browns Valley.—Minnesota's $1,000,000 war board has aided Dr. Edward Hayes of Browns Valley to get in touch with commission men to purchase a carload of about 600 bushels of seed potatoes for distribution among Traverse county farmers, by the Browns Valley Defense league in the general movement to increase production of food products.

Crookston.—The guarantee of deposits in state banks, the operation of the Federal Land bank and the food situation were to be the main topics of discussion at the fourth annual convention of the Ninth congressional group of the Minnesota Bankers' association in Crookston, May 16. Two hundred bankers from northwestern Minnesota expected to attend.

St. Paul.—The war movement to make Minnesota produce this year its mightiest crops finds encouraging conditions reflected in a new crop prospect summary based on reports from 18 scattered counties and made public by Fred D. Sherman, state immigration commissioner. Seeding is finished in most localities in the state, although in some it has been retarded by continued cold and damp weather.

St. Paul.—County fairs cancelled this year for military reasons or war necessity will not lose their official status and right to share in future appropriations made by the state, unless other associations establish fairs where they omit them without sufficient reason, Attorney General Smith advised in an opinion given State Auditor J. A. O. Preus. He added that while nothing in the war situation now appears to necessitate abandonment of fair plans, grounds may arise later.

Center City, Minn.—Loyalty to the nation and its government were expressed in a telegram to President Wilson sent by the Minnesota conference of the Lutheran Augustant synod, which held its sessions here. The telegram, signed by President P. A. Mattson and Secretary J. B. A. Idstrom, was as follows: "The Minnesota conference of the Lutheran Augustant synod, in session assembled in Center City, expresses its loyalty to our country and its government in the present crisis, and asks the Lord to guide you in the trying duties that confront you."

Winona.—Final reports on the Lake of the Woods controversy will probably be signed at a meeting of the International joint commission to be held at Detroit May 15, according to James A. Tawney, a member of the joint body, who has returned to Winona, following a meeting at Toronto, Ont.

Minneapolis.—Twenty-seven Minnesota men, including students from the state university, Hamline university and Macalester college, will leave New York soon for France, where they will drive ambulances in the Norton-Harjes corps on the Western front.

MILLIONS IN CASH HELD IN TREASURY

BALANCE IS AT RECORD-BREAKING POINT, STATE TREASURER RINES ASSERTS.

PLAN FOR HOME GUARD READY

Total of About 3,000 Men Needed to Protect Cities and Towns of Minnesota, Public Safety Commission Is Told.

St. Paul.

Totaling nearly $7,000,000, the state treasury cash balance is at a record-breaking point, State Treasurer Rines says. The report was made to the state board of deposit, which met to approve bonds of banks designated as state depositories, and took no action relating to the cash fund on hand.

The record for big balances in the state treasury was broken with a total of $6,992,652.02 reached when the advance payment of nearly $1,500,000 of inheritance taxes was made on the estate of James J. Hill, late of St. Paul. Soldiers' pay of more than $500,000 and other immediate disbursements on appropriations of $1,575,000 soon will reduce the cash, the treasurer said, but tax revenue forthcoming in June will again swell the big total.

Home Guard Plans Ready.

Home guard organization plans, based where possible on needs shown by the military guard service and providing for 63 companies, totaling 3,000 men, have been presented to the State Public Safety commission as recommended by Major Oscar Seebach, in charge of details in the home guard movement.

Home guard units will include 12 companies of 500 men in Minneapolis, like numbers of companies of 400 men in both St. Paul and Duluth and 27 companies of varying strength, but totaling 1,740 men in other cities of the state, according to Major Seebach's plans. These figures are based where possible on demands made on the temporary military guard service and in contemplation of relieving these forces when called into federal service.

Chairman of county units in the "Make and Save the Crop" movement probably will be announced by the State Public Safety commission at once.

Decisive steps in home guard organization also may be made public.

New Timber Fraud Probes.

New investigations of alleged timber frauds on state-owned lands have been begun by State Auditor Preus under authority of the timber board to spend $5,000 of the new appropriation of $25,000 granted by the Legislature for that purpose. Rescale will be made under numerous timber cutting permits, inquiries will be directed to sales of agricultural lands later reported to contain valuable timber and other steps will be taken to insure the state fair returns.

War Takes Normal Students.

Numerous students are leaving their studies in State Normal schools to engage in military or farming activities incident to the war, presidents of the institutions have reported to the State Normal School Board, meeting at the Capitol. The presidents and faculties were empowered to use their discretion in granting credits and diplomas to these students, including women who enlist in the Red Cross.

Say Farewell to Vincent.

Three thousand students at the Minnesota university bade President George E. Vincent, whose resignation takes effect May 31, farewell at the last convocation of the year. Representatives of each class and of the all-university students' council paid the departing president tribute.

To Get Land and Men Together.

How to bring together some of the men who want to return to the farm, and who have at least part of the equipment, and some of the vacant land that is waiting to be farmed, is one of the problems the state food committee is trying to solve.

Uniform War Risk Clause.

John B. Sanborn, state insurance commissioner, has recommended to the seven life insurance companies located in Minnesota the adoption of a uniform war clause, to be used as a rider or inserted in the policies as the companies may see fit.

Celebrates State's Birthday.

Minnesota's admission to the Union was celebrated by the Minnesota Territorial Pioneers' association in the Capitol building, St. Paul, May 11, the 58th anniversary. Governor Burnquist, Samuel R. Van Sant, former governor; E. W. Durant and Frank Chaska Ford gave addresses. A musical program was arranged. The pioneers held their annual meeting also and the Pioneer Women's club met in the same building. Later in the day the two organizations held a joint meeting.

"Don't you think life is more interesting than fiction?"

"Hardly. You have to begin your romance with chapter 1."

From Last Year.

Kathryn—Did she wear a picture hat?

Kittye—Yes, an old master.

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You say to the drug store man, "Give me a small bottle of freezone." This will cost very little but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn relieves the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, dries up and can be lifted off with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that freezone dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn or callus without irritating the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to order a small bottle from his wholesale drug house for you.—adv.

Come to Judgment.

The person who writes the "Post-Impressions" for this magazine went forth to luncheon in the company of one who is now in Boswell for the first and last time. They entered one of those frugal places where the bill of fare is set forth on blackboards on the wall.

"I shall take a dairy lunch," he said.

Then he gazed at the bill of fare, and surrendered.

"Menu, menu, tekel upharsin," the great man said, "the handwriting on the wall!"

Whereupon he ordered an English beef and kidney pie, and strawberry shortcake.—New York Evening Post.

Some Objection.

"I would like to run over in my automobile some fine evening if you're willing."

"Hold on a minute; not if you want to run over me."

Mothers' Pensions.

Thirty states now have laws governing the payment of pensions to widows with children.

Accounting for It.

"How very seedy your friend looks."

"Naturally. He's just come out of an agricultural college."

Insomnia is responsible for much of the imagination and ignorance in the world.

Window Box Gardens.

Now that potatoes are scarce every bit of available space is being used in growing them. Already the women of the nation have worked out a scheme of growing seed potatoes in window boxes, thereby adding several dollars to the family income. When the housewife prepares her potatoes for the evening meal she cuts a piece from the "rose" end of the potato off before peeling and plants it in the sitting room window box, which contains either leaf mold, coconut fibre or sand. Each piece, says one potato planter, should weigh not less than one and a half ounces, and the box should be kept in the window of a cool—but not too cool—room until the sprouts are from one-half to an inch high. Thus the housewife has a supply of seed potatoes, which are daily increasing in value.

Fair to His Opponent.

One day in parliament a young member, one of John Redmond's political opponents, rose to make his maiden speech.

Although obviously suffering an agony of nervousness, he managed to say some bitter things about the Irish members.

Whereupon one of the Nationalists started to punctuate his remarks with jeers, thereby intensifying the youthful member's nervousness to an almost pitiable degree. Redmond turned on his follower in fury.

"Give the lad a chance!" he snapped. The jeers ceased.

Safe Position.

"I heard the boys say, Sam, that you were bragging to them about going to the front."

"Yes, sir. I've just got a job as a hotel bellboy."

Extremes Meeting.

"This spring has been raw, hasn't it?" "That's right, and it's been well roasted."

LITTLE HANDS HELP

Children Accompanied by Veterans Decorate Graves of Soldiers in Arlington

A PRETTY custom is observed in Washington, as it is at Arlington, on the other side of the capital city. Since age has set its stiffening fingers upon the faculties of the veterans, youth is employed to serve as hands and bending knees when it comes to decorating the graves. Bands of little girls clad in white accompany the veterans to the burial places, and as each grave is reached a veteran stands at either side. The child salutes, then kneels down and lays a bouquet upon the grave, the men standing at salute meanwhile. Rising, the little white-clad girl again salutes, turns and all march away to decorate the next grave.

This pleasing ceremony is also carried out at Battle Ground cemetery at Washington, two miles north of Soldiers' home. This sacred plot, the smallest national burying ground in the United States, covers just one acre of ground, but each Memorial day it is accorded as full and as beautiful ceremonies as are held at its famous prototype, Arlington, across the river, the veterans and the school children joining forces in paying it due homage.

This brave little "eternal camping ground" contains the bodies of soldiers of the Civil war who fought and died in what is known as Early's raid, the one conflict of the Civil war taking place within the borders of the District of Columbia. The Union soldiers who fell in this conflict were interred close to the battlefield, where they now lie, the graves ranged in a circle round a natural mound, in whose center the Stars and Stripes fly from a tall flag staff. On the lawn in front a granite monument tells the story of the conflict.

This veritable God's acre gains its chief interest from the fact of its being the scene of the one battle of the Civil war witnessed by President Lincoln. Mr. Lincoln had driven out with his friend Doctor Crawford to Fort Stevens, close by the scene of action, to watch the course of events. The strife was in progress and he climbed the rampart to look on. His tall, spare figure was so conspicuous an object for the enemy's bullets those about him begged him to descend. He would not, seeming to feel no fear and expressing sorrow for those engaged in the struggle.

The danger to the president was seen by his friends, and General Wright, who was in command of the fort, went up to him and said:

"Mr. President, I know that you are commander of the armies of the United States, but I am in command here, and as you are not safe where you are standing and as I am responsible for your personal safety, I order you to come down."

"Mr. Lincoln looked at me," said General Wright in telling of the incident later, "smiled, and then, more in consideration of my earnestness than from inclination, stepped down and took position behind the parapet."

Debt Never Can Be Fully Paid.

Without the brave defenders of this nation's honor when its honor was assailed; without their undaunted courage when a national crisis had to be resolutely faced; without their promptness and willingness to offer up on their country's bloody altar all that they held dear, it is not at all unlikely that this nation would have perished from the goodly company of sovereign states.

Slavery Originated in the East.

Absolute slavery seems to have appeared in the eastern colonies somewhat earlier than in the southern, for slavery existed in New York in 1628, in New Jersey in 1628, in Massachusetts in 1630, in Connecticut in 1631 and in Delaware in 1636. There was a statutory recognition of slavery in Massachusetts in 1641, which was considerably ahead of such recognition of slavery in Virginia or Maryland.

We have been informed that Willie Bakke failed to pass the examination for enlistment in the army on account of being too light in weight.

But this did not keep him out of his countrys service, for he enlisted in the navy and left for Minneapolis Monday night, but found that the training station was full of men and he would have to wait a few days before being assigned to duty, so he came back here yesterday.

Mrs. Carr was operated on in St. Michaels hospital, Grand Forks last Thursday morning and is doing nicely. It was expected that she would not have to stay in the hospital over a week and will be home the last of this week or the first of next week.---Middle River Pioneer of May 10th.

Mrs. Carr is the wife of the Middle River editor and we join their friends in wishing her a speedy recovery.

Leonard Peterson, supt. of the T. R. Falls electric light and water plant, was here Tuesday to look over our line and approve of it. He was well pleased with our plant, the line and the work done on it, and he says we can be proud of it, all of which makes us feel good. Hans J. Olson of Warren, had the contract for the pole line and electric part and his work has proven very satisfactory.

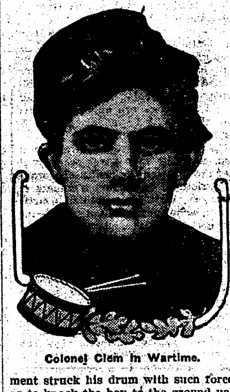
OFFICERS ALL GONE

Colonel Clem, Ten-Year-Old Civil War Soldier, Last to Serve in Regular Army.

OF THE nearly five thousand officers of of United States army, there is now not a single one left who took part in the Civil war. The last of the Union veterans of Uncle Sam's fighting forces retired from active service two years ago, on August 13, after having held for more than a year the distinction of being the last Civil war survivor in the army. He was John Clem, and at his retirement he held the rank of brigadier general, to which he was promoted from that of colonel not long before he was eliminated from the list of active officers.

Gen. "Johnny" Clem was born in Newark, O., on August 13, 1851, and he was not quite ten when President Lincoln issued his first call for volunteers. Johnny was an orphan, and he wanted very, very much to go to war. He appealed to a friend, Captain McDougal, a company commander in the Third Ohio, asking that he be enlisted as a drummer boy. McDougall was impressed with the earnestness of the lad, but he refused to accept the responsibility. Nevertheless, when the Third Ohio set out for the front Johnny Clem accompanied the regiment. McDougal remaining obstinate, Johnny crossed the river to Covington, Ky., and appealed to the commanding officer of the Twenty-second Michigan, there encamped. At length, after making use of all his persuasive powers, the youngster was enlisted as a sort of reserve drummer. Johnny quickly made himself the pet of the regiment, and he was fitted out not only with a drum, but with a musket. The barrel of the latter was sawed off, so as to make it light enough for the lad to carry.

The future last survivor of Civil war officers got into his first action at the battle of Shiloh. He didn't stay in the rear, but was in the very midst of the fighting. During the battle a shell exploded near him and a fragment struck his drum with such force as to knock the boy to the ground unconscious.



Colonel Clem in Wartime.

After that experience Johnny Clem became "Johnny Shiloh," and his nickname and the fame of it spread over the land. At Chickamauga he was again in the hottest part of the battlefield. This time he left his drum behind and, armed with his sawed-off musket, became an active combatant. Throughout that bloody struggle the boy fought with all the valor and coolness of a veteran, and his bravery won official recognition from General Rosecrans, who made the lad a sergeant. He was the youngest of that rank who ever fought in the United States army.

Besides Shiloh and Chickamauga, the youthful sergeant fought in the battles of Kenesaw mountain, Perryville, Murfreesboro, Atlanta, Nashville and other engagements. After the war General Grant used his influence to get Johnny Clem appointed to West Point, and he appeared at that institution in 1871. Having spent so much of his youth as a soldier instead of at school, young Clem's education was rather deficient in spots, and he failed to pass the entrance examinations. Grant was determined to make an officer of his young protege, so he immediately commissioned Johnny a second lieutenant of the regular army. From that beginning he rose to the rank of brigadier general, and at his retirement he was known as one of the ablest men in the army.

Colonel Clem naturally has been a prominent figure at G. A. R. reunions.

Results of Civil War.

"That is what gives dignity to a day like this. It is not a day of regret; it is not a day of weakening memory. It is a day of stimulation. But, my friends, these stimulating memories we are sometimes apt to minimize because we do not see the full significance of them. We are constantly speaking of the great war, of which we think today as a war which saved the Union, and it did, indeed, save the Union, but it was a war that did a great deal more than that. It created in this country what had never existed before—a national consciousness. It was not the salvation of the Union; it was the rebirth of the Union. It was the time when America for the first time realized its unity and saw the vision of its united destiny.

YES! LIFT A CORN OFF WITHOUT PAIN!

Cincinnati man tells how to dry up a corn or callus so it lifts off with fingers.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted off, root and all, without pain.

A small bottle of freezone costs very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

DRAFT MEASURE IS SIGNED BY WILSON; TROOPS TO FRANCE

Wilson Sets June 5 as Date for Registration.

U. S. DIVISION TO FRANCE UNDER MAJ. GEN. PERSHING

President Rejects Roosevelt Volunteer Army Plan—Says Experts of Country and Allies Opposed Proposal—National Guard to Mobilize in July—Call to Colors September 1.

Washington, May 21.—President Wilson signed the conscription bill after rejecting that section of the measure which would permit Col. Theodore Roosevelt to organize volunteer divisions.

The president signed the army bill just after dinner at 8 p. m. on Friday, without formality, and set June 5 as the date of registration for all men between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-one for military service.

President Issues Proclamation.

President Wilson's proclamation, putting into effect the selective draft provision of the war army bill, signed last night, follows in part:

"A proclamation by the president of the United States:

"Whereas, Congress has enacted and the president has on the 18th day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, approved a law which contains the following provisions:

"Section 5. That all male persons between the ages of twenty-one and thirty, both inclusive, shall be subject to registration in accordance with regulations to be prescribed by the president; and upon proclamation by the president or other public notice given by him or by his direction, stating the time and place on such registration, it shall be the duty of all persons of the designated ages, except officers and enlisted men of the regular army, the navy and the National Guard and naval militia while in the service of the United States, to present themselves for and submit to registration under the provisions of this act, and every such person shall be deemed to have notice of the requirements of this act upon the publication of said proclamation or other notice as aforesaid given by the president or by his direction; and any person who shall willfully fail or refuse to present himself for registration or to submit thereto as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction in the district court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof, be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year, and shall thereupon be duly registered; provided, that in the call of the docket precedence shall be given in courts trying the same, to the trial of criminal proceedings under this act: Provided further, that persons shall be subject to registration as herein provided who shall have attained their twenty-first birthday and who shall not have attained their thirty-first birthday on or before the day set for registration, and all persons so registered shall be and remain subject to draft into the forces hereby authorized, unless exempted or excused therefrom as in this act provided.

Registration on June 5.

"Now, therefore, I Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States, do call upon the governor of each of the several states and territories, the board of commissioners of the District of Columbia and all officers and agents of the several states and territories, of the District of Columbia and of the counties and municipalities therein to perform certain duties in the execution of the foregoing law, which duties will be communicated to them directly in regulations of even date herewith.

"And I do further proclaim and give notice to all persons subject to registration in the several states and in the District of Columbia in accordance with the above law that the time and place of such registration shall be between 7 a. m. and 9 p. m. on the 5th day of June, 1917, at the registration place in the precinct wherein they have their permanent homes. Those who shall have attained their twenty-first birthday and who shall not have attained their thirty-first birthday on or before the day here named are required to register, excepting only officers and enlisted men of the regular army, the navy, the Marine corps and the National Guard and naval militia while in the service of the United States, and officers in the officers' reserve corps and enlisted men in the enlisted reserve corps while in active service. In the territories of Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico a day for registration will be named in a later proclamation.

All Must Co-Operate.

"The power against which we are arrayed has sought to impose its will upon the world by force. To this end it has increased armament until it has changed the face of war. In the sense in which we have been wont to think of armies there are no armies in this struggle. There are entire nations armed. Thus, the men who remain to till the soil and man the factories are no less a part of the army that is in France than the men beneath the battle flags. It must be so with us. It is not an army that we must shape and train for war; it is a nation. To this end our people must draw close in one compact front against a common foe. But this cannot be if each man pursues a private purpose. All must pursue one purpose.

"The nation needs all men, but it needs each man, not in the field that will most pleasure him, but in the endeavor that will best serve the common good.

"It is in no sense a conscription of the unwilling—it is rather selection from a nation which has volunteered in mass.

"The day here named is the time upon which all shall present themselves for assignment to their tasks.

"It is essential that the day be approached in thoughtful apprehension of its significance and that we accord to it the honor and the meaning that it deserves. Our industrial need prescribes that it be not made a technical holiday, but the stern sacrifice that is before us urges that it be carried in all our hearts as a great day of patriotic devotion and obligation when the duty shall lie upon every man, whether he is himself to be registered or not, to see to it that the name of every male person of the designated ages is written on these lists of honor.

"By the president:
"ROBERT LANSING,
"Secretary of State."

Division Ordered to France.

President Wilson directed that an expeditionary force of approximately a division of regular troops, under command of Maj. Gen. John J. Pershing, proceed to France at as early a date as practicable. General Pershing and staff will precede the troops.

A division contains approximately 28,000 men. It is understood that at least 20,000 will be infantry.

The war bill was carefully gone over during the day by Brigadier General Crowder, judge advocate general and provost marshal general.

It was announced that all existing regiments of the guard will be called into service by August 5, and officials estimate that with from a month to six weeks' intensive training these troops will be ready to go forward for final preparation behind the fighting lines in Europe for the fighting that is before them.

President's Statement.

The president issued the following statement at the White House:

"I shall not avail myself, at any rate, at the present stage of the war, of the authorization conferred by the act to organize volunteer divisions.

"To do so would seriously interfere with the carrying out of the chief and most immediately important purpose contemplated by this legislation:

"The prompt creation and early use of an effective army would contribute practically nothing to the effective strength of the armies now engaged against Germany.

"No Time for Compliments."

"I understand that the section of this act which authorizes the creation of volunteer divisions in addition to the draft was added with a view to providing an independent command for Mr. Roosevelt and giving the military authorities an opportunity to use his fine vigor and enthusiasm recruiting the forces now at the western front.

"It would be very agreeable to me to pay Mr. Roosevelt this compliment and the allies the compliment of sending to their aid one of our most distinguished public men, an ex-president, who has rendered many conspicuous public services and proved his gallantry in many striking ways.

Seeks Advice From Both Sides.

"The business now in hand is undramatic, practical and of scientific definiteness and precision.

"I shall act with regard to it at every step and in every particular under expert and profession advice, from both sides of the water.

"The first troops sent to France will be taken from the present force of the regular army and will be under the command of trained soldiers only.

"The issues involved are too immense for me to take into consideration anything whatever except the best, most effective, most immediate means of military action. What these means are I know from the mouths of men who have seen war as it is conducted, who have no illusions and to whom the whole grim matter is a matter of business. I shall center my attention upon those matters and let everything else wait. I should be deeply to blame should I do otherwise, whatever the argument of policy or of personal gratification of advantage."

SEND FORESTERS TO FRANCE

Regiment of Experienced Woodsmen to Be Raised to Assist in Lumbering Operations.

Washington.—In addition to regiments of engineers, corps of physicians, and eventually divisions of regular soldiers, the United States will send a "forestry regiment" to France. This regiment is to be composed of foresters and others experienced in lumbering operations.

HINDENBURG LINE IS PIERCED IN TWO PLACES BY ALLIES

BRITISH AND FRENCH STRIKE NEW OFFENSIVE BLOW—BOTH HAIG'S AND NIVELLE'S MEN SUCCESSFUL.

RESUMPTION OF DRIVE FOLLOWS WEEK'S LULL

British Forward Move Registered From Bullecourt to Fontaines Les Croisilles—French Gains All in Champagne—Prisoner Predicts Petrograd Offensive.

London, May 22.—British and French forces have struck another joint offensive blow. Field Marshal Haig's Tommies took additional sections of German Hindenburg line positions, and General Nivelle's Poilus achieved a brilliant success in the capture of "several lines" of German trenches on the north slopes of Mont Cornillet.

"At Bullecourt and Fontaines Les Croisilles, along the Hindenburg line, our success was continued at night, and counter-attacks repelled," the statement said.

Hindenburg Line Broken.

"A Hindenburg line support trench was captured and 150 taken prisoner," Haig continued. "A large number of dead were found there. Two German divisions have been engaged there since yesterday morning."

The British advance was registered in the sector embracing Bullecourt and Fontaines Les Croisilles, the foundation for the Oppy-Queant part of the Hindenburg line. It was made despite massing of formidable fresh German divisions from the Russian front.

Drive Resume After Week.

The French gains were all in the Champagne district, in that section from Rheims east to Auberive, where six weeks ago General Nivelle started the general offensive timed with the British drive on Douai.

Resumption of the offensive by the Franco-British lines comes after nearly a week's lull. There had been considerable fighting at Bullecourt on the British front, and that village was finally gained by the British, but there was no general "drive" apparent on the action.

Germans Shift Divisions.

On the French front, General Nivelle's troops had been kept busy repelling unceasing waves of German counter-attacks, launched for the most part in the Soissons-Rheims sector, and designed patently to relieve pressure on Laon.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg is shunting his shattered and exhausted divisions on the West front to the Northern and Eastern battle lines, and fresh divisions from the Russian front are being sent to France.

To Try to Take Petrograd.

"We expect Hindenburg to try to take Petrograd," said a German prisoner, "or at least additional Russian territory. Just now, however, the east front lines are thin. Exhausted divisions and those whose losses have brought them far below the regular strength are being transferred from France to Russia. In return fresh divisions on the Russian front are being switched here. Some from Russia are being hurled against the British and French without waiting for replacement on the Russian front."

COAL PRICE CONTROL URGED

Federal Board Tells Congress Charges are Exorbitant.

Washington, May 22.—Declaring that coal mine operators are charging exorbitant prices—often several hundred times the cost of their production—the federal trade commission has urged congress to establish control by governmental agencies which may fix prices.

The commission asserted that coal operators have "doctored" their books, vast discrepancies being found in the actual prices at the mine and the recorded prices.

Regulation of coal distribution from the mouth of the mine to the ultimate consumer—with authority to allot quantities of coal to various classes of consumers—also was urged.

ARMY ENLISTMENT AGE RAISED TO 18 TO 40

New York, May 22.—The age limit of applicants for enlistment in the regular army have been raised from 17 to 35 years to 18 to 40 years, according to an order made public here at recruiting headquarters.

Want Oil Field Curb Lifted.

Washington, May 19.—Representative Kahn of California has appealed to President Wilson to remove government restrictions on the development of California oil fields. Lands in South California oil fields is being held by the navy as a fuel oil reserve. Mr. Kahn said that California industries, many of which abandoned the use of coal and turned to oil at the opening of the California fields, find now that production in the state is running far behind consumption and that the situation is becoming serious.

What He Could Do.

"I want to serve my country," said the loud-voiced man in the street car. "But I'm too old to carry a gun."

"So?"

"Yes," he continued. "The way they run things down there at Washington nowadays there's no chance for a man like me. I could be mighty valuable to them if they'd only take me."

"I'll tell you how you can serve your country if you really want to," said a meek little man.

"All right. Tell me what to do and I'll do it."

"Just keep your mouth shut."

Cynics should avoid human society and go out where the dogs are barking at the moon.

Many a man who claims to be self-made does his tailor a great injustice.

To Dynamite a Stream.

The editor of a Jersey newspaper, a thorough sportsman, is said to have received this query from a reader:

"Please advise me how to dynamite a stream."

The newspaper man sent the following advice:

"Four sticks of dynamite are sufficient. Tie them securely around your neck, attach fuse, light it and run as fast as you can away from the water to avoid injuring the other snakes and reptiles."—All Outdoors.

SAXON
Strength·Economy·Service

You Take No Chances in Buying a Saxon

You may buy a Saxon believing it to be the best car in its class and you will get what you pay for.

You may look for longer service, better performance and lower up-keep bills from your Saxon than from any other car of like price. And you will not be disappointed.

If there was any doubt that Saxon cars are the best in their respective divisions it has long since disappeared.

And the proof of this you will find, a thousand-fold over, in the records of Saxon owners—and in the opinion of motor-car buyers in general. Saxon cars have definitely established their superiority in every phase of motor car performance.

And just as surely and decisively as they have proved themselves abler acting cars, have they proved themselves cheaper cars to keep up.

To build cars of such quality and such value clearly reflects the strength and soundness and ability of the Saxon organization.

Raise High Priced Wheat on Fertile Canadian Soil

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

Canada extends to you a hearty invitation to settle on her FREE Homestead lands of 160 acres each or secure some of the low priced lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. This year wheat is higher but Canadian land just as cheap, so the opportunity is more attractive than ever. Canada wants you to help feed the world by tilling some of her fertile soil—land similar to that which during many years has averaged 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre. Think of the money you can make with wheat around $2 a bushel and land so easy to get. Wonderful yields also of Oats, Barley and Flax. Mixed farming in Western Canada is as profitable an industry as grain growing.

The Government this year is asking farmers to put increased acreage into grain. There is a great demand for farm labor to replace the many young men who have volunteered for service. The climate is healthful and agreeable, railway facilities excellent, good schools and churches convenient. A Promising Recruit.

On his way to the provincial hydro building in Toronto a few days ago, Sir Adam Beck was asked if he would "join up" by a recruiting sergeant in front of the armories. Sir Adam expressed his willingness, and the man led him to the door of the armories, asking him what unit he would like to join.

"I'll leave that to you," was the reply, "but what are the conditions as to age?"

"Under forty-eight," was the prompt reply of the recruiting sergeant, who took a second look at the vigorous outdoor countenance of Sir Adam.

"Oh, a few years doesn't matter. What's your job?"

"Well, I'm nearly sixty," replied Sir Adam, "and it's a hard job."

"You certainly have the courage, but perhaps you are a little over age, but what is your job?" replied the sergeant.

"I am remount commissioner for Canada," was Sir Adam's smiling reply, as he left the recruiting sergeant, who, after a salute, looked at the retreating figure and wondered whom he had been asking to enlist.—Montreal Herald.

An Effective Plea.

"What do you mean by begging from door to door when your country needs such husky fellows as you?" asked the patriotic person, indignantly.

"I've walked sixty miles te enlist, guv'nor," answered the tramp. "Dis is de las' lap of the journey, an' I t'ought under de circumstances you wouldn't mind givin' me a handout."

"Certainly not. Step around to the kitchen and I'll have the cook fix you up a good breakfast."

What's Doing in Minnesota

St. Paul.—The All-Minnesota Development association has held a meeting in the House chamber of the Old Capitol to discuss the formation of a defense league in every county of the state.

Blue Earth.—Less than a week after their attempt to rob H. C. Eders' store here, M. R. Murphy and Charles Adams began to serve indeterminate sentences in the state prison at Stillwater.

Red Wing.—Twin brothers, 80 years old, who have lived together constantly, were separated by the death of O. A. Sutherland in a hospital here. The other brother is Andrew Sutherland.

Buhl.—Police on the iron range are still baffled in their effort to solve the mystery surrounding the killing of Fred C. Neally, son of a prominent Chisholm hotel man, whose body was found here badly mutilated.

Pipestone.—When Judge Nelson opened the spring term of district court here he gave notice that there would be no jury trials so that the farmers might stay on their farms and cultivate the crop without interruption.

Rochester.—Rochester has voted, 1,194 to 225, to issue $650,000 bonds for the construction of a municipal power dam to furnish electricity for the city. The dam will be built in the Zumbro river ten miles from here. Work will begin immediately.

Crookston.—A resolution indorsing the Liberty loan and pledging its aid in selling the Red River valley's share was adopted at the closing session of the annual meeting of the Ninth Congressional Group of the Minnesota State Bankers' association.

Crookston.—Pleas for war food conservation and an increased production were made in the addresses of Superintendent C. G. Selvig of the Northwest School of Agriculture, and Dr. E. Dana Durand of the University of Minnesota, at the fourteenth annual convention of the Ninth congressional group of the Minnesota Bankers' association, held in Crookston.

St. Paul.—Steps for a state-wide Loyalty campaign, in which several hundred speakers will drive home the duties of Americans in this war and aid to form local organisations to co-operate with the Public Safety Commission, were taken at a meeting of the All-Minnesota Development association, attended by civic workers from all sections of the state.

St. Paul.—Minnesota can aid materially in averting a food shortage during the war and save thousands of dollars annually in food in times of peace if it will take steps to utilize the millions of fish which inhabit its thousands of lakes. This is the contention of Sam F. Fullerton, for years fish and game commissioner of Minnesota, who has presented his method to Governor Burnquist.

Duluth.—More than 5,000 Minnesotans are combating forest fires. Rangers, village fire departments, settlers and farmers have been engaged for days in desperate struggles to halt the spread of the menace. Governor Burnquist has announced that the state is keeping in touch with forest fire conditions in northern sections and will give aid when required. Should the situation get beyond control, he said, the national guard will be called out.

Brainerd.—The body of Mrs. Laura Adelle Richardson, 61, was found near her home on the east side of Bass lake, where she was burned to death in the brush fire. She is survived by her husband and several children. Clouds of smoke rolled over Brainerd from the fires that extend up into Beltrami and Itasca counties, as far north as Remer, in Beltrami and east of Kelliher into Itasca. All that region is exceedingly dry, as there have been no rains for weeks.

St. Paul.—Two proposed laws for Minnesota, one of which requires at least twenty minutes' physical training for each pupil in every school in the state every day, and the other authorizing local authorities to organize recreational systems to be financed by special taxes when ratified by a majority vote, were discussed at the conference on the conservation and mobilization of Minnesota's human resources under the auspices of the Playground and Recreation Association of America here.

St. Paul.—Minnesota crop conditions are the most encouraging in years, Fred D. Sherman, state immigration commissioner, said after reviewing additional reports from ten counties. Everywhere the war-time appeal to farmers to increase production of food crops is meeting with hearty response. The result is increased acreage in every section of the state. Seeding is almost finished and unusually large plantings of potatoes, beans and other vegetables will swell Minnesota's contribution to the food supply.

Blue Earth.—M. R. Murphy and Charles Adams, said to have confessed to an attempt to rob H. C. Eders' store of $2,000 worth of silks here on May 13, have just been brought here by Sheriff George Freer from Worthington, where they were captured.

Hibbing.—Shipments for the week ending May 14 last, from the state-owned mines on the Mesaba range were approximately 49,575 tons, as reported to J. A. Preus, state auditor, by F. A. Wildes, chief inspector. The Leonidas, Deason, Woodbride, Wanless, Shiras, Pool, Philbin and Smith mines were the leading shippers.

WHEAT ACREAGE IN STATE INCREASED

PROFESSOR BULL FINDS CAMPAIGN BRINGS RESULTS—MANY BEANS PLANTED.

COUNTY DIRECTORS CHOSEN

Are to Guide War Aid and Defense Work in Minnesota Communities Under Supervision of Public Safety Commission.

St. Paul.

An increase of 10 per cent in wheat acreage in Minnesota proves the success of the campaign made to increase the production of foodstuffs, Prof. C. P. Bull of the university college of agriculture has told members of the state food production and conservation committee. This increase was based on reports from county agents and individuals throughout the state.

Other acreage increases he predicts will be: Flax, 10 per cent; corn, 20 per cent; oats, 15 per cent; barley, 10 per cent, and beans, 500 per cent.

The big increase in beans is held due to interest stimulated by advancing prices and judicious publicity.

Twice as much ground will be used this year as in 1916 for gardens, but is not expected to produce an oversupply.

The crop committee will make a complete survey of the state at once, and will report about July 1.

Fair as "Food Training Camp."

The Minnesota State Fair, which is to be held Sept. 3 to 8, has tendered its services as a "food training camp" to President Wilson, to assist the government in its efforts to increase crop production, and reduce the waste of food in this country, which is known to be enormous.

Encourages Silo Building.

The state committee on food production and conservation will encourage this summer only one kind of building on the farm, and that is the silo. The silo saves all the feed in the corn, and in its effort for food conservation the state committee feels that silos are very necessary.

Pay for Guards' Border Service.

Minnesota has distributed $460,000 among the guardsmen for service on the Mexican border. Each guardsman who served the full period was paid about $120 at the 50 cents a day rate. The smallest checks were for $50. Captain Jerome Jackman, Battery F, Minneapolis, presented a payroll footing of $13,460.50. In addition to this reward to its soldiers the state has refunded nearly $6,000 tuition payments to about 200 soldier students at the University of Minnesota, under another 1917 reward law.

CANADA'S IMMIGRATION

Increased by About Sixty Per Cent in Past Six Months.

That Canada is at war is now more fully appreciated on this side of the boundary line, now that the United States has stepped alongside its northern neighbor and linked hands in the great struggle for a freer democracy throughout the civilized world. As a result of this a greater interest than ever is seen in the mutual effort to develop both the United States and Canada. Recently, just before the time that the United States declared its intention to enter the contest and contribute of its resources to the defeat of the autocracy, whose design was to permeate the world, Western Canada made an appeal for farm labor to till the fields and prepare the soil for the crops of grain that were necessary to feed the fighting forces and keep up the requirements necessary for the Allies. The responses were so great that before half the time limit expired, over six thousand laborers were secured. This was not sufficient, but once the United States was declared to be in a condition of war, and farm labor required here to meet any exigency as to short rations that might arise, the sister to the north, withdrew from attempts, which might mean a restriction of the farm labor supply in the United States. But even with this it is thought Canada will now be fairly well supplied.

Apart, however, from the farm labor proposition, it is gratifying from both a United States and Canadian point of view that the immigration of farmers to take up homestead lands and to purchase improved and unimproved land in Canada, has shown such a wonderful increase in the past three months. The great struggle for increasing the food supply has a broader and greater significance than ever. The food must come into existence, whether the rich soils of the United States or those of Canada be the factor.

It is altogether probable that the action of the Canadian Government in taking the duty off wheat going into Canada, thus automatically lifting the duty off that coming into the United States, may not be responsible for an increased immigration to Canada. Canada's reputation for growing larger average yields and a better quality of grain, and on lands, many of which are free, as well as those that range from $15 to $35 an acre, is an appeal that is being responded to by farmers who are now renting high-priced lands, is another reason for expecting an increasing number of farmers from the United States.

Mr. W. D. Scott, Superintendent of Immigration at Ottawa, Canada, recently gave out figures concerning immigration from the United States, which shows that the increase in the past three or four months was 60 per cent over the same period last year, and Mr. Scott forecasts that during the calendar year of 1917 there will be over one hundred per cent increase and be much heavier than for many years past. Mr. Scott declares that already this spring more settlers' effects have entered Canada than crossed during the whole of last year, and the movement has just merely started.

The new settlers are coming from numerous states through the ports of Emerson, North Portal and Coutts, as well as from Oregon and Washington, through Kingsgate and Vancouver.

There arrived in Saskatchewan during the year ending December 31, 1916, a total of 8,136 persons as compared with 5,812 during the twelve months previous. At the same time nearly twice as many immigrants passed through the immigration department at Edmonton, Alberta, in the last twelve months as for the same period of the year before.

The number of settlers from Eastern Canada migrating to the west also increased. From January 1 to March 31, 1917, the number of cars of stock that passed through the Winnipeg yards was 750, as compared with 361 last year. A fair estimate of the value of each car would be about $2,000, which means that the west has secured additional live stock to the value of $150,000 or more, during the first three months of 1917, not taking into account that brought in by immigrants from the United States.—Advertisement.

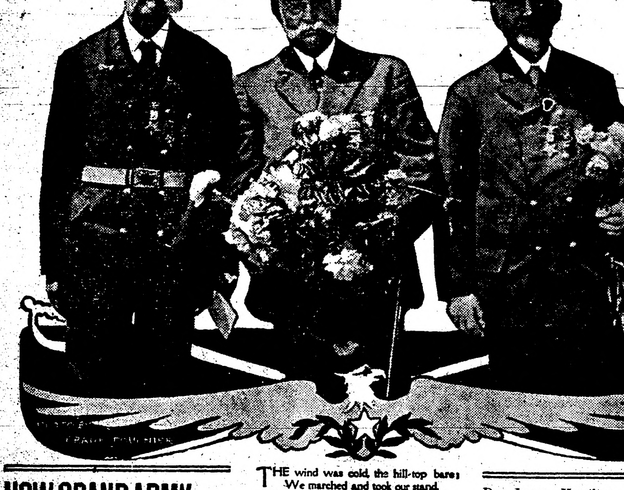
Ballad of Memorial Day



HOW GRAND ARMY CAME INTO BEING

Famous Organization Had Its Inception Before the Close of the Civil War.

GATHERED PATRIOTS IN FOLD

To Inculcate Loyalty to the Nation Which They Saved, and the Upholding of Its Institutions, the Foundation Stone of the Great Order.

THE earliest reliable written records of the Grand Army of the Republic were consumed at Boston during the great conflagration on Memorial day, 1873. Fortunately, however, although the early preliminary history is lost to the country, enough of printed and written records in other locations was found to enable the historians of the G. A. R. to piece out the interesting story of its birth.

In the quaint old hall of records at the national G. A. R. headquarters in Independence square, Philadelphia, the original minute-book of the national encampments, beginning with the Soldiers and Sailors' convention at Pittsburgh, September 25, 1866, may be seen carefully preserved among other historic G. A. R. literature.

It is a heavy sheepskin folio in good condition, of 780 pages, of which 353 are written upon. The minutes cover the story of the national encampments for the first six years, from 1867 to 1872, after which the proceedings were printed. These records and others of the departments contain the history of the Grand Army organization after it became an embodied fact. There is, however, because of the lost records a nebulous atmosphere about the movements leading up to its formation. But the organization, it is clearly known, is the evolution of the active political and social movements among the soldiers in the 12 months succeeding the close of the war.

IT SEEMS a far cry from the modern era of prosperous commercial and industrial peace in the United States back to the troubled days of '65 and '66, "when Johnny came marching home."

The discharged soldiers came back to meet and conquer with a soldier's courage a difficulty more complex and intangible than that of fighting an enemy—the problem of his own readjustment of the workaday world which he had left.

Previous to the war the general feeling had prevailed, as voiced by Gov. John A. Andrews, speaking of the people of Massachusetts, that the family of every man who enlisted should be fully provided for. The return of the soldier in health made it possible for him to resume responsibility. All he needed was an opportunity.

THE sentiment of patriotic supporters of the army was that the men who had given up their chance of advancement at home and of supporting their families in the many avenues of trade and commerce stimulated by the war who had returned with good record of service, wounded or disabled, should be entitled to consideration in the distribution of offices under the local, state and national government. Places of honor and profit, it was held, should be given to the veterans whose services and sacrifices had been so great. But politicians intrenched in office were not willing to

THE wind was cold, the hill-top bare;
We marched and took our stand.
Smith was the army we had there,
With Hawkins in command.

WE placed a flag above the mound,
And from a book I read,
"The Lord God bless this hallowed ground
Where lies the nation's dead."

THEN to the road we turned again
Hawkins and Smith and I,
The same as though a thousand men
Were in our company.

FOR not alone we three had come
To that one soldier's grave;
The wide land rife with tramp and drum,
Its immanent presence gave.

ITS voice, which filled the wayside pine,
Chanted of martial days;
It's great soul through our slender line,
Rendered memorial praise.

Stephen Tracy Livingston, in Harper's Weekly.

retire in favor of the army men; consequently clubs and societies of soldiers and their supporters for the promotion of their candidacy for positions of trust and emolument sprang up everywhere. There was soon a great host of organizations, among them the Boys in Blue, Soldiers and Sailors' league, Conservative Army and Navy Union, White Boys in Blue, Colored Soldiers' league—a vast mass of varied tinted bodies of assorted minds, who were destined to form the nucleus for the all-embracing G. A. R.

THE idea of the organization of the Grand Army of the Republic was really conceived, however, before the close of the war. The signer of the first general order, calling the first encampment in Indianapolis, November 20, 1866, carefully preserved in the venerable general order book in the Hall of Records at Philadelphia, was Maj. Benjamin Franklin Stephenson, provisional commander in chief in 1866 and the founder of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Major Stephenson was a native of Wayne county, Illinois, where he was born in 1822. Reared in poverty, but managing to wrest an education from difficult conditions, he entered the medical profession, graduating from Rush Medical college, Chicago, in 1851, and practicing in Petersburg, Ill. He enlisted and served three years as surgeon of the Fourteenth Illinois infantry and immediately after the war he resumed the practice of his profession, locating at Springfield, Ill. Major Stephenson during the war was closely associated with Chaplain William Rutledge, a Virginian by birth, a resident of Illinois and a Methodist preacher, who was his tentmate and bosom companion.

IT WAS while upon the campaign of Sherman's expedition to Meridian, Fla., in 1864, that Chaplain Rutledge is said to have made the fruitful suggestion to Major Stephenson that "soldiers so closely allied in fellowship of suffering would when mustered out desire some form of association to preserve the friendship and the memories of their common trials and dangers."

The two friends agreed that if spared they would work out together some plan of allegiance to meet the need. This suggestion and agreement proved to be the germ of the Grand Army of the Republic, the greatest and most influential body of veterans in the world. It was not until nearly a year after the grand muster out that Major Stephenson and Chaplain Rutledge met in Springfield and laid the foundation plans for the new national order. The work of a Missouri organization called the Grand Army of Progress suggested the form of ritual which was adopted and which was printed in great secrecy.

FOURTEEN charter members of the Grand Army participated in the first conference, and united 15 from the first historic pioneer G. A. R. post at Decatur, Ill., April 6, 1866. These men were Col. John M. Snyder, Dr. James Hamilton, Maj. R. M. Woods and 11 others.

The makers of the G. A. R., it appears, adopted, in part, the "title of officers" and the general organization of the Loyal Legion of the United States, the essential difference inhering in the terms of eligibility to office, the Loyal Legion restricting membership of the first class to officers.

The plan of organization embraced, first, the formation of precincts, called posts; second, county unions, called districts; third, state associations, known as departments, and the national organization formed originally of two delegates from each department.

The declaration of principles, a clear statement of the fraternal, patriotic and charitable purpose of the new organization, was introduced by a paragraph in high-sounding and rounded phraseology after the style of the times, as follows:

"THE soldiers of the Volunteer Army of the United States during the war of 1861-1865 actuated by the impulse and convictions of patriotism and eternal right; combined in the strong bonds of fellowship and unity by the toils, the dangers and the victories of a long and vigorously waged war, feel themselves called on to declare in definite form of words, and in determined co-operative action, those principles and rules which should guide the earnest patriot, the enlightened freeman and the Christian citizen in his course of action, and to agree upon those plans and laws which should govern them in a united and systematic working method with which in some measure shall be effected the preservation of the grand results of the war, the fruits of their labor and toil, so as to benefit the deserving and worthy."

The Grand Army organization, it appears, at first made little headway in the various states. In two years but thirteen states were permanently organized, the order being Illinois, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Maine, California, Nevada, Rhode Island, New Hampshire and Vermont. The chief cause of the slow progress seemed to be that the soldiers had become weary of organization in the ineffective clubs already referred to, which had grown into popular disfavor, and almost total disruption was threatened by the indifference and opposition of those who at first conceived the G. A. R. to be some sort of secret society of partisan proclivities.

MANY wise heads, however, recognized the power for good in the organization, and its future prosperity was happily assured by the adoption of a resolution of the national encampment of 1868 that the purpose of the G. A. R. is "to secure the rights of these defenders of their country by all moral, social and political means in our control."

Emphasis was appropriately placed on the primary objects of the organization to maintain and strengthen the fraternal feelings which bind together the soldiers and marines of the Civil war, to perpetuate the memory and history of those who have died, and to lend assistance to the needy and to their widows and orphans, and all distinctions of party, creed, rank or color were eliminated.

Message Held Most Dear.

In my native town there is a monument that crowns its central hill—a plain white shaft, writes a correspondent of the Boston Globe. Deep cut into its shining side is a name dear to me above the names of men. Not for all the glories of America, from Plymouth Rock all the way, would I exchange the heritage he left me in his soldier's death. This message comes from consecrated ground—sacred soil to all of us—rich in memories that make us purer and stronger and better, an eloquent witness in its white peace.

School Program.

The Holt Public School gave a fine patriotic program to an appreciative audience Wednesday evening at the school house. The doors between the two rooms were thrown open, affording a large and commodious assembly room fit for the occasion. There were twenty five numbers and each pupil, both little and big, seemed bent on doing their best, which reflects credit on the instructors, and greatly pleased the audience. While there was a spirit of patriotism running through the whole program, yet the Flag Drill and the Patriotic Hoe was inspiring and was met with hearty applause. Rev. Ordahl gave a Memorial address emphasizing true patriotism for our beloved country. The closing number, which was the Statute of Liberty shown in red light, was beautiful and a fitting conclusion to the evenings entertainment.
